16 When I heard, my belly s trembled: my lips quivered at the voice: rottenness entred into my bones, and I trembled in my self, that I might rest in the day of trouble: when he cometh up unto the people, he will invade them with his troops.

17 Although the fig-tree shall not blossom, neither shall fruit be in the vines, the labour of the olive † shall fail, and the fields shall yield no meat, the flock shall be cut off from the fold, and there shall be no herd in the stalls:

18 Yet I will t rejoyce in the LORD, I will joy in the God of my salvation.

19 The LORD God is my u strength, & he will make x my feet like hindes feet, and he will make me to walk upon mine high places. To the chief singer on my stringed instruments.

ZEPHANIAH.

CHAP. I.

God's severe judgments against Judah for divers sins.

THe a word of ℣ LORD which came unto Zephaniah the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hizkiah, in the days of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah.

2 I will utterly b consume all things from off the land, saith the LORD.

3 I will consume c man and beast: I will consume the fowls of the heaven, and ℣ fishes of the sea, and the d stumblingblocks e with the wicked; & I will cut off man from off the land, saith the Lord.

4 I will also stretch out mine hand upon Judah, & upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, & I will cut off the remnant of e Baal from this place, & the name of the Chemarims e with the priests;

5 And them that worship the host of heaven upon the house-tops, and them that worship, and that f swear by the LORD, and that swear by Malcham;

6 And them ℣ are g turned back from the LORD, and those that have h not sought the Lord, nor enquired for him.

7 i Hold thy peace at ℣ presence of the LORD God: for the day of the Lord is at hand: for ℣ LORD hath prepared k a sacrifice, he hath bid his guests.

8 And it shall come to pass in the day of the LORDS sacrifice, that I will punish the princes and the l kings children, and all such as are clothed with strange apparel.

9 In the same day also will I punish all those that leap on the threshold, which m fill their masters houses with violence and deceit.

10 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD, that there shall be the n noise of a cry from ℣ fish-gate, and an howling from the second, and a great crashing from the hills.

11 o Howl ye inhabitants of Maktesh, for all the merchant people are cut down: all they that bear silver are cut off.

12 And it shall come to pass at that time, that I will p search Jerusalem with candles, and punish the men that are q settled on their lees: that say in their heart, The LORD will not do r good, neither will he do evil.

13 Therefore their goods s shall become a booty, and their houses a desolation: they shall also build houses, but not inhabit them: and they shall plant vineyards, but not drink the wine thereof.

14 The t great day of ℣ LORD is near, it is near, and hasteth greatly, even the voice of the day of the LORD: the mighty man shall cry there bitterly.

15 u That day is a day of wrath, a day of trouble and distress, a day of wasteness & desolation, a day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness,

16 A day of the x trumpet and alarm against the fenced cities, and against the high towers.

17 And I will bring distress upon men, ℣ they shall walk like y blind men, because they have sinned against ℣ Lord: and their blood shall be z poured out as dust, and their flesh as the dung.

18 Neither their silver nor their gold shall a be able to deliver them in the day of the LORDS wrath, but the whole land shall be devoured by the fire of his jealousie: for he shall make even a b speedy riddance of all them that dwell in the land.

CHAP. II.

An exhortation to repentance.

GAther your selves together, yea, gather together, O nation a not desired:

2 Before ℣ b decree bring forth, before the day pass as the chaff, before the c fierce anger of the LORD come upon you, before the day of the LORDS anger come upon you.

3 Seek ye the LORD, all ye d meek of the earth, which have wrought his judgment; seek righteousness, seek meekness: it may be ye shall be e hid in the day of the LORDS anger.

4 For Gaza shall be forsaken, and Ashkelon a desolation: they shall drive out Ashdod at the f noon-day, and Ekron shall be rooted up.

5 Wo unto the inhabitants of the sea-coast, the nation of the g Cherethites! the word of the LORD is against you; h O Canaan, the land of the Philistins, I will even destroy thee, that there shall be no inhabitant.

6 And the sea-coast shall be dwellings and cottages for shepherds, and folds for flocks.

7 And the coast shall be for the k remnant of the house of Judah, they shall feed thereupon, in the houses of Ashkelon shall they lie down in ℣ evening: for the LORD their God shall visit them, & m turn away their captivity.

8 ¶ I have heard the n reproach of Moab, & the revilings of the children of Ammon, whereby they have reproached my people, and magnified themselves against their border.

9 Therefore as I live, saith the LORD of hosts ℣ God of Israel, Surely o Moab shall be as Sodom, and the children of Ammon as Gomorrah, even the breeding of nettles, and salt-pits, and a perpetual desolation, the residue of my people shall p spoil them, and the remnant of my people shall possess them.

10 This shall they have for their q pride, because they have reproached and magnified themselves against the people of the LORD of hosts.

11 The LORD will be terrible unto them: for he will r famish all the gods of the earth; and men shall worship him, every one from his s place, even all the isles of the heathen.

12 Ye Ethiopians also, ye shall be t slain by my sword.

13 And he will stretch out his hand against the north, & destroy u Assyria, and will make Nineveh a desolation, and dry like a wilderness.

14 And flocks shall lie down in ℣ midst of her, all the x beasts of the nations: both the cormorant & the bittern shall lodge in the upper lintels of it: their voice shall sing in the windows, desolation shall be in the thresholds: for he shall uncover the cedar-work.

15 This is the rejoycing city that dwelt y carelessly, ℣ said in her heart, z I am, & there is none beside me: how is it become a desolation, a place for beasts to lie down in! every one that passeth by her, shall a hiss and wag his hand.

6 I have o cut off the nations: their towers are deſolate; I made their ſtreets waſte, p none paſſeth by: their cities are deſtroyed, ſo that there is no man, that there is none inhabitant.

7 I ſaid, Surely thou will q fear me: thou will receive inſtruction, r ſo their dwelling ſhould not be cut off, howſoever I puniſhed them: but they roſe early, and corrupted all their doings.

8 ¶ Therefore s wait ye upon me, ſaith the LORD, until the day that I riſe up to the prey: for my determination is to t gather the nations, that I may aſſemble the kingdoms, to pour upon them mine indignation, even all my fierce anger: for all the earth ſhall be devoured with u fire of my jealouſie.

than I will take away out of the midſt of thee them that rejoyce in thy pride, and thou ſhalt no more be haughty becauſe of mine holy mountain.

12 I will alſo leave in c the midſt of thee d an afflicted & poor people, and they ſhall truſt in the Name of the LORD.

13 The remnant of Iſrael ſhall e not do iniquity, nor ſpeak lies: neither ſhall a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth: for they ſhall feed and lie down, & none ſhall make them afraid.

14 f Sing, O daughter of Zion, ſhout O Iſrael; be glad and rejoyce with all the heart, O daughter of Jeruſalem!

15 The LORD hath taken away thy judgments, he hath g caſt out thine enemy: the h king of Iſrael, even the LORD is in the midſt of thee: thou ſhalt not ſee evil any more.

16 In that day it ſhall be ſaid to Jeruſalem, Fear thou not: and to Zion, Let not thine hands be ſlack.

17 The Lord thy God in i midſt of thee is mighty; he will ſave, he will rejoyce over thee with joy; he will reſt in his love, he will joy over thee k ſinging.

18 I will l gather them m are ſorrowful for n ſolemn aſſembly, who are of thee, to whom the reproach of it was a burden.

19 Behold at that time I will o undo all that afflict thee, and I will ſave her that halteth, and gather her that was driven out, and I will get them p praiſe and fame in every land, where they have been put to ſhame.

20 At that time will I bring you again, even in the time that I gather you: for I will make you a name and a praiſe among all people of the earth, when I q turn back your captivity before your eyes, r ſaith the LORD.

HAGGAI.

CHAP. I.

1 Haggai reproveth the people for neglecting the building of the houſe: 7 He inciteth them to the building.

IN the a ſecond year of Darius the king, in the ſixth moneth, in the firſt day of the moneth, came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet unto b Zerubbabel the ſon of Shealtiel, governour of Judah, and to c Joſhua the ſon of Joſedech the high prieſt, ſaying,

2 Thus ſpeaketh the LORD of hoſts, ſaying, This people d ſay, The time is not come, the time that the LORD's houſe ſhould be built.

3 e Then came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet, ſaying, 4 Is it f time for you, O ye, to dwell b in your cieled houſes, and this houſe lie waſte?

5 Now therefore, thus ſaith the LORD of hoſts, i Conſider your ways.

6 Ye have k ſown much, and bring in little; ye eat, but ye have not enough; ye drink, but ye are not filled l drink; ye clothe you, but there is none warm; and he that earneth wages, earneth wages to put it into a bag with holes.

7 ¶ Thus ſaith the LORD of hoſts, g Conſider your ways.

8 Go up to the mountain, and bring wood, and m build the houſe; & I will take pleaſure in it, and I will be glorified, ſaith the LORD.

9 Ye looked for much, and lo it came to little; and when ye brought it home, I did n blow upon it: why ſaith the LORD of hoſts? o becauſe of mine houſe that is waſte, and ye run every man unto his own houſe.

10 Therefore the p heaven over you

15 And now I pray you, consider y from this day and upward, from before z a stone was laid upon a stone in the temple of the LORD.
16 Since those days were, when one came to an heap of twenty measures, there were but ten: when one came to the press-fat for to draw out fifty vessels out of the press, there were but twenty.
17 I smote you with a blasting, and with mildew, and with hail, in all the labours of your hands; b yet ye turned not to me, saith the LORD.
18 Consider now from c this day, and upward, from the four and twentieth day of the ninth moneth, even from the day that the d foundation of the LORDS temple was laid, consider it.
19 Is the seed yet in the barn? yea, as yet the vine, and the fig-tree, and the pomgranate, and the olive-tree hath not brought forth: from this day will e I bless you.
20 And f again the word of the LORD came unto Haggai, in the four and twentieth day of the moneth, saying,
21 Speak to Zerubbabel governour of Judah, saying, I will g shake the heavens and the earth, 22 And I will overthrow the h throne of kingdoms, and I will destroy i strength of the kingdoms of the heathen, and I will overthrow the chariots, and those that ride in them, and the horses and their riders shall come down, k every one by the sword of his brother.
23 In l that day, saith the Lord of hosts, will I take thee, O Zerubbabel my servant, m son of Shealtiel, saith the LORD, & will make thee as a signet: for I have n chosen thee, saith the LORD of hosts.

ZECHARIAH.

CHAP. I.

1 Zechariah exhorteth to repentance. 7 A vision of horses. 12 Comfortable promises to Jerusalem.

IN the a eighth moneth, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto Zechariah the son of b Barachiah, the son of Iddo the prophet, saying,
2 The LORD hath been c sore displeased with your fathers.
3 Therefore say thou unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Turn ye unto me, saith the Lord of hosts, & d I will turn unto you, saith the LORD of hosts.
4 Be ye not e as your fathers, unto whom f former prophets have cryed, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Turn ye now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings: but they did not hear, nor hearken unto me, saith the Lord.
5 Your fathers, g where are they? and the prophets, do they live for ever?
6 But my words and my statutes, which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not g take hold of your fathers? and they returned and said, Like as the LORD of hosts thought to do unto us, according to our ways, & according to our doings, h so hath he dealt with us.
7 Upon the four and twentieth day of the eleventh moneth, which is the moneth Sebat, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto Zechariah, i son of Barachiah, the son of Iddo the prophet, saying,
8 I saw by night, and behold, k a man riding upon a red horse, & he stood among the l myrtle-trees that were in the bottom, and behind him were there red horses speckled and white.
9 Then said I, O my LORD, m what are these? And the angel that talked with me, said unto me, I will shew thee what these be.
10 And the man that stood among the myrtle-trees answered and said, These are they whom the LORD hath n sent to walk to and fro through the earth.
11 And they answered the angel of the LORD that stood among the myrtle-trees, and said, We have o walked to and fro through the earth, & behold, all the earth p sitteth still, and is at rest.
12 Then the q angel of the LORD answered, and said, O Lord of hosts, r how long wilt thou not have mercy on Jerusalem, and on the cities of Judah, against which thou hast had indignation these s threescore and ten years?
13 And the LORD answered the angel that talked with me, with t good words, and comfortable words.
14 So the angel that communed with me, said unto me, Cry thou, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I am u jealous for Jerusalem, and for Zion with a great jealousie.
15 And I am x very sore displeased with the heathen that are at ease: for I was but a little displeased, and they y helped forward the affliction.
16 Therefore thus saith the LORD, z I am returned to Jerusalem with mercies: a my house shall be built in it, saith 18 Then lift I up mine eyes, and saw, and behold c four horns.

19 And I said unto the angel that talked with me, What be these? & he answered me, These are d horns which have scattered Judah, Israel, & Jerusalem.

20 And the LORD shewed me four e carpenters.

21 Then said I, What come these to do? and he spake, saying, These are the horns f which scattered Judah, so that no man did lift up his head: but these are come to fray them, to cast out the horns of the Gentiles, which lift up their g horn over the land of Judah to scatter it.

CHAP. II.

1 God's care of Jerusalem. 6 The redemption of Zion.

I Lift up mine eyes again, and looked, and behold, a man with a a measuring line in his hand.

2 Then said I, Whither goest thou? and he said unto me, To measure Jerusalem, to see what is the b breadth thereof, & what is the length thereof.

3 And behold, the angel that talked with me, went forth and c another angel went out to meet him,

4 And said unto him, Run, speak to this young man, saying, Jerusalem shall be inhabited as d towns without walls for e multitude of men & cattel therein.

5 For I, saith the LORD, will be unto her a wall of fire round about, and will be the glory in the midst of her.

6 Ho, ho, come forth, and f flee from the land of the north, saith the LORD: for I have g spread you abroad as the four winds of the heaven, saith the LORD.

7 h Deliver thy self, O Zion, that dwellest with the daughter of Babylon.

8 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, After the i glory hath he sent me unto the k nations which spoiled you: for he that l toucheth you, toucheth the apple of his eye.

9 For behold, I will m shake mine hand upon them, & they shall be n a spoil to their servants: and ye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me.

10 o Sing and rejoyce, O daughter of Zion: for lo, I come, and I will dwell in the midst of thee, saith the LORD.

11 And p many nations shall be joyned to the Lord in that day, and shall be my people; & I will dwell in the midst of thee, and thou shalt know that the Lord of hosts hath sent me unto thee.

12 And the LORD shall q inherit Judah his portion in the holy land, and shall chuse Jerusalem again.

13 r Be silent, O all flesh, before the LORD: for he is s raised up out of his holy habitation.

CHAP. III.

1 Under the type of Joshua, the restauration of the church. 8 and Christ the Branch is promised.

AND he shewed me Joshua the high priest, standing before the a angel of the LORD, & Satan standing at his right hand to resist him.

2 And the LORD said unto Satan, The LORD b rebuke thee, O Satan, even the LORD that hath chosen Jerusalem, rebuke thee: c is not this d a brand plucked out of the fire?

3 Now Joshua was clothed with filthy garments, and stood before the angel.

4 And he answered and spake unto those that stood before him, saying, Take away the filthy garments from him. And unto him he said, Behold, I have e caused thine iniquity to pass from thee, and I will clothe thee with f change of raiment.

5 And I said, Let them set g a fair mitre upon his head: so they set a fair mitre on his head, and clothed him with garments; and the angel of the LORD stood by.

6 And the angel of the LORD protested unto Joshua, saying,

7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, If thou wilt walk in my ways, & if thou wilt keep my charge, then thou shalt also judge my house, & shalt also keep my courts, and I will give thee places to walk among these that stand by.

8 Hear now, O Joshua the high priest, thou and thy fellows that sit before thee: for they are men k wondred at: for behold, I will bring forth my servant the l BRANCH.

9 For behold, the m stone that I have laid before Joshua; upon one stone shall be n seven eyes, behold, I will o engrave the graving thereof, saith the LORD of hosts, & I will p remove the iniquity of that land in one day.

10 In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, shall ye call every man his neighbour q under the vine and under the fig-tree.

CHAP. IV.

By the golden candlestick is foreshewed the good success of Zerubbabel's foundation.

AND the angel that talked with me, came again and a waked me, as a man that is wakened out of his sleep,

2 And said unto me, What seest thou? and I said, I have looked, & behold, a b candlestick all of gold, with c a bowl upon the top of it, and his seven d lamps thereon, and seven e pipes to the seven lamps, which were upon the f top thereof,

3 And g two olive-trees by it, one upon the right side of the bowl, and the other upon the left side thereof.

4 So I answered and spake to the angel that talked with me, saying, h What are these, my lord?

5 Then the angel that talked with me, answered and said unto me, Knowest thou not what these be? and I said, k No, my Lord.

6 Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, This is the word of the LORD unto Zerubbabel, saying, l Not by might, nor by power, m but by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts.

7 Who art thou, n O great mountain? before Zerubbabel thou shalt become a plain, and he shall bring forth the head stone thereof with o shoutings, crying, Grace, grace unto it.

8 Moreover, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house, his hands shall also p finish it; and thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto you.

10 For who hath despised the q day of small things? for they shall rejoyce, and shall see the plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel with those seven, they are the q eyes of the LORD, which run to and fro through the whole earth.

11 Then answered I, and said unto him, What are these two olive-trees r upon the right side of the candlestick, and upon the left side thereof?

12 And I answered again, & said unto him, What be these two olive-branches, s which through two golden pipes s empty

CHAP. V.

By the flying roll is shewed the curse of thieves and swearers.

THen I turned, & lift up mine eyes, & looked, & behold, a a flying roll.
2 And he said unto me, What seest thou? and I answered, I see a flying roll: the b length thereof is twenty cubits, and the c breadth thereof ten cubits.
3 Then said he unto me, This is the d curse ✝ goeth forth over the face of ✝ whole earth: for every one ✝ stealeth, shal be cut off as on this side, according to it: and everyone that sweareth, shall be cut off as on ✝ side, according to it.
4 I will bring it forth, saith the LORD of hosts, and it shall e enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him ✝ sweareth falsly by my Name: and it shall remain in the midst of his house, and shall consume it, with the timber thereof, and the stones thereof.
5 Then the angel that talked with me, went forth, and said unto me, f Lift up now thine eyes, and see what is this that goeth forth.
6 And I said, What is it? And he said, This is g an ephah that goeth forth. He said moreover, This is their resemblance through all the earth.
7 And behold, there was lift up a h talent of lead: & this is i a woman that sitteth in the midst of the ephah.
8 And he said, This is k wickedness; and he cast it into the midst of the ephah, and he cast the weight of lead upon l the mouth thereof.
9 Then lift I up mine eyes, and looked, & behold, there came out m two women, and the wind was in their wings, (for they had n wings like wings of a stork) and they lift up the ephah between the earth and the heaven.
10 Then said I to ✝ angel that talked with me, Whither do these bear ✝ ephah?
11 And he said unto me, To build o an house in the land of o Shinar, & it shall be established, and set p there upon her own base.

1 The vision of chariots. 9 By Joshua's crowns is shewed the temple and Kingdom of Christ the Branch.

AND I turned, and lift up mine eyes, & looked, and behold, there came four a chariots out from between two mountains, and the mountains were mountains of b brass.
2 In the first chariot were c red horses, & in the second chariot d black horses,
3 And in the third chariot e white horses, and in the fourth chariot grizled and bay horses.
4 Then I answered, and said unto the angel that talked with me, What are these, my lord?
5 And the angel answered & said unto me, These are the four f spirits of the heavens, which go forth from g standing before the LORD of all the earth.
6 The black horses which are therein, go forth into h the north countrey, & the white go forth after them, & the grizled go forth toward i the south countrey.
7 And the k bay went forth, & sought to go, that they might walk to and fro through ✝ earth: and l he said, Get ye hence, walk to and fro through the earth. So they walked to and fro through the earth.
8 Then cried he upon me, and spake unto me, saying, Behold, these that go toward ✝ north countrey, have m quieted my spirit in the north countrey.
9 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
10 o Take of them of p captivity, even of Heldai, of Tobijah, and of Jedaiah which are come from Babylon, & come thou the p same day, and go into the house of Josiah the son of Zephaniah;
11 Then take silver and gold, and make q crowns, and set them upon the head of Joshua, the son of Josedech the high priest;
12 And speak unto him, saying, Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, Behold, the r man whose name is the s BRANCH, and he shall grow up out of his place, and he shall t build the temple of the LORD:
13 Even he shall build the temple of the LORD; and he shall bear the u glory, & shall x sit and rule upon his throne, and he shall be a priest upon his throne, and the counsel of peace shall be between them both.
14 And the crowns shall be to Helem, and to Tobijah, and to Jedaiah, & to Hen the son of Zephaniah, for y a memorial in the temple of the LORD.
15 And they ✝ are z far off shall come and build in the temple of the Lord, and ye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto you. And this shall come to pass, if ye will diligently obey the voice of the Lord your God.

CHAP. VII.

The captives enquire of fasting.

AND it came to pass in the a fourth year of king Darius, that the word of the LORD came unto Zechariah in the fourth day of the ninth moneth, even in b Chisleu;
2 When they had c sent unto ✝ house of God, Sherezer, and Regem-melech, & their men to pray before the Lord:

6 And when ye did eat, and when ye did drink, did not ye eat l for your selves, and drink for your selves?
7 Should ye not m hear ✝ words which the LORD hath cried by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited, and in prosperity, and the cities thereof round about her, when men inhabited the south of the plain?
8 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto Zechariah, saying,
9 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, Execute n true judgment, and shew mercy and compassions every man to his brother:
10 And o oppress not the widow, nor the fatherless, the stranger, nor the poor; and let none of you imagine evil against his brother in your heart.
11 But they refused to hearken, and p pulled away the shoulder, & stopped their ears, that they should not hear.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Jerusalem restored. 16 God works required. 18 Enlargement promised.

AGain the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying,

2 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, I was a jealous for Zion with great jealousie, & I was jealous for her with great fury.

3 Thus saith the LORD, I am returned unto Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem, & Jerusalem shall be called a city of truth, and the mountain of the LORD of hosts, the holy mountain.

4 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, There shall yet old men & old women dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, & every man with his staff in his hand for very age.

5 And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in the streets thereof.

6 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, If it be marvellous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in these days, should it also be marvellous in mine eyes? saith the LORD of hosts.

7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will save my people from the east country, and from the west country;

8 And I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem, & they shall be my people, and I will be their God in truth and in righteousness.

9 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Let your hands be strong, ye that hear in these days these words by the mouth of the prophets, which were in the day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, that the temple might be built.

10 For before these days there was no hire for man, nor any hire for beasts, neither was there any peace to him that went out or came in, because of the affliction: for I set all men every one against his neighbour.

11 But now I will not be unto the residue of this people as in the former days, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 For the seed shall be prosperous the vine shall give her fruit, and the ground shall give her increase, & the heavens shall give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all these things.

13 And it shall come to pass, that as ye were a curse among the heathen, O house of Judah, and house of Israel; so will I save you, and ye shall be a blessing: fear not, but let your hands be strong.

14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, As I thought to punish you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath, saith the LORD of hosts, and I repented not:

15 So again have I thought in these days to do well unto Jerusalem and to the house of Judah: fear ye not.

16 ¶ These are the things that ye shall do, Speak ye every man the truth to his neighbour: execute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates.

17 And let none of you imagin evil in your hearts against his neighbour, & love no false oath: for all these are things that I hate, saith the LORD.

18 ¶ And the word of the LORD of hosts came unto me, saying,

19 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, The fast of the fourth month, & the fast of the fifth, and the fast of the seventh, & the fast of the tenth shall be to the house of Judah joy and gladness, and cheerful feasts: therefore love the truth and peace.

20 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, It shall yet come to pass, that there shall come people, and the inhabitants of many cities.

21 And the inhabitants of one city shall go to another, saying, Let us go speedily to pray before the LORD, and to seek the LORD of hosts: I will go also.

22 Yea, many people and strong nations shall come to seek the LORD of hosts in Jerusalem, and to pray before the LORD.

23 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, In those days it shall come to pass, that ten men shall take hold out of all languages of the nations, even shall take hold of the skirt of him that is a Jew, saying, We will go with you, for we have heard that God is with you.

CHAP. IX.

1 God defendeth his church. 9 Zion is exhorted to rejoyce for the coming of Christ. 12 Goas promises.

THE burden of the word of the LORD in the land of Hadrach, & Damascus shall be the rest thereof: when the eyes of man, as of all the tribes of Israel shall be toward the LORD.

2 And Hamath also shall border thereby; Tyrus and Zidon, though it be very wise.

3 And Tyrus did build herself a strong hold, and heaped up silver as the dust, and fine gold as the mire of the streets.

4 Behold, the LORD will cast her out, and he will smite her power in the sea, and she shall be devoured with fire.

5 Ashkelon shall see it, and fear; Gaza also shall see it and be very sorrowful, and Ekron: for her expectation shall be ashamed, and the king shall perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon shall not be inhabited.

6 And a bastard shall dwell in Ashdod, and I will cut off the pride of the Philistins.

7 And I will take away his blood out of his mouth, and his abominations from between his teeth: but he that remaineth, even he shall be for our God, and he shall be as a governour in Judah, and Ekron as a Jebusite.

8 And I will encamp about my house because of the army, because of him that passeth by, and because of him that returneth: and no more oppressour shall pass through them any more: for now have I seen with mine eyes.

9 ¶ Rejoyce greatly, O daughter of Zion: shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold, thy king cometh unto thee: he is just, and having salvation, lowly, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass.

10 And I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim, and the horse from Jerusalem, and the battel bowe shall be cut off: & he shall speak peace unto the heathen: and his dominion shall be from sea even to sea, and from the river even to the ends of the earth.

11 As for thee also, by the blood of thy covenant, I have sent forth thy prisoners out of the pit, wherein is no water.

17 For c how great is his goodneſs, and how great is his beauty? corn ſhall make the young men d cheerful, and new wine the maids.

CHAP. X.

1 God is to be ſought unto, and not idols, 5 He will ſave and ſtrengthen his flock.

ASk ye of the LORD rain in the time of the latter rain, ſo the LORD ſhall make bright clouds, and give them ſhowers of rain, to every one graſs in the field.
2 For the idols have ſpoken b vanity, and the diviners have ſeen a lie, and have told falſe dreams; they comfort in vain: therefore they went their way as a flock, they were troubled, becauſe there was no c ſhepherd.
3 Mine anger was kindled againſt the d ſhepherds, & I puniſhed ȝ e goats: for the Lord of hoſts hath viſited his flock the houſe of Judah, and hath made them as his goodly horſe in the battel.
4 Out of him came forth the f corner, out of him the g nail, out of him the battel-bowe, out of him every oppreſſour together.
5 ¶ And they ſhall be as h mighty men, which tread down their enemies in ȝ mire of the ſtreets in ȝ battel, and they ſhall fight, because the LORD is i with them, & riders on horſes ſhall be confounded.
6 And I will ſtrengthen the houſe of Judah, and I will ſave the houſe of Joſeph, and I will k bring them again to place them; for I have mercy upon them: & they ſhall be as though I had not caſt them off: for I am the LORD their God, and will hear them.
7 And they of Ephraim ſhall be like a m mighty man, and their heart ſhall rejoyce, as n through wine: yea, their children ſhall ſee it, and be glad, their heart ſhall rejoyce in the LORD.
8 I will o hiſs for them, & gather them, for I have redeemed them: and they ſhall p increaſe as they have increated.
9 And I will q ſowe them among the people: and they ſhall remember me in far countreys, and they ſhall r live with their children, and turn again.
10 I will bring them again alſo out of the land of s Egypt, and gather them out of Aſſyria, and I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon, & place ſhall not be found for them.
11 And he ſhall paſs through the ſea with affliction, & ſhall ſmite the waves in the ſea, and all the deeps of the rivers ſhall dry up: & the pride of Aſſyria ſhall be brought down, and the ſcepter of Egypt ſhall depart away.
12 And I will ſtrengthen them in the LORD; and they ſhall walk up and down in his name, ſaith the LORD.

CHAP. XI.

1 Jeruſalem's rejection. 3 Some ſaved for, ſome rejected. 10 The ſtaves broken. 15 A foolish ſhepherd is raiſed.

OPen thy doors, O Lebanon, that t the fire may devour thy cedars.
2 Howl fir-tree, for the cedar is fallen; becauſe all the u mighty are ſpoiled: howl, O ye oaks of Baſhan, for the forreſt of the vintage is come down.
3 ¶ There is a voice of the howling of x ſhepherds; for their y glory is ſpoiled: a voice of the roaring of young lions: for the pride of Jordan is ſpoiled.
4 Thus ſaith the LORD my God; z Feed the flock of the ſlaughter;
5 Whoſe a poſſeſſours ſlay them, and hold themſelves b not guilty: and they that ſell them ſay, c Bleſſed be the LORD, for I am rich: and their own ſhepherds pity them not.
6 For I will no more d pity the inhabitants of the land, ſaith the Lord: but lo, I will deliver the men every one into his neighbours hand, & into the hand of his e king: and they ſhall ſmite the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them.
7 And I will feed the flock of ſlaughter, even you, O f poor of the flock: and I took unto me two ſtaves; the one I called g Beauty, and the other I called h Bands, and I fed the flock.
8 i Three ſhepherds alſo I cut off in one moneth, and my ſoul k loathed them, and their ſoul alſo abhorred me.
9 Then ſaid I, I will not feed you: l that that dieth, let it die, & that that is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let the reſt eat every one the fleſh of another.
10 And I took my ſtaff, even Beauty, and m cut it aſunder, that I might break my covenant which I had made with this people.
11 And it was broken in that day: and ſo the n poor of the flock that waited upon me, knew that it was the word of the LORD.
12 And I ſaid unto them, If ye think good, give me my price; and if not, forbear: ſo they weighed for my price x thirty pieces of ſilver.
13 And the LORD ſaid unto me, Caſt it unto the y potter: a z goodly price that I was valued at of them. And I took thirty pieces of ſilver, and caſt them to the potter in the houſe of the LORD.
14 Then I cut aſunder mine other ſtaff, even Bands, that I might a break the brotherhood between Judah & Iſrael.
15 ¶ And the LORD ſaid unto me, Take unto thee yet the inſtruments of a b fooliſh ſhepherd.
16 For lo, I will raiſe up a ſhepherd in the land, which ſhall not viſit thoſe that be cut off, neither ſhall ſeek the young one, nor heal that that is broken, nor feed that that ſtandeth ſtill: but he ſhall eat the fleſh of the fat, and tear their clawſin pieces.
17 Wo to the c idol ſhepherd that leaveth the flock: the ſword ſhall be upon his arm, and upon his right eye: his arm ſhall be clean dried up, and his right eye ſhall be utterly darkned.

4 In that day, saith the LORD, I will c smite every horse with astonishment, and his rider with madness, and I will d open mine eyes upon the house of Judah, and will smite every horse of the people with blindness.

5 And the e governours of Judah shall say in their heart, The inhabitants of Jerusalem shall be my strength in the LORD of hosts their God.

6 In that day will I make the governours of Judah like a hearth of fire among the wood, and like a torch of fire in a sheaf; and they shall k devour all the people round about, on the right hand and on the left: and Jerusalem shall be inhabited again, even in her own place, even in Jerusalem.

7 The LORD also shall l save the tents of Judah first, that the glory of the house of David, and the m glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, do not magnifie themselves against Judah.

8 In that day shall the LORD n defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and he that is feeble among them at that day shall be as David, and the house of David shall be o as God, as the angel of the LORD before them.

9 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will seek to destroy p all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

10 And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the q spirit of grace and of supplications: and they shall r look upon me whom they have pierced, & they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only s son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his first-born.

11 In that day shall there be a great mourning in Jerusalem, as the mourning of t Hadadrimmon in the valley of u Megiddon.

12 And the x land shall mourn, every family apart; the family of the house of David apart, & their wives y apart: the family of the house of z Nathan apart, and their wives apart:

13 The family of the house of Levi apart, & their wives apart: the family of a Shimei apart, & their wives apart:

14 All the families that remain, every family apart, and their wives apart.

CHAP. XIII.

Jerusalem's purgation from idolatry.
7. The death of Christ, and the trial of a third part.

1 IN that day there shall a be a fountain opened to the house of David, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for b sin, and for uncleanness.

2 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that I will cut off the c names of the idols out of the land, and they shall no more be remembered: and also I will cause the d prophets, and the unclean spirit to pass out of the land.

3 And it shall come to pass, that when any shall yet prophesie, then his e father & his mother, & they that begat him, shall say unto him, Thou shalt not live; for thou speakest lies in the Name of the LORD: and his father, and his mother that begat him, shall thrust him through when he prophesieth.

4 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the prophets shall be ashamed every one of his vision, when he hath prophesied; neither shall they wear b a rough garment to deceive:

5 But he shall say, I am no a prophet, I am an husband-man; for man taught me to keep cattel from my youth.

6 And one shall say unto him, What are these k wounds in thine hands? Then he shall answer, Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.

7 ¶ l Awake, O sword, against my m shepherd, & against the man that is my fellow, saith the LORD of hosts: n smite the shepherd, & the sheep shall be scattered: and I will turn mine hand upon the o little ones.

8 And it shall come to pass, that in all the land, saith the LORD, p two parts therein shall be cut off and die; but the q third shall be left therein.

9 And I will bring the third part r through the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried: they shall call on my name, and I will hear them: I will say, It is my people: and they shall say, The LORD is my God.

CHAP. XIV.

The destroyer of Jerusalem destroyed.
4. Christ coming and kingdom.

1 BEhold, the day of the LORD cometh, and thy spoil shall be divided in the midst of thee.

2 For I will a gather all nations against Jerusalem to battel, and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the b women ravished, & c half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the d residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city.

3 Then shall the LORD e go forth, and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battel.

4 ¶ And his feet f shall stand in that day upon the g mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east, and the mount of Olives shall cleave in the midst thereof toward the east, and toward the west, & there shall be: h a very great valley; and half of the mountain shall remove toward the north, and half of it toward the south.

5 And ye shall flee to the valley of the i mountains: for the valley of y mountains shall reach unto Azal: yea, ye shall flee like as ye fled from before k earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah: and the LORD my God shall come, and all the l saints with thee.

6 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the light shall not be clear, nor dark.

7 But it shall be m one day, n & shall be known to the LORD, not day, nor night: but it shall come to pass that o at evening-time it shall be light.

8 And it shall be in p day q that living waters shall go out from Jerusalem; half of them toward the former sea, & half of them toward the hinder sea: in summer and in winter shall it be.

9 And the LORD shall be q king over all the earth: in that day shall there be one LORD, and his name one.

10 All the land shall be turned as a plain, from Geba to Rimmon, south of Jerusalem: & it shall be lifted up, & inhabited in her place, from Benjamin's gate unto the place of the first gate, unto the corner-gate. And from the tower of Hananeel unto the kings wine-presses.

11 And men shall dwell in it, and there shall be no more utter destruction, but Jerusalem shall be safely inhabited.

12 And this shall be the r plague wherewith the LORD will smite all the people that have fought against Jerusalem; their flesh shall consume away while they stand upon their feet and ✝ MALACHY.

CHAP. I.

1 Malachy complaineth of Israel's unkindness, 12 and profaneness.

THE burden of the word of the LORD to a Israel by Malachy.

2 I have b loved you, saith the LORD: yet ye say, Wherein hast thou c loved us? Was not Esau Jacobs brother? saith the LORD: yet I loved Jacob,

3 And I d hated Esau, and laid his mountains, and his heritage waste, for the dragons of the wilderness.

4 Whereas Edom saith, We are impoverished, but b we will return & build the desolate places: thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall build, but I will throw down; and they shall call them, The f border of wickedness, and the people against whom the LORD hath indignation for ever.

5 And your eyes shall see, and ye shall say, The LORD will be g magnified from the border of Israel.

6 A son h honoureth the father: and a servant his master: if then I be a father, where is mine honour? & if I be a master, where is my fear? saith the LORD of hosts unto you, O priests, that despise my Name. And ye say, Wherein have we despised thy name?

7 Ye offer i polluted bread upon mine altar, and ye say, Wherein have we polluted thee? In that ye say, r The table of the LORD is contemptible.

8 And if ye offer the blind for sacrifice, is it not evil? and if ye offer the lame and sick, is it not evil? offer it now unto thy governour, will he be pleased with thee, or accept thy person? saith the LORD of hosts.

9 And now, I pray you, beseech God, k he will be gracious unto us: this hath been by your means: will he k regard your persons? saith ✝ LORD of hosts.

10 Who is there even among you that would shut the doors for nought? neither do ye kindle fire on mine altar for nought. I have l no pleasure in you, saith the LORD of hosts, neither will I accept an offering at your hand.

11 For from the rising of the sun even unto the going down of the same, my name shall be m great among the Gentiles; & n in every place incense shall be offered unto my name, & a pure offering: for my name shall be great among the heathen, saith the LORD of hosts.

But ye have o profaned it, in that ye say, The table of the LORD is polluted, and the fruit thereof, even his meat is contemptible.

13 Ye said also, Behold, what a p weariness is it! and ye have snuffed at it, saith the LORD of hosts; and ye brought that which was torn, and the lame, and the sick; thus ye brought an offering: should I accept this of your hand? saith the LORD.

14 But cursed be the q deceiver, which hath in his flock a male, and voweth and sacrificeth unto the LORD a corrupt thing: for I am a great g King, saith the LORD of hosts, and my name is dreadful among the heathen.

CHAP. II.

The priests and people reproved.

NOw, O ye a priests, this commandment is for you.

2 If ye will b not hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto my Name, saith the LORD of hosts, I will even send a curse upon you, & I will c curse your blessings: yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to heart.

3 Behold, I will corrupt r your seed, & s spread dung upon your faces, even the dung of your solemn feasts; and one shall take you away with it.

4 And ye shall t know, that I have sent this commandment unto you, that b my covenant might be with Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.

5 My covenant was with him of life and peace, and I gave them to him, for the fear wherewith he feared me, and was afraid before my Name.

6 The u law of truth was in his mouth, and no iniquity was not found in his lips: he walked with me in peace and equity, and did x turn many away from iniquity.

7 For the priests y lips should keep knowledge, and they should z seek the law at his mouth: for he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts.

8 But ye are a departed out of z way; ye have caused many to stumble at the law: ye have corrupted the covenant of Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.

9 Therefore have I also made you b contemptible and base before all the people, according as ye have not kept my ways, but have been c partial in the law.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO S. MATTHEW.

CHAP. I.

1 The genealogy of Christ from Abraham to Joseph. 18 His conception and birth.

THE book of the a generation of JESUS CHRIST, the b son of David, the son of Abraham.

2 Abraham begat Isaac, and Isaac begat Jacob, and Jacob begat Judas and his brethren.

3 And Judas begat Phares and Zara of c Thamar, and Phares begat Esrom, and Esrom begat Aram.

4 And Aram begat Aminadab, and Aminadab begat Naasson, and Naasson begat Salmon.

5 And Salmon begat Booz of Rachab, and Booz begat Obed of Ruth, and Obed begat Jesse.

6 And Jesse begat David d the king, and David the king begat Solomon of her that had been the wife of Urias.

7 And e Solomon begat Roboam, & Roboam begat Abia, and Abia begat Asa.

8 And Asa begat Josaphat, and Josaphat begat Joram, & Joram begat f Ozias.

9 And Ozias begat Joatham, and Joatham begat Achaz, and Achaz begat Ezekias.

10 And Ezekias begat Manasses, and Manasses begat Amon, and Amon begat Josias.

11 And Josias begat Jechonias and his brethren, about the time they were carried awayto ‡ Babylon.

12 And after they were brought to Babylon, Jechonias begat Salathiel, and Salathiel begat g Zorobabel.

13 And Zorobabel begat Abiud, and Abiud begat Eliakim, and Eliakim begat Azor.

14 And Azor begat Sadoc, and Sadoc begat Achim, and Achim begat Eliud.

15 And Eliud begat Eleazar and Eleazar begat Matthan, and Matthan begat Jacob.

16 And ‡ Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

17 So all the generations from Abraham to David, are fourteen generations: and from David until the carrying away into Babylon, are fourteen generations: & from ‡ carrying away into Babylon unto Christ, are fourteen generations.

18 Now the ‡ birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph (before they came together) she was found with child of the holy Ghost.

19 Then Joseph h her husband being a just man, and not willing to make her a publick example, was minded to put her away privily.

20 But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is conceived in her, is of the holy Ghost.

21 And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his Name Jesus: for he shall save his people from their sins.

22 (Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the LORD by the prophet, saying,

23 Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his Name Emmanuel, which being interpreted, is, i God with us)

24 Then Joseph being raised from sleep, did as the angel of k LORD had bidden him, and took unto him his wife:

25 And l knew her not m till she had brought forth her n first-born son: and he o called his Name Jesus.

CHAP. II.

1 The wise men Are directed to Christ by a star. 11 They worship him, and offer presents.

NOw when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came a wise men from the east to Jerusalem,

2 Saying, b Where is he p is born king of q Jews? for we have seen c his star in the east, and are come to worship him.

3 When Herod the king had heard these things, he was d troubled, and e all Jerusalem with him.

4 And when he had gathered all the f chief priests & Scribes of the people togethet, he g demanded of them where Christ should be born.

5 And h they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judea: for thus it r is written by the prophet,

6 And thou Bethlehem in the land of Juda, are not the least among s princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come t a Governor s shall rule my people Israel.

7 Then Herod when he had privily called the wise men, enquired of them diligently what time u star appeared.

8 And he sent them to Bethlehem, & said, i Go, and search diligently for the young child, and when x ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and m worship him also.

9 When they had heard the king, they y departed, and lo the star which they saw in the east, z went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

10 When they saw the star, they y rejoyced with exceeding great joy.

11 ¶ And when they were come into the g house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down and worshipped him: a and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him a gifts, gold, and frankincense, and myrrhe.

12 And being b warned of God in a dream, that they should not return to Herod, they y departed into their own country another way.

13 And when they were departed, behold, c angel of k LORD appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and l flee into Egypt, & be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him.

14 When x he arose, he took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt:

15 And was there until the death of Herod: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the LORD by the prophet, saying, d Out of Egypt have I called my Son.

16 ¶ Then Herod, when he saw that e he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding a wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the child dren that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently enquired of the wise men.

17 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying, 18 In Rama was there a voice heard, lamentation and weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not.

19 But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the LORD appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, 20 Saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead which sought the young child's life.

21 And he arose, and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel.

22 But when he heard that Archelaus did reign in Judea in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither: notwithstanding, being warned of God in a dream, he turned aside into the parts of Galilee:

23 And he came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets, He shall be called a Nazarene.

IN those days came John the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness of Judea,

2 And saying, Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

3 For this is he that was spoken of by the prophet Esaias, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the LORD, make his paths straight.

4 And the same John had his raiment of camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his meat was locusts and wild honey.

5 Then went out to him Jerusalem, and all Judea, and all the region round about Jordan,

6 And were baptized of him in Jordan, confessing their sins.

7 But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore fruits meet for repentance:

9 And think not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

10 And now also the ax is laid unto the root of the trees: therefore every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

11 I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you with the holy Ghost, and with fire:

12 Whose fan is in his hand, and he will throughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner; but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

13 Then cometh Jesus from Galilee to Jordan unto John, to be baptized of him.

14 But John forbad him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me?

15 And Jesus answering said unto him, Suffer it to be so now: for thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness. Then he suffered him.

16 And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him:

17 And lo, a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

Eph. 1. 6. Col. 1. 13.

CHAP. IV.

1 Christ fasteth and is tempted. 17 He preacheth, 18 and calleth his disciples.

1 Then was Jesus led up of the Spirit into the wilderness, to be tempted of the devil.

2 And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was afterward an hungred.

3 And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread.

4 But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

5 Then the devil taketh him up into the holy city, and setteth him on a pinnacle of the temple,

6 And saith unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written, He shall give his angels charge concerning thee: and in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

7 Jesus said unto him, It is written again, Thou shalt not tempt the LORD thy God.

8 Again, the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them;

9 And saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me.

10 Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the LORD thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

11 Then the devil leaveth him, and behold, angels came and ministred unto him.

12 Now when Jesus had heard that John was cast into prison, he departed into Galilee.

13 And leaving Nazareth, he came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is upon the sea coast, in the borders of Zabulon and Nephthali:

14 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying,

15 The land of Zabulon, and the land of Nephthali, by the way of the sea beyond Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles;

16 The people which sat in darkness saw great light; and to them which sat in the region and shadow of death, light is sprung up.

17 From that time Jesus began to preach, and to say, Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

18 And Jesus walking by the sea of Galilee, saw two brethren, Simon called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea: (for they were fishers.)

19 And he saith unto them, Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.

20 And they straightway left their nets, and followed him.

21 And going on from thence, he saw other two brethren, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in a ship with Zebedee their father, mending their nets; and he called them.

22 And they straightway left the ship and their father, and followed him.

a Gal. 1. 16. / v. 18. Mar. 3. 17. m Luke 14.

23 And Jesus n went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, & preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and o healing all manner of sickness, and all manner of disease among the people.

24 And his fame went throughout all Syria: and they p brought unto him all sick people that were taken with divers diseases and torments, and those which were possessed with devils, and those which were lunatick, and those that had the palsie, and he healed them.

25 And there followed r him great multitudes of people from Galilee, and from Decapolis, and from Jerusalem, & from Judea, and from beyond Jordan.

CHAP. V.

Who are blessed. 13 The apostles are the light and salt of the world.

AND seeing the multitudes, he went up into s a mountain: and when he was set, his disciples came unto him.

2 And he b opened his mouth, and taught them, saying,

3 Blessed are the poor t in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

4 Blessed are they that u mourn: for they shall be comforted.

5 Blessed are the meek: for they shall x inherit the earth.

6 Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after y righteousness: for they shall be filled.

7 Blessed are the merciful: for they shall z obtain mercy.

8 Blessed are the a pure in heart: for they shall see God.

9 Blessed are the c peace-makers: for they shall be called y children of God.

10 Blessed are they which are persecuted for k righteousness sake: for theirs is l the kingdom of heaven.

11 Blessed are ye when men shall m revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsly for my sake.

12 Rejoyce, and be n exceeding glad: for o great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they p the prophets which were before you.

13 Ye are the q salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, r wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, & to be trodden under foot of men.

14 Ye are the s light of the world. A city that is set on an hill, cannot be hid.

15 Neither do men n light a candle, and put it under a bushel: but on a candlestick, and it giveth light unto all that are in the house.

16 Let your x light so shine before men, that they may y see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

17 Think not that I am come to t destroy the law or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to u fulfil.

18 For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth x pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.

19 Whosoever therefore b shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall c do, and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

20 For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall d exceed the righteousness of the Scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no e case enter into the kingdom of heaven.

21 Ye have heard, that it was said by them of old time, Thou f shalt not kill: and whosoever shall kill, shall be in danger of the judgment.

22 But g I say unto you, That whosoever is angry with his brother h without a cause, shall be in danger of the judgment: and whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be in danger of the council: but whosoever shall say, Thou i fool, shall be in danger of hell fire.

23 Therefore if thou bring thy gift to the k altar, & there remembrest that thy brother hath ought against thee;

24 Leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be l reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift.

25 m Agree with thine n adversary quickly, whilest thou o art in the way with him: lest at any time the adversary p deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison.

26 Verily, I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou hast paid the uttermost farthing.

27 Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, q Thou shalt not commit adultery.

28 But I say unto you, That whosoever r looketh on a woman to lust after her, hath committed adultery with her already in his heart.

29 And if thy right eye offend thee, s pluck it out, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not t thy whole body should be cast into hell.

30 And if thy right hand offend thee, cut it off, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee t that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.

31 It hath been said, Whosoever shall u put away his wife, let him give her a writing of divorcement.

32 Again, ye have heard that it hath been said by them of old time, Thou shalt not forswear thy self, but shalt perform unto the LORD thine oaths.

34 But I say unto you, z Swear not at all; neither by heaven, for it is a God's throne:

35 Nor by the earth, for it b is his footstool: neither by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the c great King.

36 Neither shalt thou swear by thy head, because thou canst not make one hair white or black.

37 But let your communication be, d Yea, yea; Nay, nay: for whatsoever is more than these, cometh e of evil.

38 Ye have heard that it hath been said, f An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth.

39 But I say unto you, that g ye resist not evil: but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, h turn to him the other also.

40 And if any man will i sue thee at the law, and take away thy coat, let him have thy cloak also.

41 And whosoever shall k compel thee to go a mile, go with him twain.

42 l Give to him that asketh thee, and from him that would l borrow of thee, turn not thou away.

43 Ye have heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt m love thy neighbour, and n hate thine enemy.

44 But I say unto you, Love your enemies, o bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you;

19 Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal:

20 But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal.

21 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

22 The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light.

23 But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!

24 No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

25 Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment?

26 Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they?

27 Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit unto his stature?

28 And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin:

29 And yet I say unto you, that even Solomon in all his glory was not arayed like one of these.

30 Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to day is, and to morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?

31 Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed?

32 (For after all these things do the Gentiles seek:) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.

33 But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you.

34 Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of it self. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

CHAP. VII.

Christ reproveth rash judgment.

JUdge not, that ye be not judged.

2 For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again.

3 And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considereſt not the beam that is in thine own eye?

4 Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye; and behold, a beam is in thine own eye?

5 Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.

6 Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rent you.

7 Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

8 For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

9 Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone?

10 Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent?

11 If ye then being n evil know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven p give good things to them that ask him?

12 Therefore q all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the r law and the prophets.

13 s Enter ye in at the strait gate: for t wide is the gate, and broad is the way that leadeth to destruction, and u many there be which go in thereat.

14 Because x strait is the gate, and narrow is the way which leadeth unto life, and y few there be that find it.

15 Beware of z false prophets which come to you a in sheeps clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves.

16 b Ye shall know them by their c fruits: Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles?

17 Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a d corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit.

18 A good tree e cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

19 Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit, is f hewen down, and cast into the fire.

20 Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them.

21 Not every one that saith unto me, g LORD, LORD, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven: but he h that doth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

22 Many will say to me k in that day, LORD, LORD, have we not prophesied l in thy Name? and in thy Name have cast out devils? and in thy Name done many wonderful works?

23 And then will I profess unto them, m I never knew you: depart from me ye that work iniquity.

24 Therefore n whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house o upon a rock:

25 And the p rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house, and it q fell not: for it was founded upon a rock.

26 And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man which built his house upon the r sand:

27 And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house, and it fell, and s great was the fall of it.

28 And it came to pass when Jesus had ended these sayings, the people were astonished at his doctrine.

29 For he taught them as one t having authority, and not as the u Scribes.

CHAP. VIII.

Christ cleanseth the leper. 28 The devils cast out of two men.

WHen he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him.

2 And, behold, there came a leper & worshipped him, saying, LORD, a if thou wilt thou canst make me clean.

3 And Jesus put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will, be b thou clean. And immediately his leprosie was cleansed.

4 And Jesus saith unto him, See thou tell no man, but go thy way, shew thyself to the c priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, for d a testimony unto them.

5 And when Jesus was entred into Capernaum, there e came unto him a centurion, beseeching him,

6 And saying, LORD, f my servant lieth at home sick of the palsie, grievously tormented.

7 And Jesus saith unto him, g I will come and heal him.

8 The centurion answered and said, LORD, h I am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof: but speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed.

9 For i I am a man under authority, having soldiers under me: and I say to this man, k Go, and he goeth: and to another, Come, and he cometh: and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

10 When Jesus heard it, he marvelled, and said to them that followed, l Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, m no not in Israel.

11 And I say unto you, that n many shall come from the o east and west, and shall p sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven.

12 But the q children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

13 And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way, and as thou hast r believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant s was healed in the self same hour.

14 And when Jesus was come into t Peters house, he saw his wives x mother laid, and sick of a fever.

15 And he touched her hand, and the fever left her: and she arose and ministred y unto them.

16 z When the even was come, they a brought unto him many that were possessed with devils: and he cast out the spirits with his b word, and healed all that were sick:

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by c Esaias the prophet, saying, d Himself took our infirmities, and bare our e sicknesses.

18 Now when Jesus saw great multitudes about him, he gave commandment to depart unto the f other side.

19 And a certain scribe g came, and said unto him, Master, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

20 And Jesus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests, but the Son of man hath not where h to lay his head.

21 And another of his disciples said unto him, LORD, i suffer me k first to go and bury my father.

22 But Jesus said unto him, l Follow me, & let the dead bury their dead.

23 And when he was entred into a ship, his disciples m followed him.

24 And behold, there arose n a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the ship was o covered with the waves: but he was asleep.

25 And his disciples p came to him, and awoke him, saying, LORD, q save us: we perish.

26 And he saith unto them, Why are ye fearful, r O ye of little faith? Then he arose, and s rebuked the winds and the sea, and there was t a great calm.

27 But the men marvelled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him?

28 And when he was come to the other side into x country of the y Gergesens, z there met him two possessed with devils, coming out of the tombs, a exceeding exceeding perfect. To that, no man might put any thing from the garment, and the rent is made worse.

17 Neither do men put new wine into old bottles: else the bottles break, and the wine runneth out, and the bottles perish: but they put new wine into new bottles, and both are preserved.

18 While I the spake these things unto them, behold, there came a certain ruler, & worshipped him, saying, My daughter is even now dead: but come and lay thy hand upon her, and she shall live.

19 And Jesus arose, and followed him, and so did his disciples.

20 ¶ And behold, a woman which was diseased with an issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and touched the hem of his garment.

21 For she said within herself, If I may but touch his garment, I shall be whole.

22 But Jesus turned him about, and when he saw her, he said, Daughter, be of good comfort, thy faith hath made thee whole. And the woman was made whole from that hour.

23 And when Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw the minstrels and the people making a noise, 24 He said unto them, Give place; for the maid is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorn.

25 But when the people were put forth, he went in, and took her by the hand, and the maid arose.

26 And the fame hereof went abroad into all that land.

27 ¶ And when Jesus departed thence, two blind men followed him, crying, and saying, Thou Son of David, have mercy on us.

28 And when he was come into the house, the blind men came to him: and Jesus saith unto them, Believe ye that I am able to do this? they said unto him, Yea, LORD.

29 Then touched he their eyes, saying, According to your faith be it unto you.

30 And their eyes were opened, and Jesus straitly charged them, saying, See that no man know it.

31 But they, when they were departed, spread abroad his fame in all that country.

32 As they went out, behold, they brought to him a dumb man possessed with a devil.

33 And when the devil was cast out, the dumb spake: and the multitudes marvelled, saying, It was never so seen in Israel.

34 But the Pharisees said, He casteth out the devils through the prince of the devils.

35 And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness, and every disease among the people.

36 But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd.

37 Then saith he unto his disciples, The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few.

38 Pray ye therefore the LORD of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest.

CHAP. X.

The apostles are sent to do miracles, 16 and comfortable against persecution.

AND when he had called unto him his twelve disciples, he gave them power against unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of sickness, and all manner of disease.

2 Now

5 Now the g names of the twelve apostles are these, The first, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother,

3 Philip, and Bartholomew, Thomas, and Matthew the Publican, James the son of Alpheus, and Lebbeus, whose surname was Thaddeus, 4 Simon the Canaanite, and Judas Iscariot, who also f betrayed him.

5 These twelve Jesus g sent forth, and commanded them, saying, Go not into the way of the h Gentiles, & into any city of the Samaritans enter ye not.

6 But i go rather to the k lost sheep of the house of Israel.

7 And as ye go, l preach, saying, The kingdom of heaven is at hand.

8 Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils: m freely ye have received, n freely give.

9 † Provide neither gold, nor silver, nor brass in your purses:

10 Nor scrip for your journey, neither two coats, neither shoes, nor yet staves: (for o a workman is worthy of his meat)

11 And into whatsoever city or town ye shall enter, enquire who in it is p worthy, & there abide till ye go thence.

12 And when ye come into an house, q salute it.

13 And if the house be r worthy, let your peace come upon it: but if it be s not worthy, let your peace return to you.

14 And whosoever shall t not receive you, nor hear your words, when ye depart out of that house, u or city, x shake off the dust of your feet.

15 Verily I say unto you, it shall be y more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment, than for that city.

16 Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the z midst of wolves: be ye therefore a wise as serpents, & harmless as doves.

17 But b beware of men: for they will c deliver you up to the councils, and they will scourge you in their synagogues.

18 And ye shall be brought before d governours, and kings for e my sake, for a testimony against them and the Gentiles.

19 But when they deliver you up, f take no thought how or what ye shall speak: for it shall be given you in that same hour what ye shall speak.

20 For it is not ye that speak, but the g Spirit of your Father, which speaketh in you.

21 And the f brother shall deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child: and the children shall rise up against their parents, and cause them to be put to death.

22 And ye shall be hated g of all men for my names sake: but he that h endureth to the end, shall be saved.

23 But when they persecute you in this city, i flee ye into another: for verily I say unto you, ye shall not have gone over the cities of Israel, till the Son of man be come.

25 It is k enough for the disciple that he be as his master, and the servant as his lord: if they have called the master of the l house j Beel-zebub, how much more shall they call them of the household?

26 Fear them not therefore: i for there is nothing m covered j shall not be revealed: & hid, that shall not be known.

27 What I tell you in darkness, that speak ye in light: & what ye hear in the ear, j preach ye upon the n house-tops.

28 And o fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather p fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.

29 Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and one of them shall not fall on the ground q without your Father.

30 But the very r hairs of your head are all numbred.

31 Fear ye not therefore, ye are of s more value than many sparrows.

32 Whosoever therefore shall confess me t before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven.

33 But whosoever shall u deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven.

34 Think not that I am come to send peace x on earth: I came not to send peace, but a sword.

35 For I am come to y set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter in law against her mother in law.

36 And a mans foes shall be they of z his own household.

37 He that loveth father or mother more than me, is not worthy of me: and he that loveth son or daughter more than me, is not worthy of me.

38 And he that a taketh not his cross and b followeth after me, is not worthy of me.

39 He that findeth c his life shall d lose it: and he that loseth his life for my sake, shall e find it.

40 He that receiveth you, receiveth me: and he that receiveth me, receiveth him that sent me.

41 He that receiveth a prophet in the name of a prophet, shall receive a prophets f reward: and he that receiveth a righteous man in g name of a righteous man, shall receive a righteous mans reward.

42 And whosoever shall give to drink unto h one of these little ones a cup of cold water only, in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward.

CHAP. XI.

2 John sendeth to Christ. 7 Christ's Testimony of John.

AND it came to pass, when Jesus had made an end of commanding his twelve disciples, he departed thence to a teach and to preach in their cities.

2 Now when John had heard in the prison the works of Christ, b he sent two of his disciples,

3 And said unto him, Art thou c he that should come, or do we look for another?

4 Jesus answered and said unto them, Go and shew John again those things which ye do d hear and see:

5 The e blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, f and the deaf hear, g the dead are raised up, and the f poor have the Gospel preached to them.

6 And blessed is he whosoever shall not be h offended in me.

7 And as they b departed, Jesus began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went i ye out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

8 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed k in soft raiment? behold, they that wear soft clothing are in kings houses.

9 But what went ye out for to see? l A prophet? yea, I say unto you, and more than a prophet.

10 For this is he of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way m before thee.

11 Verily I say unto you, among them that are born of women there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist: notwithstanding, he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.

12 And from the p days of John the Baptist until now, the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it q by force.

13 For all the prophets, and the law, Prophesied r until John.

14 And if ye will receive it, this is Elias which was for to come.

15 He that hath s ears to hear, let him hear.

16 But whereunto shall I liken this generation? It is like unto x children sitting in the markets, and calling unto their fellows, 17 And saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced: we have mourned unto you, and ye have not lamented.

18 For John came y neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He hath a devil.

19 The Son of man came z eating and drinking, and they say, Behold a man gluttonous, and a wine-bibber, a friend of publicans and sinners: but wisdom is justified of her children.

20 Then began he to upbraid the cities wherein most of his mighty works were done, because they repented not:

21 c Wo unto thee Chorazin, wo unto thee Bethsaida: for if the mighty works which were done in you, had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago a in sackcloth and ashes.

22 But I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment, than for you.

23 And thou Capernaum, which art exalted unto heaven, shalt be b brought down to hell: for if the mighty works which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day.

24 But I say unto you, that it shall be c more tolerable for the land of Sodom, in the day of judgment, than for thee.

25 At that time Jesus answered and said, I thank thee, O Father, LORD of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast d revealed them unto babes.

26 Even so Father, for so it seemed e good in thy sight.

27 All things are delivered unto me of my Father: and no man knoweth the Son but the Father; f neither knoweth any man the Father, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son will reveal him.

28 Come g unto me all ye that labour, and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

29 Take f my yoke upon you, and learn of me, for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

30 For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

CHAP. XII.

The disciples pluck the ears of corn on the sabbath.

AT that time Jesus went on the sabbath day through the corn, and his disciples were an hungred, and began to pluck the ears of corn, and to eat.

2 But when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto him, Behold, thy disciples do that which is not lawful to do upon the sabbath day.

3 But he said unto them, Have ye not read what a David did when he was an hungred, and they that were with him?

4 How he entered into the g house of God, and did eat the shew-bread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them which were with him, but g only for the priests?

5 Or have b ye not read in the f law, how that on the sabbath days the priests in the temple h profane the sabbath, and are blameless?

6 But I say unto you, that in this place i is one greater than the temple.

7 But if ye had known what this meaneth, k I will have m mercy, and not sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the guiltless.

8 For the Son of man is n LORD even of the sabbath day.

9 And when he was o departed thence, he went into their p synagogue.

10 And behold, there was a man which had his hand q withered: and they asked him, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath days? that they might accuse him.

11 And he said unto them, r What man shall there be among you, that shall have one sheep, and if it fall into a pit on the sabbath day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out?

12 How much then is a man better than a sheep? wherefore it is lawful to do well on the sabbath days.

13 Then saith he to the man, Stretch forth thine hand: and he t stretched it forth; and it was u restored whole, like as the other.

14 Then the x Pharisees went out, and held a council against him, how they might destroy him.

15 But when Jesus y knew it, he withdrew himself from thence: and z great multitudes followed him, and he healed them all;

16 And a charged them that they should not make him known:

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying,

18 Behold, b my servant whom I have chosen, my beloved in whom my soul is well pleased: I will put c my Spirit upon him, and he shall shew judgment to the Gentiles.

19 He shall d not strive nor cry, neither shall any man hear his voice in the streets.

20 e A bruised reed shall he not break, and smoaking flax shall he not quench, till he send forth judgment f unto victory.

21 And in his g Name shall the Gentiles trust.

22 Then was h brought unto him one possessed with a devil, blind and dumb: and he healed him, insomuch that the blind and dumb both spake and saw.

23 And all the people were i amazed, and said, Is this the Son of David?

24 But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, j This fellow doth not cast out devils, but by Beelzebub the prince of the devils.

25 And Jesus k knew their thoughts, and said unto them, Every l kingdom divided against itself, is brought to desolation; m and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand:

26 And if Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself; how shall then his kingdom stand?

27 And if n I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do o your children cast them out? therefore they shall be your judges.

29 Or else how can one enter into a strong mans house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house.
30 He that is not with me, is against me: and he that gathereth not with me, scattereth abroad.
31 Wherefore I say unto you, All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: but the blasphemy against the holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men.
32 And whosoever speaketh a word against the son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh against the holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come.
33 Either make the tree good, and his fruit good; or else make the tree corrupt, and his fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by his fruit.
34 O generation of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.
35 A good man out of the good treasure of the heart, bringeth forth good things: and an evil man out of the evil treasure bringeth forth evil things.
36 But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment.
37 For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.
38 Then certain of the Scribes, and of the Pharisees answered, saying, Master, we would see a sign from thee.
39 But he answered and said to them, An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign, and there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas.
40 For as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whales belly: so shall the son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.
41 The men of Nineveh shall rise in judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: because they repented at the preaching of Jonas, and behold, a greater than Jonas is here.
42 The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for she came from the uttermost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and behold, a greater than Solomon is here.
43 When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest, and findeth none.
44 Then he saith, I will return into my house from whence I came out; and when he is come, he findeth it empty, swepte, and garnished.
45 Then goeth he, and taketh with himself seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this wicked generation.
46 While he yet talked to the people, behold, his mother and his brethren stood without, desiring to speak with him.
47 Then one said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to speak with thee.
48 But he answered and said unto him that told him, Who is my mother? and who are my brethren?
49 And he stretched forth his hand towards his disciples, and said, Behold my mother, and my brethren.
50 For whosoever shall do the will of my father which is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.

CHAP. XIII.

The parable of the sower and the seed.

1 The same day went Jesus out of the house, and sate by the sea side.
2 And great multitudes were gathered together unto him, so that he went into a ship, and sate; and the whole multitude stood on the shore.
3 And he spake many things unto them in parables, saying, Behold, a sower went forth to sow;
4 And when he sowed, some seeds fell by the way side, and the fowls came and devoured them up.
5 Some fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth: and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no deepness of earth:
6 And when the sun was up, they were scorched, and because they had not root, they withered away.
7 And some fell among thorns: and the thorns sprung up, and choaked them.
8 But other fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some an hundred fold, some sixty fold, some thirty fold.
9 Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.
10 And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables?
11 He answered and said unto them, Because it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given.
12 For whosoever hath, to him shall he given, and he shall have more abundance: but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away, even that he hath.
13 Therefore speak I to them in parables: because they seeing see not, and hearing, they hear not, neither do they understand.
14 And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Esaias, which saith, By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand, and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive.
15 For this people's heart is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.
16 But blessed are your eyes, for they see: and your ears, for they hear.
17 For verily I say unto you, that many prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them: and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.
18 Hear ye therefore the parable of the sower.
19 When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart: this is he which received seed by the way side.
20 But he that received the seed into stony places, is he that heareth the word, and anon with joy receiveth it:
21 Yet hath he not root in himself, but dureth for a while: for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, by and by he is offended.
22 He also that received seed among the thorns, is he that heareth the word; and the care of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful.
23 But he that received seed into the good ground, is he that heareth the word,

51 Jesus saith unto them, Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, m Yea, LORD.
52 Then said he unto them, Therefore every scribe which is n instructed unto the o kingdom of heaven, is like unto a man that is an householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure things p new and old.
53 And it came to pass, that when Jesus had finished these parables, he q departed thence.
54 And when he was come into his own country, he r taught them in their synagogue, insomuch that they were astonished, and said, Whence hath this man s this wisdom and these mighty works?
55 Is not this the carpenter's son? is not his mother called Mary? and his brethren, James, and Joses, and Simon, and Judas?
56 And his sisters, are they not all with us? whence then hath this man all these things?
57 And they were t offended in him.
But Jesus said unto them, u A prophet is not without v honour, save in his own country, and in his own house.
58 And he did not many mighty works there, because of their w unbelief.

CHAP. XIV.

1 Herod perswaded of Christ. 3 John Baptist beheaded.

AT that time Herod the a Tetrarch heard of the b fame of Jesus, 2 And said unto his servants, c This is John the Baptist, he is risen from the dead, and therefore mighty works do shew forth themselves in him.
3 For Herod had laid hold on John, and bound him, and put him in prison for d Herodias sake, e his brother Philips wife.
4 For John said unto him, It is f not lawful for thee to have her.
5 And when he would have put him to death, he g feared the multitude, because they counted him as a prophet.
6 But when Herods h birth-day was kept, the daughter of Herodias danced before them, and i pleased Herod.
7 Whereupon he promised k with an oath, to give her what soever she would ask.
8 And she, being l before instructed of her mother, said, m Give me here John Baptists head in a charger.
9 And the king was sorry: nevertheless for the n oaths sake, & them which sate with him at meat, he commanded it to be given her.
10 And he sent and beheaded John o in the prison.
11 And his head was brought in a charger, and given to the damsel: and she brought it to her mother.
12 And his disciples came, and took up the body, and p buried it, and went and q told Jesus.
13 When Jesus heard of it, he r departed thence by ship into a desert place apart: and when the people had heard followed him on foot out of the cities.

14 And Jesus went forth, and saw a great multitude, and was moved with compassion toward them, and he healed their sick.

15 And when it was e evening, his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desart place, and the time is now past; send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves victuals.

16 But Jesus said unto them, They need not depart, give ye them to eat.

17 And they say unto him, We have here but five loaves, and b two fishes.

18 He said, Bring them hither c to me.

19 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the grass, and d took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he e blessed, & brake, and gave the loaves to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

20 And they did eat, and were f filled: & they took up of the g fragments that remained, twelve baskets full.

21 And they that had eaten were about h five thousand men, besides women and children.

22 ¶ And straightway Jesus constrained his disciples to get into a ship, and to go before him unto the other side, while he sent the multitudes away.

23 And when he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into a mountain k apart to pray: & when the evening was come, he was there alone.

24 But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves: for the l wind was contrary.

25 And in the fourth watch of the night, Jesus m went unto them walking on the sea.

26 And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were n troubled, saying, It is a spirit; and they cryed out for fear.

27 But o straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer; ‡ It is I, be not afraid.

28 And p Peter answered him and said, Lord, if it be thou, q bid me come unto thee on the water.

29 And he said, r Come. And when Peter was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water to go to Jesus.

30 But when he s saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid: and beginning to sink, he u cryed, saying, Lord save me.

31 And x immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt?

32 And when they were come into the ship, the wind y ceased.

33 Then they that were in the ship came and worshipped him, saying, Of a truth thou art the z Son of God.

34 And when they were gone over, they came into a land of a Gennesaret.

35 And when the men of that place had knowledge of him, they b sent out into all that country round about, and c brought unto him all that were diseased;

36 And besought him that they might only touch the d hem of his garment: and as many as touched e were made perfectly whole.

f Matt. 9. 20.

CHAP. XV.

Christ reproveth the scribes and Pharisees.

1 Then came to Jesus a Scribes and Pharisees, which were of Jerusalem, saying,

2 Why do thy disciples transgress the a tradition of b elders? for they c wash not their hands when they eat bread.

3 But he answered & said unto them, Why do ye also transgress the commandment of God by your tradition?

4 For God commanded, saying, Honour thy father and mother: and he that curseth father or mother d let him die the death.

5 But e ye say, Whosoever shall say to his father or his mother, It is a gift by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me;

6 And honour not his father or his mother, he f shall be free. Thus have ye made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition.

7 g Ye h hypocrites, well did Esaias i prophesie of you, saying,

8 This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their l lips; but their heart is far from me.

9 But m in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

10 And he called the n multitude, and said unto them, Hear and understand.

11 Not that which o goeth into the mouth defileth a man; but that which p cometh out of the mouth, this defileth a man.

12 Then came his disciples, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the Pharisees were q offended after they heard this saying?

13 But he answered and said, Every plant which my heavenly Father hath r not planted, shall be rooted up.

14 s Let them alone: they be t blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.

15 Then answered u Peter and said unto him, Declare unto us this parable.

16 And Jesus said, Are ye x also yet without understanding?

17 Do not ye yet understand, that y whatsoever entereth in at the mouth, goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught?

18 But those things which proceed out of the z mouth, come forth from the a heart, and they defile the man.

19 For out of the b heart proceed evil thoughts, murthers, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies.

20 These are the things which defile a man: but to eat with unwashen hands, defileth not a man.

21 Then Jesus c went thence, and departed into the coasts of d Tyre and Sidon.

22 And behold, e a woman of Canaan came out of the same coasts, and cried f unto him, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou son of David; my daughter is grievously vexed with a devil.

23 But he answered her g not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away, for she crieth h after us.

24 But he answered and said, I am i not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

25 Then k came she and worshipped him, saying, Lord, help me.

26 But he answered and said, It is not meet to take the l children's bread, and to cast it to dogs.

27 And she said, m Truth, Lord: yet the dogs eat of the n crumbs which fall from their masters table.

28 Then Jesus answered and said unto her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was made whole from that very hour.

29 And Jesus departed from thence, and came again unto the sea of Galilee, and went up into a mountain, and sate down there.

30 And great multitudes came unto him, having with them those that were lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and cast them down at Jesus feet; and he healed them:

31 Insomuch that the multitude wondred, when they saw the dumb to speak, the maimed to be whole, the lame to walk, and the blind to see: and they glorified the God of Israel.

32 Then Jesus called his disciples unto him, and saidly, I have a compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days, and have nothing to eat: and I will not send them away fasting, lest they faint in the way.

33 And his disciples said unto him, Whence should we have so much bread in the wilderness, as to fill so great a multitude?

34 And Jesus said unto them, How many loaves have ye? and they said, Seven, and a few little fishes.

35 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground.

36 And he took the seven loaves and the fishes, and gave thanks, and brake them, and gave to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

37 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left, seven baskets full.

38 And they that did eat were four thousand men, beside women and children.

39 And he sent away the multitude, and took ship, and came into the coasts of c Magdala.

CHAP. XVI.

1 The Pharisees require a sign. 5 Many ofthe sour doctrine of the Pharisees. 13 Peter confesseth Christ. 21 He foretelleth his passion.

THE a Pharisees also with the Sadducees came, and tempting desired him that he would shew them a sign from heaven.

2 He answered and said unto them, When it is evening, ye say, It will be fair weather: for the skie is red.

3 And in the morning, It will be foul weather to day: for the skie is red and lowring. O ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the skie; but can ye not discern the signs of the times?

4 A wicked and b adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas. And he left them, and departed.

5 And when his disciples were come to the other side, they had forgotten to take bread.

6 Then Jesus said unto them, Take heed and beware of the c leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees.

7 And they reasoned b among themselves, saying, It is because we have taken no bread.

8 Which when Jesus perceived, he said unto them, O ye of c little faith, why reason ye among your selves, because ye have brought no bread?

9 Do ye not yet understand, neither remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?

10 Neither the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?

11 How is it that ye do not understand, that I spake it not to you concerning bread, that ye should beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees?

12 Then understood they how that he bade not beware of the leaven of bread, but of the c doctrine of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees.

13 When Jesus came into the coasts of Cesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Whom do men say that I, the Son of man, am?

14 And they said, Some say that thou art John the baptist, some Elias, and others Jeremias, or one of the prophets.

15 He saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am?

16 And Simon Peter answered and said, a Thou art Christ, the Son of the living God.

17 And Jesus answered and said unto him, a Blessed art thou Simon Bar-jona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven.

18 And I say also unto thee, that thou art Peter, and upon this a rock I will build my church: and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.

19 And I will give a unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth, shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth, shall be loosed in heaven.

20 Then charged he his disciples that they should tell no man that he was Jesus the Christ.

21 From that time forth began Jesus to shew unto his disciples, how that he must go unto d Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the elders, and chief priests, and Scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day.

22 Then Peter took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall not be unto thee.

23 But he turned, and said unto Peter, Get thee behind me, Satan, thou art an offence unto me: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men.

24 Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

25 For whosoever will save his life, shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake, shall find it.

26 For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

27 For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father, with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works.

28 Verily, I say unto you, There be some standing here, which shall not taste of death till they see the Son of man coming in his kingdom.

CHAP. XVII.

1 The transfiguration of Christ. 22 He foretelleth his passion.

AND after a six days, Jesus taketh b Peter, James, & John his brother, and bringeth them up into a high mountain apart,

2 And was c transfigured before them: and his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light.

3 And, behold, there appeared d unto them Moses & Elias e talking with him.

4 Then answered Peter, and said unto Jesus, LORD, it is f good for us to be here: if thou wilt, let us make here three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for g Moses, and one for Elias.

5 While he yet spake, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold a voice out of the cloud, which said, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased: h hear ye him.

6 And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were sore afraid.

Jesus came and touched them, and said, Arise, and be not afraid.

8 And when they had lift up their eyes, they saw no man, save Jesus only.

9 And as they came down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, saying, Tell no man what thing the vision was, until the Son of man be risen again from the dead.

10 And the disciples asked him, saying, Why then say the Scribes, that Elias must first come?

11 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Elias truly shall first come, and restore all things.

12 But I say unto you, That Elias is come already, and they knew him not, but have done unto him whatsoever they listed: likewise shall also the Son of man suffer of them.

13 Then the disciples understood that he spake unto them of John the Baptist.

14 ¶ And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certain man kneeling down to him, and saying,

15 LORD, have mercy on my son, for he is lunatick, and sore vexed: for oftimes he falleth into the fire, and oft into the water.

16 And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure him.

17 Then Jesus answered and said, O faithless & perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him hither to me.

18 And Jesus rebuked the devil, and he departed out of him: and the child was cured from that very hour.

19 Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out?

20 And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard-seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place, and it shall remove, and nothing shall be unpossible unto you.

21 Howbeit this kind goeth not out, but by prayer and fasting.

22 ¶ And while they abode in Galilee, Jesus said unto them, The Son of man shall be betrayed into the hands of men:

23 And they shall kill him, and the third day he shall be raised again: and they were exceeding sorry.

24 ¶ And when they were come to Capernaum, they that received tribute-money, came to Peter, and said, Doth not your master pay tribute?

25 He saith, Yes. And when he was come into the house, Jesus prevented him, saying, What thinkest thou, Simon? of whom do the kings of the earth take custom or tribute? of their own children, or of strangers?

26 Peter saith unto him, Of strangers. Jesus saith unto him, Then are the children free.

27 Notwithstanding, lest we should offend them, go thou to the sea, and cast an hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up: and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt find a piece of money: that take, and give unto them for me and thee.

§. 22. 1 John 2. 10.

CHAP. XVIII.

Christ warneth his disciples to be humble: 15 how to deal with our brethren.

AT the same time came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?

2 And Jesus called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them,

3 And said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.

4 Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

5 And whoso shall receive one of such little child in my Name, receiveth me.

6 But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were b better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

7 ¶ Wo unto the world because of offences: for it must needs be that offences come: but wo to that man by whom the offence cometh.

8 Wherefore if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet, to be cast into everlasting fire.

9 And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire.

10 Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, that in heaven their angels do always behold the m face of my Father which is in heaven.

11 For the Son of man is come to n save that which was lost.

12 How think ye? if a man have an hundred sheep, and one of them be gone p astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray?

13 And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoyceth more of that sheep, than of the ninety and nine which went not astray.

14 Even so it is not the r will of your Father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.

15 ¶ Moreover, if thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee & him only alone: if he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother.

16 But if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.

17 And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it unto the church: but if he neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as a heathen man and a publican.

18 Verily I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall t bind on earth, shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth, shall be loosed in heaven.

19 Again, I say unto you, That if two of you shall agree on earth as touching u any thing that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven.

20 For where x two or three are gathered together in my Name, there am I in the midst of them.

21 ¶ Then came Peter to him, and said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? till seven times?

22 Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times: but until b seventy times seven.

23 Therefore is the kingdom of heaven liken'd unto a certain king, who would take an account of his servants.

24 And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him which ought him ten thousand talents.

25 But for as much as he had not to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife and children, and all that he had, & payment to be made.

26 The

31 So when his fellow-ſervants ſaw what was done, they were very ſorry, and came and told unto their lord all that was done.
32 Then his lord, after that he had called him, ſaid unto him, O thou wicked ſervant, I forgave thee all that debt, becauſe thou deſiredſt me:
33 Shouldſt not thou alſo have had compaſſion on thy fellow-ſervant, even as I had pity on thee?
34 And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he ſhould pay all that was due unto him.
35 So likewiſe ſhall my heavenly Father do alſo unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their treſpaſſes.

CHAP. XIX.

Chriſt healeth the ſick; & anſwereth concerning divorcement.

AND it came to paſs, that when Jeſus had finiſhed theſe ſayings, he departed from Galilee, and came into the coaſts of Judea, beyond Jordan:
2 And great multitudes followed him, and he healed them there.
3 The Phariſees alſo came unto him, tempting him, and ſaying unto him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cauſe?
4 And he anſwered and ſaid unto them, Have ye not read, that he which made them at the beginning, made them male and female?
5 And ſaid, For this cauſe ſhall a man leave father and mother, and ſhall cleave to his wife: and they twain ſhall be one fleſh.
6 Wherefore they are no more twain, but one fleſh. What therefore God hath joyned together, let not man put aſunder.
7 They ſay unto him, Why did Moſes then command to give a writing of divorcement, and to put her away?
8 He ſaith unto them, Moſes, becauſe of the hardneſs of your hearts, ſuffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not ſo.
9 And I ſay unto you, Whoſoever ſhall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and ſhall marry another, committeth adultery: & whoſo marrieth her that is put away, doth commit adultery.
10 His diſciples ſay unto him, If the caſe of the man be ſo with his wife, it is not good to marry.
11 But he ſaid unto them, All men cannot receive this ſaying, ſave they to whom it is given.
12 For there are ſome eunuchs, which were ſo born from their mothers womb: and there are ſome eunuchs, which were made eunuchs of men: and there be eunuchs, which have made themſelves eunuchs for the kingdom of heavens ſake. He that is able to receive it, let him receive it.
13 Then were there brought unto him † little children, that he ſhould put his hands on them, and pray: and the diſciples rebuked them.
14 But Jeſus ſaid, Suffer little children, and forbid them not to come unto me: for of ſuch is the kingdom of heaven.
15 And he laid his hands on them, and departed thence.
16 And behold, one came & ſaid unto him, Good maſter, what good thing ſhall I do that I may have eternal life?
17 And he ſaid unto him, Why calleſt thou me good? there is none good but one, that is God: but if thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments.
18 He ſaith unto him, Which? Jeſus ſaid, Thou ſhalt do no murder, Thou ſhalt not commit adultery, Thou ſhalt not ſteal, Thou ſhalt not bear falſe witneſs, 19 Honour thy father and thy mother: and thou ſhalt love thy neighbour as thyſelf.
20 The young man ſaith unto him, All theſe things have I kept from my youth up: what lack I yet?
21 Jeſus ſaid unto him, If thou wilt be perfect, go and ſell that thou haſt, and give to the poor, and thou ſhalt have treaſure in heaven: and come and follow me.
22 But when the young man heard that ſaying, he went away ſorrowful: for he had great poſſeſſions.
23 Then ſaid Jeſus unto his diſciples, Verily I ſay unto you, that a rich man ſhall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven.
24 And I ſay unto you, It is eaſier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.
25 When his diſciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, ſaying, Who then can be ſaved?
26 But Jeſus beheld them, and ſaid unto them, With men this is impoſſible, but with God all things are poſſible.
27 Then anſwered Peter, and ſaid unto him, Behold, we have forſaken all, and followed thee: what ſhall we have therefore?
28 And Jeſus ſaid unto them, Verily I ſay unto you, that ye which have followed me in the regeneration, when the Son of man ſhall ſit in the throne of his glory, ye alſo ſhall ſit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Iſrael.
29 And every one that hath forſaken houſes, or brethren, or ſiſters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my Names ſake, ſhall receive an hundred fold, and ſhall inherit everlaſting life.
30 But many that are firſt, ſhall be laſt; and the laſt firſt.

CHAP. XX.

The labourers ſent into the vineyard.

FOR the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an houſholder, which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard.
2 And when he had agreed with the labourers for a penny a day, he ſent them into his vineyard.
3 And he went out about the third hour, and ſaw others ſtanding idle in the market-place,
4 And ſaid unto them, Go ye alſo into the vineyard, and whatſoever is right, I will give you. And they went their way.
5 Again, he went out about the ſixth and ninth hour, and did likewiſe.
6 And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others ſtanding idle, talk and laft unto them, Why ſtand ye here all the day idle?

7 They ſay unto him, Becauſe no man hath hired us. He ſaith to them, Go ye alſo into the vineyard, and whatſoever is right, that ſhall ye receive.

8 So when even was come, the lord of the vineyard ſaith unto his ſteward, Call the labourers, and give them their hire, beginning from the laſt unto the firſt.

9 And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny.

10 But when the firſt came, they ſuppoſed that they ſhould have received more; and they likewiſe received every man a penny.

11 And when they had received it, they murmured againſt the good man of the houſe, 12 Saying, Theſe laſt have wrought but one hour, and thou haſt made them equal unto us, which have born the burden and heat of the day.

13 But he anſwered one of them, and ſaid, Friend, I do thee no wrong: didſt not thou agree with me for a penny?

14 Take that thine is, and go thy way: I will give unto this laſt, even as unto thee.

15 Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? Is thine eye evil becauſe I am good?

16 So the laſt ſhall be firſt, and the firſt laſt: for many be called, but few choſen.

17 And Jeſus going up to Jeruſalem, took the twelve diſciples aſide in the way, and ſaid unto them,

18 Behold, we go up to Jeruſalem, and the Son of man ſhall be betrayed unto the chief prieſts, and unto the ſcribes, and they ſhall condemn him to death, 19 And ſhall deliver him to the Gentiles to mock, and to ſcourge, and to crucify him: and the third day he ſhall riſe again.

20 Then came to him the mother of Zebedees children, with her ſons, worſhipping him, and deſiring a certain thing of him.

21 And he ſaid unto her, What wilt thou? She ſaith unto him, Grant that theſe my two ſons may ſit the one on thy right hand, and the other on the left in thy kingdom.

22 But Jeſus anſwered and ſaid, Ye know not what ye aſk: Are ye able to drink of the cup that I ſhall drink of, and to be baptized with the baptiſm that I am baptized with? They ſay unto him, We are able.

23 And he ſaith unto them, Ye ſhall drink indeed of my cup, and be baptized with the baptiſm that I am baptized with: but to ſit on my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to give, but it ſhall be given to them for whom it is prepared of my Father.

24 And when the ten heard it, they were moved with indignation againſt the two brethren.

25 But Jeſus called them unto him, and ſaid, Ye know that the princes of the Gentiles exerciſe dominion over them, and they that are great, exerciſe authority upon them.

26 But it ſhall not be ſo among you: but whoſoever will be great among you, let him be your miniſter.

27 And whoſoever will be chief among you, let him be your ſervant.

28 Even as the Son of man came not to be miniſtred unto, but to miniſter, and to give his life a ranſom for many.

29 And as they departed from Jericho, a great multitude followed him.

30 And behold, two blind men ſitting by the way ſide, when they heard that Jeſus paſſed by, cried, ſaying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou Son of David.

31 And the multitude rebuked them, becauſe they ſhould hold their peace: but they cried the more, ſaying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou Son of David.

32 And Jeſus ſtood ſtill, and called them, and ſaid, What will ye that I ſhall do unto you?

33 They ſay unto him, LORD, that our eyes may be opened.

34 So Jeſus had compaſſion on them, and touched their eyes: and immediately their eyes received ſight, and they followed him.

CHAP. XXI.

Chriſt rideth into Jeruſalem, 13 driveth the buyers and ſellers out of the temple.

AND when they drew nigh unto Jeruſalem, and were come to Bethphage, unto the mount of Olives, then ſent Jeſus two diſciples,

2 Saying unto them, Go into the village over againſt you, and ſtraightway ye ſhall find an aſs tied, and a colt with her: looſe them and bring them unto me.

3 And if any man ſay ought unto you, ye ſhall ſay, The Lord hath need of them; and ſtraightway he will ſend them.

4 All this was done that it might be fulfilled which was ſpoken by the prophet, ſaying,

5 Tell ye the daughter of Sion, Behold, thy King cometh unto thee, meek, and ſitting upon an aſs, and a colt the foal of an aſs.

6 And the diſciples went, and did as Jeſus commanded them,

7 And brought the aſs, and the colt, and put on them their clothes, and they ſet him thereon.

8 And a very great multitude ſpread their garments in the way; others cut down branches from the trees, and ſtrawed them in the way.

9 And the multitudes that went before, and that followed, cried, ſaying, Hoſanna to the Son of David: bleſſed is he that cometh in the name of the LORD; Hoſanna in the higheſt.

10 And when he was come into Jeruſalem, all the city was moved, ſaying, Who is this?

11 And the multitude ſaid, This is Jeſus the prophet of Nazareth of Galilee.

12 And Jeſus went into the temple of God, and caſt out all them that ſold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the ſeats of them that ſold doves, 13 And ſaid unto them, It is written, My houſe ſhall be called the houſe of prayer; but ye have made it a den of thieves.

14 And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple, and he healed them.

15 And when the chief prieſts and Scribes ſaw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and ſaying, Hoſanna to the Son of David; they were ſore diſpleaſed, 16 And ſaid unto him, Heareſt thou what theſe ſay? And Jeſus ſaith unto them, Yea; have ye never read, Out of the mouth of babes and ſucklings thou haſt perfected praiſe?

17 And he left them, and went out of the city into Bethany, and he lodged there.

8. 2. 1 Cor. 1. 27. 6 Joh. 6. 15.

28 Now in the morning as he returned into the city, he a hungred.
19 And when he saw a fig tree in the way, he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves only, and said unto it, Let no fruit grow on thee b henceforward for ever. And presently the fig-tree c withered away.
20 And when the disciples saw it, they marvelled, saying, How soon is the fig-tree withered away!
21 Jesus answered and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, If ye have a faith & doubt not, ye shall not only do this which is done to the fig-tree, but also if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; it shall be done.
22 And all things whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, a believing, ye shall receive.
23 And when he was come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came unto him as he was teaching, and said, a By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority?
24 And Jesus answered and said unto them, I also a will ask you one thing, which if ye tell me, I in like wise will tell you by what authority I do these things.
25 The baptism of John, whence was it? a from heaven, or of men? and they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say unto us, Why did ye not then r believe him?
26 But if we shall say, Of men; we fear the people; for all hold John s as a prophet.
27 And they answered Jesus, and said, t We cannot tell. And he said unto them, Neither u tell I you by what authority I do these things.
28 But what think you? A certain man had two sons, and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work to day in my vineyard.
29 He answered and said, x I will not: but a afterward he repented, and went.
30 And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir, and y went not.
31 Whether of them twain did the will of his father? They say unto him, The first. Jesus saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, that the publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you.
32 For John came unto you in the z way of righteousness, and ye believed him not: but the publicans and harlots believed him. And ye, when ye had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him.
33 a Hear another parable: There was a certain householder which b planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, & digged a wine-press in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country.
34 And when the c time of fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the husbandmen, that they might receive the fruits of it.
35 And the husbandmen took his servants, and d beat one, and killed another, and stoned another.
36 e Again, he sent other servants, more than the first: and they did unto them likewise.
37 But last of all, he sent unto them his son, saying, They will reverence my son.
38 But when the husbandmen saw the son, they said among themselves, This is the heir, come, let us kill him, and let us seize on his father's inheritance.
39 And they caught him f and cast him out of the vineyard, and slew him.
40 When the Lord therefore of the vineyard cometh, what will he do unto those husbandmen?
41 They say unto him, He will miserably destroy those wicked men, and will g let out his vineyard unto other husbandmen, which shall render him the fruits in their seasons.
42 Jesus saith unto them, Did ye never read in the scriptures, a The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner? this is the LORD'S doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?
43 Therefore I say unto you, The kingdom of God shall be a taken from you, and b given to a nation bringing forth the c fruits thereof.
44 And whosoever d shall fall on this stone, shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it a will grind him to powder.
45 And when the chief priests and Pharisees had heard his parables, they b perceived c he spake of them.
46 But when they e sought to lay hands on him, they a feared the multitude, because they took him for a prophet.

CHAP. XXII.

1. The marriage-supper. 9. The Gentiles called. 12. The punishment of him that wanted the wedding garment.

AND Jesus a answered and spake unto them again by b parables, & said,
2 The kingdom of heaven is like unto a certain king, which made a marriage for his son,
3 And he sent forth his c servants to call them that were bidden to the wedding: and they would d not come.
4 Again, he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have e prepared my dinner: my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come unto the marriage.
5 But they f made light of it, and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandise.
6 And the remnant took his servants, and g intreated them spitefully, and slew them.
7 But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth: and he sent forth his a armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burnt up their city.
8 Then saith he to his servants, The wedding is ready, but they which were bidden were c not worthy.
9 Go ye therefore into d the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage.
10 So those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all as many as they found, both e bad and good: and the wedding was furnished with guests.
11 And when the king f came in to see the guests, he g saw there a man which had not on a wedding garment:
12 And he saith unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither, not having a wedding garment? And he was h speechless.
13 Then said the king to the servants, a Bind him hand and foot, & take him away, and cast him into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.
14 For many are called, but few are chosen.
15 Then went the Pharisees, and a took counsel how they might entangle him in his talk.

16 And they sent out unto him their disciples, with the Herodians, saying, Master, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, neither carest thou for any man: for thou regardest not the person of men.

17 Tell us therefore, What thinkest thou, Is it lawful to give tribute unto Cesar, or not?

18 But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites?

19 Shew me the tribute-money. And they brought unto him a penny.

20 And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription?

21 They say unto him, Cesars. Then saith he unto them, Render therefore unto Cesar the things which be Cesars; & unto God, the things that be God's.

22 When they had heard these words, they marvelled, and left him, and went their way.

23 The same day came to him the Sadducees, which say that there is no resurrection, and asked him, 24 Saying, Master, Moses said, If a man die, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

25 Now there were with us seven brethren, and the first when he had married a wife, deceased, and having no issue, left his wife unto his brother.

26 Likewise the second also, and the third, unto the seventh.

27 And last of all the woman died also.

28 Therefore in the resurrection, whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her.

29 Jesus answered, and said unto them, Ye do err, not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God.

30 For in the resurrection they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels of God in heaven.

31 But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying, 32 I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.

33 And when the multitude heard this, they were astonished at his doctrine.

34 But when the Pharisees had heard that he had put the Sadducees to silence, they were gathered together.

35 Then one of them, which was a lawyer, asked him a question, tempting him, and saying, 36 Master, which is the great commandment in the law?

37 Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the LORD thy God with all the heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.

38 This is the first and great commandment.

39 And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

40 On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

41 While the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them, 42 Saying, What think ye of Christ? whose son is he? They say unto him, The son of David.

43 He saith unto them, How then doth David in spirit call him LORD, saying, 44 The LORD said unto my LORD, sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool?

45 If David then call him LORD, how is he his son?

46 And no man was able to answer him a word, neither durst any man from that day forth ask him any more questions.

CHAP. XXIII.

Christ admonisheth to follow good doctrine, and not evil examples:

13 He denounceth eight woes.

1 Then spake Jesus to the multitude, and to his disciples,

2 Saying, The Scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses' seat:

3 All therefore whatsoever they bid you observe, that observe and do; but do not ye after their works: for they say, and do not.

4 For they bind heavy burdens, and grievous to be born, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers.

5 But all their works they do for to be seen of men: they make broad their phylacteries, and enlarge the borders of their garments,

6 And love the uppermost rooms at feasts, and the chief seats in the synagogues,

7 And greetings in the markets, and to be called of men, Rabbi, Rabbi.

8 But be not ye called Rabbi: for one is your Master, even Christ, and all ye are brethren.

9 And call no man your father upon the earth: for one is your Father which is in heaven.

10 Neither be ye called masters: for one is your Master, even Christ.

11 But he that is greatest among you, shall be your servant.

12 And whosoever shall exalt himself, shall be abased; and he that shall humble himself, shall be exalted.

13 But woe unto you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering to go in.

14 Woe unto you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayer: therefore ye shall receive the greater damnation.

15 Woe unto you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him two-fold more the child of hell than yourselves.

16 Woe unto you, ye blind guides, which say, Whosoever shall swear by the temple, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the temple, he is a debtor!

17 Ye fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gold, or the temple that sanctifieth the gold?

18 And whosoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing; but whosoever sweareth by the gift that is upon it, he is guilty.

19 Ye fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifieth the gift?

20 Whoso therefore shall swear by the altar, sweareth by it, and by all things thereon.

21 And whoso shall swear by the temple, sweareth by it, and by him that dwelleth therein.

22 And he that shall swear by heaven, sweareth by the throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon.

23 Woe unto you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye pay tithe of mint, and anise, and cummin, and have omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy, and faith: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

24 Ye blind guides, which strain at a gnat, and swallow a camel.

33 So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors.

34 Verily I say unto you, this generation shall not pass, till x all these things be fulfilled.

35 Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.

36 But of that z day and hour knoweth no man, no not the angels of heaven, but my a Father only.

37 But as the b days of Noe were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

38 For as in the days that were before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying & giving in marriage, until the c day that Noe entred into the c ark, 39 And knew not until d flood came, and took them all away, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

40 e Then shall two be in the field, the one shall be taken, & the other left.

41 Two women shall be grinding in the mill, the one shall be taken, and the other left.

42 f Watch therefore, for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come.

43 But know this, that if the good man of the house had known in what watch g a thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken up.

44 Therefore, be ye also h ready: for in such an hour as ye think not, the Son of man cometh.

45 Who then is i a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them meat in due season?

46 Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh, shall k find so doing.

47 Verily I say unto you, that he shall make him ruler over all his goods.

48 But and if that evil servant shall say in his heart, My lord l delayeth his coming,

49 And shall begin to m smite his fellow-servants, and to eat and drink with the n drunken:

50 The Lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, & in an hour y he is not aware of it, 51 And shall o cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

CHAP. XXV.

The parable of the ten virgins.

THen a shall y kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and b went forth to meet the bridegroom.

2 And five of them were z wise, and five were a foolish.

3 b They that were foolish took their lamps, and took c no oyl with them.

4 But the wise took oyl in their vessels, with their lamps.

5 While the bridegroom d tarried, they all slumbered and slept.

6 And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom e cometh; f go ye out to meet him.

7 Then all those virgins arose, and g trimmed their lamps.

8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oyl; for our lamps are h gone out.

9 But the wise answered, saying, Not so, lest there be i not enough for us and you: but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for your selves.

10 And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were k ready went in with him to the marriage, and the door was l shut.

11 Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us.

12 But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, I know you not.

13 f Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh.

14 For the kingdom of heaven is as a man travelling into a far country, who called his own servants, and x delivered unto them his goods.

15 And y unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one, to every man according to his several z ability, and straightway took his journey.

16 Then he that had received the five talents, went and a traded with the same, & b made them other five talents.

17 And likewise he that had received two, he also c gained other two.

18 But he that had received one, went and d digged in the earth, and hid his lord's money.

19 After e a long time the lord of those servants f cometh, and g reckoneth with them.

20 And so he that had received five talents, came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents, b behold, I have gained besides them five talents more.

21 His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant, thou hast been faithful over k a few things, I will make thee l ruler over many things: enter thou into the m joy of thy lord.

22 He also that had received two talents, came and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents, behold, I have gained two other talents besides them.

23 His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant, thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into joy of thy lord.

24 Then he which had received the one talent, came and said, Lord, I knew thee y that thou art a hard man, reaping where thou hast not sown, & gathering where thou hast not strawed:

25 And I was y afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, there thou hast that is thine.

26 His lord answered and said unto him, Thou wicked and n slothful servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I have not strawed:

27 y Thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the exchangers, and then at my coming I should have received mine own with usury.

28 Take therefore the talent from him, & give it unto him which hath ten talents.

29 For unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but from him that hath not, shall be taken away even that which he hath.

30 And cast ye the o unprofitable servant into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

31 When the Son of man shall come in p his glory, & all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory.

32 And before him shall be gathered q all nations, & he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats:

33 And he shall set the sheep on his r right hand, but the goats on the left.

34 Then shall the King say unto them

CHAP. XXVI.

3 A conspiracy against Christ, 14 Judas selleth him: 17 He eateth the passover.

AND it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these sayings, a he said unto his disciples,

2 b Ye know that after two days is the feast of the passover, and the Son of man is betrayed to be crucified.

3 Then c assembled together the chief priests, and the Scribes, and the elders of the people, unto the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas,

4 And d consulted that they might take Jesus by subtilty, and kill him.

5 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be e an uproar among the people.

6 Now when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the Leper,

7 There came unto him a woman having f an alabaster box of very precious ointment, and poured it on his heads as he sate at meat.

8 But when his disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, To what purpose is this g waste?

9 For this ointment might have been sold for much, and h given to the poor.

10 When Jesus understood it, he said unto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought a good work upon me.

11 For ye have the poor always with you, but me ye have not always.

12 For in that she hath poured this ointment on my body, she did it for my burial.

13 Verily, I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached in the whole world, there shall also this that this woman hath done, be told for a memorial of her.

14 Then one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, i went unto the chief priests, 15 And said unto them, k What will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? and they covenanted with him for l thirty pieces of silver.

16 And from that time he sought m opportunity to betray him.

17 Now the n first day of the feast of unleavened bread, the disciples came to Jesus, saying unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the passover?

18 And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him, The Master saith, o My time is at hand; I will p keep the passover at thy house with my disciples.

19 And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them, and they made ready the passover.

20 Now when the q even was come, he sate down with the twelve.

21 And as they did eat, he said, Verily, I say unto you, that r one of you shall betray me.

22 And they were exceeding s sorrowful, and began every one of them to say unto him, Lord, is it I?

23 And he answered and said, He that t dippeth his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me.

24 The Son of man goeth as it is written of him: but u wo unto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! x it had been good for that man, if he had not been born.

25 Then Judas, which betrayed him, answered and said, Master, is it I? He said unto him, Thou hast said.

26 And as they were eating, Jesus took y bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the z disciples, and said, Take, eat, this is my body.

27 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and a gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it;

28 For this is my blood of b the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins.

29 But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom.

30 And when they had sung an c hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.

31 Then said Jesus unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad.

32 But after I am risen again, I will go before you into Galilee.

33 Peter answered and said unto him, Though all men shall be offended because of thee, yet will I never be offended.

34 Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, that this night before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

35 Peter said unto him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.

36 Then cometh Jesus with them unto a place called Gethsemane, and saith unto the disciples, Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder.

37 And he took with him b Peter, and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful, and d very heavy.

38 Then saith he unto them, My soul ceeding sorrowful; t even unto death: tarry ye here, & u watch with me.

39 And he went a little further, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me: nevertheless, not as I will, but as thou wilt.

40 And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them asleep, and saith unto Peter, What, could ye not watch with me one hour?

41 Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the v spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.

42 He went away again the second time, & pray, saying, O my Father, if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done.

43 And he came and found them asleep w again: for their eyes were heavy.

44 And he left them, and went away again, and prayed the x third time, saying the y same words.

45 Then cometh he to his disciples, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: z behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of a sinners.

46 Rise, let us be going: behold, he is at hand that doth betray me.

47 And while he yet spake, lo, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great b multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and elders of the people.

48 Now he that betrayed him, gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he, hold him fast.

49 And forthwith he came to Jesus, and said, Hail, Master; and kissed him.

50 And Jesus said unto him, c Friend, wherefore art thou come? Then came they, and laid hands on Jesus, and took him.

51 And behold, d one of them which were with Jesus, stretched out his hand, and e drew his sword, and struck a servant of the high priest's, and smote off his ear.

52 Then said Jesus unto him, Put up again thy sword into his place: for f all they that take the sword, shall perish with the sword.

53 Think'st thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, and he shall presently give me more than twelve g legions of angels?

54 But how then shall the h scriptures be fulfilled, that thus it must be?

55 In that same hour said Jesus to the multitudes, Are ye come out as against a thief, with swords and with staves for to take me? I sate daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye laid no hold on me.

56 But all this was done, that the scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the i disciples forsook him, and fled.

57 And they that had laid hold on Jesus, k led him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled.

58 But Peter followed him l afar off, unto the high priest's palace, and went in, & sat with the servants, to see the end.

59 Now the chief priests and elders, & all the council, m sought false witness against Jesus, to put him to death;

60 But found none: yea, though many false witnesses came, yet found they none. At the last came n two false witnesses, 61 And said, This fellow said, I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days.

62 And the high priest arose, and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee?

61 But Jesus o held his peace. And the high priest answered and said unto him, p I adjure thee by the living God, that thou tell us, whether thou be the Christ, the Son of God.

64 Jesus saith unto him, Thou hast said: nevertheless I say unto you, q Hereafter shall ye o see the Son of man sitting on the r right hand of power, and s coming in the clouds of heaven.

65 Then the high priest t rent his clothes, saying, He hath spoken blasphemy; what further need have we of witnesses? behold, now ye have heard his blasphemy.

66 What think ye? They answered and said, He is u guilty of death.

67 Then did they x spit in his face, and buffeted him, and others smote him with the palms of their hands, 68 Saying, y Prophesie unto us, thou Christ, who is he that smote thee?

69 Now Peter sate without in the palace: & a damsel came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with Jesus of Galilee.

70 But he y denyed before them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest.

71 And when he was gone out into the porch, another maid saw him, and said unto them that were there, This fellow was also with Jesus of Nazareth.

72 And again he denied z with an oath, I do not know the man.

73 And after a while came unto him they that stood by, and said to Peter, Surely thou also art one of them, for a thy speech bewrayeth thee.

74 Then began he b to curse and to swear, saying, I know not the man. And immediately the cock crew.

75 And Peter remembred the words of Jesus, which said unto him, Before y cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he c went out, and wept bitterly.

CHAP. XXVII.

Christ is delivered to Pilate. 3 Judas hangeth himself.

WHen the a morning was come, all the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death.

2 And when they had bound him, they led him away, and delivered him to b Pontius Pilate the governour.

3 c Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, d repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders,

4 Saying, I have sinned, in that I have betrayed the e innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? f see thou to that.

5 And he g cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and h hanged himself.

6 And the chief priests took the silver pieces, and said, It is not lawful for to put them into the i treasury, because it is the k price of blood.

7 And they took counsel, and bought with them the potters field, to bury l strangers in.

8 Wherefore that m field was called, The field of blood, unto this day.

9 (Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, saying, And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was n valued, whom they of the children of Israel did value;

10 And gave them for the potters field, as the LORD appointed me.)

66 So they went, and made the sepulchre sure, u sealing the stone, and setting a watch.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 Christs resurrection declared; 10 He appeareth to his disciples.

IN the a end of the sabbath, as it began to dawn, towards the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, to see the sepulchre.
2 And behold, there was b a great earthquake: for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sate upon it.
3 His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment c white as snow.
4 And for d fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men.
5 And the angel answered and said unto the women, e Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus which was crucified.
6 He is not here: for he is risen, as he said: come, see the place where the Lord lay.
7 And go quickly, and f tell his disciples that he is risen from the dead; and behold, he goeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you.
8 And they departed quickly from the sepulchre with g fear & great joy, & did run to bring his disciples word.
9 ¶ And as they went to tell his disciples, behold, Jesus h met them, saying, All hail. And they came and held him by the i feet, and worshipped him.
10 Then said Jesus unto them, Be not afraid: go tell k my brethren, that they go into Galilee, and there shall they l see me.
11 Now when they were going, behold, some of the watch came into the city, and shewed unto the chief priests m all the things that were done.
12 And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave large n money unto the soldiers, 13 Saying, Say ye, His disciples came by night, and stole him away while we o slept.
14 And if this come to the governours ears, we will persuade him, and p secure you.
15 So they q took the money, and did as they were taught: and this saying is commonly reported among the Jews r until this day.
16 Then the eleven disciples went away into Galilee, into s a mountain where Jesus had appointed them.
17 And when they saw him, they worshipped him: but some doubted.
18 And Jesus came t and spake unto them, saying, u All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth.
19 x Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the holy Ghost:
20 Teaching them to y observe all things, whatsoever I have commanded you: and lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of world. Amen.

¶ The gospel according to S. MARK.

CHAP. I.

1 John baptists office. 9 Jesus is baptized, 12 tempted, 14 preacheth, 16 calleth Peter, and others, 23 and healeth one that had a devil.

THE a beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ the Son of God,
2 As it is written in the prophets, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall b prepare thy way before thee.
3 The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the LORD, make his paths c straight.
4 John did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the d baptism of repentance for the remission of sins.
5 And there went out unto him all the land of Judea, and they of Jerusalem, and were all baptized of him in e river of Jordan, f confessing their sins.
6 And John was clothed with camels hair, and with a girdle of a skin about his loyns, and he did eat locusts and f wild honey;
7 And preached, saying, There cometh one g mightier than I after me, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and unloose.
8 I indeed have baptized you with water: but he shall baptize you with the h holy Ghost.
9 And it came to pass in those days, i Jesus came from i Nazareth of Galilee, & was baptized of John in Jordan.
10 And straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens opened, and the Spirit like k a dove descending upon him.
11 And there came a voice from heaven, saying, Thou art my l beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.
12 And immediately the m spirit driveth him into the wilderness.
13 And he was there in the wilderness forty days tempted of Satan, and was with the n wild beasts, and the o angels ministred unto him.
14 Now after that John was put in prison, Jesus p came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God, 15 And saying, The time q is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and r believe the gospel.
16 Now as he walked by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon, and Andrew his brother, s casting a net into the sea: (for they were fishers.)
17 And Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become t fishers of men.
18 And u straightway they forsook their nets, and followed him.
19 And when he had gone a little further thence, he saw James the son of Zebedee, & John his brother, who also were in the ship x mending their nets.
20 And straightway he called them: and they y left their father Zebedee in the ship with the hired servants, and went after him.
21 And they went into z Capernaum, & straightway on the sabbath-day he entred into the synagogue, and taught.
22 And they were a astonished at his doctrine: for he taught them as one that had authority, and not as the scribes.
23 And there was in their synagogue

CHAP. II.

1 Christ healeth one sick of the palsie, 14 called Matthew.

A And again he entred into a Capernaum, after some days, and it was noised that he was in the house.
2 And straightway b many were gathered together, insomuch that there was no room to receive them, no not so much as about the door: and c he preached the word unto them.
3 And they come unto him, d bringing one sick of the palsie, which was born of four.
4 And when they could not come nigh unto him for presse, they uncovered the roof where he was: & when they had broken it up, they let down the bed wherein the sick of the palsie lay.
5 When Jesus saw their faith, he saith unto the sick of the palsie, f Son, thy sins be forgiven thee.
6 But there were certain of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts, 7 Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? who can forgive sins but God only?
8 And immediately, when Jesus perceived in his spirit, that they so reasoned within themselves, he said unto them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts?
9 Whether is it easier to say to the sick of the palsie, Thy sins be forgiven thee? or to say, Arise, and take up thy bed, and walk?
10 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (he saith to the sick of the palsie,) 11 I say unto thee, m Arise, and take up thy bed, & go thy way into thine house.
12 And immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went forth before them all; insomuch that they were all amazed, and n glorified God, saying, We never saw it on this fashion.
13 And he went forth again by the seaside, and all the multitude resorted unto him, and he taught them.
14 And as he passed by, he saw Levi the o son of Alpheus sitting at the p receipt of custom, and said unto him, Follow me. And he arose and followed him.
15 And it came to pass, that as Jesus sat q at meat in his house, many publicans and sinners sat also together with Jesus and his disciples: for there were many, and they followed him.
16 And when the scribes and Pharisees saw him eat with publicans and sinners, they said unto his disciples, How is it that r he eateth and drinketh with publicans and sinners?
17 When Jesus heard it, he saith unto them, They that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the s righteous, but sinners to repentance.
18 And the disciples of John, and of the Pharisees used to fast: and they come, and say unto him, Why do the disciples of John, and of the Pharisees fast, but thy disciples fast not?
19 And Jesus said unto them, t Can the children of the bride-chamber fast, while the bride-groom is with them? as long as they have the bride-groom with them, they cannot fast.
20 But the days will come, when the u bride-groom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they x fast in those days.
21 No man also seweth a piece of b new cloth on an old garment: else the new piece that filled it up taketh away from the old, and the rent is made worse.
22 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles, else the new wine doth burst the bottles, y & the wine is spilled, and the bottles will be marred: but new wine must be put into new bottles.
23 And it came to pass, that he went through through the corn-fields on the a sabbath-day: and his disciples began as they went, to pluck the ears of corn.

24 And the Pharisees said unto him, Behold, why do they on the sabbath-day that which is not lawful?

25 And he said unto them, Have ye c never read what David did when he had need, and was an hungred, he, and they that were with him?

26 How he went into the house of God in b days of Abiathar the high priest, and did eat the shew-bread, which is not lawful to eat, but for the priests, and gave also to them which were with him?

27 And he said unto them, The sabbath was made f for man, and not man for the sabbath:

28 Therefore the Son of man is b LORD also of the sabbath.

CHAP. III.

1 Christ healeth the withered hand. 11 rebuketh unclean spirits. 13 chuseth twelve apostles. 31 and sheweth who are his brother, sister, &c.

AND he entred again into the synagogue, and there was a man there which had a a withered hand.

2 And they b watched him, whether he would heal him on the sabbath-day, that they might c accuse him.

3 And d he saith unto the man which had the withered hand, Stand forth.

4 And he saith unto them, e Is it lawful to do good on the sabbath days, or to do evil? to save life, or to kill? but they f held their peace.

5 And when he had looked round about on them g with anger, being grieved for the h hardness of their hearts, he saith unto the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it out, and his hand was restored whole as the other.

6 And the Pharisees went forth, and straightway took counsel with the Herodians against him, how they might destroy him.

7 But Jesus withdrew himself with his disciples to the sea: and i a great multitude from Galilee followed him, and from Judea,

8 And from Jerusalem, and from Idumea, and from beyond Jordan, and they about m Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, when they had heard what great things he did, came unto him.

9 And he n spake to his disciples, that a small ship should wait on him, because of the multitude, lest they should throng him.

10 For he had healed many, insomuch that they pressed upon him for to touch him, as many as had k plagues.

11 And unclean spirits, when they saw him, fell down before him, and cryed, saying, l Thou art the Son of God.

12 And he straitly q charged them, that they should not make him known.

13 And he goeth up into r a mountain, and calleth unto him s whom he would: and they came unto him.

14 And he ordained twelve, that they should be t with him, & that he might send them forth, u to preach, 15 And to have x power to heal sicknesses, and to cast out devils.

16 And Simon he surnamed y Peter.

17 And James the son of Zebedee, and John the brother of James, (and he surnamed them z Boanerges, which is, the sons of thunder)

18 And Andr. a, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the son of Alpheus, and b Thaddeus, and Simon the Canaanite, 19 And Judas Iscariot, which also c betrayed him: & they went into a house.

20 And the multitude cometh together d again, so that they could not so much as eat bread.

21 And when h his friends heard of it, they went out to lay hold on him: for they said, He is e beside himself.

22 And the scribes which came down from Jerusalem, said, He hath d Beelzebub, and by the prince of the devils casteth he out devils.

23 And he e called them unto him, and said unto them in parables, How can Satan cast out Satan?

24 And if f a kingdom be divided against it self, g kingdom cannot stand.

25 And if a house be divided against it self, that house cannot stand.

26 And if Satan rise up against himself, and be divided, he cannot stand, but hath an end.

27 No man can enter into i a strong mans house, and spoil his goods, except he will first k bind the strong man, and then he will spoil his house.

28 Verily I say unto you, All sins shall be l forgiven unto the sons of men, and blasphemies wherewithsoever they shall blaspheme:

29 But he that shall blaspheme m against the holy Ghost, hath never forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal damnation.

30 n Because they said, He hath an unclean spirit.

31 There came then his brethren and his mother, and standing without, sent unto him, calling him.

32 And the multitude sate about him, & they said unto him, Behold thy mother and thy brethren without seek for thee.

33 And he answered them, saying, Who is my mother o or my brethren?

34 And he p looked round about on them which sate about him, and said, Behold my mother and my brethren.

35 For whosoever shall o do the will of God, the same is my brother, and my sister, and mother.

1 The parable of the sower, 14 and the meaning thereof.

AND he began again to teach by the a sea-side: & there was gathered unto him a great multitude, so that he entred into a ship, and b sat in the sea, and the whole multitude was by the sea on the land.

2 And he taught them many things by parables, and said unto them in his doctrine,

3 Hearken, Behold, there went out c a sower to sow.

4 And it came to pass, as he sowed, some fell by d way-side, & the d fowls of the air came, and devoured it up.

5 And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth, and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth.

6 But when the sun was up, it was scorched, and because it had e no root, it withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up, and f choked it, and it yielded no fruit.

8 And other fell on g good ground, and did yield fruit that sprang up and increased, and brought forth some h thirty, and some sixty, and some an hundred.

9 And he said unto them, i He that hath k ears to hear, let him hear.

10 And when he was alone, they that were about him with the twelve, asked of him the parable.

37 And there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the ship, so that it was now full.

38 And he was in the hinder part of the ship, m asleep on a pillow: and they n awake him, and say unto him, Master, careth thou not that we perish?

39 And he arose, and o rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still: and the wind ceased, and there was p a great calm.

40 And he said unto them, Why are ye so fearful? how is it that you have q no faith?

41 And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, What manner of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?

CHAP. V.

1 Christ delivering the possessed of the legion of devils, 14 they enter into the swine.

AND they came over unto the other side of the sea, into the country of the a Gadarenes.

2 And when he was come out of the ship, immediately there b met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit,

3 Who had his dwelling among the tombs, and c no man could bind him, no not with chains:

4 Because that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been plucked asunder by him, & the fetters broken in pieces: neither could any man tame him.

5 And always night and day, he was in the mountains, and in the tombs, crying, and d cutting himself with stones.

6 But when he saw Jesus afar off, he came and worshipped him,

7 And cried with a loud voice, and said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of the most high God? I e adjure thee by God, that thou torment me not.

8 (For he said unto him, f Come out of the man, thou unclean spirit)

9 And he asked him: What is thy name? And he answered, saying, My name is g Legion: for we are many.

10 And he b besought him much, that he would not send them away out of the country.

11 Now there was there nigh unto the mountains, a great herd of swine feeding.

12 And all the devils besought him, saying, Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them.

13 And forthwith Jesus i gave them leave. And the unclean spirits went out, and entred into the swine, and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the sea, (they were about two thousand) & were k choked in the sea.

14 And they that fed the swine fled, and told it in the city, and in the countrey. And they l went out to see what it was that was done.

15 And they come to Jesus, and see him that was possessed with the devil, and had the legion, sitting, and clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid.

16 And they that saw it, told them how it befel to him that was possessed with the devil, and also concerning the swine.

17 And they began to pray him m to depart out of their coasts.

24 And Jesus s went with him, and much people followed him, and thronged him.

25 And a certain woman which had an issue of blood t twelve years,

26 And had suffered many things of many physicians, and had u spent all that she had, and was nothing bettered, but rather x grew worse,

27 When she had heard of Jesus, came in the press behind, and y touched his garment:

28 For she said, If I may touch but his cloches, I shall be z whole.

29 And straightway the fountain of her blood was dried up: and she felt in her body that she was healed of that plague.

30 And Jesus immediately knowing in himself, that a vertue had gone out of him, turned him about in the press, and said, Who touched my clothes?

31 And his disciples said unto him, b Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

32 And he looked round about to see her that had done this thing.

33 But the woman fearing and trembling, knowing what was done in her, came and fell down before him, and told him c all the truth.

34 And he said unto her, d Daughter, thy faith e hath made thee whole, go in peace, and be whole of thy plague.

35 While he yet spake, there came from the ruler of the synagogues house, certain which said, Thy daughter is f dead, why troublest thou the Master any further?

36 As soon as Jesus heard the word that was spoken, he saith unto the ruler of the synagogue, Be g not afraid, only believe.

37 And he suffered no man to follow him, save h Peter, and James, and John the brother of James.

38 And he i cometh to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and seeth the tumult, and them that wept and wailed greatly.

39 And when he was come in, he saith unto them, Why make ye this ado, and weep? the damsel is not dead, but sleepeth.

40 And they k laughed him to scorn: but when he had put them all out, he taketh the father and the mother of the damsel, and them that were with him, and entreth in where the damsel was lying.

41 And he took the damsel by the hand, and said unto her, Talitha cumi, which is, being interpreted, Damsel (I say unto thee) arise.

42 And straightway the damsel arose, and walked, for she was of the age of twelve years: and they were astonished with a great astonishment.

43 And he l charged them straitly, that no man should know it: and commanded that something should be given her to eat.

CHAP. VI.

1 Christ is contemned of his countreymen: 7 He giveth the twelve power.
14 Divers opinions of Christ.

AND he went out from thence, and a came into his a own countrey, and his disciples follow him.

2 And when the sabbath day was come, b he began to teach in the synagogue: and many hearing him were astonished, saying, From whence hath this man these things? and what b wisdom is this which is given unto him, that even such mighty works are wrought by his hands?

3 Is not this the c carpenter, the son of Mary, the brother of James and Joses, and of Juda, and Simon? and are not his sisters here with us? And they were d offended at him.

4 But Jesus said unto them, e A prophet is not without honour, but in his own countrey, and among his own kin, and in his own house.

5 And he could do there no mighty work, save that he laid his hands upon a few sick folk, and healed them.

6 And he f marvelled because of their unbelief. And he b went round about the villages teaching.

7 ¶ And he calleth unto him the twelve, and began to send them forth by two and two, and gave them power over unclean spirits,

8 And commanded them, that they should take k nothing for their journey, save a staff only: no scrip, no bread, no money in their purse:

9 But be shod with l sandals: and not put on two coats.

10 And he said unto them, In what place soever ye enter into an house, there m abide till ye depart from that place.

11 And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear you, when ye depart thence, shake off the dust under your feet, for a testimony against them: verily I say unto you, It shall be n more tolerable for Sodom & Gomorrha in the day of judgment, than for that city.

12 And they went out, and preached that men should repent.

13 And they cast out many devils, & o anointed with oyl many that were sick, and healed them.

14 And king Herod heard of him, (for his p Name was spread abroad) & he said that John the Baptist was risen from the dead, and therefore mighty works do shew forth themselves in him.

15 Others said, That it is q Elias. And others said, That it is a prophet, or as one of the prophets.

16 But when Herod heard thereof, he said, It is John whom I beheaded, he is r risen from the dead.

17 For Herod himself had sent forth & laid hold upon John, & bound him in prison s for Herodias sake, his brother Philips wife; for he had married her.

18 For John had said unto Herod, It is not lawful for thee to have thy brothers wife.

19 Therefore Herodias had t a quarrel against him, and would have killed him, but she could not.

20 For Herod q feared John, knowing that he was a just man and an holy, and observed him, & when he heard him, he did aid many things, and heard him gladly.

21 And when a convenient day was come, that Herod on his birth-day made a ſupper to his nLords, high captains, and chief eſtates of Galilee:

22 And when the daughter of the ſaid Herodias came in and danced, and o pleaſed Herod, and them that ſate with him, the King ſaid unto the damſel, Aſk of me whatſoever thou wilt, and I will give it thee.

23 And he ſware unto her, Whatſoever thou ſhalt aſk of me, I will give it thee, unto the half of my kingdom.

24 And ſhe went forth, and ſaid unto her mother, What ſhall I aſk? And ſhe ſaid, The head of John q Baptiſt.

25 And ſhe came in ſtraightway with haſte unto the king, and aſked, ſaying, I will that thou give me by and by in a charger, the head of John the Baptiſt.

26 And the king was exceeding ſorry, yet for his r oaths ſake, and for their ſakes which ſate with him, he would not reject her.

27 And immediately the king ſent an executioner, and commanded his head to be brought: and he went, and beheaded him in the priſon, 28 And brought his head in a charger, and gave it to the damſel, and the damſel gave it to her mother.

29 And when his diſciples heard of it, they came and took up his corps, and laid it in a tomb.

30 And the apoſtles gathered themſelves together t unto Jeſus, and told him all things, both what they had u done, and what they had taught.

31 And he ſaid unto them, Come ye your ſelves apart into a deſart place, and reſt a while: for there were many coming and going, and they had no leiſure ſo much as to eat.

32 And they departed into a deſart place by ſhip privately.

33 And the people ſaw them departing, and many knew him, and x ran afoot thither out of all y cities, & outwent them, and came together unto him.

34 And Jeſus, when he came out, ſaw much people, and was moved with compaſſion toward them, becauſe they were z as ſheep not having a ſhepherd; and he began to teach them many things.

35 And when the day was now a far ſpent, his diſciples came unto him, and ſaid, This is a deſart place, and now the time is far paſt:

36 Send them away, that they may go into the countrey round about, and into the villages, and buy themſelves bread: for they have b nothing to eat.

37 He anſwered and ſaid unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they ſay unto him, Shall we go and buy two hundred penyworth of bread, and give them to eat?

38 He ſaith unto them, How many loaves have ye? go and ſee. And when they knew, they ſay, c Five, and two fiſhes.

39 And he commanded them to make all ſit down by † companies upon the green graſs.

40 And they ſate down in ranks, d by hundreds, and by fifties.

41 And when he had taken the five loaves, and the two fiſhes, he looked up to heaven, and e bleſſed, and brake the loaves, and gave them to his diſciples to ſet before them; and the two fiſhes divided he among them all.

42 And they did all eat, & were f filled.

43 And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments, and of the fiſhes.

44 And they that did eat of the loaves, were about five thouſand men.

45 And ſtraightway he conſtrained his diſciples to get into the ſhip, and to go to g the other ſide before unto Bethſaida, while he ſent away the people.

46 And when he had ſent them away, he departed into a mountain to pray.

47 And when even was come, the ſhip was in the midſt of the ſea, and he alone on the land.

48 And he ſaw them toiling in rowing, (for the wind was contrary unto them) and about the fourth watch of the night he cometh unto them, walking upon the ſea, and h would have paſſed by them.

49 But when they ſaw him i walking upon the ſea, they ſuppoſed it had been a ſpirit, and k cried out:

50 (For they all ſaw him, and were troubled.) And immediately he talked with them, and ſaith unto them, Be of good chear, it is I, be not afraid.

51 And he went up unto them into the ſhip, and the wind ceaſed: and they were ſore amazed in themſelves beyond meaſure, and wondred.

52 For they conſidered not the miracle of the loaves, for their heart was l hardned.

53 And when they had paſſed over, they came into the land of Genneſareth, and drew to the ſhore.

54 And when they were come out of the ſhip, ſtraightway they knew him, 55 And ran through that whole region round about, and began a to carry about in beds thoſe that were ſick, where they heard he was.

56 And whitherſoever he entred, into villages, or cities, or countrey, they laid the ſick in the ſtreets, and beſought him that they might touch if it were but b the border of his garment: and as many as touched him, were made whole.

CHAP. VII.

1 The Phariſees find fault at the diſciples, for eating with unwaſhen hands.

THen came together unto him the a Phariſees, and certain of the Scribes, which came from Jeruſalem.

2 And when they ſaw ſome of his diſciples eat bread w defiled (that is to ſay, w unwaſhen) hands, they b found fault.

3 For the Phariſees, and all the Jews, except they waſh their hands † oft, eat not, holding the tradition of the elders.

4 And when they come from the markets, except they x waſh, they eat not. And many other things there be, which they have received to hold, as the waſhing of cups, and pots, brazen veſſels, and of tables.

5 Then the Phariſees and Scribes asked him, Why walk not thy diſciples according to y the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwaſhen hands?

6 He anſwered and ſaid unto them, Well hath Eſaias z propheſied of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honoreth me with their a lips, but their heart is far from me.

7 How beit, b in vain do they worſhip me, teaching for doctrins the traditions of men.

8 For laying aſide the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the waſhing of pots and cups: and many other ſuch like things ye do.

9 And he ſaid unto them, † Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition.

11 But ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is † Corban, that is to say, a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me; he shall be free.

12 And ye k suffer him no more to do ought for his father or his mother:

13 Making the word of God l of none effect through your tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things do ye.

14 And when he had called all the people unto him, he said unto them, Hearken unto me every one of you, and understand.

15 There is nothing from m without a man that entring into him can defile him: but the things which come out of him, those are they that defile the man.

16 If any man have n ears to hear, let him hear.

17 And when he was entred into the house from the people, his disciples o asked him concerning the parable.

18 And he saith unto them, Are ye so p without understanding also? Do ye not perceive, that whatsoever thing from without entreth into the man, it cannot defile him;

19 Because it entreth not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the q draught, purging all meats?

20 And he said, That which cometh r out of the man, that defileth s man.

21 For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed t evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murthers,

22 Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an u evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness:

23 All these evil things come from x within, and defile the man.

24 And from thence he arose, and went into the y borders of Tyre and Sidon, and entred into an house, and would have no man know it: but he could not be hid.

25 For a certain z woman, whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of him, and came and fell at his feet:

26 (The woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by nation;) and she a besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter.

27 But Jesus said unto her, Let the children first be filled: for it is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it unto the dogs.

28 And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord: yet the b dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.

29 And he said unto her, For this saying, go thy way; the devil is gone out of thy daughter.

30 And when she was come to her house, she found the devil gone out, and her daughter laid upon the bed.

31 And again departing from the coasts of Tyre and Sidon, he came unto the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the coasts of Decapolis.

32 And they bring unto him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech; and they beseech him to put his hand upon him.

33 And he took him aside from the multitude, and put his fingers into his ears, and he c spit, and touched his tongue;

34 And d looking up to heaven, he sighed, and saith unto him, Ephphatha, that is, Be opened.

35 And straightway his ears were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plain.

36 And he charged them that they should tell e no man: but the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they published it;

37 And were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things f well: he maketh both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

CHAP. VIII.

Christ with a long sermon feedeth the people.

IN those days, the a multitude being very great, and having nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples unto him, and saith unto them,

2 I have b compassion on the multitude, because they have now been with me three days, and have nothing to eat:

3 And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way: for divers of them came from far.

4 And his disciples answered him, From d whence can a man satisfie these men with bread here in the wilderness?

5 And he asked them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven.

6 And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and f gave thanks, and brake, and gave to his disciples to set before them: and they did set them before them.

7 And they had a few small fishes: and he g blessed, and commanded to set them also before the people.

8 So they did eat, and were h filled: & they took up of the broken meat that was left, seven baskets.

9 And they that had eaten were about i four thousand: & he sent them away.

10 And straightway he entred into a ship with his disciples, and came into the parts of k Dalmanutha.

11 And the Pharisees came forth, and began to l question with him, seeking of him a sign from heaven, tempting him.

12 And he m sighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek after a sign? Verily I say unto you, There shall no sign be given unto this generation.

13 And he n left them, & entring into the ship again, departed to the other side.

14 Now the disciples had o forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ship with them more than one loaf.

15 And he charged them, saying, † Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, & of the leaven of Herod.

16 And they reasoned p among themselves, saying, It is because we have no bread.

17 And when Jesus q knew it, he saith unto them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? perceive ye not yet, neither understand? have ye your heart yet r hardned?

18 Having eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not s remember?

19 When I brake the five loaves among five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? They say unto him, Twelve.

20 And when the seven among four thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? And they said, Seven.

21 And he said unto them, u How is it that ye do not understand?

22 And he cometh to x Bethsaida; and y they bring a blind man unto him, and besought him to touch him.

23 And he took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the town; and when he had z spit on his eyes, & put his hands upon him, he asked him if he saw ought.

6 For he wiſt not what to ſay, for they were ſore afraid.
7 And there was a g cloud that overſhadowed them: and a b voice came out of the cloud, ſaying, This is my beloved Son: hear him.
8 And ſuddenly when they had looked round about, they ſaw no man any more, ſave Jeſus only with themſelves.
9 And as they came down from the mountain, he charged them that they ſhould tell no man what things they had ſeen, i till the Son of man were riſen from the dead.
10 And they kept that ſaying k with themſelves, queſtioning one with another l what the riſing from the dead ſhould mean.
11 ¶ And they asked him, ſaying, why ſay the Scribes that Elias muſt m firſt come?
12 And he anſwered, and told them, Elias verily cometh firſt, and reſtoreth all things, and how it is n written of the Son of man, that he muſt ſuffer many things, and be o ſet at nought.
13 But I ſay p unto you, that Elias is indeed come, and they have done unto him whatſoever they liſted, as it is written of him.
14 ¶ And when he came to his diſciples, he ſaw a great multitude about them, and the Scribes q queſtioning with them.
15 And ſtraightway all r people when they r beheld him, were greatly amazed, and running to him, ſaluted him.
16 And he asked the Scribes, What queſtion ye with them?
17 And one of the multitude anſwered and ſaid, Maſter, I have brought unto thee my ſon, which hath a dumb ſpirit;
18 And whereſoever he taketh him, he ſ teareth him: and he foameth, and gniſheth with his teeth, and pineth away: and I ſpake to thy diſciples that they ſhould caſt him out, and they t could not.
19 He anſwereth him and ſaith, O faithleſs generation! how long ſhall I be with you? how long ſhall I ſuffer you? bring him unto me.
20 And they brought him unto him: and when he ſaw him, x ſtraightway the ſpirit tare him, and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foming.
21 And he asked his father, How long is it ago ſince this came unto him? And he ſaid, y Of a child.
22 And oft times it hath caſt him into the fire, & into z waters to deſtroy him: but if thou canſt do any thing, a have compaſſion on us, and help us.
23 Jeſus ſaid unto him, If thou canſt believe, all things a are poſſible to him that believeth.
24 And ſtraightway the father of the child cried out, and ſaid with tears, Lord, I believe, b help thou mine unbelief.
25 When Jeſus ſaw that the people came running together, he c rebuked the foul ſpirit, ſaying unto him, Thou dumb & deaf ſpirit, I charge thee come out of him, & enter d no more into him.
26 And the ſpirit cried, and rent him ſore, and came out of him; and he was as one e dead; inſomuch that many ſaid, He is dead.
27 But Jeſus took him by the hand, and lifted him up, and he f aroſe.
28 And when he was come into the houſe, his diſciples asked him privately, g Why could not we caſt him out?
29 And he ſaid unto them, This kind can come forth by nothing but by b prayer and faſting.
30 ¶ And they departed thence, and paſſed through Galilee, and he would not that any man ſhould know it.
31 For he k taught his diſciples, and ſaid unto them, The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they they shall kill him, and after that he is killed, he shall rise the third day.

32 But they l understood not that saying, and were afraid to ask him.
33 And he came to Capernaum, and being in the house, he asked them, m What was it that ye disputed among your selves by the way?
34 But they held their peace; for by the way they had disputed among themselves, who should be n greatest.
35 And he sate down, and called the twelve, and saith unto them, If any man desire to be first, the same shall be last of all, and o servant of all.
36 And he took a child, and set him in the p midst of them: and when he had taken him in his arms, he said unto them,
37 Whosoever shall q receive one of such children in my name, receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me, receiveth not me, but him r that sent me.
38 And John answered him, saying, Master, we saw one casting out devils s in thy Name, and he followeth us not; and we s forbad him, because he followed not us.
39 But Jesus said, Forbid him not: for there is no man which shall do a miracle t in my Name, that can lightly speak evil of me.
40 For he that is not against us, is u on our part.
41 For whosoever shall give you a x cup of water to drink in my name, because ye belong to Christ, verily I say unto you, he shall not lose his reward.
42 And whosoever shall offend one of these y little ones that believe in me, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea.
43 And if thy z hand offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter into life maimed, than having two hands, to go into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched:
44 Where their a worm dieth not, and the fire is not b quenched.
45 And if thy foot offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter halt into life, than having two feet to be cast into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched:
46 Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.
47 And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out: it is better for thee to enter into y kingdom of God with one eye, than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire:
48 Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.
49 For every one shall be c salted with fire, and every d sacrifice shall be salted with salt.
50 e Salt is good: but if the salt have lost his saltness, wherewith will you season it? f have salt in your selves, and g peace one with another.

CHAP. X.

Christ disputeth concerning divorcement.

AND he arose from thence, and a cometh into the a coasts of Judea by the farther side of Jordan: and the people resort unto him again; and as he was b wont, he taught them again.
2 And the Pharisees came to him, and asked him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife? c tempting him.
3 And he answered and said unto them, What did Moses command you?
4 And they said, Moses suffered to write c a bill of divorcement, and to put her away.
5 And Jesus answered and said unto them, For the f hardness of your heart, he wrote you this precept.
6 But from the beginning of the creation God made them g male & female.
7 For this cause shall a man leave his father, and mother, and cleave to his h wife,
8 And they twain shall be one flesh: so then they are no more twain, but one flesh.
9 What therefore God hath joyned together, let not man put asunder.
10 And in the house his disciples asked him again of the same matter.
11 And he saith unto them, Whosoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, i committeth adultery against her.
12 And if a woman shall put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery.
13 And they brought k young children to him, that he should l touch them, and his disciples m rebuked those that brought them.
14 n But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for o such is the kingdom of God.
15 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not o receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein.
16 And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and p blessed them.
17 And when he was gone forth into the way, there came one q running, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good Master, what shall I r do that I may inherit eternal life?
18 And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is no man good, f but one, that is God.
19 Thou t knowest the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Defraud not, Honour thy father and mother.
20 And he answered and said unto him, Master, u all these have I observed from my youth.
21 Then Jesus beholding him, loved him, and said unto him, x One thing thou lackest, go thy way, sell whatsoever thou hast, and z give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven, and come, take up the cross, and follow me.
22 And he was sad at that saying, and went away grieved: for he had a great possessions.
23 And Jesus looked round about, and saith unto b his disciples, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!
24 And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jesus answered again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it for them that c trust in riches, to enter into y kingdom of God!
25 It is easier for a d camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.
26 And they were astonished out of measure, saying among themselves, Who then can be saved?
27 And Jesus looking upon them, saith, d With men it is impossible, but not with God: for with God e all things are possible.
28 Then Peter began to say unto him, Lo, we have f left all, and have followed thee.
29 And Jesus answered and said, Verily I say unto you, there is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, 23 For verily I say unto you, that whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea, and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith, shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith.

24 Therefore I say unto you, What things soever ye desire when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.

25 And when ye stand praying, forgive, if ye have ought against any: that your Father also which is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses.

26 But if you do not forgive, neither will your Father which is in heaven, forgive your trespasses.

27 And they come again to Jerusalem, & as he was walking in the temple, there come to him the chief priests, and the Scribes and the elders, 28 And say unto him, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority to do these things?

29 And Jesus answered and said unto them; I will also ask you one question, & answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things.

30 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or of men? answer me.

31 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, if we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then did ye not believe him?

32 But if we shall say, Of men, they feared the people: for all men counted John, that he was a prophet indeed.

33 And they answered and said unto Jesus, We cannot tell. And Jesus answering saith unto them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

CHAP. XII.

The parable of the vineyard. 13 Of the paying tribute. 18 Of the resurrection. 41 The poor widows mite.

AND he began to speak unto them by parables. A certain man planted a vineyard, & set an hedge about it, and digged a place for the wine-fat, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country.

2 And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard.

3 And they caught him, and beat him, and sent him away empty.

4 And again he sent unto them another servant; and at him they cast stones, & wounded him in the head, & sent him away shamefully handled.

5 And again, he sent another, and him they killed: and many others; beating some, and killing some.

6 Having therefore yet one son, his well-beloved, he sent him also last unto them, saying, They will reverence my son.

7 But those husband men said amongst themselves, This is the heir, come let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours.

8 And they took him, and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard.

9 What shall therefore the Lord of the vineyard do? he will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others.

10 And have ye not heard this scripture? The stone which the builders rejected, is become the head of the corner.

11 This was the Lords doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes.

12 And they sought to lay hold on him, but feared the people, for they knew that he had spoken the parable against them: and they left him, and went their way.

13 And they sent unto him certain of the Pharisees, and of the Herodians, to catch him in his words.

14 And when they were come, they say unto him, Master, we know that thou art true, and carest for no man: for thou regardest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God in truth: Is it lawful to give tribute to Cesar, or not?

15 Shall we give, or shall we not give? But he knowing their hypocrisie, said unto them, Why tempt ye me? bring me a penny, that I may see it.

16 And they brought it: and he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? And they said unto him, Cesars.

17 And Jesus answering, said unto them, Render to Cesar the things that are Cesars: and to God the things that are Gods. And they marvelled at him.

18 Then come unto him the Sadducees, which say there is no resurrection, & they asked him, saying,

19 Master, Moses wrote unto us, If a mans brother die, and leave his wife behind him, and leave no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

20 Now there were seven brethren, and the first took a wife, and dying, left no seed.

21 And the second took her, and died, neither left he any seed, and the third likewise.

22 And the seven had her, and left no seed: last of all the woman died also.

23 In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife.

24 And Jesus answering said unto them, Do ye not therefore err, because ye know not the scriptures, neither the power of God?

25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage: but are as the angels which are in heaven.

26 And as touching the dead, that they rise; have ye not read in the book of Moses, how in the bush God spake unto him, saying, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?

27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: ye therefore do greatly err.

28 And one of the Scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, Which is the first commandment of all?

29 And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, Hear, O Israel, The LORD our God is one Lord:

30 And thou shalt love the LORD thy God with all thine heart, & with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment.

31 And the second is like, namely this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thy self: there is none other commandment greater than these.

32 And the scribe said unto him, Well Master, thou hast said the truth: for there is one God, and there is none other but he.

33 And to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his

34 And when Jesus saw that he answered c discreetly, he said unto him, Thou art d not far from the kingdom of God. And no man after that durst ask him any question.

35 And Jesus answered and said while he taught in the temple, How say the f scribes that Christ is the Son of David?

36 For David himself said by the m holy Ghost, The LORD said to my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

37 David therefore himself calleth him n Lord, and whence is he then his son? and the common people heard him o gladly.

38 And he said unto them in his doctrine, p Beware of f scribes, which love to go in long clothing, and love q salutations in the market places,

39 And the chief seats in the synagogues, and the uppermost rooms r at feasts:

42 And there came a certain poor widow, and she threw in x two mites, which make a farthing.

43 And he called unto him his disciples, and saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, that this poor widow hath cast y more in, than all they which have cast into the treasury.

44 For all they did cast in of their abundance, but she of her z want did cast in all that she had, even all her living.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Christ foreseeth the temple's destruction. 9 The persecution for the gospel.

A Nd as he went out of the temple, a one of his disciples saith unto him, Master, see what manner a of stones, and what buildings are here!

2 And Jesus answering said unto him, Seest thou these great buildings? there shall not be left one stone upon another, b that shall not be b thrown down.

3 And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, over against the temple, Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew asked him c privately, 4 Tell us, When shall d these things be? and what shall be the e sign when all these things shall be fulfilled?

5 And Jesus answering them, began to say, take heed lest any man f deceive you.

6 For many shall come g in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.

7 And when ye shall hear of wars, and rumours of wars, be ye h not troubled: for such things must needs be; but the end shall not be yet.

8 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be earthquakes in divers places, and there shall be i famines, and troubles: these are the beginnings of sorrows.

9 But take heed to yourselves: for they shall k deliver you up to councils; and in the synagogues ye shall be beaten: and ye shall be brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them.

10 And the gospel must first be published among all nations.

11 But when they shall lead you, and deliver you up, take no thought m beforehand what ye shall speak, neither do ye premeditate: but whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye: for it is not ye that speak, but the holy Ghost.

12 Now the brother shall n betray the brother to death, and the father the son: and children shall rise up against their parents, and shall cause them to be put to death.

13 And ye shall be hated of o all men for my names sake: but he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

14 But when ye shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by p Daniel f prophet, standing where it ought not, (let him that readeth, understand) then let them that be in Judea flee to the mountains:

15 And let him that is on the house top, not go down into the house, neither enter therein, q to take any thing out of his house:

16 And let him that is in the field, not turn back again for to take up his garment.

17 But wo to them that are r with child, and to them that give suck in those days.

18 And pray ye that your flight be not in the winter.

19 For in those days shall be affliction, such as was not from the beginning of the creation which God created, unto this time, neither shall be.

20 And except that the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh should be saved: but for the elect's sake, whom he hath chosen, he hath shortned y days.

21 And then if any man shall say to you, Lo, here is Christ, or lo, he is there: s believe him not.

22 For false Christs, and false prophets shall arise, and shall shew x signs and wonders to deceive, if it were possible, even the elect.

23 But take ye heed: behold, I have x foretold you all things.

24 But in y those days, after that tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, 25 And the stars of heaven shall fall, and the z powers that are in heaven shall be shaken.

26 And then shall they a see the Son of man coming in the clouds with great power and glory.

27 And then shall he b send his angels, and shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of heaven.

28 Now learn a parable of the fig-tree. When her branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is near:

29 So ye in like manner, when ye shall see these things come to pass, know that it is nigh, even at the doors.

30 Verily I say unto you, that this generation shall not pass, till all these things be done.

31 Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall c not pass away.

32 But of that day and that hour knoweth no man, no not the angels which are in heaven, neither d the Son, but the Father.

33 e Take ye heed, watch and pray: ye know not when the time is.

34 For the Son of man is as a man taking f a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch.

CHAP. XIV.

1 A conspiracy against Christ. 3 Ointment poured on his head.

AFter a two days was the feast of the passeover, and of unleavened bread: and the chief priests and the Scribes sought how they might take him by b craft, and put him to death.

2 But they said, † not on the feast-day, lest there be an uproar of the people.

3 And being in Bethany, in the house of c Simon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman, having an alabaster box of ointment of spikenard, very d precious, and she brake the box, and poured it on his head.

4 And there were † some y had indignation within themselves, and said, Why was this waste of the ointment made?

5 For it might have been sold for more than three hundred pence, and have been given to the † poor: and they murmured against her.

6 And Jesus said, Let her alone, Why trouble you her? she hath wrought a g good work on me.

7 For ye have the poor with you h always, & whensoever ye will, ye may do them good: but me ye have not always.

8 She hath done † what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying.

9 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she hath i done shall be spoken of, for a memorial of her.

10 And Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, k went unto the chief priests to betray him unto them.

11 And when they heard it, they were l glad, & promised to give him money. And he sought how he might conveniently betray him.

12 And the m first day of unleavened bread, when they killed the passeover, his disciples said unto him, Where wilt thou that we go and prepare, that thou mayest eat the passeover?

13 And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go ye into the city, & there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water: follow him.

14 And wheresoever he shall go in, say ye to the good man of the house, The Master saith, Where is the guest-chamber, where I shall eat the passeover with my disciples?

15 And he will shew you a large upper room, furnished and prepared: there make ready for us.

16 And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passeover.

17 And in the o evening he cometh with the twelve.

18 And as they † sat, and did eat, Jesus said, Verily I say unto you, q one of you which eateth with me, shall betray me.

19 And they began to be r sorrowful, and to say unto him, one by one, Is it I? and another said, Is it I?

20 And he answered and said unto them, s It is one of the twelve that dippeth with me in the dish.

21 The Son of man indeed goeth, as it is t written of him: but u wo to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed: good were it for that man if he had never been born.

22 And as they did eat, Jesus took bread, and † blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and said, Take, eat: this is my body.

23 And he took the cup, and when he had given † thanks, he gave it to them: and they all drank of it.

24 And he said unto them, This is my † blood of the new testament, which is shed for x many.

25 Verily I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it new in the b kingdom of God.

26 And when they had sung an hymn, they c went out into the mount of Olives.

27 And Jesus said unto them, All d ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered.

28 But after that I am e risen, I will go before you into Galilee.

29 But Peter said unto him, Although all shall be offended, yet f will not I.

30 And Jesus saith unto him, Verily I say unto thee, that this day, even in g this night, before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice.

31 But he spake the more vehemently, If I should die with thee, I will not deny thee in any wise. Likewise also said they all.

32 And they came to a place which was named Gethsemani: and he saith to his disciples, h Sit ye here, while I shall pray.

33 And he taketh with him † Peter, and James, and John, and began to be sore amazed, and to be very heavy;

34 And saith unto them, My soul is exceeding k sorrowful unto death: tarry ye here, and watch.

35 And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed, that if it were possible the † hour might pass from him.

36 And he said, m Abba, Father, All things are possible unto thee, take away this cup from me: nevertheless, not what I will, but what thou wilt.

37 And he cometh, and findeth them n sleeping, and saith unto Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? couldest thou not watch one hour?

38 b Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation: the spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak.

39 And again he went away, and † prayed, and spake the same words.

40 And when he returned, he found them q asleep again (for their eyes were heavy) neither wist they what to answer him.

41 And he cometh the third time, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: it is enough, the hour is come, behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of r sinners.

42 Rise up, † let us go; lo, he that betrayeth me is at hand.

43 And immediately, while he yet spake, cometh † Judas one of s twelve, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests, and the Scribes, and the elders.

44 And he that betrayed him, had given them a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall † kiss, that same is he; take u him, & lead him away safely.

45 And as soon as he was come, he goeth straightway to him, and saith, † Master, master, and kissed him.

46 And they x laid their hands on him, and took him.

67 And when she saw Peter warming himself, she looked upon him, & said, and thou also wast with Jesus of Nazareth.

68 But he t denied, saying, I know not, neither understand I what thou sayest. And he went out into the porch, and the cock crew.

69 And a maid saw him u again, and began to say to them that stood by, This is one of them.

70 And he denied it again. And a little after, they that stood by, said again to Peter, Surely thou art one of them: for thou art a Galilean, and x thy speech agreeth thereto.

71 But he began to y curse and to swear, saying, I know not this man of whom ye speak.

72 And the second time the cock crew. & Peter called to mind the word Jesus said unto him, Before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice. And when he z thought thereon, he wept.

67 And one of them that stood by, a drew a sword, and smote a servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.

48 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Are ye come out as against a b thief, with swords and with staves, to take me?

49 I was daily with you in the temple, teaching, and ye took me not: but c the scriptures must be fulfilled.

50 And they d all forsook him, & fled.

51 And there followed him a certain young man having e a linen cloth cast about his naked body; and the young men f laid hold on him:

52 And he g left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked.

53 And they h led Jesus away to the high priest: and with him were assembled all the chief priests, and the elders, and the scribes.

54 And Peter followed him i afar off, even into the palace of the high priest: and he k sat with the servants, and warmed himself at the fire.

55 And the chief priests, & all the council, l sought for witness against Jesus, to put him to death, and found none.

56 For many bare false witness against him, but their witness agreed not together.

57 And there arose certain, & bare false witness against him, saying,

58 We heard him say, I will destroy this k temple that is made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands.

59 But neither so did their witness agree together.

60 And the high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? What is it which these witness against thee?

61 But he held his peace, and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked him, and said unto him, Art thou the Christ, the Son of the blessed?

62 And Jesus said, I am: and ye shall m see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

63 Then the high priest n rent his clothes, and saith, What need we any further witnesses?

64 Ye have heard the o blasphemy: what think ye? And they all condemned him to be guilty of death.

65 And some began to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to buffet him, and to say unto him, p Prophesie: and the servants did strike him with the palms of their hands.

66 And as Peter was beneath in the palace, there cometh one of the q maids of the high priest:

CHAP. XV.

Jesus is brought bound before Pilate.

AND a straightway in the morning the b chief priests held a consultation with the elders and Scribes, and the whole council, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him to Pilate.

2 And Pilate asked him, Art thou the king of the Jews? And he answering said unto him, c Thou sayest it.

3 And the chief priest accused him of many things: but he answered d nothing.

4 And Pilate asked him e again saying, Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they witness against thee.

5 But Jesus yet answered f nothing; so that Pilate marvelled.

6 Now at that feast he released unto them one prisoner, g whomsoever they desired.

7 And there was one named Barabbas, which lay bound with them that had made insurrection with him, who had committed h murther in the insurrection.

8 And the multitude crying aloud, began to desire him to do as he had ever done unto them.

9 But Pilate answered them, saying, Will ye that I release unto you the king of the Jews?

10 (For I the knew that the chief priests had delivered him for k envy.)

11 But the l chief priests moved the people, that he should rather release Barabbas unto them.

12 And Pilate answered & said again unto them, What will ye then I shall do unto him whom ye call king of Jews?

13 And m they cried out again, Crucifie him.

14 Then Pilate said unto them, Why, n what evil hath he done? & they cried out y more exceedingly, Crucifie him.

15 And so Pilate willing to content the people, released Barabbas unto them: and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified.

16 And the o souldiers led him away into the hall, called Pretorium, and they call together the whole band.

17 And they clothed him with purple, and platted p a crown of thorns, and put it about his head, 18 And began to salute him, Hail king of the Jews.

19 And they smote him on the head with a reed, and did spit upon him, & r bowing their knees, worshipped him.

20 And when they had mocked him, they took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, and s led him out to crucifie him.

21 And they compel one Simon a Cyrenian, who passed by, coming out of the country, x the father of Alexander and Rufus, u to bear his cross.

22 And they x bring him unto the place Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, the place of a skull.

23 And they gave him to drink, y wine mingled with myrrhe: but he received it not.

24 And when they had crucified him, they z parted his garments, casting lots upon them, what every man should take.

25 And it was the third hour, and they crucified him.

26 And the a superscription of his accusation was written over, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

27 And with him they b crucifie two thieves; the one on his right hand, and the other on his left.

28 And the c scripture was fulfilled, which which saith, And he was numbred with the transgressors.

35 And they that passed by, railed on him, wagging their heads, & saying, Ah thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days:

30 Save thy self, and come down from the cross.

31 Likewise also the e chief priests mocking, said among themselves with the scribes, He saved others, himself he cannot save.

32 Let Christ the King of Israel descend now from the cross, that we may see and believe: and they that were crucified with him, reviled him.

33 And when the sixth hour was come, there was g darkness over the whole land, until the ninth hour.

34 And at the ninth hour h Jesus cryed with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? which is, being interpreted, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

35 And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, Behold, he calleth Elias.

36 And one ran and filled a sponge full of vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink, saying, Let alone, let us see whether Elias will come to take him down.

37 And Jesus cried with a loud voice, and gave up the ghost.

38 And the i vail of the temple was rent in twain, from the top to the bottom.

39 And when the centurion, which stood over against him, saw that he so cryed out, and gave up the ghost, he said, Truly, this man was the Son of God.

40 There were also m women looking on afar off, among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the less, and of Joses, & Salome:

41 Who also when he was in Galilee, followed him, and ministred unto him, and many other women which came up with him unto Jerusalem.

42 ¶ And now when the n even was come, (because it was the preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath)

43 Joseph of Arimathea, an honorable counsellor, which also waited for the kingdom of God, came, and went in boldly unto Pilate, & craved the body of Jesus.

44 And Pilate marvelled if he were already dead, and calling unto him the centurion, he asked him whether he had been any while dead.

45 And when he knew it of the centurion, he gave the body to Joseph.

46 And he bought fine linen, and took him down, & wrapped him in the linen, & laid him in a sepulchre that was hewen out of a rock, and rolled a stone unto the door of the sepulchre.

47 And Mary Magdalene, & Mary the mother of Joses, beheld where he was laid.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Christ's resurrection declared to three women: 9 He appeareth to Mary Magdalene and some of the apostles,

AND when the sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, & Salome, had bought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint him.

2 And very early in the morning, the first day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun.

3 And they said among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre?

4 And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away: for it was very great.

5 And entring into the sepulchre, they saw a young man, sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment, & they were affrighted.

6 And he saith unto them, Be not affrighted: ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, which was crucified: he is risen, he is not here, behold the place where they laid him.

7 But go your way, tell his disciples & Peter, that he goeth before you into Galilee, there shall ye see him, as he said unto you.

8 And they went out quickly, and fled from the sepulchre, for they trembled, and were amazed, neither said they any thing to any man, for they were afraid.

9 Now when Jesus was risen early the first day of the week, he appeared f first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had cast seven devils.

10 And she went and told them that had been with him, as they mourned and wept.

11 And they, when they had heard that he was alive, and had been seen of her, g believed not.

12 After that he appeared in another b form unto two of them, as they walked, & went into the country.

13 And they went and told it unto the residue: neither believed they them.

14 i Afterward he appeared unto the eleven as they sat at meat, & upbraided them k with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen.

15 And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel k to every creature.

16 He that l believeth, and is baptized, shall be saved; but he that believeth not, shall be damned.

17 And these m signs shall follow them that believe: in my name shall they cast out devils, they shall speak with new tongues, 18 They shall take up serpents, and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them, they shall lay hands on the sick, & they shall recover.

19 So then after the Lord had spoken unto them, he was o received up into heaven, & sat on the right hand of God.

20 And they went forth, and preached every where, the p LORD working with them, and confirming the word with signs following. Amen.

CHAP. I.

1 Luke's preface. 5, 26 John and Christ conceived. 57 Johns birth.

FOrasmuch as many have taken in hand to set forth in order a declaration of those things, which are most surely believed among us:

2 Even as they delivered them unto us, which from the beginning were eye-witnesses, and ministers of the word:

3 b It seemed good to me also, having had perfect understanding of all things from the very first, to write unto thee in order, most excellent Theophilus,

4 That thou mightest know the certainty of those things, wherein thou hast been c instructed.

5 THere was in the days of Herod the king of Judea, a certain priest named Zacharias, of the c course of Abia, and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth.

6 And they were both f righteous g before God, walking h in all the commandments commandments and ordinances of the LORD, blameleſs.

7 And they had l no child, becauſe that Eliſabeth was barren, and they both were now well ſtricken in years.

8 And it came to paſs, that while he executed the prieſt's office before God in the order of his courſe, 9 According to the k cuſtom of the prieſt's office, his lot was to burn incenſe when he went into the temple of the Lord.

10 And the whole multitude of the people were praying m without, at the time of incenſe.

11 And there appeared unto him n an angel of the LORD, ſtanding on the right ſide of the o altar of incenſe.

12 And when Zacharias ſaw him, he was p troubled, & fear fell upon him.

13 But the angel ſaid unto him, Fear not, Zacharias, for thy q prayer is heard, and thy wife Eliſabeth ſhall bear thee a ſon, and thou ſhalt call his name John.

14 And thou ſhalt have q joy and gladneſs, & many ſhall rejoyce at his birth.

15 For he ſhall be r great in the ſight of the LORD, and ſhall drink neither wine nor ſtrong drink, and he ſhall be filled with the holy Ghoſt, even s from his mother's womb.

16 And t many of the children of Iſrael ſhall he turn to the Lord their God.

17 And he ſhall u go before him in the ſpirit and power of Elias, to x turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the diſobedient to the wiſdom of the juſt, to make ready a people prepared for the LORD.

18 And Zacharias ſaid unto the angel, Whereby ſhall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife well ſtricken in years.

19 And the angel anſwering ſaid unto him, I am y Gabriel, that ſtand in the preſence of God, and am ſent to ſpeak unto thee, and to ſhew thee theſe glad tidings.

20 And behold, thou ſhalt be dumb, and not able to ſpeak until the day that theſe things ſhall be performed, becauſe thou z believeſt not my words, which ſhall be a fulfilled in their ſeaſon.

21 And the people b waited for Zacharias, and marvelled that he tarried ſo long in the temple.

22 And when he came out, he could not ſpeak unto them: and they perceived that he had ſeen a viſion in the temple, for he beckened unto them, and remained ſpeechleſs.

23 And it came to paſs, that aſſoon as the days of his miniſtration were c accompliſhed, he departed to his own houſe.

24 And after thoſe days his wife Eliſabeth conceived, and hid her ſelf five moneths, ſaying, 25 Thus hath the LORD dealt with me, in the days wherein he d looked on me, to take away my reproach among men.

26 And in the ſixth moneth, the angel Gabriel was ſent from God, unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, 27 To a virgin eſpouſed to a man whoſe name was Joſeph, of the houſe of David; and the virgin's name was Mary.

28 And the angel came in unto her, and ſaid, Hail thou that art e highly favored, the Lord is g with thee, bleſſed art thou h among women.

29 And when he ſaw him, he was troubled at his ſaying, and caſt in her mind what manner of ſalutation this ſhould be.

30 And the angel ſaid unto her, Fear not, Mary, for thou haſt found favor with God.

31 And behold, thou ſhalt i conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a ſon, and ſhalt call his name Jeſus.

32 He ſhall be k great, and ſhall be called the Son of the higheſt, and the Lord God ſhall give unto him the throne of his father David.

33 And he ſhall l reign over the houſe of Jacob for ever, and of his m kingdom there ſhall be no end.

34 Then ſaid Mary unto the angel, n How ſhall this be, ſeeing I know not a man?

35 And the angel anſwered and ſaid unto her, o The holy Ghoſt ſhall come upon thee, & the power of the Higheſt ſhall overſhadow thee: therefore alſo that holy thing which ſhall be born p of thee, ſhall be called the Son of God.

36 And behold thy couſin Eliſabeth, ſhe hath alſo conceived a ſon in her old age, and this is the ſixth moneth with her, who was called barren.

37 For with God q nothing ſhall be impoſſible.

38 And Mary ſaid, Behold the handmaid of the LORD, r be it unto me according to thy word: and the angel departed from her.

39 And Mary aroſe in thoſe days, and went into the s hill-country with haſt into a city of Juda, 40 And entred into the houſe of Zacharias, and ſaluted Eliſabeth.

41 And it came to paſs, that when Eliſabeth heard the ſalutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb: and t Eliſabeth was filled u with the holy Ghoſt.

42 And ſhe ſpake out with a loud voice, and ſaid, x Bleſſed art thou among women, & bleſſed is y fruit of thy womb.

43 And whence is this to me, that the mother of z my LORD ſhould come to me?

44 For lo, a as ſoon as the voice of thy ſalutation ſounded in mine ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy.

45 And bleſſed is ſhe that believed, for there ſhall be a performance of thoſe things b which were told her from the LORD.

46 And Mary ſaid, y My ſoul doth magnifie the LORD, 47 And my ſpirit hath z rejoyced in God c my Saviour.

48 For he hath regarded the low ‡ eſtate of his hand-maiden: for behold, from henceforth all generations ſhall call me bleſſed.

49 For he that is mighty hath done to me d great things, and holy is his name.

50 And his mercy is on them that d fear him, from generation to generation.

51 He hath ſhewed ſtrength with his arm, he hath ſcattered the proud in the e imagination of their hearts.

52 He hath f put down the mighty from their ſeats, and exalted them of low degree.

53 He hath filled the g hungry with good things, and the rich he hath ſent empty away.

54 He hath holpen his ſervant Iſrael, in h remembrance of his mercy, 55 As he ſpake to i our fathers, to Abraham and to k his ſeed for ever.

56 And Mary abode with her about three moneths, & returned to her own houſe.

57 Now Eliſabeth's full time came, that ſhe ſhould be delivered; and ſhe brought forth a ſon.

58 And her neighbours and her couſins heard how the LORD had ſhewed great mercy upon her, and they l rejoyced with her.

59 And it came to paſs that on the m eighth day they came to circumciſe the child, & they would have called him Zacharias, after the name of his father.

60 And his mother answered and said, Not so, but he shall be called John.

61 And they said unto her, There is none of thy kindred that is called by this name.

62 And they made signs to his father, how he would have him called.

63 And he asked for a writing table, and wrote, saying, His name is John: and they marvelled all.

64 And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he spake, and praised God.

65 And fear came on all that dwelt round about them: and all these sayings were noised abroad throughout all the hill country of Judea.

66 And all they that had heard them, laid them up in their hearts, saying, What manner of child shall this be? & the hand of the Lord was with him.

67 And his father Zacharias was filled with the holy Ghost, and prophesied saying,

68 Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, for he hath visited and redeemed his people;

69 And hath raised up an horn of salvation for us, in the house of his servant David;

70 As he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began:

71 That we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us;

72 To perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to remember his holy covenant;

73 The oath which he sware to our father Abraham,

74 That he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hands of our enemies, might serve him without fear, 75 In holiness and righteousness before him all the days of our life.

76 And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest: for thou shalt go before the face of the LORD to prepare his ways;

77 To give knowledge of salvation unto his people by the remission of their sins,

78 Through the tender mercy of our God; whereby the day-spring from on high hath visited us, 79 To give light to them that sit in darkness, & in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.

80 And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, & was in the deserts, till the day of his shewing unto Israel.

CHAP. II.

1 Augustus taxeth the Roman empire. 7 Christ's nativity.

AND it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Cesar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed.

2 (And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governour of Syria.)

3 And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city.

4 And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, (because he was of the house and lineage of David:)

5 To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child.

6 And so it was, that while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered.

7 And she brought forth her first-born son, & wrapped him in swadling clothes, and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

8 And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.

9 And lo, the angel of the LORD came upon them, and the glory of the LORD shone round about them, and they were sore afraid.

10 And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

11 For unto you is born this day in the city of David, a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

12 And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swadling clothes, lying in a manger.

13 And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, & saying, 14 Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will towards men.

15 And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

16 And they came with haste, and found Mary and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.

17 And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.

18 And all they that heard it, wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds.

19 But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.

20 And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

21 And when eight days were accomplished for the circumcising of the child, his name was called JESUS, which was so named of the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

22 And when the days of her purification, according to the law of Moses, were accomplished, they brought him to Jerusalem, to present him to the LORD;

23 (As it is written in the law of the Lord, Every male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord)

24 And to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the Lord, A pair of turtle doves, or two young pigeons.

25 And behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon, and the same man was just and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel: and the holy Ghost was upon him.

26 And it was revealed unto him by the holy Ghost, that he should not see death, before he had seen the Lord's Christ.

27 And he came by the spirit into the temple, & when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him after the custom of the law,

28 Then took he him up in his arms, and blessed God, and said,

29 LORD, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word, 30 For mine eyes have seen thy salvation,

31 Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people;

32 A light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel.

33 And

22 And Joseph and his mother marvelled at those things which were spoken of him.

34 And Simeon blessed them, and said unto Mary his mother, Behold, this child is set for the m fall & rising again of many in Israel; and for a sign which shall be spoken against;

35 (Yea, n a sword shall pierce through thy own soul also,) that the o thoughts of many hearts may be revealed.

36 And there was one Anna a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Aser: she was of p a great age, and had lived with an husband seven years from her virginity.

37 And she was a widow of about fourscore and four years, q which departed not from the temple, but r served God with fastings & prayers night and day.

38 And she coming in that instant, gave thanks likewise unto the LORD, and spake of him to all them that looked for redemption in Jerusalem.

39 And when they had performed all things according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city Nazareth.

40 And the child grew, and waxed strong s in spirit, filled with wisdom: and the grace of God was upon him.

41 Now his parents went to Jerusalem t every year, at the feast of the passover.

42 And when he was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem, after the custom of the feast.

43 And when they had u fulfilled the days; as they returned, the child Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem, and Joseph and his mother knew not of it.

44 But they supposing him to have been in the x company, went a days journey, and they sought him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance.

45 And when they found him not, they turned back again to Jerusalem, seeking him.

46 And it came to pass, that after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the y midst of the doctors, both hearing them, and asking them questions.

47 And all that heard him were astonished at his understanding and answers.

48 And when they saw him, they were amazed: and his mother said unto him, Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? behold, z thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing.

49 And he said unto them, How is it that ye sought me? wist ye not that I must be about a my father's business?

50 And they understood not the saying which he spake unto them.

51 And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth, and was b subject unto them: but his mother kept all these sayings in her heart.

52 And Jesus increased in c wisdom & stature, & in favor with God and man.

CHAP. III.

John's preaching.

NOw in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Cesar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judea, and Herod being a tetrarch of Galilee, & his brother Philip tetrarch of Iturea, and of the region of Trachonitis, and Lysanias the tetrarch of Abilene,

2 Annas and Caiphas being the high priests, b word of God came unto John the son of Zacharias in the wilderness.

3 And he c came into all the country about Jordan, preaching the c baptism of repentance, for the remission of sins:

4 As it is written in the book of the words of Esaias the prophet, saying, d The voice of one crying in the wilderness, e Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

5 f Every valley shall be filled, & every g mountain & hill shall be brought low, & the crooked shall be made straight, & h rough ways shall be made smooth.

6 And i all flesh shall see the salvation of God.

7 Then said he to the multitude k that came forth to be baptized of him, l O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore l fruits worthy of repentance, & begin not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

9 And now also the m ax is laid unto the root of n trees: every tree therefore which bringeth not forth good fruit, is hewn down, & cast into the fire.

10 And the people o asked him, saying, What shall we do then?

11 He answereth and saith unto them, He that hath two coats, let him m impart to him that hath none: & he that hath meat, let him do likewise.

12 Then came also n publicans to be baptized, and said unto him, Master, What shall we do?

13 And he said unto them, Exact no more than p which is appointed you.

14 And the soldiers likewise demanded of him, saying, And what shall we do? And he said unto them, Do violence to no man, neither accuse any falsely, and be content with your wages.

15 And as the people were in expectation, and all men p mused in their hearts of John, whether he were q the Christ or not:

16 John answered, saying unto them all, I indeed baptize you r with water, but one s mightier than I cometh, the t latchet of whose shoes I u am not worthy to unloose: he shall baptize you with the holy Ghost, and with fire:

17 Whose x fan is in his hand, and he will throughly purge his floor, and will gather the wheat into his garner, but the chaff he will burn with fire unquenchable.

18 And many other things in his exhortation preached he unto the people.

19 But a Herod the tetrarch being reproved by him for Herodias his brother Philip's wife, and for all the evils which Herod had done, 20 y Added yet this above all, that he shut up John in prison.

21 Now when all the people were baptized, y it came to pass that Jesus also being baptized, and z praying, the heaven was opened:

22 And the holy Ghost descended in a bodily shape like a dove upon him, and a voice came from heaven, which said, Thou art my beloved Son, in thee I am a well pleased.

23 And Jesus himself began to be about b thirty years of age, being (as was supposed) the son of Joseph, which was the son of Heli,

24 Which was the son of Matthat, which was the son of Levi, which was the son of Melchi, which was the son of Janna, which was the son of Joseph, a Christ is tempted. 12. His victory. 14. He begins his ministry. 16. The Nazarites admire him.

CHAP. IV.

AND Jesus being a full of the Holy Ghost, returned from Jordan, and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness,
2 Being forty days tempted of the devil. And in those days he did eat nothing: and when they were ended, he afterward b hungered.
3 And the devil said unto him, If thou be the c Son of God, command this stone that it be made bread.
4 And Jesus answered him, saying, It is d written, That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.
5 And the devil taking him up into an high mountain, shewed unto him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time.
6 And the devil said unto him, All this power will I give thee, and the glory of them: for that is delivered unto me; and to whomsoever I will, I give it.
7 If thou therefore wilt worship me, all shall be thine.
8 And Jesus answered and said unto him, Get thee behind me, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the LORD thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.
9 And he brought him to Jerusalem, and set him on a pinacle of the temple, and said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down from hence.
10 For it is e written, He shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee:
11 And in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.
12 And Jesus answering said unto him, It is said, Thou shalt not tempt the LORD thy God.
13 And when the devil had ended all the temptation, he f departed from him for a season.
14 ¶ And Jesus returned in the g power of the spirit into Galilee, and there went out a fame of him through all the region round about.
15 And he taught in their h synagogues, being glorified of all.
16 And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up: and as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the i sabbath day, and stood up for to read.
17 And there was k delivered unto him the book of the prophet Esaias: and when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written,
18 The spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, 19 To preach the l acceptable year of the LORD.
20 And he closed the book, and he gave it again to the minister, and m sat down: and the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened on him.
21 And he began to say unto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears.
22 And all bare him witness, and wondered at the n gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth. And they said, Is not this Joseph's son?
23 And he said unto them, Ye will surely say unto me this proverb, Physician, heal thyself: whatsoever we have heard done in Capernaum, do also here in thy country.
24 And he said, Verily I say unto you, No prophet is accepted in his own country.
25 But I tell you of a truth, many o widows were in Israel in the days of Elias, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when great famine was throughout all the land;
26 But unto none of them was Elias sent, save unto Sarepta of Sidon, unto a woman that was a widow.
27 And many p lepers were in Israel in the time of Eliseus the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, saving Naaman the Syrian.
28 And all they in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were filled with wrath, 29 And rose up, and thrust him out of the city, and led him unto the brow of the hill whereon their city was built, that they might cast him down headlong.
30 But he passing through the midst of them, went his way, 31 And came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and taught them on the sabbath days.
32 And they were astonished at his doctrine: for his word was with power.
33 And in the synagogue there was

CHAP. V.

1 Christ teacheth out of the ship. 12 He cleanseth the leper.

a Mat. 13. 2. Mar. 4. 1.
AND it came to pass, that as the people a pressed upon him to hear the word of God, he stood by the b lake of Genesareth,
2 And saw two ships standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets.
3 And he entred into one of the ships, which was c Simons, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land. And he sat down and taught the people out of the ship.
4 Now when he had left speaking, he said unto Simon, Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught.
5 And Simon answering said unto him, Master, we have toiled all the night, and have d taken nothing: nevertheless at thy word I will let down the net.
6 And when they had this done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes, and their net brake.
7 And they beckned unto their partners, which were in the other ship, that they should come and e help them. And they came and filled both the ships, so that they began to sink.
8 When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus knees, saying, f Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O LORD.
9 For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken:
10 And so was also James and John the sons of Zebedee, which were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not, from henceforth thou shalt g catch men.
11 And when they had brought their ships to land, they h forsook all, and followed him.
12 ¶ And it came to pass, i when he was in a certain city, behold a man full of leprosie: who seeing Jesus, fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, k thou canst make me clean.
13 And he put forth his hand, and m touched him, saying, I will, be thou clean: and immediately the leprosie departed from him.
14 And he charged him to tell no man: but go, and shew thy self to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, according as Moses commanded, for a n testimony unto them.
15 But so much the more went there a fame abroad of him, and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities.
16 And he o withdrew himself into the wilderness, and prayed.
17 And it came to pass on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were p Pharisees, & doctors of the law sitting by, which were come out of every town of Galilee, and Judea, and Jerusalem: and the power of the LORD was present to heal them.
18 And behold, q men brought in a bed a man which was taken with a palsie: and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him.
19 And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in, because of the multitude, they r went upon the house top, and let him down through the tiling with his couch into the midst before Jesus.
20 And when he saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, s thy sins are forgiven thee.
21 And the Scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this which speaketh t blasphemies? Who can forgive sins but God alone?
22 But when Jesus perceived their u thoughts, he answering said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts?
23 Whether is easier to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee, or to say, Rise up and walk?
24 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath x power upon earth to forgive sins, (he said unto the sick of the palsie,) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go into thine house.
25 And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that wherein he lay, and departed to his own house, y glorifying God.
26 And they were all amazed, and they glorified God, and were filled z with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to day.
27 And after these things he went forth, and saw a publican named Levi, sitting at the receipt of custom, and he said unto him, Follow me.
28 And he left all, arose up, and followed him.
29 And Levi made him a great feast in his own house: and there was a great company of publicans, and of others that sate down with them.
30 But their Scribes and Pharisees murmured against his disciples, saying, a Why do ye eat and drink with publicans and sinners?
31 And Jesus answering, said unto them, They that are b whole need not a physician; but they that are sick.
32 I came

35 But the days will come, when the bride-groom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they k fast in those days.

36 And he spake also a parable unto them, l No man putteth a piece of a new garment upon an old: if otherwise, then both the new maketh a rent, and the piece that was taken out of the new, agreeth not with the old.

37 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles; else the new wine will burst the bottles, and be spilled, and the bottles shall perish.

38 But new wine must be put into new bottles; and both are preserved.

39 No man also having drunk old wine, straightway desireth new; for he saith, The old is better.

CHAP. VI.

Touching the ears of corn that were plucked by the disciples on the Sabbath.

AND it came to pass on the second Sabbath after the first, that he went through the corn fields: and his disciples a plucked the ears of corn, & did b eat, rubbing them in their hands.

2 And certain of the Pharisees said unto them, Why do ye that which is not lawful to do on the Sabbath-days?

3 And Jesus answering them, said, Have c ye not read so much as this, what David did when himself was an hungred, and they d were with him:

4 How he went into the e house of God, and did take and eat the shew-bread, and gave also to them that were with him, which is not lawful to eat, but for the f priests alone?

5 And he said unto them, That the Son of man is g Lord also of the Sabbath.

6 And it came to pass also on another Sabbath, that he entred into the synagogue and taught: and there was a man, whose right hand was withered.

7 And the Scribes and Pharisees watched him, whether he would heal on the Sabbath day: that they might find an accusation against him.

8 But he h knew their thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hand, Rise up, and stand forth in the i midst. And he arose, and stood forth.

9 Then said Jesus unto them, I will ask you one thing, Is it lawful on the Sabbath-days to do good, or to do evil? to save life, or to destroy it?

10 And k looking round about upon them all, he said unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand: and he l did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

11 And they were filled with madness, & m communed one with another what they might do to Jesus.

12 And it came to pass in those days, that he went out into a mountain to pray, and continued n all night in prayer to God.

13 And when it was day he called unto him his disciples: and of them he chose twelve, whom also he named Apostles;

14 Simon (whom he also named Peter) and Andrew his brother, James and John, Philip and Bartholomew, 15 Matthew and Thomas, James o son of Alpheus, and Simon called Zelotes, 16 And Judas the brother of James, and Judas p Iscariot, which also was the traitor.

17 And he came down with them, and stood in the plain, and the company of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all Judea and Jerusalem, and from the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon, which came to hear him, & to be healed of their diseases:

18 And they that were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed.

19 And the whole multitude sought to touch him: for there went q virtue out of him, and healed them all.

20 And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said, Blessed be ye r poor: for yours is s kingdom of God.

21 Blessed are ye that t hunger now: for ye shall be filled. Blessed are ye that u weep now: for ye shall laugh.

22 Blessed are ye when men shall hate you, and when they shall x separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake.

23 Rejoyce ye in that day, and leap for joy: for behold, your reward is great in heaven: for in the like manner did y their fathers unto the prophets.

24 But *w*o unto you that are z rich: for ye have received your consolation.

25 x Wo unto you that are a full: for ye shall hunger. Wo unto you that laugh now: for ye shall mourn & weep.

26 b Wo unto you when all men shall speak well of you: for so did their fathers to the false prophets.

27 But I say unto you which hear, c Love your enemies, do good to them which hate you.

28 d Bless them that curse you, and pray for them *w*ho despitefully use you.

29 And unto him that smiteth thee on the one cheek, offer also the other: & him that e taketh away thy cloak, forbid not to take thy coat also.

30 Give to f every man that asketh of thee: and of him that taketh away thy goods, ask them not again.

31 And g as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.

32 For if ye h love them which love you, what thank have ye? for sinners also love those that love them.

33 And if ye do good to them which do good to you, what thank have ye? for sinners also do even the same.

34 And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again.

35 But love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, i hoping for nothing again: and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the k children of the highest: for he is kind unto the unthankful, and to the evil.

36 Be ye therefore merciful l as your Father also is merciful.

37 m Judge not, and ye shall not be judged: condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: n forgive, and ye shall be forgiven:

38 n Give, and it shall be given unto you: good measure, pressed down and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with o the same measure that ye mete withal, it shall be measured to you again.

39 And he spake a p parable unto them, q Can the blind lead the blind? shall they not both fall into the ditch?

1 The centurion's faith. 10 Christ healeth the servant.

NOw when he had ended all his people, he entred into a Capernaum.

Mat. 8. 5. 2 And a certain centurion's servant,
1 Tim. 6. 2. who was dear unto him, was sick, and Prov. 10. 12. 4 And when they came to Jesus, they

Mat. 8. 8. he was worthy for whom he should do this:
Luke 7. 9. 5 For he loveth our nation, and he hath built us a synagogue.
Mat. 8. 1. 6 Then Jesus went with them. And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble

1 Sam. 25. 6. 9 When Jesus heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned him about, & said unto the people that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel.
10 And they that were sent, return-
John 4. 51. ing to the house, found the servant
Mat. 15. 28. and Tit. 2. 15. whole that had been sick.

11 And it came to pass the day after, that c he went into a city called Nain; and many of his disciples went with him, and a much people.
12 Now when he came nigh to d the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and he was a widow: and much people of the city was with her.
13 And when the LORD e saw her, he had compassion on her, and said unto her, f Weep not.
14 And he came and touched the bier, (and they that bare him stood still) and he said, Young man, f I say unto thee, Arise.
15 And he that was dead sat up, and g began to speak. and he delivered him to his mother.
16 And there came h a fear on all, and they glorified God, saying, That a great prophet is risen up among us:
and i God hath k visited his people.
17 And this rumor of him went forth throughout all Judea, and throughout all the region round about.
18 And they disciples of John shewed him of all these things.
19 And John calling unto him two of his disciples, sent them unto Jesus, saying, Art thou a he that should come, or look we for another?
20 When the men were come unto him, they said, John Baptist hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou he that should come, or look we for another?
21 And in that same hour he cured many of their infirmities, and plagues, and of evil spirits, and unto many blind he gave sight.
22 Then Jesus answering, said unto them, Go your way, & tell John what things ye have seen & heard, how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, to a the poor the gospel is preached.
23 And blessed is he whosoever shall c not be offended in me.
24 And when the messengers of John were departed, he began to speak unto the people concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness for to see? a reed shaken with the wind?
25 But what went ye out for to see?
A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in g kings courts.
26 But what went ye out for to see?
A prophet? Yea I say unto you, and b much more than a prophet.
27 This is he of whom it is i written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.
28 For I say unto you, Among those that are born of women, there is k not a greater prophet than John the Baptist: but he that is least in the kingdom of God, is greater than he.
29 And all the people that heard him, and the publicans, l justified God, being baptised with the baptism of John.
30 But the Pharisees and lawyers rejected the counsel of God m against themselves, being n not baptised of him.
31 And the LORD said, o Whereunto then shall I liken the men of this generation? and to what are they like?
32 They are like unto children sitting in the market-place, and calling one to another, and saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have p not danced: we have mourned to you, and ye have not wept.
33 For

33 For John the Baptist came t neither eating bread, nor drinking wine, and ye say, He hath a devil.

34 The Son of man is come u eating and drinking, and ye say, Behold, a glutonous man, and a wine-bibber, a friend of Publicans and sinners.

35 But wisdom x is justified of all her children.

36 ¶ And y one of the Pharisees desired him that he would eat with him. And z he went into the Pharisees house, and sate down to meat.

37 And behold, a a woman in the city, which was a sinner, when she knew that Jesus sate at meat in the Pharisees house, brought an alabaster box of ointment, 38 And stood at Jesus feet behind him weeping, and began to wash his feet b with tears, & did wipe them with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, & anointed them with the ointment.

39 Now when the Pharisee which had bidden him, saw it, he spake c within himself, saying, This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who, & what manner of woman this is that toucheth him: for she is a sinner.

40 And Jesus b answering, said unto him, Simon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith, Master, say on.

41 There was a certain creditor, which had two debtors: the one ought him five hundred pence, & d other fifty.

42 And when they had e nothing to pay, he f frankly forgave them both. Tell me therefore, which of them will love him most?

43 Simon answered and said, I suppose that he to whom he forgave most. And he said unto him, Thou hast rightly judged.

44 And he turned to the woman, and said unto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entred into thine house, thou gavest me g no water for my feet: but she hath washed my feet with tears, and wiped them with h hair of her head.

45 Thou gavest me no b kiss: but this woman, since the time I came in, hath not ceased to kiss my feet.

46 i Mine head with oyl thou didst not anoint: but this woman hath anointed my feet with ointment.

47 Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven, for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little.

48 And he said unto her, k Thy sins are forgiven.

49 And they that sate at meat with him, began to say within themselves, Who is this that forgiveth sins also?

50 And he said to the woman, m Thy faith hath saved thee, go n in peace.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Women minister unto Christ. 4 The parable of the sower. 21 Christ reckoneth his mother.

AND it came to pass afterward, that he went throughout every city and village, preaching and shewing the glad tidings of the kingdom of God: and the b twelve were with him,

2 And certain women which had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary called Magdalene, out of whom went seven devils,

3 And Joanna the wife of Chuza Herods steward, and Susanna, and many others which c ministred unto him of their substance.

4 ¶ And when much people were gathered together, & were come to him out of every city, he spake d by a parable:

5 A sower e went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and it was troden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it.

6 And some fell upon a rock, and as soon as it was sprung up, it f withered away, because it lacked moisture.

7 And some fell among thorns, and g thorns sprang up with it, & choaked it.

8 And other fell on h good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundred fold. And when he had said these things, he cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

9 And his disciples k asked him, saying, What might this parable be?

10 And he said, l Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables; that seeing they might not see, & hearing, they might not understand.

11 Now the parable is this: m The seed is the word of God.

12 Those by the way side, are they that hear: then cometh the devil, and taketh away n the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved.

13 They on the rock, are they which when they hear, receive the word with joy; & these have o no root, which for a o while believe, and in the time of temptation fall away.

14 And that which fell among thorns, are they, which when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches, and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to p perfection.

15 But that on the good ground, are they, which in q an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with r patience.

16 No man when he hath s lighted a candle, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed: but setteth it on a candlestick, that they which enter in may see the light.

17 For nothing is secret, that shall not be made manifest: neither any thing hid, that shall not be t known, and come abroad.

18 Take heed therefore u how ye hear: for whosoever hath, to him shall be given: and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he x seemeth to have.

19 Then came to him y his mother and his brethren, and could not come at him for the z press.

20 And it was told him by certain, & said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee.

21 And he answered & said unto them, My mother and my brethren are these which hear the word of God, and a do it.

22 ¶ Now it came to pass on a certain day, b he went into a b ship with his disciples: and he said unto them, Let us go over unto the other side of the lake: and they launched forth.

23 But as they sailed, he fell asleep: and there came down a storm of wind on the lake, and they were c filled with water, and were in jeopardy.

24 And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, master, we perish. Then he arose, and rebuked the wind, and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm.

25 And he said unto them, Where is your faith? And they being afraid, wondred, saying one to another, What manner of man is this! for he commandeth even the winds & water, and they obey him.

26 ¶ And they arrived at the countrey of the f Gadarens, which is over against Galilee.

37 And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city a certain man which had devils g long time, & ware no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in the tombs.

28 When he saw Jesus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice, said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God most high? I beseech thee h torment me not.

29 (For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had caught him, and he was kept bound with chains, and in fetters, and he i brake the bands, & was driven of the devil into k wildernesse.)

30 And Jesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, † Legion: because many devils were entred into him.

31 And they besought him that he would not command them to go out into the l deep.

32 And there was there an herd of many swine feeding on the mountain: and they besought him that he would m suffer them to enter into them; and he suffered them.

33 Then went the devils out of the man, and entred into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the lake, & were n choked.

34 When they that fed them saw what was done, they fled, and went and told it in the city and in the countrey.

35 Then they went out to see what was done, and came to Jesus, and found the man out of whom the devils were departed, o sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid.

36 They also which saw it, told them by what means he that was possessed of the devils, was healed.

37 ¶ Then the whole multitude of the countrey of the Gadarens round about, besought him p to depart from them; for they were taken with great fear: and he went up into the ship, and q returned back again.

38 Now the man out of whom the devils were departed, besought him that he might be with him: but Jesus sent him away, saying, 39 Return to thine own house, and shew how great things r God hath done unto thee. And he went his way, and published throughout the whole city, how great things r Jesus had done unto him.

40 And it came to pass that when Jesus was returned, s people gladly received him: for they were all waiting for him.

41 ¶ And behold, there came a man named t Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue: and he fell down at Jesus feet, and besought him that he would u come into his house.

42 For he had one only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay a dying. But as he x went, the people throng'd him.

43 ¶ And a woman having an issue of blood twelve years, which had spent all her living upon physicians, neither could be healed of any,

44 Came behind him, and y touched the border of his garment: and immediately her issue of blood stanched.

45 And Jesus said, Who touched me? When all denied, Peter, and they that were with him, said, Master, the multitude throng thee, and prest thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

46 And Jesus said, Some body hath touched me: for I perceive that z vir-

47 And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and falling down before him, she declared unto him before all the people, for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately.

48 And he said unto her, Daughter, a be of good comfort, thy faith hath made thee whole, go in peace.

49 ¶ While he yet spake, there cometh one from the ruler of the synagogues house, saying to him, Thy daughter is dead, trouble not the Master.

50 But when Jesus heard it, he answered him, saying, Fear not, c believe only, and she shall be made whole.

51 And when he came into the house, he suffered no man to go in, save Peter, and James, and John, and the father and the mother of the maiden.

52 And all wept and bewailed her: but he said, Weep not; she is not dead, but d sleepeth.

53 And they e laughed him to scorn, knowing that she was dead.

54 And he f put them all out, and b took her by the hand, and called, saying, Maid, arise.

55 And her spirit came again, and she arose straightway: and he commanded to give her meat.

56 And her parents were astonished, but he charged them that they should 3 tell no man what was done.

CHAP. IX. 14. Prov.

1 Christ sendeth out his apostles. 7 Herod desireth to see Christ.

THen he called his twelve disciples together, and gave them a power and authority over all devils, and to cure diseases.

2 And he sent them a to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick.

3 And he said unto them, b Take nothing for your journey, neither staves, nor scrip, neither bread, neither money, neither have two coats a piece.

4 And whatsoever house ye enter into, there abide, and thence depart.

5 And whosoever will not receive you, when ye go out of that city, c shake off the very dust from your feet for a testimony against them.

6 And they departed, and went through the towns, d preaching the gospel, and healing every where.

7 ¶ Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done by him, and he was e perplexed, because that it was said of some, f John was risen from the dead:

8 And of some, that g Elias had appeared: and of others, that one of the old prophets was risen again.

9 And Herod said, John have I beheaded: but who is this of whom I hear such things? And he h desired to see him.

10 ¶ And the apostles when they were returned, told him all that they had done. And he i took them, & went aside privately into a desart place, belonging to the city, called Bethsaida.

11 And the people when they knew it, followed him: and he received them, and he spake unto them of the kingdom of God, and k healed them that had need of healing.

12 And when the day began to wear away, then came the twelve, and said unto him, l Send away the people, that they may go into the towns & country round about, and lodge, and get victuals: for we are here in a m desart place.

13 But he said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they said, We have no more but n five loaves, & two fishes:

we should go and buy meat for all this people.

14 For they were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, Make them sit down by fifties in a company.

15 And they did so, and made them all sit down.

16 Then he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and brake, and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude.

17 And they did eat, and were all filled: and there was taken up of fragments that remained to them, twelve baskets.

18 ¶ And it came to pass as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him: and he asked them, saying, Whom say the people that I am?

19 They answering, said, John the Baptist: but some say, Elias: and others say, that one of the old prophets is risen again.

20 He said unto them, But whom say ye that I am? Peter answering, said, The Christ of God.

21 And he straitly charged them and commanded them to tell no man that thing;

22 Saying, The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders, and chief priests, and Scribes, and be slain, and be raised the third day.

23 ¶ And he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.

24 For whosoever will save his life, shall lose it: but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it.

25 For what is a man advantaged if he gain the whole world, and lose himself, or be cast away?

26 For whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he shall come in his own glory, and in his Father's, and of the holy angels.

27 But I tell you of a truth, there be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God.

28 ¶ And it came to pass about an eight days after these sayings, he took Peter, and John, and James, and went up into a mountain to pray.

29 And as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment was white and glistering.

30 And, behold, there talked with him two men, which were Moses and Elias:

31 Who appeared in glory, and spake of his decease which he should accomplish at Jerusalem.

32 But Peter, and they that were with him, were heavy with sleep: and when they were awake, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him.

33 And it came to pass, as they departed from him, Peter said unto Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias: not knowing what he said.

34 While he thus spake, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud.

35 And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son, hear him.

36 And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone: and they kept it close, and told no man in those days any of those things they had seen.

37 ¶ And it came to pass, that on the next day, when they were come down from the hill, much people met him.

38 And, behold, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, look upon my son, for he is mine only child.

39 And, lo, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out, and it teareth him, that he foameth again, and bruising him, hardly departeth from him.

40 And I besought thy disciples to cast him out, and they could not.

41 And Jesus answering, said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you, and suffer you? Bring thy son hither.

42 And as he was yet coming, the devil threw him down, and tare him: and Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and delivered him again to his father.

43 And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God. But while they wondered every one at all things which Jesus did, he said unto his disciples, 44 Let these sayings sink down into your ears: for the Son of man shall be delivered into the hands of men.

45 But they understood not this saying, and it was hid from them, that they perceived it not: and they feared to ask him of that saying.

46 Then there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest.

47 And Jesus, perceiving the thought of their heart, took a child, and set him by him, 48 And said unto them, Whosoever shall receive this child in my Name, receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me, receiveth him that sent me: for he that is least among you all, the same shall be great.

49 ¶ And John answered and said, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name, and we forbad him, because he followeth not with us.

50 And Jesus said unto him, Forbid him not: for he that is not against us, is for us.

51 And it came to pass, when the time was come that he should be received up, he stedfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem, 52 And sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, to make ready for him.

53 And they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem.

54 And when his disciples, James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as Elias did?

55 But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of.

56 For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village.

57 ¶ And it came to pass that as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him, LORD, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

58 And Jesus said unto him, Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

59 And he said unto another, Follow me. But he said, LORD, suffer me first to go and bury my father.

60 Jesus said unto him, Let the dead bury bury their dead: but go thou and preach the kingdom of God.

61 And another also said, LORD, I will follow thee: but let me first go bid them farewel which are at home at my house.

62 And Jesus said unto him, No man having put his hand to the plough, and x looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

CHAP. X.

Christ appointeth seventy disciples.

1 AFter these things, the LORD appointed other seventy also, and sent them a two & two before his face into every city, and place, whither he himself would come.

2 Therefore said he unto them, The harvest truly is great, but y few labourers are few: pray we therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest.

3 Go your ways: behold, c I send you forth as lambs among wolves.

4 Carry neither d purse nor scrip, nor shoes, and e salute no man by the way.

5 And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, f Peace be to this house.

6 And if the son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it: if not, it shall g turn to you again.

7 And in the same house remain, eating and drinking such things b as they give: for y I labourer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house to house.

8 And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you.

9 And heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them, The kingdom of God k is come nigh unto you.

10 But into whatsoever city ye enter, and they l receive you not, Go your ways out into the streets of the same, and say, 11 Even the very m dust of your city which cleaveth on us, we do wipe off against you: notwithstanding, be ye sure of this, that the kingdom of God n is come nigh unto you.

12 But I say unto you, that it shall be o more tolerable in that day for Sodom, than for that city.

13 p Woe unto thee Chorazin, woe unto thee Bethsaida: for if the mighty works had q been done in Tyre & Sidon, which have been done in you, they had a great while ago repented, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.

14 But it shall be q more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment, than for you.

15 And thou Capernaum, which art exalted to heaven, shalt be r thrust down to hell.

16 He that heareth you, heareth me: and he that s despiseth you, despiseth me: and he that despiseth me, despiseth him that sent me.

17 And the seventy returned again with joy, saying, LORD, even the devils are subject unto us t through thy Name.

18 And he said unto them, I beheld Satan u as lightning fall from heaven.

19 Behold, I give unto you power x to tread on serpents, and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you.

20 Notwithstanding, in this y rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you: but rather rejoice because your names are written in heaven.

21 ¶ In that hour Jesus rejoiced in spirit, and said, z I thank thee, O Father, LORD of heaven & earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes: even so, Father, for it seemed good in thy sight.

22 All things are delivered to me of my Father: and no man knoweth who the Son is, but the Father; and who the Father is, b but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal him.

23 ¶ And he turned him unto his disciples, and said privately, Blessed are y eyes which see the things y ye see.

24 For I tell you, that many a prophets and kings have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

25 ¶ And behold, a certain lawyer stood up, and c tempted him, saying, Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? He said unto him, 26 What is written in the law? how readest thou?

27 And he answering, said, Thou shalt c love the LORD thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbour as thy self.

28 And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: b this do, and thou shalt live.

29 But he willing to f justifie himself, said unto Jesus, And who is my neighbour?

30 And Jesus answering, said, A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell k among thieves, which l stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead.

31 And by chance there came down a certain priest that way, and when he saw him, he passed by on the m other side.

32 And likewise a Levite, when he was at the place, came and n looked on him, & passed by on the other side.

33 But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was: & when he saw him, he had o compassion on him, 34 And p went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oyl and wine, & set him on his own beast, and brought him to an q inn, and took r care of him.

35 And on s morrow when he departed, he took out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him, and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee.

36 Which now of these three think thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves?

37 And he said, He that shewed mercy on him. Then said Jesus unto him, Go, and t do thou likewise.

38 ¶ Now it came to pass, as they went, that he entered into u a certain village: and a certain woman, named Martha, received him into her house.

39 And she had a sister called Mary, which also sate at Jesus feet, and heard his word.

40 But Martha was cumbered about much serving, and came to him, and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone? bid her therefore that she help me.

41 And Jesus answered, and said unto her, Martha, Martha, thou art careful, & troubled about many things:

42 But y one thing is needful, and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall z not be taken away from her.

he saith, I will return unto my house whence I came out.

25 And when he cometh, he findeth it swept and garnished.

26 Then goeth he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in, and dwell there; and the last state of that man is worse than the first.

27 ¶ And it came to pass, as he spake these things, a certain woman of the company lift up her voice, and said unto him, Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the paps which thou hast sucked.

28 But he said, Yea, rather blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it.

29 And when the people were gathered thick together, he began to say, This is an evil generation, they seek a sign, and there shall no sign be given it, but the sign of Jonas the prophet.

30 For as Jonas was a sign unto the Ninevites, so shall also the Son of man be to this generation.

31 The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and condemn them: for she came from the utmost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, a greater than Solomon is here.

32 The men of Nineveh shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonas; and behold a greater than Jonas is here.

33 No man when he hath lighted a candle, putteth it in a secret place, neither under a bushel, but on a candlestick, that they which come in may see the light.

34 The light of the body is the eye: therefore when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light; but when thine eye is evil, thy body also is full of darkness.

35 Take heed therefore, that the light which is in thee be not darkness.

36 If thy whole body therefore be full of light, having no part dark, the whole shall be full of light, as when the bright shining of a candle doth give thee light.

37 And as he spake, a certain Pharisee besought him to dine with him: and he went in and sate down to meat.

38 And when the Pharisee saw it, he marvelled that he had not first washed before dinner.

39 And the LORD said unto him, Now do ye Pharisees make clean the outside of the cup and the platter; but your inward part is full of ravening and wickedness.

40 Ye fools, did not he that made that which is without, make that which is within also?

41 But rather give alms of such things as you have: and behold, all things are clean unto you.

42 But wo unto you Pharisees: for ye tithe mint, and rue, and all manner of herbs, and pass over judgment and the love of God: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

43 Wo unto you Pharisees: for ye love the uppermost seats in the synagogues, and greetings in the markets.

44 Wo unto you Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites: for ye are as graves which appear not, and the men that walk over them are not aware of them.

45 Then answered one of the lawyers, and said unto him, Master, thus saying, thou reproachest us also.

46 And he said, Wo unto you also ye lawyers

11 And it came to pass, that as he was praying in a certain place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, LORD, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples.

2 And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, Our Father which art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth.

3 Give us day by day our daily bread.

4 And forgive us our sins; for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

5 And he said unto them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say unto him, Friend, lend me three loaves,

6 For a friend of mine in his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him?

7 And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not, the door is now shut, & my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee.

8 I say unto you, Though he will not rise and give him, because he is his friend; yet because of his importunity, he will rise and give him as many as he needeth.

9 And I say unto you, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

10 For every one that asketh, receiveth; and he that seeketh, findeth; and to him that knocketh, it shall be opened.

11 If a son shall ask bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? or if he ask a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent?

12 Or if he shall ask an egg, will he offer him a scorpion?

13 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: how much more shall your heavenly Father give the holy Spirit to them that ask him?

14 And he was casting out a devil, and it was dumb. And it came to pass when the devil was gone out, the dumb spake: and the people wondred.

15 But some of them said, He casteth out devils through Beelzebub the chief of the devils.

16 And other tempting him, sought of him a sign from heaven.

17 But knowing their thoughts, said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation: and an house divided against an house falleth.

18 If Satan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because ye say that I cast out devils through Beelzebub.

19 And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges.

20 But if I with the finger of God cast out devils, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you.

21 When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace.

22 But when a stronger than he shall come upon him, & overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, & divideth his spoils.

23 He that is not with me, is against me: and he that gathereth not with me, scattereth.

24 When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest: and finding none, lawyers: for ye lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye your selves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers.

47 Wo unto you: for ye z build the sepulchres of the prophets, and your fathers killed them.

48 Truly ye bear witness that ye a allow the deeds of your fathers: for they indeed killed them, and ye build their sepulchres.

49 Therefore also said the r wisdom of God, I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they shall slay and persecute:

50 That the blood of all the prophets which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be s required of this generation,

CHAP. XII.

1 Christ teacheth to avoid hypocrisie. 13 To beware of covetousness. 22 to seek God's kingdom. 33 to give alms.

IN the mean time, when there were gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, insomuch that they trod one upon another, he began to say unto his disciples first of all, Beware ye of the a leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisie.

2 For there is nothing covered that shall not be b revealed: neither hid, that shall not be known.

3 Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness, shall be heard in the light: & that which ye have spoken in your ear in closets, shall be proclaimed upon the c house tops.

4 And I say unto you d my friends, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that, have no more that they can do.

5 But I will forewarn you whom you shall fear: fear him, which after he hath killed, hath power to cast into hell; yea, I say unto you, fear him.

6 Are not five sparrows sold for two farthings, and not one of them is e forgotten before God?

7 But even the very f hairs of your head are all numbred. Fear not therefore, ye are of g more value than many sparrows.

8 Also I say unto you, Whosoever shall confess me h before men, i him shall the Son of man also confess before the angels of God.

9 But he that k denieth me before men, shall be denied before the angels of God.

10 And whosoever shall speak a word l against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but unto him that blasphemeth against the holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven.

11 And when they bring you unto the synagogues, and unto Magistrates, and powers, m take ye no thought how or what thing ye shall answer, or what ye shall say:

13 And one of the company said unto him, Master, speak to my brother, that he o divide the inheritance with me.

14 And he said unto him, Man, p who made me a judge, or a divider over you?

15 And he said unto them, Take heed, & beware of q covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.

16 And he spake a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth r plentifully.

17 And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have s no room where to bestow my fruits?

18 And he said, This t will I do, I will pull down my barns, and build greater, and x there will I bestow all my fruits, and my goods.

19 And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up y for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry.

20 But God said unto him, Thou z fool, a this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be which thou hast provided?

21 So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, & is b not rich towards God.

22 And he said unto his disciples, x Mat. therefore I say unto you, c Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, neither for the body, what ye shall put on.

23 The life is more than meat, and the body is more than raiment.

24 Consider the ravens, for they neither sow, nor reap, which neither have d nor house nor barn, & God e feedeth them. How much more are ye better than the fowls?

25 And, f of you with taking thought g can add to his stature one cubit?

26 If ye then be not able to do that thing which is least, why take ye thought for the h rest?

27 Consider the lilies how they grow, they toil not, they spin not: & yet I say unto you, that Solomon in all his glory was not arayed like one of these.

28 If then God so clothe the i grass which is to day in the field, & to morrow is cast into the oven: how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith?

29 And seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, neither be ye of k doubtful mind.

30 For all these things do the nations of the world seek after: and your father knoweth that ye have need of these things.

37 Blessed are those servants, whom the Lord when he cometh, shall find watching: verily I say unto you, he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them.

38 And if he shall come in the a second watch, or come in the third watch, & find them so, blessed are those servants.

39 And this x know, that if the good-man of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched, and not have suffered his house to be broken through.

40 Be ye therefore ready also: for the Son of man cometh y at an hour when ye think not.

41 Then Peter said unto him, LORD, speakest thou this parable unto us, or even to all?

42 And z Lord said, Who then is that z faithful and wise steward, whom his Lord shall make a ruler over his household, to give them their portion of meat in due season?

43 Blessed is b servant, whom his Lord when he cometh shall find b so doing.

44 Of a truth I say unto you, that he will make him c ruler over all that he hath.

45 But and if that servant say in his heart, My lord d delayeth his coming, & shall begin to e beat the menservants, and maidens, and to eat and drink, & to be drunken:

46 The Lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for him, and at an hour when he is not ware, & will cut him in sunder, & will appoint him his f portion with y unbelievers.

47 And that servant which knew his lord's will, & prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with g many stripes.

48 But he that g knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required: and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more.

49 I am come to send h fire on the earth, and what will I, if it be already kindled?

50 But I have i a baptism to be baptized with, and how am I † straitned till it be accomplished?

51 Suppose ye that I am come to give peace on earth? I tell you, Nay; but rather k division.

52 For from henceforth there shall be five in one house m divided, three against two, and two against three.

53 The father shall be divided against the son, and the son against the father; the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother: the mother in law against the daughter in law, and the daughter in law against her mother in law.

54 And he said also to the people, n When ye see a cloud rise out of the west, straightway ye say, There cometh a shower, & so it is.

55 And when ye see the south wind blow, ye say, There will be heat, and it cometh to pass.

56 Ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the skie, & of the earth: but how is it that ye do not discern o this time?

57 Yea, and why even of your selves judge ye not what is right?

58 When thou goest p with thine adversary to the magistrate, as thou are in the way, give diligence that thou mayest be delivered from him; lest he hale thee to the judge, & the judge deliver thee to the officer, & the officer cast thee into prison.

59 I tell thee, thou shalt not depart thence, till thou hast payed the very last mite.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Christ's sermon of repentance. 11 He healeth a crooked woman.

THere were present at that season, some that told him of the a Galilæans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices.

2 And Jesus answering, said unto them, b Suppose ye q these Galilæans were sinners above all the Galilæans, because they suffered such things?

3 I tell you, c Nay; but except ye repent, ye shall all d likewise perish.

4 Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in e Siloam fell, and slew them, think ye that they were f sinners above all men that dwelt in Jerusalem?

5 I tell you, Nay: but except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

6 ¶ He spake also this parable, A certain man had a g fig-tree planted in his vineyard, and he g came and sought fruit thereon, and found none.

7 Then said he to the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these b three years I come seeking fruit on this fig-tree, and find none: cut it down, why i cumbreth it the ground?

8 And he answering said unto him, Lord, k let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it:

9 And if it bear fruit, n nb: and if not, then l after that thou shalt cut it down.

10 And he was m teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath.

11 ¶ And behold, there was a woman q had a spirit of infirmity n eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up her self.

12 And when Jesus o saw her, he called her to him, & said unto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity.

13 And he laid his hands on her, and immediately she was made straight, and p glorified God.

14 And the r ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because that Jesus had healed on the sabbath-day, and said unto the people, There are s six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the sabbath-day.

15 The Lord then answered him, and said, Thou t hypocrite, doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose t his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering?

16 And ought not this woman, being a u daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the sabbath day?

17 And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were v ashamed: and all the people x rejoyced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

18 Then said he, Unto what is the kingdom of God like? and whereunto shall I resemble it?

19 It is like a y grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and cast into his garden, and it grew, & waxed z a great tree; and the fowls of the air lodged in the branches of it.

20 And again he said, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdom of God?

21 It is like leaven, which a woman took and a hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

22 And he b went through the cities and villages, teaching and journeying towards Jerusalem.

23 Then said one unto him, Lord, are he that had thee and him, come and say to thee, Give this man place; and thou begin with shame to take the lowest room.

10 But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest room; that when he that bad thee cometh, he may say unto thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee.

11 For whosoever i exalteth himself, shall be abased, and he that humbleth himself, shall be exalted.

12 Then said he also to him that bad him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not my friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbours; lest they also bid thee again, and a recompence be made thee.

13 But when thou makest a feast, call the k poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind:

14 And thou shalt be blessed; for they cannot recompense thee: for thou shalt be l recompensed at the resurrection of the just.

15 And when one of them that sate at meat with him heard these things, he said unto him, Blessed is he that shall m eat bread in the kingdom of God.

16 Then said he unto him, A certain man made n a great supper, and bade many:

17 And sent his servant at supper-time to say to them that were bidden, o Come, for all things are now ready.

18 And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said unto him, I have bought p a piece of ground, and I must needs go and see it: I pray thee have me excused.

19 And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I pray thee have me excused.

20 And another said, q I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.

21 So that servant came, and shewed his lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry, said to his servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the r poor, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blind.

22 And the servant said, Lord, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is room.

23 And the lord said unto the servant, Go out into the high-ways and hedges, and ‡ compel them to come in, that my house may be filled.

24 For I say unto you, that none of those men which were s bidden, shall taste of my supper.

25 And there went great multitudes with him: and he turned, and said unto them, 26 If any man come to me, t and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple.

27 And whosoever doth not u bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple.

Ezek. 15. 2.

CHAP. XV.

1 The parable of the lost sheep. 8 Of the pieces of silver: 11 of the prodigal son.

THen a drew near unto him all the publicans and sinners for to hear him.

2 And the b Pharisees and c scribes murmured, saying, This man d receiveth sinners, and eateth with them.

3 And he spake this parable unto them, saying,

4 What man of you having e an hundred sheep, if he lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it?

5 And when he hath f found it, he layeth it on his shoulders rejoycing.

6 And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying unto them, Rejoyce with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost.

7 I say unto you, that g likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine h just persons which need no repentance.

8 Either what woman having ten pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and i seek diligently till she find it?

9 And when she hath found it, she calleth her friends and her neighbours together, saying, Rejoyce with me, for I have found the piece which I had lost.

10 Likewise I say unto you, There is joy in the presence of the angels of God, over one sinner k repenteth.

11 And he said, A certain man had two sons:

12 And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me m the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living.

13 And not many days after, the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into n a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living.

14 And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famin in that land, and he began to be o in want.

15 And he went and joyned himself to a citizen of that country, & he sent him into his fields to feed swine.

16 And he would fain have filled his belly with the q husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him.

17 And when he came r to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger!

18 I will arise, and go to my father, & will say unto him, Father, I have t sinned against heaven, & u before thee, 19 And am no more worthy to be called thy son: x make me as one of thy hired servants.

20 And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet y a great way off, his father z saw him, a and had compassion, b and ran, and fell on his neck, and c kissed him.

21 And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son.

22 But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the d best robe, and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet.

23 And bring hither the e fatted calf, and kill it, & let us eat and be merry:

24 For this my son was e dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry.

25 Now his elder son was in the field: and as he came, and drew nigh to the house, he heard musick and f dancing.

26 And he called one of the servants, and asked what these things meant.

27 And he said unto him, Thy brother is come, and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound.

28 And he was g angry, and would not go in: therefore came his father out, and intreated him.

29 And he answering, said to his father, Lo, these many years do I serve thee, neither h transgressed I at any time thy commandment, and yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends:

30 But as soon as this thy son was come, which hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou hast killed for him the fatted calf.

31 And he said unto him, Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine.

32 It was meet that we should make merry, and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again; and was k lost, and is found.

CHAP. XVI.

1 The parable of the unjust steward. 14 Christ reproveth the hypocrisie of the Pharisees.

AND he said also unto his disciples, There was a certain rich man, & had a steward, & the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods.

2 And he called him, and said unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee? give b an account of thy stewardship, for thou mayest be no longer steward.

3 Then the steward said within himself, What shall I do? for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship: I cannot dig, to beg I am ashamed.

4 I am k resolved what to do, that when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.

5 So he called every one of his lord's debtors unto him, & said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord?

6 And he said, An hundred measures of oyl. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty.

7 Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, An hundred measures of wheat. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and write fourscore.

8 And the Lord l commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of f this world are in their generation wiser g than the h children of light.

9 And I say unto you, Make to yourselves i friends of the Mammon of unrighteousness, that when k ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations.

10 He that is faithful in that which m is least, is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least, is unjust also in much.

11 If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous Mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches?

12 And if ye have not been faithful in that which is n another man's, who shall give you y which is your own?

13 No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will hold to the one and despise the other. p Ye cannot serve God and Mammon.

14 And the Pharisees also who were q covetous, heard all these things: and they derided him.

15 And he said unto them, Ye are they which r justifie yourselves before men, but God knoweth your hearts: for s which is highly esteemed amongst men, is abomination in the sight of God.

16 The t law and the prophets were until John: since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth into it.

17 And it is easier for u heaven and earth to pass, than one tittle of the law to fail.

18 Whosoever x putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery: and whosoever marrieth her that is put away from her husband, committeth adultery.

19 There was a certain rich man which was clothed in a purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day:

20 And there was b a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was c laid at his gate full of sores, 21 And desiring to be fed with the d crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover the e dogs came and licked his sores.

22 And it came to pass that the beggar f died, and was carried by the angels into Abrahams bosom: the rich man also died and was buried.

23 And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham g afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.

24 And he cried, and said, Father Abraham, h have mercy on me, and send Lazarus that he may dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue: for i am tormented in this flame.

25 But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy life time receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is k comforted, and thou art tormented.

26 And besides all this, between us and you there is l a great gulf fixed, so that they which would pass from hence to you, cannot, neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence.

27 Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou m wouldest send him to my fathers house.

28 For I have five brethren, that he may testifie unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment.

29 Abraham said unto him, They have n Moses and the Prophets, let o them hear them.

30 And he said, p Nay, father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent.

31 And he said unto him, If q they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be perswaded, though one rose from the dead.

CHAP. XVII.

1 To avoid offence. 3 And to forgive another. 6 The power of faith.

Then said he unto the disciples, It is impossible but that offences will come, but woe unto him through whom they come.

2 It were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he cast into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones.

3 a Take heed to your selves: If thy brother trespass against thee, rebuke him; and if he repent, forgive him.

4 And if he trespass against thee seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him.

5 And the Apostles said unto the Lord, b Increase our faith.

6 And the Lord said, If ye had faith c as a grain of mustard-seed, ye might say unto this sycamine-tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea, and it should obey you.

7 But which of you having a servant plowing or feeding cattel, will say unto him by & by, when he is come from the field, Go and sit down to meat?

8 And will not rather say unto him, Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thy self, and serve me, till I have eaten, and drunken: and afterward thou shalt eat and drink.

9 Doth he thank that servant, because he did the things that were commanded him? I trow not.

10 So likewise ye, when ye shall have done g all those things which are commanded you, say, We are unprofitable servants: we have done that which was t our duty to do.

11 And it came to pass, as he went k to Jerusalem, that he passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee.

12 And as he entred into a certain village, l there met him ten men that were lepers, which stood afar off:

13 And they lifted up their voices, & said, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us.

14 And when he saw them, he said unto them, Go m shew your selves unto the priests. And it came to pass that n as they went, they were cleansed.

15 And o one of them when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified God, 16 And fell down on his face at his feet, giving him q thanks: and he was a Samaritan.

17 And Jesus answering said, Were there not ten cleansed? but r where are the nine?

18 There are not found that returned to give glory to God, save this s stranger.

19 And he said unto him, Arise, go thy way: t thy faith hath made thee whole.

20 And when he was demanded of the Pharisees, when the u kingdom of God should come: he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with x observation.

21 Neither shall they say, Lo here, or lo there: for behold, y the kingdom of God is within you.

22 And he said unto his disciples, The days will come, when ye z shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and ye shall not see it.

23 And they shall say to you, See here, or see there: go not after them, nor follow them.

24 For as the lightning that lighteneth out of the one part under heaven, shineth unto the other part under heaven: so shall also the Son of man be in a his day.

25 But first must he suffer many things, b and be rejected of this generation.

26 And as it was in the days of Noe, c so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man.

19 But f the same day that Lot went out of Sodom, it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all:

30 Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is g revealed.

31 In that day, he which shall be upon the house top, and his h stuff in the house, let him not come down to take it away: and he that is in the field, let him likewise not return back.

32 i Remember Lots wife.

33 Whosoever shall seek to save his k life, shall lose it; and whosoever shall lose his life, shall preserve it.

34 I tell you, l in that night there shall be two men in one bed; the one m shall be taken, the other shall be left.

35 Two women shall be grinding together; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

36 Two men shall be n in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

37 And they answered and said unto him, Where, LORD? And he said unto them, Wheresoever the body is, o thither will the eagles be gathered together.

CHAP. XVIII.

3 The importunate widow. 9 The phariſee and the publican.

AND he spake a parable unto them, a to this end, that men b ought always to pray, and not to b faint;

2 Saying, There was in a city a judge, which feared not God, neither regarded man.

3 And there was c a widow in that city, and she came unto him, saying, d Avenge me of mine adversary.

4 And he would not for e a while: but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man;

5 Yet because this widow f troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me.

6 And the Lord said, g Hear what the unjust judge saith.

7 And shall not God h avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he i bear long with them?

8 I tell you that he will avenge them k speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth?

9 And he spake this parable unto certain which m trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and n despised others:

10 Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Phariſee, and the other a Publican.

11 The Phariſee o stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not p as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican.

12 I q fast twice in the week, I give r tithes of all that I possess.

13 And the publican s standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be t merciful to me a sinner.

14 I tell you, this man went down to his house u justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself, shall be abased; and he that x humbleth himself, shall be exalted.

15 And they y brought unto him also infants, that he would touch them: but when his disciples saw it, they z rebuked them.

16 But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for a of such is the kingdom of God.

17 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not b receive the kingdom of God as a little child, shall in no wise enter therein.

18 And a certain c ruler asked him, saying, Good master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

19 And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? d none is good save one, that is, God.

20 Thou knowest the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honour thy father and thy mother.

21 And he said, e All these have I kept from my youth up.

22 Now when Jesus heard these things, he said unto him, f Yet lackest thou one thing: sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have b treasure in heaven, and come, follow me.

23 And when he heard i this, he was very sorrowful, for he was very k rich.

24 And when Jesus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

25 For it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they that heard it, said, Who then can be saved?

27 And he said, The things which are impossible l with men, are m possible with God.

28 Then Peter said, Lo, we have n left all, and followed thee.

29 And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, there is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake, 30 Who shall not receive manifold more o in this present time, and in the world to come life everlasting.

31 Then he took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all things that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of man shall be accomplished.

32 For he shall be p delivered unto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and spitefully entreated, & spitted on:

33 And they shall scourge him, and put him to death: and the q third day he shall rise again.

34 And they understood r none of these things: and this saying s was hid from them, neither knew they the things which were spoken.

35 And it came to pass, that as he was come nigh unto Jericho, a certain blind man sat x by the way side, begging:

36 And hearing the multitude pass by, he asked what it meant.

37 And they told him, that Jesus of Nazareth passeth by.

38 And he cried, saying, Jesus, thou y Son of David, have mercy on me.

39 And they which went before, rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried the so much the more, Thou Son of David have mercy on me.

40 And Jesus stood and commanded him to be brought unto him: & when he was come near, he asked him,

41 Saying, What wilt thou that I shall do unto thee? And he said, a Lord, that I may receive my sight.

42 And Jesus said unto him, Receive thy sight: thy faith hath saved thee.

43 And immediately he received his sight, and followed him, c glorifying God: and all the people when they saw it, gave praise unto God.

CHAP. XIX.

1 Zacheus called, 12 The ten pieces of money.

AND Jesus entred and a passed through Jericho.

2 And behold, there was a man named Zacheus, which was the b chief among the publicans, and he was rich.

3 And he sought to see Jesus who he was; and could not for the press, because he was little of stature.

4 And he ran before, and climbed up into a sycomore-tree to see him: for he was to pass that way.

5 And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said unto him, Zacheus, make haste, and come down; for to day I must c abide at thy house.

6 And he b made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully.

7 And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, That he was gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner.

8 And Zaccheus d stood, and said unto the Lord; Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken any thing from any man by false accusation, e I restore him four-fold.

9 And Jesus said unto him, This day is salvation f come to this house, for so much as he also is g a son of Abraham.

10 For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

11 And as they heard these things, he added and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Jerusalem, and because they thought that the h kingdom of God should h immediately appear.

12 He said therefore, A certain noble man went into i a far country, to receive for himself k a kingdom, and i to return.

13 And he called his ten servants, and delivered them ten pounds, and said unto them, l Occupy till I come.

14 But m his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying, We will not have this man to reign over us.

15 And it came to pass, that when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants to be x called unto him, to whom he had given the money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading.

16 Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy pound hath y gained ten pounds.

17 And he said unto him, Well, thou good servant, because thou hast been z faithfull in a very little, have thou a authority over ten cities.

18 And the second came, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained b five pounds.

19 And he said likewise to him, Be thou also over c five cities.

20 And another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound which I have kept laid up in d a napkin.

21 For I feared thee, e because thou art an austere man: thou takest up that thou layedst not down, and reapest that thou didst not sow.

22 And he saith unto him, f Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant: thou knewest that I was an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not sow.

23 Wherefore then gavest not thou my money into the bank, that at my coming I might have required mine own with usury?

24 And he said unto them that stood by, g take from him the pound, and give it to him that hath ten pounds.

25 (And they said unto him, Lord, he hath ten pounds.)

26 For I say unto you, That unto every one which hath, shall be given, & from him b that hath not, even that he hath shall be taken away from him.

27 But those mine i enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and k slay them before me.

28 And when he had thus spoken, he went l before, ascending up to Jerusalem.

29 And it came to pass, when he was come nigh to m Bethphage & Bethany, at the mount called the mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples, 30 Saying, Go ye into the village over against you; in the which at your entring ye shall find n a colt tied, whereon yet never man sat: loose him, and bring him hither.

31 And if any man ask you, Why do ye loose him? thus shall ye say unto him, Because the Lord hath o need of him.

32 And they that were sent, went their way, and found even as he had said unto them.

33 And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof said unto them, Why loose ye the colt?

34 And they said, The Lord hath o need of him.

35 And they p brought him to Jesus: and they cast their garments upon the colt, and they set Jesus thereon.

36 And as he went, they q spread their clothes in the way.

37 And, when he was come nigh, even now at the descent of the mount of Olives, the r whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoyce, and praise God with a loud voice, for all the mighty works that they had seen;

38 Saying, Blessed be the King that cometh in s Name of the Lord: peace in heaven, and glory in the highest.

39 And some of the Pharisees from among the multitude said unto him, Master, t rebuke thy disciples.

40 And he answered and said unto them, I tell you, that if these should hold their peace, the u stones would immediately cry out.

41 And when he was come near, he beheld the city, and x wept over it, 42 Saying, If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in y this thy day, z things which belong unto thy peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes.

43 For the a days shall come upon thee, that thine b enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side, 44 And shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy c children within thee; and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another, because thou knewest not y time of thy d visitation.

45 And he went into the temple, and began to e cast out them that sold therein, and them that bought;

46 Saying unto them, It is written, My house f is the house of prayer: but ye have made it g a den of thieves.

47 And he taught daily in the temple. But the chief priests and the scribes, and the chief of the people sought to destroy him, 20 And could not find what they might do: for all the people were very attentive to hear him.

CHAP. XX.

Christ answereth his authority.

AND it came to pass, that on one of those days, as he a taught the people in the temple, and preached the gospel, b the chief priests & the scribes came upon him, with the elders,

2 And spake unto him, saying, Tell us, c By what authority doest thou these things? or who is he that gave thee this authority?

3 And he answered and said unto them, I will also d ask you one thing, and answer me:

4 The baptism of John, was it e from heaven, or of men?

5 And they reasoned f with themselves, saying, If we shall say, from heaven, he will say, Why then g believed ye him not?

6 But and if we say, Of men, all the people will h stone us: for they be perswaded that John was a prophet.

7 And they answered, That they could i not tell whence it was.

8 And Jesus said unto them, Neither k tell I you by what authority I do these things.

9 Then began he to speak to the people this parable: A certain man l planted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a far countrey for a long time.

10 And at the season, he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the m fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty.

11 And again he sent another servant: and they beat him also, and entreated him shamefully, and sent him away empty.

12 And again he sent the o third: and they wounded him also, and cast him out.

13 Then said the Lord of the vineyard, What shall I do? I will send p my beloved son: it may be they will reverence him when they see him.

14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the q heir, come let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.

15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore shall the lord of the vineyard do unto them?

16 He shall come and destroy these husbandmen, and shall give the vineyard r to others. And when they heard it, they said, God forbid.

17 And he beheld them, and said, what is this then that is written, s The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner?

18 Whosoever shall t fall upon that stone, shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

19 And the chief priests and the scribes the u same hour sought to lay hands on him, and they feared the people: for they perceived that he had spoken this parable x against them.

20 And they watched him, and sent forth y spies, which should z feign themselves just men, that they might take hold of his words, that so they might deliver him unto the power and authority of the governor.

21 And they asked him, saying, Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest a rightly, neither accepteth thou the person of any, but teacheth the way of God truly.

22 Is it lawful b for us to give tribute unto Cesar, or no?

23 But he perceived their craftiness, & said unto them, Why tempt ye me?

24 Shew me d a peny: whose image and superscription hath it? They answered and said, Cesars.

25 And he said unto them, Render therefore unto Cesar the things which be Cesars, and unto God, the things which be f Gods.

26 And they could not take hold of his words before the people, and they marvelled at his answer, and g held their peace.

27 Then came to him certain of the h Sadducees (which deny i there is any resurrection) & they asked him, 28 Saying, Master, Moses k wrote unto us, If any man's brother die, having a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

29 There were therefore seven brethren, and the first took a wife, and died without children.

30 And the second took her to wife, and he died childless.

31 And the third took her, and in like manner the seven also. And they left no children, and died.

32 Last of all the woman died also.

33 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife of them is she? for seven had her to wife.

34 And Jesus answering said unto them, The children of l this world marry and are given in marriage.

35 But they which shall be accounted m worthy to obtain n that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage:

36 Neither can they o die any more: for they are equal unto the angels, and are the children of God, being the p children of the q resurrection.

37 Now that the dead r are raised, even Moses shewed at the s bush, when he called the LORD, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.

38 For he is not t God of the dead, but of the living: for all u live unto him.

39 Then certain of the scribes answering, said, Master, thou hast x well said.

40 And after that, they y durst not ask him any question at all.

41 And he said unto them, z How say they that Christ is David's son?

42 And David himself saith in the book of psalms, The LORD said to my Lord, a Sit thou on my right hand, 43 Till I make thine enemies, thy footstool.

44 David therefore calleth him Lord, how is he then his son?

45 Then in the b audience of all the people, he said unto his disciples, 46 c Beware of the scribes, which desire to walk in long robes, and love greetings in the markets, and the highest seats in the synagogues, and the chief rooms at feasts.

47 Which devour widows houses, & d for a shew make long prayers: the same shall receive greater damnation.

And he saw also a certain poor widow casting in thither two mites. 3 And he said, Of a truth I say unto you, that this poor widow hath cast in more than they all. 4 For all these have of their abundance cast in unto the offerings of God, but she of her penury hath cast in all the living that she had.

5 And as some spake of the temple, how it was adorned with goodly stones, and gifts, he said, 6 As for these things which ye behold, the days will come, in the which there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

7 And they asked him, saying, Master, but when shall these things be? and what sign will there be when these things shall come to pass?

8 And he said, Take heed that ye be not deceived: for many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ, and the time draweth near: go ye not therefore after them.

9 But when ye shall hear of wars and commotions, be not terrified: for these things must first come to pass, but the end is not by and by.

10 Then said he unto them, Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom:

11 And great earthquakes shall be in divers places, and famines, and pestilences, and fearful sights, and great signs shall there be from heaven.

12 But before all these, they shall lay their hands on you, and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues, and into prisons, being brought before kings and rulers for my Name's sake.

13 And it shall turn to you for a testimony.

14 Settle it therefore in your hearts, not to meditate before, what ye shall answer:

15 For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay, nor resist.

16 And ye shall be betrayed both by parents, and brethren, and kinsfolks, and friends, and some of you shall they cause to be put to death.

17 And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake.

18 But there shall not an hair of your head perish.

19 In your patience possess ye your souls.

20 And when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh.

21 Then let them which are in Judea flee to the mountains; and let them which are in the midst of it, depart out, and let not them that are in the countreys enter thereinto.

22 For these be the days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled.

23 But wo unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days: for there shall be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people.

24 And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations, and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.

25 And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars, and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity, the sea and the waves roaring;

26 Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken.

27 And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory.

28 And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh.

29 And he spake to them a parable: Behold the fig-tree, and all the trees;

30 When they now shoot forth, ye see and know of your own selves that summer is now nigh at hand.

31 So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand.

32 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, till all be fulfilled.

33 Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.

34 And take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares.

35 For as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth.

36 Watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man.

37 And in the day-time he was teaching in the temple, and at night he went out, and abode in the mount that is called the mount of Olives.

38 And all the people came early in the morning to him in the temple, for to hear him.

CHAP. XXII.

The Jews conspire against Christ.

NOw the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called the passeover.

2 And the chief priests and scribes sought how they might kill him; for they feared the people.

3 Then entred Satan into Judas surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve.

4 And he went his way, and communed with the chief priests and captains, how he might betray him unto them.

5 And they were glad, and covenanted to give him money.

6 And he promised, and sought opportunity to betray him unto them in the absence of the multitude.

7 Then came the day of unleavened bread, when the passover must be killed.

8 And he sent Peter and John, saying, Go, and prepare us the passover, that we may eat.

9 And they said unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare?

10 And he said unto them, Behold, when ye are entred into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water, follow him into the house where he entreth in.

11 And ye shall say unto the good man of the house, The Master saith unto thee, Where is the guest-chamber where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?

12 And he shall shew you a large upper room furnished, there make ready.

13 And they went and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

14 And when the hour was come, he sate down, and the twelve apostles with him.

15 And he said unto them, With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer:

16 For I say unto you, I will x not any more eat thereof, until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God.

17 And he took the y cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among your selves.

18 For I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come.

19 And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is a my body which is given b for you, this do in remembrance of me.

20 Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is y c new testament in my blood, d which is shed for you.

21 But behold, the e hand of him that betrayeth me, is with me on the table.

22 f And truly the Son of man goeth as it was g determined: but wo unto that man by whom he is betrayed.

23 And they began to h enquire among themselves, which of them it was that should do this thing.

24 ¶ And there was also i a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest.

25 And he said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles k exercise lordship over them, and they l exercise authority upon them are called benefactors.

26 But x ye shall not be so: but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve.

27 For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that y serveth? is not he that sitteth at meat? but I am among you as he that serveth.

28 Ye are they which have z continued with me in my temptations.

29 And a I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me, 30 That ye may b eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

31 And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath c desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat:

32 But I have d prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not: and when thou art e converted, strengthen thy brethren.

33 And he said unto him, Lord, I am f ready to go with thee both into prison, and to death.

34 And he said, g I tell thee, Peter, the cock shall not crow this day, before that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me.

35 And he said unto them, When I sent you without purse, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they said, h Nothing.

36 Then said he unto them, But now he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise his scrip: and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and i buy one.

37 For I say unto you, that this that is written, must yet be accomplished in me, And he was reckoned among the k transgressours: for the things concerning me have an end.

38 And they said, Lord, behold, here are two swords. And he said unto them, l It is enough.

39 And he m came out, and went, as he was wont, to n the mount of Olives, and his disciples also followed him.

40 And when he was at the place, he said unto them, o Pray, that ye enter not into temptation.

41 And he p was withdrawn from them about a stones cast, and kneeled down and prayed, 42 Saying, Father, if thou be willing, q remove this cup from me: r nevertheless, s not my will, but thine be done.

43 And there appeared an t angel unto him from heaven, strengthening him.

44 And being in u an agony, he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground.

45 And when he rose up from prayer, and was come to his disciples, he found them v sleeping for sorrow, 46 And said unto them, o Why sleep ye? rise and pray, lest ye enter into temptation.

47 And while he yet spake, behold a multitude, and he w that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near unto Jesus to kiss him.

48 But Jesus said unto him, Judas, betrayest x thou the Son of man w with a kiss?

49 When they which were about him saw what would follow, they said unto him, Lord, shall we smite with the sword?

50 And y one of them smote the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.

51 And Jesus answered and said, Suffer ye thus far. And he z touched his ear, and healed him.

52 Then Jesus said unto the chief priests, a captains of the temple, and the elders which were come to him, Be ye come out as against a thief, with swords and staves?

53 When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no hands against me: but this is b your hour, and the power of darkness.

54 Then took they him, and led him, and brought him into the c high priest's house. And Peter followed afar off.

55 And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the hall, and were set down together, Peter sate down d among them.

56 But x a certain maid beheld him as he sate by the fire, and earnestly e looked upon him, and said, This man was also with him.

57 And he denyed him, saying, Woman, f I know him not.

58 And after a little while another saw him, and said, Thou art g of them. And Peter said, Man, I am not.

59 And about the space of one hour after, another confidently affirmed, saying, Of a truth, this fellow also was with him: for he is h a Galilean.

60 And Peter said, Man, i I know not what thou sayest. And immediately while he yet spake, the cock crew.

61 And the Lord turned, and looked upon Peter; and Peter k remembred the word of the Lord, how he had said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

62 And Peter l went out, and wept bitterly.

63 And the men that held Jesus, m mocked him, and smote him.

64 And when they had blind-folded him, they struke him on the face, and asked him, saying, n Prophesie, who is it that smote thee?

65 And many other things o blasphemously spake they against him.

66 And p as soon as it was day, the elders of the people and the chief priests & the scribes came together, q & led him into their council,

67 Saying,

67 Saying, Art thou q the Christ? r tell us. And he said unto them, If I tell you, you will not believe.

68 And if I also ask you, you will not answer me, nor let me go.

69 s Hereafter shall the Son of man sit on the right hand of the power of God.

70 Then said they all, Art thou then the Son of God? And he said unto them, t Ye say that I am.

71 And they said, What need we any further witness? for we ourselves have heard of u his own mouth.

CHAP. XXIII.

Jesus accused, and sent to Herod.

AND the whole multitude of them arose, and led him unto a Pilate.

2 And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this fellow b perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Cesar, saying, That he himself is Christ a King.

3 And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the king of the Jews? And he answered him and said, Thou sayest it.

4 Then said Pilate to the chief priests, and to the people, I find c no fault in this man.

5 And they were the d more fierce, saying, He e stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all jury, beginning from Galilee to this place.

6 When Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked whether the man were a Galilean.

7 And as soon as he knew that he belonged unto f Herods Jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who himself was also at g Jerusalem at that time.

8 And when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceeding glad, for he was desirous h to see him of a long season, because he had heard many things of him, & he hoped to have seen some i miracle done by him.

9 Then he questioned with him in many words, but he answered him k nothing.

10 And the chief priests and Scribes stood and vehemently accused him.

11 And Herod with his m men of war set him at naught, and mocked him, and arayed him in a gorgeous robe, and sent him again to Pilate.

12 And the same day Pilate and Herod were n made friends together, for before they were at enmity between themselves.

13 And Pilate, when he had o called together the chief priests, and the rulers, and the people,

14 Said unto them, Ye have brought this man unto me, as one that perverteth the people, & behold, I having examined him p before you, have found q no fault in this man touching those things whereof ye accuse him:

15 No, nor yet r Herod: for I sent you to him, and lo, nothing worthy of death is done unto him.

16 I will s therefore chastise him, and release him.

17 For of necessity he must t release one unto them at the feast.

18 And they u cried out all at once, saying, x Away with this man, and release unto us Barabbas:

19 (Who for a certain sedition made y in the city, and for z murder was cast in prison.)

20 Pilate therefore a willing to release Jesus, spake again to them.

21 But they cried, saying, Crucifie him, crucifie him.

22 And he said unto them the b third time, Why, what evil hath he done? I have found no cause of death in him, I will therefore chastise him, and let him go.

23 And they were instant with loud voices, c requiring that he might be crucified: and the voices of them, and of the chief priests d prevailed.

24 And Pilate gave e sentence that it should be as they required.

25 And he released unto them, him that for sedition & murther was cast into prison, whom they had desired; but he delivered Jesus f to their will.

26 And as they led him away, they laid hold upon one g Simon a Cyrenian, coming out of the countrey, and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear it after Jesus.

27 And there followed him a h great company of people, and of women, which also bewailed and lamented him.

28 But Jesus turning unto them, said, Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not i for me, but weep for your selves, and for your children.

29 For behold, the k days are coming, in the which they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the paps which never gave suck.

30 Then shall they begin to say to the l mountains, Fall on us: and to the hills, Cover us.

31 For if they do these things in a i green tree, what shall be done in the dry?

32 And there were also k two other malefactors led with him to be put to death.

33 And when they were come to the place which is called l Calvary, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand, and the other on the left.

34 Then said Jesus, Father, m forgive them, for they n know not what they do. And they parted his raiment, and cast lots.

35 And the people stood beholding, & the rulers also with them o derided him, saying, He saved others, let him save himself, if he be Christ the chosen of God.

36 And the soldiers also mocked him, coming to him, and p offering him vinegar, 37 And saying, If thou be the king of the Jews, save thy self.

38 And q a superscription also was written over him in letters of Greek, and Latine, and Hebrew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

39 And one of the malefactors, which were hanged, r railed on him, saying, If thou be Christ, save thy self and us.

40 But the other answering, s rebuked him, saying, Doest not thou t fear God, seeing that thou art in the same condemnation?

41 And we indeed u justly, for we receive the due reward of our deeds, but this man hath done nothing amiss.

42 And he said unto Jesus, Lord, x remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom.

43 And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in y paradise.

44 And it was about the z sixth hour, and there was a darkness over all the earth until the ninth hour.

45 And the sun was darkned, and the a vail of the temple was rent in the midst.

46 And when Jesus had cried with a loud voice, he said, Father, b into thy hands I commend my spirit: and having said thus, he gave up c the ghost.

47 Now when the centurion saw what was done, he d glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man.

49 And all his acquaintance, and the women that e followed him from Galilee, stood afar off beholding these things.

50 ¶ And behold, there was a man named Joseph, f a counsellor, and he was a good man, & a just:

51 (The same had not consented to the counsel and deeds of them) he was of Arimathea, a city of the Jews (who also himself g waited for the kingdom of God)

52 This man went unto Pilate, and h begged the body of Jesus.

53 And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in k a sepulchre that was hewen in stone, wherein never man before was laid.

54 And that day was the l preparation, and the sabbath drew on.

55 And the women also which came with him from Galilee, followed m after, and beheld the sepulchre, and how his body was laid.

56 And they returned, and prepared spices and ointments, and rested the sabbath day, n according to the commandment.

CHAP. XXIV.

Christ's resurrection declared to women.

NOw upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, bringing the spices which they had prepared, & certain a others with them.

2 And they found the stone b rolled away from the sepulchre.

3 And they entred in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus.

4 And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed there-about, behold, c two men stood by them in shining garments.

5 And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye the d living among the dead?

6 He is not here, but is risen: remember how he e spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee,

7 Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of f sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.

8 And they remembred his words,

9 And returned from the sepulchre, and g told all these things unto the eleven, and to all the rest.

10 It was Mary Magdalene, & h Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and other women that were with them, i told these things unto the apostles.

11 And their words seemed to them as idle tales, & they believed them not.

12 Then arose Peter, and k ran unto the sepulchre, and stooping down, he beheld the linen cloths laid by themselves, and departed, wondring in himself at that which was come to pass.

13 And behold, l two of them went that same day to a village called Emmaus, which was from Jerusalem about threescore furlongs.

14 And they m talked together of all these things which had happened.

15 And it came to pass, that while they n communed together, and reasoned, Jesus himself drew near, and went with them.

16 But their o eyes were holden that they should not know him.

17 And he said unto them, What manner of communications are these that ye have one to another as ye walk, and are sad?

18 And the one of them, whose name was Cleophas, answering said unto him, Art thou only a stranger in Jerusalem, and hast not known the things which are come to pass there in these days?

19 And he said unto them, What things? And they said unto him, Concerning Jesus of p Nazareth, which was q a prophet r mighty in deed and word, before God, & all the people:

20 And how the chief priests, and our rulers delivered him to be condemned to death, and have crucified him.

21 But we trusted that it had been he which should have s redeemed Israel: and beside all this, to day is the third day since these things were done.

22 Yea, and certain women also of our company made us astonished, which were early at the sepulchre;

23 And when they found not his body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, which said that he was alive.

24 And certain of them which were with us, went to the sepulchre, and found it even so as the women had said, but him they saw not.

25 Then he said unto them, t O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that u the prophets have spoken:

26 a Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?

27 And beginning b at Moses, and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures, the things concerning himself.

28 And they drew nigh unto the village, whither they went: and he made c as though he would have gone further.

29 But they d constrained him, saying, Abide with us, for it is towards evening, and the day is far spent: and he went in to tarry with them.

30 And it came to pass as he sat at meat with them, he took bread, and e blessed it, & brake, & gave to them.

31 And their f eyes were opened, and they knew him, and he vanished out of their sight.

32 And they said one to another, Did not g our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, & while he opened to us y scriptures?

33 And they rose up the same hour, & returned unto Jerusalem, and found the eleven b gathered together, and them that were with them, 34 Saying, The Lord is risen indeed, and hath appeared i to Simon.

35 And they told what things were done in the way, and how he was known of them in breaking of bread.

36 And k as they thus spake, Jesus himself stood in the midst of them, & saith unto them, l Peace be unto you.

37 But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen m a spirit.

38 And he said unto them, n Why are ye troubled, and why do thoughts arise m your hearts?

39 Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I my self, o handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have.

40 And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them his hands & his feet.

41 And while they yet believed not for joy, and wondred, he said unto them, Have ye here any meat?

42 And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an honey-comb.

43 And he took it, and did p eat before them.

44 And he said unto them, These are the

IN the beginning was the Word, a and the Word b was with God, c and the Word was God.
2 The same was in the b beginning with God.
3 All things c were made by him, and without him was not any thing made that was made.
4 In him was d life, and the life was the light of men.
5 And the e light shineth in darkness, & f darkness f comprehended it not.
6 ¶ There was g a man sent from God, whose name was John.
7 The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the light, h that all men b through him might believe.
8 He was i not that light, but was sent to bear witness of that light.
9 That was the true k light, l which lighteth every man c coming into the world.
10 He was in the world, m and the world was made by him, n and the world n knew him not.
11 He came unto o his own, and his own o received him not.
12 But as many o as received him, to them gave he power to become the p sons of God, even to them that p believe on his name:
13 Which were q born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.
14 And r the Word was made s flesh, and t dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, u the glory as of the only begotten of the Father) full of v grace and truth.
15 John bare w witness of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spake, He that cometh x after me, is preferred before me: for he was before me.
16 And of his x fulness have all we received, and grace for grace.
17 For y the law was given by y Moses, but z grace & truth came by Jesus Christ.
18 No man hath seen God at any time: a the only begotten Son, which is in the a bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.
19 ¶ And this is the record of John, when the b Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, Who art thou?
20 And he c confessed, & denied not; but confessed, I am not the Christ.
21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou d Elias? And he saith, I am not. Art thou that e prophet? And he answered, No.
22 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us: what sayest thou of thy self?

23 He said, I am the f voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the LORD, as said the prophet Esaias.
24 And they which were sent, were of the g Pharisees.
25 And they asked him, and said unto him, h Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor Elias, neither that prophet?
26 John answered them, saying, I baptize i in water, but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not;
27 He it is, who coming k after me, is preferred before me, whose shoes l latchet I am not worthy to unloose.
28 These things were done m in Bethabara beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.
29 ¶ The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold n the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world.
30 This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man, which is preferred before me: o for he was before me.
31 And I p knew him not: but that he should be q made manifest to Israel, therefore am I come baptizing with water.
32 And John bare record, saying, I r saw s Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, & it abode upon him.
33 And I t knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he which baptizeth with the holy Ghost.
34 And I saw, and u bare record that this is the Son of God.
35 Again the next day after, John stood, and two of his disciples;
36 And looking upon Jesus as he walked, he saith, Behold, the Lamb of God.
37 And the two disciples x heard him speak, and they y followed Jesus.
38 Then Jesus turned, and saw them following, and saith unto them, What seek ye? They said unto him, Rabbi, (which is to say being interpreted, Master) z where dwellest thou?
39 He saith unto them, a Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was about the tenth hour.
40 One of the two b heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peters brother.
41 He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found 43 The day following, Jesus would go forth into Galilee, c and findeth Philip, and saith unto him, Follow me.

44 Now Philip was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter.

45 Philip findeth Nathanael, and saith unto him, We have found him of whom d Moses in the law, and the prophets did write, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph.

46 And Nathanael said unto him, Can there any good thing come out e of Nazareth? Philip saith unto him, f Come and see.

47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile.

48 Nathanael saith unto him, b Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said unto him, Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast i under the fig-tree, I saw thee.

49 Nathanael answered and saith unto him, Rabbi, thou art the Son of God, thou art the k king of Israel.

50 Jesus answered and said unto him: Because I said unto thee, I saw thee under the fig-tree, believest thou? thou shalt see l greater things than these.

51 And he saith unto him, Verily verily I say unto you, Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the m angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man.

CHAP. II.

Christ turneth water into wine. 12 He forbiddeth his death and resurrection.

AND the a third day there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there.

2 And both b Jesus was called, and his disciples, to the marriage.

3 And when they wanted wine, the mother of Jesus saith unto him, c They have no wine.

4 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, what have I to do with thee? mine d hour is not yet come.

5 His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, e do it.

6 And there were set there f six water-pots of stone, after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three g firkins apiece.

7 Jesus saith unto them, g Fill the water-pots with water. And they filled them up to the brim.

8 And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the governor of the feast. And they bare it.

9 When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was b made wine, and knew not whence it was, (but the servants which drew the water knew) the governor of the feast called the bridegroom,

10 And saith unto him, Every man at the beginning doth set forth good wine, and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine until now.

11 This h beginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and manifested forth his glory, and his disciples believed on him.

12 After this, he went down to i Capernaum, he, and his mother, & his brethren, and his disciples, and they continued there not many days.

13 ¶ And the Jews passover k was at hand, & l Jesus went up to Jerusalem,

14 And found in the temple those that sold oxen, and sheep, and doves, and the changers of money sitting:

15 And when he had made m a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen, and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables:

16 And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence, make not my Father's house an house of merchandise.

17 And his disciples remembered that it was written, n The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up.

18 Then answered the Jews, and said unto him, o What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things?

19 Jesus answered and said unto them, Destroy p this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.

20 Then q said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days?

21 But he spake r of the temple of his body.

22 When therefore he was risen from the dead, his disciples s remembered that he had said this unto them: and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.

23 Now when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, in t the feast-day, many b believed in his name, when they saw the miracles which he did.

24 But Jesus did not u commit himself unto them, because he knew all men, 25 And needed not that any should testify of man: for x he knew what was in man.

1 Christ teacheth the necessity of regeneration, 14 Faith in Christ. 22 The baptism, witness, and doctrine of John.

THERE was a man of the a Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews:

2 The same came to Jesus b by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him.

3 Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily verily I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

4 Nicodemus saith unto him, c How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?

5 Jesus answered, Verily verily I say unto thee, Except a man be born of d water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

6 That which is born of the flesh, is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit, is spirit.

7 Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again.

8 The e wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

9 Nicodemus answered and said unto him, f How can these things be?

10 Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things?

13 And no man hath m ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven.

14 And as Moses n lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up:

15 That whosoever o believeth in him, should not perish, but have everlasting life.

16 And God so loved the p world, that he q gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him, should not perish, but have everlasting life.

17 For God r sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that s world through him might be saved.

18 He that believeth on him, is not condemned: but he that believeth not, is condemned t already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

19 And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men u loved darkness rather than light, x because their deeds were evil.

20 For every one that doth evil, x hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved.

21 But he that doth the truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are y wrought in God.

22 After these things came Jesus and his disciples into the land of Judea, and there he tarried with them, and z baptized.

23 ¶ And John also was baptizing in Aenon, near to Salim, because there was a much water there: and they came, and were baptized.

24 For John was not yet cast into prison.

25 ¶ Then there arose a question between some of b Johns disciples and the Jews, about purifying.

26 And they c came unto John, and said unto him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond Jordan, to whom thou bareſt witness, behold, the same baptizeth, and all men come to him.

27 John answered and said, A man can d receive nothing, except it be given him from heaven.

28 Ye your selves bear me witness, that I said, e I am not the Christ, but I am sent before him.

29 He that hath f the bride, is the bridegroom: but the friend of the bridegroom, which standeth and heareth him, rejoyceth greatly because of the bridegrooms voice: this g my joy therefore is fulfilled.

30 He must h increase, but I must decrease.

31 He that cometh from above, is i above all: he that is of the earth, is earthly, & k speaketh of the earth: he l cometh from heaven, is above all.

32 And what he hath l seen and heard, that he testifieth, and m no man receiveth his testimony.

33 He that hath received his testimony, hath n set to his seal, that God is true.

CHAP. IV.

1 Christ talketh with a woman of Samaria, and reveileth himself unto her. 43 Christ cometh into Galilee: 50 He reſtoreth the nobleman's son to life.

WHen therefore the a Lord knew how the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and baptized more disciples than John,

2 (Though Jesus himself b baptized not, but his disciples)

3 c He left Judea, and departed again into Galilee.

4 And he must d needs go thorow Samaria.

5 Then cometh he to a city of Samaria, which is called e Sychar, near to the parcel of ground that Jacob gave to his son Joseph.

6 Now Jacobs well was there. Jesus therefore being f wearied with his journey, sate thus on the well: and it was about the sixth hour.

7 There cometh a g woman of Samaria to draw water: Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink.

8 For his disciples were gone away unto the city to buy meat.

9 Then saith the woman of Samaria unto him, How is it that thou being a h Jew, askeſt drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria? for the Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans.

10 Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the i gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee k living water.

11 The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the l well is deep: from whence then hast thou that living water?

12 Art thou greater than our m father Jacob, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattel?

13 Jesus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again.

14 But whosoever drinketh of the water n that I shall give him, shall o never thirst: but the water that I shall give him, shall be in him a well of water, springing up into everlasting life.

15 The woman saith unto him, Sir, give me this water, that p I thirst not, neither come hither to draw.

16 Jesus saith unto her, Go, q call thy husband, and come hither.

17 The woman answered and said, I have no husband. Jesus said unto her, Thou hast well said, I have no husband:

18 For thou hast had five husbands, and he whom thou now hast, is not thy husband: in r that saidst thou truly.

19 The woman saith unto him, Sir, I perceive that thou art s a prophet.

20 Our t fathers worshipped in this mountain, and ye say, that x in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship.

21 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour y cometh when ye shall neither in this mountain, z nor yet at Jerusalem worship the Father.

22 Ye worship ye a know not what: we we know what we worship: for b salvation is of the Jews.

23 But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship c Father in spirit & in truth: for d Father seeketh such to worship him.

24 God is a d Spirit, and they that worship him, must worship him in spirit and in truth.

25 The woman saith unto him, I know that e Messias cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things.

26 Jesus saith unto her, I that speak unto thee, f am he.

27 And upon this came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with the woman: yet g no man said, What seekest thou? or, Why talkest thou with her?

28 The woman then b left her waterpot, and went her way into the f city, and saith unto the men, 29 Come, see a man which told me all f things that ever I did: is not this the Christ?

30 Then they m went out of the city, and came unto him.

31 In the mean while his disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat.

32 But he said unto them, I have n meat to eat that ye know not of.

33 Therefore said the disciples one to another, o Hath any man brought him ought to eat?

34 Jesus saith unto them, p My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to q finish his work.

35 Say not ye, There are r yet s four months, and then cometh t harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest.

36 And he that reapeth, receiveth wages, & gathereth fruit unto life eternal: that both he that soweth, & he that reapeth, may u rejoyce together.

37 And herein is that saying true, x One soweth, and another reapeth.

38 I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and ye entred into their labours.

39 And many of the Samaritans of that city z believed on him, for the saying of the woman, which testified, He told me all that ever I did.

40 So when the Samaritans were come unto him, they a besought him that he would tarry with them: and he abode there two days.

41 And many more believed, because of his own word;

42 And said unto the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy saying, for we have c heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the world.

43 ¶ Now after d two days he departed thence, & went into e Galilee:

44 For Jesus himself testified, that a prophet hath f no honour in his own country.

45 Then when he was come into Galilee, the Galileans g received him, having seen all the things that he did at Jerusalem at the feast: for they also went unto the feast.

46 So Jesus came again into Cana of Galilee, where he made the water wine. And there was a certain h nobleman, whose son was sick at Capernaum:

47 When he heard that Jesus was come out of Judea into Galilee, he went unto him, and besought him i he would come down and heal his son: for he was k at y point of death.

48 Then said Jesus unto him, Except ye see l Signs and wonders, ye will not believe.

49 The nobleman saith unto him, Sir, come down ere my child die.

50 Jesus saith unto him, Go thy way, thy son m liveth. And the man b believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way.

51 And as he was now going down, his n servants met him, and told him, saying, Thy son liveth.

52 Then o enquired he of them the hour when he began to amend: and they said unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.

53 So the father knew that it p was at the same hour, in the which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth: and himself believed, and his whole house.

54 This is again the second miracle that Jesus did, when he was come out of Judea into Galilee.

CHAP. V.

Jesus on the sabbath-day cureth one that was diseased eight and thirty years.

1 After this there was a feast of the Jews: and Jesus a went up to Jerusalem.

2 Now there is at Jerusalem by the b sheep-market a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue, Bethesda, having five porches.

3 In these c lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the waters.

4 For d an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then e first after f troubling of the water stepped in, was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.

5 And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity f thirty and eight years.

6 When Jesus saw him lie, g and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he said unto him, Wilt thou be made whole?

7 The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have h no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me.

8 Jesus saith unto him, i Rise, take up thy bed, and walk.

9 And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and on the same day was the sabbath.

10 The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured, k It is the sabbath-day, it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed.

11 He answered them, l He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk?

13 And he that was healed, wist not who it was: for Jesus had m conveyed himself away, a multitude being in that place.

14 Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, & said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: n sin no more, lest a o worse thing come unto thee.

15 The man departed, and told the Jews that it was p Jesus which had made him whole.

16 And therefore did the Jews persecute Jesus, and q sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath-day.

17 ¶ But Jesus answered them, My r Father worketh hitherto, & I work.

18 Therefore the Jews sought the more for the ship and immediately the ship was at the land whither they went.

22 The day following, when the people stood on the other side of the sea, saw there was none other boat there, save that one whereinto his disciples were entered, and that Jesus went not with his disciples into the boat, but his disciples were gone away alone:

23 (Howbeit there came other boats from Tiberias, nigh unto the place where they did eat bread, after that the Lord had given thanks:)

24 When the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also took shipping, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Jesus.

25 And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?

26 Jesus answered them, & said, Verily verily I say unto you, ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye a did eat of the loaves, and were filled.

27 Labour not for the meat which b perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall c give unto you: for d him hath God the Father sealed.

28 Then said they unto him, e What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?

29 Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the f work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.

30 They said therefore unto him, What g sign shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what dost thou work?

31 Our fathers did eat h manna in the desert, as it is written, He gave them bread from heaven to eat.

32 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily verily I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven, but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven.

33 For the i bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, & giveth life unto the world.

34 Then said they unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread.

35 And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that k cometh to me, shall never hunger, and he that believeth on me, shall never thirst.

36 But I said unto you, that ye also have seen me, and believe not.

37 All that the Father l giveth me, shall come to me; and him that cometh to me, I will in no wise cast out.

38 For m I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me.

39 And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me, I should lose nothing, but should n raise it up again at the last day.

40 And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.

41 The Jews then r murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread which came down from heaven.

42 And they said, Is not this Jesus the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that he saith, I came down from heaven?

43 Jesus therefore answered & said unto them, Murmure not among yourselves.

44 No man can come unto me, s except the Father t which hath sent me, draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day.

45 It is written in the u prophets, and they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of x Father, cometh unto me.

46 Not that any man hath seen the Father, save he which is of God, he hath y seen the Father.

47 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, hath everlasting life.

48 z I am that bread of life.

49 Your fathers a did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead.

50 This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, & not die.

51 I am the b living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of c this bread, he shall live for ever: & the bread that I will give, is d my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.

52 The Jews therefore strove e amongst themselves, saying, f How can this man give us his flesh to eat?

53 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily verily I say unto you, Except ye g eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, h ye have no life in you.

54 Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day.

55 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed.

56 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, i dwelleth in me, and k I in him.

57 As the l living Father hath sent me, and I live i by the Father: so he that eateth me, even he shall live k by me.

58 This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread shall live for ever.

59 These things said he in the m synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

60 Many therefore of his n disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is an hard saying, Who can hear it?

61 When Jesus knew in himself that his disciples murmured at it, he said unto them, Doth this offend you?

62 What and if ye shall see the Son of man ascend up where he was before?

63 It is the o Spirit that quickeneth, the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.

64 But there are some of you that believe not. For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were p that believed not, and who should betray him.

65 And he said, Therefore said I unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father.

66 From q time many of his disciples went back, & walked no more with him.

67 Then said Jesus unto the twelve, Will ye also go away?

68 Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, r to whom shall we go? thou hast the words of eternal life.

69 And we believe, and are sure that thou art that Christ, the Son of the living God.

70 Jesus answered them, Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a s devil?

71 He spake of t Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon: for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve.

CHAP. VII.

1 Jesus reproveth his Kinsmen. 10 He goeth up to the feast of tabernacles.

AFter these things Jesus walked in Galilee: a for he would not walk in Jury, because the Jews sought b to kill him.

2 Now the Jews feast of c tabernacles was at hand.

2 His brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Judea, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest.

4 For there is no man that doeth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly: if thou do these things, shew thy self to the world.

5 For neither did his brethren believe in him.

6 Then Jesus said unto them, My time is not yet come: but your time is alway ready.

7 The world cannot hate you, but me it hateth, because I testifie of it, that the works thereof are evil.

8 Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up yet unto this feast, for my time is not yet full come.

9 When he had said these words unto them, he abode still in Galilee.

10 But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret.

11 Then the Jews sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he?

12 And there was much murmuring among the people concerning him: for some said, He is a good man: others said, Nay, but he deceiveth the people.

13 Howbeit, no man spake openly of him, for fear of the Jews.

14 Now about the midst of the feast, Jesus went up into the temple, and taught.

15 And the Jews marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man letters, having never learned?

16 Jesus answered them, and said, My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.

17 If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself.

18 He that speaketh of himself, seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him.

19 Did not Moses give you the law, and yet none of you keepeth the law? Why go ye about to kill me?

20 The people answered and said, Thou hast a devil: who goeth about to kill thee?

21 Jesus answered and said unto them, I have done one work, and ye all marvel.

22 Moses therefore gave unto you circumcision (not because it is of Moses, but of the fathers) and ye on the sabbath day circumcise a man.

23 If a man on the sabbath day receive circumcision, that the law of Moses should not be broken; are ye angry at me, because I have made a man every whit whole on the sabbath day?

24 Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment.

25 Then said some of them of Jerusalem, Is not this he, whom they seek to kill?

26 But lo, he speaketh boldly, and they say nothing unto him. Do the rulers know indeed that this is the very Christ?

27 Howbeit, we know this man whence he is: but when Christ cometh, no man knoweth whence he is.

28 Then cried Jesus in the temple as he taught, saying, Ye both know me, and ye know whence I am: and I am not come of my self, but he that sent me is true, whom ye know not.

29 But I know him, for I am from him, and he hath sent me.

30 Then they sought to take him: but no man laid hands on him, because his hour was not yet come.

31 And many of the people believed on him, and said, When Christ cometh, will he do more miracles than these which this man hath done?

32 The Pharisees heard that the people murmured such things concerning him, and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to take him.

33 Then said Jesus unto them, Yet a little while am I with you, and then I go unto him that sent me.

34 Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come.

35 Then said the Jews among themselves, Whither will he go, that we shall not find him? will he go unto the dispersed among the Gentiles, and teach the Gentiles?

36 What manner of saying is this that he said, Ye shall seek me and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come?

37 In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink.

38 He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.

39 (But this spake he of the spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the holy Ghost was not yet given, because that Jesus was not yet glorified.)

40 Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, Of a truth this is the prophet.

41 Others said, This is the Christ. But some said, Shall Christ come out of Galilee?

42 Hath not the scripture said, That Christ cometh of the seed of David, and out of the town of Bethlehem, where David was?

43 So there was a division among the people because of him.

44 And some of them would have taken him, but no man laid hands on him.

45 Then came the officers to the chief priests and Pharisees, and they said unto them, Why have ye not brought him?

46 The officers answered, Never man spake like this man.

47 Then answered them the Pharisees, Are ye also deceived?

48 Have any of the rulers, or of the Pharisees believed on him?

49 But this people who knoweth not the law, are cursed.

50 Nicodemus saith unto them (he that came to Jesus by night, being one of them,)

51 Doth our law judge any man before it hear him, and know what he doth?

52 They answered and said unto him, Art thou also of Galilee? Search and look, for out of Galilee ariseth no prophet.

53 And every man went unto his own house.

Mat. 4. 15. Prov. 21. 30.

CHAP. VIII.

Christ delivereth the woman taken in adultery. He preacheth himself the light of the world.

1 Jesus went unto the mount of Olives.

2 And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and he sat down, and taught them.

3 And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery, and when they had set her in the midst,

4 They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

5 Now

5 Now a Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned:
but c what sayest thou?

6 This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him.
But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger f wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not.

7 So when they continued asking him, he lift up himself, and said unto them, He that is g without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.

8 And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground.

9 And they which heard it, being b convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at g eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was i left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

10 When Jesus had lift up himself, & saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

11 She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither do I condemn thee: go, & k sin no more.

12 Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the m light of the world:
he that followeth me, shall n not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

13 The Pharisees therefore said unto him, Thou bearest o record of thy self; thy record is not true.

14 Jesus answered and said unto them,
Though I bear record of my self, yet my record p is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go: but ye cannot tell whence I come, & whither I go.

15 Ye judge q after the flesh, I judge no man.

16 And yet if r I judge, my judgment is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me.

17 It is also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true.

18 I am one that bear witness u of my self, and the Father that sent me, beareth witness of me.

19 Then said they unto him, Where x is thy Father? Jesus answered, Ye neither know me, nor my Father: if ye had y known me, ye should have known my Father also.

20 These words spake Jesus in the Treasury, as he taught in the temple; and no man laid hands on him, z for his hour was not yet come.

21 Then said Jesus again unto them,
b I go my way, and ye shall seek me,
and shall c die in your sins: whither
I go ye cannot come.

22 Then said the Jews, Will he d kill himself? because he saith, Whither
I go ye cannot come.

23 And he said unto them, Ye are e from beneath, I am from above:
ye are of this world, I am not of this world.

24 I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe f not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins.

25 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? And Jesus said unto them, Even b the same that I said unto you from the beginning.

26 I have many things t to say, and to judge of you: but he that sent me, is true: and I g speak to the world those things which I have heard of him.

27 They k understood not that he spake to them of the Father.

28 Then said Jesus unto them, When ye have i lift up the Son of man, then shall ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of my self: but as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things.

29 And he that sent me, is m with me:
the Father hath not left me alone: for I do always those things y that please him.

30 As he spake these words, many o believed on him.

31 Then said Jesus to those Jews h believed on him, If ye p continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed.

32 And ye shall q know the truth, and the truth shall make you r free.

33 They answered him, We be Abrahams seed, and were never in r bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free?

34 Jesus answered them, Verily verily l I say unto you, s Whosoever committeth sin, is the servant of sin.

35 And the s servant abideth not in y house for ever: but the son abideth ever.

36 If the u Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.

37 I know that ye are Abrahams seed, but ye seek to kill me, because my word hath no x place in you.

38 I speak that which I have seen with my Father: & ye do that which ye have seen with y your father.

39 They answered and said unto him, z Abraham is our father. Jesus saith unto them, If ye were Abrahams children, ye would do a the works of Abraham.

40 But now ye seek to kill me, a man that b told you the truth, which I have heard of God: this did not Abraham.

41 Ye do the deeds of your father.
Then said they unto him, We be not born of c fornication, We have one Father, d even God.

42 Jesus said unto them, If God were your Father, ye would love me:
for e I proceeded forth, and came from God; neither came I of my self, but he sent me.

43 Why do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear b my word.

44 Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do: he was a murderer from f the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, & the father of it.

45 And because I tell you l the truth, ye believe me not.

46 Which of you convinceth me m of sin? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me?

47 He that is of God, n heareth Gods words: ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God.

48 Then answered the Jews, and said unto him, Say we not well that thou art o a Samaritan, and hast a devil?

49 Jesus answered, I have not a devil, but p I honour my Father, and ye do dishonour me.

50 And I seek not mine own glory:
there is one that seeketh & q judgeth.

51 Verily, verily I say unto you, If a man r keep my saying, he shall never see death.

52 Then said the Jews unto him,
Now we s know that thou hast a devil.
Abraham is dead, and the prophets:
and thou sayest, If a man keep my saying, he shall never taste of death.

53 Art thou t greater than our father
Abraham, u which is dead? & the prophets are dead: whom makest thou thy self?

54 Jesus answered, If I honour my self, my honour is x nothing: it is my Father that y honoureth me; of whom ye say that he is your God.

55 Yet ye have y not known him, but I know him: and if I should say, I know him not, I shall be a liar like unto you:

56 Your father Abraham rejoyced to see my day: & he saw it, & was glad.
57 Then said the Jews unto him,
Thou art not yet fifty yeares old, and hast thou seen Abraham?
58 Jesus said unto them, Verily, verrily I say unto you, Before Abraham was, x I AM.
59 Then took they up stones to cast at him: but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and so passed by.

CHAP. IX.

A man that was born blind is restored to sight.

AND as Jesus passed by, he saw a man which was a blind from his birth.
2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did b sin, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?
3 Jesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: but that c the works of God should be made manifest in him.
4 I must work the d works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh when no man can work.
5 As long as I am in the world, I am e the light of the world.
6 When he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made f clay of the spittle, and he anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay, 7 And said unto him, Go wash in the pool of g Siloam, (which is by interpretation, Sent.) He went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing.
8 ¶ The neighbours therefore, and they which before had seen him, that he was blind, said, h Is not this he that sat and begged?
9 Some said, This is he: others said,
He is like him: but he said, I I am he.
10 Therefore said they unto him,
How were thine eyes opened?
11 He answered and said, A man that is called m Jesus, made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight.
12 Then said they unto him, Where n is he? He said, o I know not.
13 They brought to the p Pharisees him that aforetime was blind.
14 And it was the q sabbath day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.
15 Then r again the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight. He said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, & I washed, & do see.
16 Therefore said some of the Pharisees, This man is s not of God, because he keepeth not the sabbath day. Others said, How can a man that is a sinner do such miracles? and there was a division among them.
17 They say unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, that he hath opened thine eyes? He said, He is t a prophet.
18 But the u Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight.
19 And they asked them, saying,
Is this your son who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see?
20 His parents answered them and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind:
21 But by what means he now seeth, we know not; or who hath opened his eyes we know not: he is of age, w ask him, he shall speak for himself.
22 These words spake his parents, because they feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man did confess that he was Christ, he should be y put out of the synagogue.
23 Therefore said his parents, He is of age, ask him.
24 Then again called they the man that was blind, and said unto him, z Give God the praise, we know that this man is a a sinner.
25 He answered and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, b I know not: one thing I know, that whereas I was blind, now I see.
26 Then said they to him c again,
What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes?
27 He answered them, I have told you already, and ye did † not hear:
wherefore would ye hear it again? will ye also be his disciples?
28 Then they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple, but we are d Moses disciples.
29 We know that God spake unto Moses: as for this fellow, we know not from whence he is.
30 The man answered and said unto them, Why, herein is a marvellous thing, that ye e know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.
31 Now we know that God g heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doth his will, him he heareth.
32 Since the world began was it not heard that any man h opened the eyes of one that was born blind.
33 If this man were not of God,
he could do nothing.
34 They answered and said unto him, Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou i teach us? And they k cast him out.
35 Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and when he had l found him, he said unto him, Dost thou believe on the Son of God?
36 He answered and said, m Who is he, Lord, † I might believe on him?
37 And Jesus said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and it is n he that talketh with thee.
38 And he said, Lord, I believe: † and he o worshipped him.
39 And Jesus said, For judgment
I am come into this world, that they which p see not, might q see, and that they which see, might be made blind.
40 And some of the Pharisees which were with him heard these words, and said unto him, r Are we blind also?
41 Jesus said unto them, If ye were s blind, ye should have no sin: but now ye say, We see: therefore your sin t remaineth.

CHAP. X.

1 Christ the door and the good shepherd:
19 Divers opinions of him.

VERILY, verily I say unto you, He that entreth not by the a door into the sheepfold, but b climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.
2 But he that entereth in by the door, is c the shepherd of the sheep.
3 To him the d porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice, and he calleth his own sheep e by name, and leadeth them out.
4 And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he f goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice.
5 And g a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers.

6 This

6 This parable spake Jesus unto them: but they b understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.

7 Then said Jesus unto them again, Verily, verily I say unto you, I am the c door of the sheep.

8 All that ever k came before me, are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did l not hear them.

9 I am the door, by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in & out, and find m pasture.

10 The thief cometh not, but for n to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it o more abundantly.

11 I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his p life for q sheep.

12 But he that r is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep.

13 The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, & careth not for s sheep.

14 I am the good shepherd, t and know my sheep, and am known of mine.

15 As the Father t knoweth me, even so know I the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep.

16 And u other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; & there shall be one fold, and x one shepherd.

17 Therefore doth my y Father love me, because I lay down my life, that I might take it again.

18 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down z of my self. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This commandment have I received of my Father.

19 There was a a division therefore again among the Jews for these sayings.

20 And b many of them said, He hath a devil, and is mad: why hear ye him?

21 Others said, These are not the words of him that hath a devil: can a devil open the eyes of the blind?

22 And it was at Jerusalem the feast of the dedication, and it was winter.

23 And Jesus walked in the temple in c Solomons porch.

24 Then came the Jews round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou make us to doubt? If thou be the Christ, tell us plainly.

25 Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye believed not: the works that I do in my Father's name, they bear witness of me.

26 But ye believe not, because ye are d not of my sheep, as I said unto you.

27 My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me:

28 And I e give unto them eternal life, and they shall f never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand.

29 My Father which g gave them me, is greater than all: and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand.

30 I and my Father h are one.

31 Then the Jews took up stones i again to stone him.

32 Jesus answered them, Many good works have I shewed you from my Father; i for which of those works do ye stone me?

33 The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not; but for k blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, makest thy self God.

34 Jesus answered them, Is it not written in l your law, I said, Ye are m gods?

35 If he called them gods, unto whom the word of God came, and the scripture cannot be broken;

36 Say ye of him, whom the Father hath n sanctified, and o sent into the world, Thou blasphemest; because I said, I am the Son of God?

37 If I do not the works of my Father, believe me not.

38 But if I do, though ye believe not me, believe the works: that ye may know and believe that the Father is p in me, and I in him.

39 Therefore they sought again to take him: but he q escaped out of their hand, 40 And went away again beyond Jordan into that r place where John at first baptized; and there he abode.

41 And many resorted unto him, and said, John did no miracle: but all things that John spake of this man were true.

42 And many s believed on him there.

CHAP. XI.

1 Lazarus raised. 45 Many Jews believe.

NOw a certain man was sick, named Lazarus of a Bethany, the town of Mary and her sister Martha.

2 (It was b that Mary which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.)

3 Therefore his c sisters d sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom e thou lovest is sick.

4 When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but for the f glory of God, that the Son of God might be g glorified thereby.

5 Now Jesus h loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 When he had heard therefore that he was sick, he abode i two days still in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that saith he to his disciples, k Let us go into Judea again.

8 His disciples say unto him, Master, the Jews of late sought to stone thee, and l goest thou thither again?

9 Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If any m man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the n light of this world.

10 But if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things said he, and after that he saith unto them, Our friend Lazarus o sleepeth, but I go that I may p awake him out of sleep.

12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if he sleep, he shall do well.

13 Howbeit, Jesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep.

14 Then said Jesus unto them plainly, Lazarus q is dead.

15 And I am glad for your sakes, that I was not there, r to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him.

16 Then said Thomas, which is called Didymus, unto his fellow disciples, Let us also go, that we s may die with him.

17 Then when Jesus came, t he found that he had lien in the grave four days already.

18 (Now Bethany was nigh unto Jerusalem, about fifteen furlongs off:)

19 And many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary, v to comfort them concerning their brother.

that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Mary sate still in the house.

21 Then said Martha unto Jesus, Lord, z if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

22 But a I know, that even now whatsoever thou wilt ask of God, God will give it thee.

23 Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall b rise again.

24 Martha saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day.

25 Jesus said unto her, c I am the resurrection and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:

26 And whosoever liveth, and believeth in me, shall d never die. Believest thou this?

27 She saith unto him, Yea, Lord, e I believe that thou art the f Christ the Son of God, which should come into the world.

28 And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.

29 As soon as he heard that, he arose quickly, and came unto him.

30 Now Jesus was not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Martha met him.

31 The Jews then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up hastily, and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the g grave, to weep there.

32 Then when Mary was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

33 When Jesus therefore saw her h weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groaned i in the spirit, and was troubled, 34 And said, Where have ye laid him? They say unto him, Lord, come and see.

35 k Jesus wept.

36 Then said the Jews, Behold how he l loved him!

37 And some of them said, Could not this man, which m opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died?

38 Jesus therefore again n groaning in himself, cometh to the g grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it.

39 Jesus said, o Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, p by this time he stinketh: for he hath been dead four days.

40 Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that if thou wouldest q believe, thou shouldest r see the glory of God?

41 Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus s lift up his eyes, and said, Father, t I thank thee that thou hast heard me.

42 And I knew that thou u hearest me always: but because of the people which stand by, I said it, that they may believe that thou hast sent me.

43 And when he had thus spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, x come forth.

44 And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with y grave-clothes: and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.

45 Then z many of the Jews which came to Mary, & had seen the things which Jesus did, believed on him.

46 But g some of them went their ways b to the Pharisees, and told them what things Jesus had done.

47 Then gathered the chief priests and the Pharisees a council, and said, What do we? for this man c doth many miracles.

48 If we let him thus k alone, all men will believe on him: and the Romans shall come and take away both our place and nation.

49 And one of them, named Caiaphas, being d high priest e that same year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all,

50 Nor consider that it is f expedient for us, that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

51 And this spake he not of himself: but being high priest that year, he g prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation;

52 And not for that nation only, but that also he should gather together h in one the children of God that were scattered abroad.

53 Then from that day forth they took counsel together for to put him to death.

54 Jesus therefore walked no more i openly among the Jews; but went thence unto a country near to the wilderness, into a city called k Ephraim, and there l continued with his disciples.

55 And the Jews passeover was nigh at hand, and many went out of the country up to Jerusalem before the passeover m to purifie themselves.

56 Then sought they for Jesus, and spake among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

57 Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might n take him.

CHAP. XII.

1 Christ is first anointed. 12 He rideth into Jerusalem. 23 Foretelleth his death.

THen Jesus, six days before the passover, a came to Bethany, where Lazarus was which had been dead, whom he raised from the dead.

2 There they made him b a supper, and Martha served: but Lazarus was c one of them that sat at the table with him.

3 Then took Mary a pound of ointment of spikenard, very costly, & anointed the feet of Jesus, & wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.

4 Then saith one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, which should betray him, 5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, d and given e to the poor?

6 This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and had the bag, and bare what was put therein.

7 Then said Jesus, f Let her alone; against the day of my burying hath she kept this.

8 For the poor g always ye have with you; (but me ye have not always.)

9 Much people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there: and they came, not for Jesus' sake only, but h that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead.

10 But the chief priests consulted that they might put i Lazarus also to death,

11 k Because that by reason of him many many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.

12 On the next day, l much people that were come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, 13 Took m branches of palm-trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried, n Hosanna, blessed is y king of Israel that cometh in the name of the Lord.

14 And Jesus when he had found a young *a*ss, sate thereon, as it is b written, 15 Fear not daughter of Sion, behold thy y King cometh, sitting on an asses colt.

16 These things q understood not his disciples at the first: but when Jesus was glorified, then remembred they r these things were written of him, & y they had done these things unto him.

17 The people therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, s bare record.

18 For this cause also the people t met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle.

19 The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, Perceive ye how ye u prevail nothing? behold, the x world is gone after him.

20 And there were certain y Greeks among them, that came up to worship at the feast:

21 The same came therefore to Philip, which was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would z see Jesus.

22 Philip cometh and telleth Andrew: & again Andrew & Philip a told Jesus.

23 And Jesus answered them, saying, c The hour is come that the Son of man should be b glorified.

24 Verily verily I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground, & c die, it abideth alone; but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

25 He that loveth his life, shall lose it: & he that d hateth his life in this world, shall keep it unto life *e*ternal.

26 If any man serve me, f let him follow me, & where c I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour.

27 Now is my soul troubled, and what shall I say? Father, g save me from this hour: but for g this cause came I unto this hour.

28 Father, b glorify thy Name. Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, h I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again.

29 The people therefore that stood by, & heard it, said that it h thundered: others said, An angel spake to him.

30 Jesus answered and said, This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes.

31 Now is the i judgment of this world: now shall m the prince of this world be cast out.

32 And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me.

33 (This he said, signifying what death he should die.)

34 The people answered him, We have heard out of the law, that Christ k abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, The Son of man must be lifted up? Who is this Son of man?

35 Then said Jesus unto them, Yet a little q while is the light n with you. Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for he that walketh in darkness, knoweth not whither he goeth.

36 While ye have light, believe in the light, that y may be the children of light. These things spake Jesus, and departed, and did l hide himself from them.

37 But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they t believed not on him:

38 That the saying of Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, n Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath x the arm of the LORD been revealed?

39 y Therefore they could not believe, because that Esaias said again, 40 He hath x blinded their eyes, and hardned their heart, that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.

41 These things said Esaias, when he saw n his glory, and spake of him.

42 Nevertheless, among the chief rulers also, many believed on him; but because of the b Pharisees they did c not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue.

43 For they loved the d praise of men more than the praise of God.

44 Jesus cried and said, He that believeth on me, believeth c not on me, but on him that sent me.

45 And he that f seeth me, seeth him that sent me.

46 g I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth in me, should not abide in darkness.

47 And if any man hear my words and believe not, b I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world.

48 He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath i one that judgeth him: k the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day.

49 For I have not spoken l of myself; but the Father which sent me, he gave me a commandment what I should say, and what I should speak.

50 And I know that his commandment m is life everlasting: whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak.

CHAP. XIII.

Jesus washeth the disciples feet, exhorteth to humility and charity.

NOw before the feast of the passover, when Jesus knew that his hour a was come, that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the a end.

2 And supper being ended, (the b devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him)

3 Jesus knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he was come from God, and went to God,

4 He riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments, and took a towel, and c girded himself.

5 After that, he poureth water into a basen, and began c to wash the disciples feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded.

6 Then cometh he to Simon Peter: and Peter saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet?

7 Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou c knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter.

8 Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt b never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, d If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me.

9 Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also k my hands and my head.

10 Jesus saith to him, He that is washed, needeth not, save to wash his l feet, but is clean every whit: and ye are clean, but not all.

11 For m he knew who should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.

12 So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, n Know ye what I have done to you?

13 Ye call me o Master and Lord: and ye say well; for p so I am.

14 If I then your Lord, and Master, have washed your feet, q ye also ought to wash one another's feet.

15 For I have given you r an example, s ye should do as I have done to you.

16 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The t servant is not greater than his lord; neither he that is sent, greater than he that sent him.

17 If ye know these things, happy are ye, u if ye do them.

18 ¶ I speak not of you all: I know whom x I have chosen: but that the y scripture may be fulfilled, He that eateth bread with me, hath lift up his heel against me.

19 Now I tell you z before it come, that when it is come, ye may believe that a I am he.

20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that b receiveth whomsoever I send, receiveth me; and he that receiveth me, receiveth him that sent me.

21 ¶ When Jesus had thus said, he was c troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, that one of d you shall betray me.

22 Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.

23 Now there was leaning on Jesus bosom one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved.

24 Simon Peter therefore beckoned to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom he spake.

25 He then lying on Jesus breast, saith unto him, Lord, who is it?

26 Jesus e answered, He it is to whom I shall f give a sop, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Judas Iscariot the son of Simon.

27 And after the sop, g Satan entered into him. Then said Jesus unto him, That thou doest, do quickly.

28 Now no man at the table h knew for what intent he spake this unto him.

29 For some of them thought, because Judas had the bag, that Jesus had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of i against the feast: or that he should give something to the poor.

30 He then having received the sop, went immediately out: and it was night.

31 Therefore when he was gone out, Jesus said, Now is the Son of man k glorified, and l God is glorified in him.

32 If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorify him m in himself, and shall straightway glorify him.

33 Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me: and n as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, o ye cannot come; so now I say unto you.

34 A new commandment I give unto you, p That ye love one another, q that as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

35 By this shall all men know that ye are my r disciples, if ye have love one to another.

36 ¶ Simon Peter said unto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Jesus answered him, Whither I go, thou canst not follow me now; s but thou shalt follow me t afterwards.

37 Peter said unto him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee now? u I will lay down my life for thy sake.

38 Jesus answered him, Wilt thou lay down thy life for my sake? Verily, verily I say unto thee, x the cock shall not crow, till thou hast denied me thrice.

CHAP. XIV.

Christ comforteth his disciples.

LEt not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also a in me.

2 In my father's house are many b mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you: I go to c prepare a place for you.

3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will d come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, e there ye may be also.

4 And whither I go, ye know, and the way ye know.

5 Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest: and how can we know the way?

6 Jesus saith unto him, I am the f way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

7 If ye had g known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.

8 Philip saith unto him, Lord, shew us the Father, and it sufficeth us.

9 Jesus saith unto him, Have I been h so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? he that hath seen me, hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Shew us the Father?

10 Believest thou not that I am i in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak unto you, I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doth k works.

11 Believe me, that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very l works sake.

12 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do, shall he do also, and m greater works than these shall he do, because I go unto my Father.

13 And n whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be o glorified in the Son.

14 If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it.

15 If ye q love me, keep my commandments.

16 And I will r pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever, 17 Even the spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he s dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.

18 I will not leave you t comfortless, I will come to you.

19 Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more; but ye see me: because I live, ye shall live also.

20 At that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, and u you in me, and I in you.

21 He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will

I will love him, and will x manifest my self to him.

22 Judas saith unto him, (not Iscariot,) Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thy self unto us, and not unto the world?

23 Jesus answered and said unto him, If any man love me, he will keep my words, and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.

24 He that loveth me not, keepeth not my sayings: and the word which you hear is not mine, but the Fathers which sent me.

25 These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you.

26 But the Comforter, which is the holy Ghost, y whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.

27 Peace I leave with you, b my peace I give unto you: not as the z world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

28 Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go away, and come again unto you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said, I go unto the Father: for my Father a is greater than I.

29 And now I have b told you before it come to pass, that when it is come to pass, ye might believe.

30 Hereafter I will not talk much with you: for the prince of this world c cometh, and hath c nothing in me.

31 But that the world may know that I love the Father, d as the Father e gave me commandment, even so I do: arise, let us go hence.

CHAP. XV.

The consolation and mutual love between Christ and his members, under the parable of the vine.

I Am the a true vine, and my Father b is the b husbandman.

2 Every branch in me that beareth not fruit, he c taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he d purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

3 Now ye are clean e through the word which I have spoken unto you.

4 Abide in me, and f I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of it self, except it abide in the vine; g no more can ye, except ye abide in me.

5 I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing.

6 If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered: h and men k gather them, & cast them into the fire, and they are burned.

7 If ye abide in me, and l my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

8 Herein is my Father m glorified, that ye bear much fruit, so shall ye be my disciples.

9 As n Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: o continue ye in my love.

10 If ye o keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love, even as I have kept my Fathers commandments, & abide in his love.

11 These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might p remain in you, and that your joy might be full.

12 This is q my commandment, that ye love one another, as I have loved you.

13 Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down r his life for his friends.

14 Ye are my s friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.

15 Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends, for all things that I have heard of my Father, I have made known unto you.

16 Ye have t not chosen me, but I have chosen you, & u ordained you, that you should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you.

17 These things I command you, that ye y love one another.

18 If the z world hate you, ye know a it hated me before it hated you.

19 If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have b chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.

20 Remember the word that c I said unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord: if they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also.

21 But all these things will they d do unto you for my Names sake, because they e know not him that sent me.

22 If f I had not come, and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: but now they have no cloak for their sin.

23 He that hateth me, hateth my Father also.

24 If I had not done among them the works which none other man did, they had not had sin: but now they have both seen and hated both me and my Father.

25 But this cometh to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in g their law. They hated me i without a cause.

26 But when the Comforter is come, whom h I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testifie of me.

27 And ye also shall i bear witness, because ye have been with me from the beginning.

CHAP. XVI.

Christ comforteth his disciples against tribulation by his promises.

THese things have I spoken unto you, a ye should not be offended.

2 They shall put you b out of the synagogues: yea the time cometh, that whosoever killeth you, will think c that he doth c God service.

3 And these things will they do unto you, because they have d not known the Father, nor me.

4 But these things have I told you, that when the e time shall come, ye may remember f I told you of them. And these things I said not unto you at g beginning, because I was h with you.

5 But now I go my way to him that sent me, and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou?

6 But because I have said these things unto you, i sorrow hath filled your heart.

7 Nevertheless, I tell you the truth, it is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will k not come unto you: but if I depart, I will send him unto you.

8 And when he is come, he l will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment.

9 Of sin, because they believe not on me.

10 Or, righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more.

11 Of l judgment, because the prince of this world is judged.

12 I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye m cannot bear them now:

13 Howbeit, when he, the Spirit of truth is come, he will guide you into all truth; for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak; and he will shew n you things to come.

14 He shall glorifie me: for he shall receive o of mine, and shall shew it unto you.

15 All things that the Father hath, are p mine; therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall shew it unto you.

16 A little while and ye shall q not see me: and again, a little while and ye shall see me, because I go to the Father.

17 Then said some of his disciples among themselves, r What is this that he saith unto us, A little while and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while and ye shall see me: and, because I go to the Father?

18 They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? we cannot tell what he saith.

19 Now Jesus s knew that they were desirous to ask him, and said unto them, Do ye enquire among your selves of that I said, A little while and ye shall not see me: and again a little while and ye shall see me?

20 Verily verily I say unto you, that ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall t rejoyce: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be u turned into joy.

21 A woman when she is in travail hath v sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembreth no more the anguish, for w joy that a man is born into the world.

22 And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoyce, and your joy x no man taketh from you.

23 And in that day ye shall y ask me nothing. Verily verily I say unto you, z Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you.

24 Hitherto have ye asked a nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be b full.

25 These things have I spoken unto you in proverbs: the time cometh when I shall no more speak unto you in proverbs, but I shall shew you plainly of the Father.

26 At that day ye shall ask in my name: and I say not unto you, that c I will pray the Father for you:

27 For the Father himself d loveth you, because ye have loved me, and have believed that I came out from God.

28 b I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again, f I leave the world, and go to the Father.

29 His disciples said unto him, Lo, now speakest thou g plainly, and speakest no proverb.

30 Now are we sure that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: h by this we believe that thou camest forth from God.

31 Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe?

32 Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is now come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.

33 These things have I spoken unto you, i that in me ye might have peace: l in the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer, I have m overcome the world.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Christ prayeth to his Father to glorifie him. 6 To preserve the Apostles, 11 in unity, 17 and truth.

THese words spake Jesus, and lift up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, a the hour is come, b glorifie thy Son, that thy Son also may glorifie thee:

2 As thou hast given him c power over all flesh, d he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him.

3 And this is life e eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, f & Jesus Christ whom thou hast sent.

4 I have glorified thee on the earth: g I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do.

5 And now, O Father, glorifie thou me with thine own self, with the glory h which I had with thee before the world was.

6 I have manifested thy Name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world: i thine they were, & thou gavest them me; and they have kept thy word.

7 Now they have k known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me, are of thee.

8 For I have given unto them the l words which thou gavest me, and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me.

9 I pray m for them: I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me; for they are thine.

10 And n all mine are thine, and thine are mine, and I am glorified in them.

11 And now I am no more in the o world, but these are in the world, & I come to thee. Holy Father, keep through thine own Name, those whom thou hast given me, that they p may be one, as we are.

12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy Name: those that thou gavest me I have kept, and none of them is lost, but the q son of perdition; that the scripture might be fulfilled.

13 And now come I to thee, and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves.

14 I have given them thy word, and the world hath hated them, because they are r not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

15 I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them s from the evil.

16 They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

17 t Sanctifie them through thy truth: thy word is truth.

18 As thou hast u sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world.

19 And for their sakes I sanctifie x my self, that they also might be sanctified through the truth.

20 Neither pray I for these alone, but y for them also which shall believe on me through their word;

21 That they all may be one, as thou Father art in me, and I in thee, that they

CHAP. XVIII.

1 Judas betrayeth Christ. 25 Peter denyeth him.

WHen Jesus had spoken these words, a he went forth with his b disciples over the brook c Cedron, where was a garden, into the which he entred, and his disciples.

2 And Judas also, which betrayed him, knew the place: for Jesus oftimes d resorted thither, with his disciples.

3 Judas then having e received a band of men, and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh thither with lanthorns, and torches, and weapons.

4 Jesus therefore knowing all things that should come upon him, f went forth, and said unto them, Whom seek ye?

5 They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am h. And Judas also which betrayed him, stood with them.

6 As soon then as he had said unto them, h I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground.

7 Then asked he them again, Whom seek ye? and they said, Jesus of Nazareth.

8 Jesus answered, I have told you that I am he. If therefore ye seek me, i let these go their way.

9 That the k saying might be fulfilled which he spake, Of them which thou gavest me, have I lost none.

10 Then Simon Peter having a l sword, m drew it, and smote the high priests servant, and cut off his right ear: the servants name was Malchus.

11 Then said Jesus unto Peter, Put up thy sword into the sheath: n the cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?

12 Then the band, and the captain, and officers of the Jews took Jesus, and o bound him, 13 And led him away to p Annas first: for he was father in law to Caiaphas, which was q high priest that same year.

14 Now r Caiaphas was he which gave counsel to the Jews, s that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 And Simon Peter t followed Jesus, and so did u another disciple: that disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the palace of the high priest.

16 But Peter stood at the door without. Then went out that other disciple, which was known unto the high priest, and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Peter.

17 Then saith the damsel that kept the door unto Peter, Art not thou also one of this mans disciples? He saith, I am not.

18 And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals, (for it was cold) and they warmed themselves: and Peter x stood with them, and warmed himself.

19 The high priest then asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his y doctrine.

20 Jesus answered him, I spake z openly to the world, I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort, and in secret have I said nothing.

21 Why askest thou me? ask them which heard me, what I have said unto them: behold they know what I said.

22 And when he had thus spoken, one of the a officers which stood by, strake Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so?

23 Jesus answered him, If I have b spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, c why smitest thou me?

24 Now Annas had sent him bound unto Caiaphas the d high priest.

25 And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself: e they said therefore unto him, Art not thou also one of his disciples? He denied it, and said, f I am not.

26 One of the servants of the high priest (being his kinsman, whose ear Peter cut off) saith, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?

27 Peter then g denied again, and immediately the cock crew.

28 Then led they Jesus from Caiaphas, unto the hall of judgment: and it was early, and they themselves went not into the judgment-hall, lest they should be h defiled; but that they might eat the passover.

29 Pilate then i went out unto them, and said, What accusation bring you against this man?

30 They answered and said unto him, k If he were not a malefactor, l we would not have delivered him up unto thee.

31 Then said Pilate unto them, m Take ye him, and judge him according to your laws. The Jews therefore said unto him, n It is not lawful for us to put any man to death:

32 That the o saying of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying what death he should die.

33 Then Pilate entred into the judgment-hall again, and called Jesus, and said unto him, p Art thou the king of the Jews?

34 Jesus answered him, Sayest thou this thing q of thy self, or did others tell it thee of me?

35 Pilate answered, r Am I a Jew? thine own nation, and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me: What hast thou done?

36 Jesus answered, s My kingdom is not of t this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: u but now is my kingdom not from hence.

37 Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, x Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice.

23 Pilate saith unto him, What evil hath he done? I have found no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise him, and let him go.

23 And they were instant with loud voices, requiring that he might be crucified: and the voices of them and of the chief priests prevailed.

24 When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it.

25 Then answered all the people, and said, His blood be on us, and on our children.

26 Then released he Barabbas unto them: and when he had scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified.

27 Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the common hall, and gathered unto him the whole band of soldiers.

28 And they stripped him, and put on him a scarlet robe.

29 And when they had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand: and they bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews!

30 And they spit upon him, and took the reed, and smote him on the head.

31 And after that they had mocked him, they took off the robe from him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him away to crucify him.

32 And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name: him they compelled to bear his cross.

33 And when they were come unto a place called Golgotha, that is to say, a place of a skull, 34 They gave him vinegar to drink mingled with gall: and when he had tasted thereof, he would not drink.

35 And they crucified him, and parted his raiment, casting lots: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, They parted my garments among them, and upon my vesture did they cast lots.

36 And sitting down they watched him there.

37 And set up over his head his accusation written, THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

38 Then were there two thieves crucified with him, one on the right hand, and another on the left.

39 And they that passed by reviled him, wagging their heads, 40 And saying, Thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself. If thou be the Son of God, come down from the cross.

41 Likewise also the chief priests mocking him, with the scribes and elders, said, 42 He saved others; himself he cannot save. If he be the King of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him.

43 He trusted in God; let him deliver him now, if he will have him: for he said, I am the Son of God.

44 The thieves also, which were crucified with him, cast the same in his teeth.

45 Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour.

46 And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? that is to say, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

47 Some of them that stood there, when they heard that, said, This man calleth for Elias.

48 And straightway one of them ran, and took a spunge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink.

49 The rest said, Let be, let us see whether Elias will come to save him.

50 Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost.

51 And, behold, the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom; and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent;

52 And the graves were opened; and many bodies of the saints which slept arose, 53 And came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many.

54 Now when the centurion, and they that were with him, watching Jesus, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God.

55 And many women were there beholding afar off, which followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering unto him:

56 Among which was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of Zebedee's children.

57 When the even was come, there came a rich man of Arimathea, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus' disciple:

58 He went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered.

59 And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, 60 And laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed.

61 And there was Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre.

62 Now the next day, that followed the day of the preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees came together unto Pilate, 63 Saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver said, while he was yet alive, After three days I will rise again.

64 Command therefore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, lest his disciples come by night, and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead: so the last error shall be worse than the first.

65 Pilate said unto them, Ye have a watch: go your way, make it as sure as ye can.

66 So they went, and made sure the sepulchre, sealing the stone, and setting a watch.

CHAP. XIX.

Christ scourged, crowned and beaten.

THen Pilate therefore took Jesus, a and scourged him.

2 And the soldiers platted b a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple robe,

3 And said, c Hail, King of the Jews: and they smote him with their hands.

4 Pilate therefore went forth again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may know that I find d no fault in him.

5 Then came Jesus forth, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. And Pilate saith unto them, e Behold the man.

6 When the chief priests therefore and officers f saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Take ye him, and crucify him, for I find no fault in him.

7 The Jews answered him, We have a law, and g by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the h son of God.

8 When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was the i more afraid, 9 And went again into the judgment-hall, and saith unto Jesus, Whence art thou? but Jesus gave him no answer.

10 Then saith Pilate unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not, that I have power to crucify thee, and have power to release thee?

11 Jesus answered, Thou couldest have k no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee hath the l greater sin.

12 And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou let this man go, thou art m not Cesar's friend: whosoever maketh himself a king, speaketh against Cesar.

13 When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down in the judgment-seat, in a place that is called the Pavement, but in the Hebrew, Gabbatha.

14 And it was the preparation of the passover, and about the sixth hour: and he saith unto the Jews, Behold your King!

15 But they cried out, n Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Cesar.

16 Then delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified. And they took Jesus and led him away.

17 And o bearing his cross, went forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew, Golgotha:

18 Where they p crucified him, and q two other with him, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst.

19 And r Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross: and the writing was, JESUS OF NAZARETH

20 This title then read many of the Jews: for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in s Hebrew, and Greek, and Latin.

21 Then said the chief priests of the Jews to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am king of the Jews.

22 Pilate answered, What I have t written, I have written.

23 Then the u soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments, (& made four parts, to every soldier a part) and also his coat: now the coat was x without seam, woven from the top throughout.

24 They said therefore among themselves, Let us not rent it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, y They parted my raiment among them, and for my vesture they did cast lots. These things therefore the soldiers did.

25 Now there stood by the cross of Jesus, z his mother, & his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Cleophas, and a Mary Magdalene.

26 When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and the disciple standing by, b whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, Woman, behold thy son.

27 Then saith he to the disciple, Behold c thy mother. And from that hour that disciple took her unto his own home.

28 After this, Jesus knowing that d all things were now e accomplished, that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, f I thirst.

29 Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: & they g filled a spunge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth.

30 When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, h It is finished: i and he bowed his head, and k gave up the ghost.

31 The Jews therefore, because it was the preparation, that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the Sabbath day (for that Sabbath day was an high day) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.

32 Then came the soldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him.

33 But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs.

34 But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith came there out l blood and water.

35 And m he that saw it, bare record, and his record is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might n believe.

36 For these things were done, that the scripture should be fulfilled, o A bone of him shall not be broken.

37 And again, another p scripture saith, q They shall look on him whom they have pierced.

38 ¶ And after this, Joseph of Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus, but r secretly for fear of the Jews, besought Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave him leave. He came therefore, and took the body of Jesus.

39 And there came also Nicodemus, (which at the s first came to Jesus by night,) and brought a mixture of t myrrh, and aloes, about an hundred pound t weight.

40 Then

40 Then took they the body of Jesus, and wound it in linen clothes, with the spices, as the manner of the Jews is to bury.

41 Now in the place where he was crucified, there was a garden; and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was never man yet laid.

42 There laid they Jesus therefore, because of the Jews preparation day; for the sepulchre was nigh at hand.

CHAP. XX.

Mary cometh to the sepulchre. 12 Jesus appeareth to her, and to others.

THE first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre.

2 Then she runneth, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away a the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him.

3 Peter therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre.

4 So they ran both together, and the other disciple did outrun Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.

5 And he stooping down, and looking in, saw the linen clothes lying, yet went he not in.

6 Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, b seeth the linen clothes lie,

7 And the napkin that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself.

8 Then went in also that other disciple which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, and believed.

9 For as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead.

10 Then the disciples went away again unto their own home.

11 But Mary c stood without at the sepulchre weeping: and as she wept, she stooped down, and looked into the sepulchre, 12 And seeth two angels in white sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain.

13 And they say unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them, Because they have taken away b my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him.

14 And when she had thus said, she turned herself back, and saw Jesus standing, and knew not that it was Jesus.

15 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou have born him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away.

16 Jesus saith unto her, Mary. She turned herself, d saith unto him, Rabboni, which is to say, Master.

17 Jesus saith unto her, Touch me not; for I am not e yet ascended to my Father: but go to my brethren, f say unto them, I ascend unto my Father, and your Father, and to my God, and your God.

18 Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken these things unto her.

19 Then the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut, where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jesus, g and stood in the midst, h and saith unto them, h Peace be unto you.

20 And when he had so said, he i shewed unto them his hands and his side. Then were the disciples k glad, when they saw the Lord.

21 Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you: l as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you.

22 And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the holy Ghost.

23 Whose soever sins ye m remit, they are remitted unto them; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained.

24 But Thomas one of the twelve, called n Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came.

25 The other disciples therefore o said unto him, We have seen p the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe.

26 And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them: q then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you.

27 Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and r thrust it into my side, and be not faithless but believing.

28 And Thomas answered and said unto him, s My Lord, and my God.

29 Jesus saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have t not seen, and yet have believed.

30 ¶ And many u other signs truly did Jesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not x written in this book:

31 But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing ye might have life through y his Name.

CHAP. XXI.

Christ appeareth to his disciples, going a fishing. 18 Foretelleth Peter's death.

AFTER these things Jesus a shewed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias; and on this wise shewed he himself.

2 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples.

3 Simon Peter saith unto them, b I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also go with thee. They went forth, and entered into a ship immediately; and that night they c caught nothing.

4 But when the morning was now come, Jesus stood d on the shore: but the disciples knew not that it was Jesus.

5 Then Jesus saith unto them, Children, have ye any meat? they answered him, e No.

6 And he said unto them, Cast the net on the f right side of the ship, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes.

7 Therefore that disciple whom Jesus loved, saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fisher's coat unto him, (for he was naked) & did cast himself into the sea.

8 And the other disciples came in a little ship (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits) dragging the net with fishes.

9 As soon then as they were come to land, they saw a fire of coals there,

THe a former treatise have I made, O Theophilus, of b all that Jesus began both to c do and teach,
2 Until the day in which he was d taken up, after that he through the holy Ghost had given e commandment unto the apostles, whom he had chosen:
3 To whom also he shewed himself alive, f after his passion, by many infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to g the kingdom of God:
4 And being assembled together with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the h promise of the Father, which, saith he, ye have heard of me.
5 For John i truly baptized with water, but ye shall be baptized with the holy Ghost, k not many days hence.
6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou l at this time restore again the kingdom to Israel?
7 And he said unto them, It is not for m you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power.
8 But ye shall receive power after that the holy Ghost is come upon you, and ye shall be n witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.
9 And when he had o spoken these things, while they beheld, he was p taken up, and a cloud received him q out of their sight.
10 And while they looked stedfastly toward heaven, as he went up, behold, r two men stood by them in white apparel,
11 Which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? this same Jesus, which is taken up from you s into heaven, shall so come, in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven.
12 Then returned they unto Jerusalem, from the mount called Olivet, which is from Jerusalem a t sabbath days journey.
13 And when they were come in, they went up into a u upper room, where abode both Peter, & James, and John, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew, and Matthew, James the son of Alphæus, and Simon Zelotes, & Judas the brother of James.
14 These all x continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with the y women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brethren.
15 And in those days Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples, and said, (the number of names together were about a hundred and twenty,) 16 Men and brethren, this scripture must needs have been fulfilled, which the holy Ghost by the mouth of David spake before concerning Judas, z which was guide to them that took Jesus.
17 For he was a numbered with us, and had obtained part of this ministry.
18 Now this man purchased a field with the reward of iniquity, and falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, & all his bowels gushed out.
19 And it was known unto all the dwellers at Jerusalem; insomuch as that field is called in their proper tongue, Aceldama, that is to say, The field of blood.
20 For it is written in the book of Psalms, a Verily verily I say unto thee, When thou wast young, thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldst: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not.

19 This spake he, signifying by what death he should b glorify God. And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him, c Follow me.
20 Then Peter turning about, seeth the disciple whom Jesus loved, following, which also leaned on his breast at supper, and said, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee?
21 Peter seeing him, saith to Jesus, Lord, and d what shall this man do?
22 Jesus saith unto him, If I will that he tarry e till I come, what is that to thee? f Follow thou me.
23 Then went this saying abroad among the g brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said not unto him, He shall not die; but, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee?
24 This is the disciple which h testifieth of these things, and wrote these things, and we know that his testimony is true.
25 And there are also i many other things which Jesus did, the which if they should be written every one, I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that should be written. Amen.

psalms, Let his habitation be desolate, and let no man dwell therein: And his bishoprick let another take.

21 Wherefore of these men which have companied with us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, 22 Beginning from the baptism of John, unto that same day that he was taken up from us, must one be ordained to be a witness with us of his resurrection.

23 And they appointed two, Joseph called Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias.

24 And they prayed, and said, Thou Lord, which knowest the hearts of all men, shew whether of these two thou hast chosen, 25 That he may take part of this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place.

26 And they gave forth their lots, and the lot fell upon Matthias, and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

The holy Ghost given in the appearance of cloven tongues.

AND when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place.

2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting.

3 And there appeared unto them cloven tongues, like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them.

4 And they were all filled with the holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

5 And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven.

6 Now when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because every man heard them speak in his own language.

7 And they were all amazed, and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak Galilæans?

8 And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born?

9 Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in Judea, and Cappadocia, in Pontus, and Asia,

10 Phrygia, and Pamphylia, in Egypt, and in the parts of Lybia, about Cyrene, and strangers of Rome, 11 Jews and Proselytes, Cretes and Arabians, we do hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of God.

12 And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, saying one to another, What meaneth this?

13 Others mocking said, These men are full of new wine.

14 But Peter standing up with the eleven, lift up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Judea, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words:

15 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, seeing it is but the third hour of the day.

16 But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel,

17 And it shall come to pass in the last days, (saith God) I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesie, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams:

18 And on my servants, and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my spirit, and they shall prophesie:

19 And I will shew wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke.

20 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before that come the great and notable day of the Lord come.

21 And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord, shall be saved.

22 Ye men of Israel, hear these words, Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God among you by miracles, wonders and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye your selves also know:

23 Him, being delivered by the determinate counsel, and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain:

24 Whom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death: because it was not possible that he should be holden of it.

25 For David speaketh concerning him, I foresaw the Lord always before my face, for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved.

26 Therefore did my heart rejoice, and my tongue was glad, moreover also my flesh shall rest in hope:

27 Because thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thine holy one to see corruption.

28 Thou hast made known to me the ways of life, thou shalt make me full of joy with thy countenance.

29 Men and brethren, let me freely speak unto you of the patriarch David, that he is both dead and buried, and his sepulchre is with us unto this day.

30 Therefore being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ, to sit upon his throne;

31 He seeing this before, spoke of the resurrection of Christ, that his soul was not left in hell, neither his flesh did see corruption.

32 This Jesus hath God raised up, whereof we all are witnesses.

33 Therefore being by the right hand of God exalted, and having received of the Father the promise of the holy Ghost, he hath shed forth this, which ye now see and hear.

34 For David is not ascended into the heavens, but he saith himself, The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, 35 Until I make thy foes thy footstool.

36 Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God hath made the same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ.

37 Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter, and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do?

38 Then Peter said unto them, Repent and be baptized every one of you in the Name of Jesus Christ, for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the holy Ghost.

39 For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call.

40 And with many other words did he testifie and exhort, saying, a Save your selves from this untoward generation.

41 Then b they that c gladly received his word, were baptized: d and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls.

42 And they continued stedfastly in the e apostles doctrine & fellowship, & in breaking of bread, and in prayers.

43 And f fear came upon every soul: and many wonders and signs were done by the apostles.

44 And all that believed were g together, and had all things h common;

45 And i sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all men, as every man had need.

46 And they k continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, did eat their meat with gladness and singleness of heart, 47 Praising God, and having favour with all the people. And the Lord l added to the church daily such as should be m saved.

Peter and John restore a cripple.

NOw Peter and John a went up together into b the temple at the hour of prayer, c being the ninth hour.

2 And a certain man d lame from his mothers womb, was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple, which is called e Beautiful, to ask alms of them that entred into the temple;

3 Who seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, asked an alms.

4 And Peter fastening his eyes upon him with John, said, Look on us.

5 And he gave heed unto them, f expecting to receive some thing of them.

6 Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I h none, but such as I have, give I thee: i In the Name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk.

7 And he took him by the right hand, and lift him up: and k immediately his feet and ancle bones received strength.

8 And he leaping up stood and walked, and entred with them into the temple, walking, and l leaping, and praising God.

9 And all the people saw him walking, and praising God.

10 And they knew that it was he which sate for alms at the Beautiful gate of the temple: and they were m filled with wonder & amazement at that which had happened unto him.

11 And as the lame man which was healed held Peter and John, all the people ran together unto them in the porch that n is called o Solomons, greatly wondering.

12 And when Peter saw, p he answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or holiness we had made this man to walk?

13 The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers hath q glorified his Son Jesus, whom ye delivered up, and q denied him in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let him go.

14 But ye denyed the Holy One, & the Just, and desired a r murtherer to be granted unto you;

15 And killed the s Prince of life, whom God hath raised from the dead, whereof we are witnesses.

16 And his t Name through faith in his Name, hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know: yea, the faith which is by him, hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

17 And now, brethren, I wot that u through ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers.

18 But those things which God before x had shewed by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he hath so fulfilled.

19 Repent ye therefore, and be converted, y that your sins may be z blotted out, when y times of refreshing shall come from y presence of y Lord.

20 And he shall a send Jesus Christ, which before was preached unto you:

21 Whom the heaven must receive, until the times of restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began.

22 For Moses truly said unto the Fathers, b A prophet shall the LORD your God raise up unto you, of your brethren, d like unto me: him shall ye hear in all things whatsoever he shall say unto you.

23 And it shall come to pass, that every soul which will not hear that prophet, shall be e destroyed from among the people.

24 Yea, and all the prophets from Samuel, and those that follow after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of these days.

25 Ye are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Abraham, And in thy f seed shall all the kindreds of y earth be blessed.

CHAP. IV.

Peter and John examined. 13 and forbidden to preach in Christs Name.

AND as they spake unto the people, the a priests and the captain of the temple, and the Sadducees came upon them,

2 Being b grieved that they taught the people, and preached through Jesus the resurrection from the dead.

3 And they c laid hands on them, and put them in hold unto the next day: for it was now even-tide.

4 Howbeit, many of them which heard the word, d believed, & the number of the men was about five thousand.

5 ¶ And it came to pass on e the morrow, that their rulers, and elders, and Scribes,

6 And Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and many as were of the kindred of the high priest, were f gathered together at Jerusalem.

7 And when they had set them g in the midst, they asked, h By what power, or by what name have ye done this?

8 Then Peter filled with the holy Ghost, i said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Israel,

9 If we this day be examined of the k good deed done to the impotent man, by what means he is made whole;

10 Be it known unto you all, and to the people of Israel, that by the Name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom l ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even m by him doth this man stand here before you whole.

12 Neither is there salvation e in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men whereby we must be saved.

13 Now when they saw the f boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were g unlearned & ignorant men, they marvelled, and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus.

14 And beholding the man which was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it.

15 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the counsel, they conferred among themselves, 16 Saying, What shall we do to these men? for that indeed a notable miracle hath been done by them is manifest to all them that dwell in Jerusalem, and we cannot deny it.

17 But that it spread no further among the people, let us straitly threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man h in this name.

18 And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all, nor teach in the name of Jesus.

19 But Peter and John answered and said unto them, Whether it be right in the i sight of God, to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye.

20 For we cannot k but speak the things which we have seen and heard.

21 So when they had further threatened them, they b let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, c because of the people: for all men glorified God for that which was done.

22 For the man was above forty years old, on whom this miracle of healing was shewed.

23 ¶ And being let go, they went to their d own company, and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said unto them.

24 And when they heard that, they lift up their voice to God with one accord, and said, Lord, thou art God which hast made heaven and earth, and the sea, and all that in them is:

25 Who by the mouth of thy servant David hast said, Why did the heathen rage, and the people imagine vain things?

26 The l kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers were gathered together, m against the Lord, and against his Christ.

27 For of a truth against thy holy child Jesus, whom thou hast b anointed, both n Herod, and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles, and the people of Israel, were gathered together, 28 For o to do whatsoever thy hand and thy counsel determined before to be done.

29 And now Lord, behold their p threatnings: and grant unto thy servants, that with m all boldness they may speak thy word, 30 By stretching forth q thine hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done by the name of thy holy child Jesus.

31 And when they had prayed, the place was r shaken where they were assembled together, and they were all filled with the holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God with boldness.

32 And the multitude of them that believed, were of one ? heart, & of one soul: neither said any of them, that ought of the things which he possessed, was his own, but they had all things common.

33 And with q great power gave the apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all.

34 Neither was there any among them that lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses, f sold them and brought the prices of the things that were sold,

35 And laid them down at the apostles feet: and distribution was made unto every man according as he had need.

36 And Joses, who by the apostles was surnamed Barnabas (which is, being interpreted, The son of consolation) a Levite, and of the country of s Cyprus, 37 Having t land, sold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the apostles feet.

CHAP. V.

10 Ananias and Sapphira fall down dead. 18 The apostles work many miracles.

BUT a a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession,

2 And b kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the c apostles feet.

3 But Peter said, Ananias, Why hath d Satan filled thine heart e to lie to the holy Ghost, and to keep back part of the price of the land?

4 Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine f own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God.

5 And Ananias hearing these words, fell down, and g gave up the ghost: and h great fear came on all them that heard these things.

6 And the young men arose, wound him up, and carried him out, and buried him.

7 And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, i not knowing what was done, came in.

8 And Peter answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much. And she said, k Yea, for so much.

9 Then Peter said unto her, How is it that ye have l agreed together to m tempt the spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and shall carry thee out.

10 Then n fell she down straightway at his feet, and yielded up the ghost: and the young men came in, and found her dead, and carrying her forth, buried her by her husband.

11 And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things.

12 ¶ And by o the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people; (and they were all p in one accord in Solomons porch.

13 And of the ? rest q durst no man join himself to them: but the people r magnified them.

14 And ſ believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and t women)

15 Insomuch that they u brought forth the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least, the x shadow of Peter passing by, might over-shadow some of them.

16 There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jerusalem, bringing sick folks, and them b were vexed with unclean spirits: & they were healed every one.

18 Then the c high priest rose up, and all they that were with him (which is the sect of the Sadducees) and were filled with indignation, 19 And laid their hands on d apostles, & put them in the e common prison.

20 But the angel of the Lord by night f opened the prison doors, and brought them forth, and said, 20 Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people, all the words of this g life.

21 And when they heard that, they d entred into the temple early in the morning, e and taught: but the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the counsel together, and all the e senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.

22 But when the officers came and f found them not in the prison, they returned, and told,

23 Saying, The prison truly found we shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within.

24 Now when the f high priest, and the captain of the temple, and the chief priests heard these things, they doubted of them g whereunto this would grow.

25 Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison, are standing in the temple, and teaching the people.

26 Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence: (for they h feared the people, lest they should have been stoned.)

27 And when they had f brought them, they set them before the council: and the high priest asked them, 28 Saying, Did not we i straitly command you, that you should not teach in this name? and behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and intend to bring k this man's blood upon us.

29 Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, m We ought to obey God rather than men.

30 The God of our fathers n raised up Jesus, whom ye slew, and hanged on a tree.

31 Him hath God o exalted with his right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give p repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins.

32 And we are his q witnesses of these things; and so is also the holy Ghost, whom God hath given to them that obey him.

33 ¶ When they heard that, they were r cut to the heart, and took counsel to slay them.

34 Then stood there up one in the council, a Pharisee, named s Gamaliel, a doctor of law, had in reputation among all the people, and commanded to put the apostles forth a little space, 35 And said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to your selves what ye intend to do as touching these men.

36 For before these days u rose up Theudas, x boasting himself to be some body, to whom y a number of men, about four hundred, joyned themselves: who was z slain, and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered and brought to nought.

37 After this man rose up Judas of Galilee, in the days of the a taxing, & drew away much people after him, he also perished, and all, even as many as obeyed him, were dispersed.

38 And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsel, or this work be b of men, it will come to c nought:

39 But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it, lest haply ye be found even to c fight against God.

40 And to f him they agreed: and when they had called the apostles, and g beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.

41 ¶ And they departed from the presence of the h council, rejoycing that they were i counted worthy to suffer shame for his name.

42 And daily in the temple, and in every house, they k ceased not to teach and preach Jesus Christ.

CHAP. VI.

The Apostles care for the poor, and for preaching the word. 7 Deacons chosen.

AND in those days, when the number of the disciples was a multiplyed, there arose b a murmuring of the Grecians against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily ministration.

2 Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, It is not reason that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables.

3 Wherefore, brethren, look c ye out among you seven men of d honest report, full of the holy Ghost and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business.

4 But we will e give our selves continually to b prayer, and to the ministery of the word.

5 And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the holy Ghost, and k Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and l Nicolas a proselyte of Antioch:

6 Whom they set before the Apostles: and when they had m prayed, they n laid their hands on them.

7 And the word of God increased, and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem greatly, and a great company of the o priests were obedient to the faith.

8 And Stephen, full of p faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people.

9 Then there q arose certain of the synagogue, which is called the synagogue of the r Libertines, and Cyrenians, and Alexandrians, and of them of Cilicia, and of Asia, s disputing with Stephen.

10 And they were t not able to resist the wisdom and p spirit by the which he spake.

11 Then they u suborned men, which said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses, and against God.

12 And they x stirred up the people, and the elders, and the Scribes, and came upon him, and caught him, and brought him to the councel, 13 And set up y false witnesses, which said, This man ceaseth not to speak blasphemous words against this holy place and the z law.

14 For we have heard a him say, That this b Jesus of Nazareth shall destroy this place, and shall change c the customs which Moses delivered us.

CHAP. VII.

1 Stephen rehearseth before the Council the history of Israel: 51 taxeth them of their hard-heartedness: 54 They are embittered against him. 59 He is stoned.

THen said the high priest, a Are these things so?

2 And he said, Men, brethren, and fathers, hearken. The b God of glory appeared unto our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Charran,

3 And said unto him, c Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall shew thee.

4 Then d came he out of the land of the Caldeans, and dwelt in Charran: and from thence, when his father was dead, he removed him into this land, wherein ye now dwell.

5 And he gave him e none inheritance in it, no not so much as to set his foot on: yet he promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to f his seed after him, when as yet he had no child.

6 And God spake on this wise, that his seed should g sojourn in a strange land, and that they should bring them into h bondage, and entreat them evil four hundred years.

7 And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage, will I i judge, said God: and after that shall they come forth, and serve me in this place.

8 And he k gave him the l covenant of circumcision: and so Abraham begat Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day: and Isaac begat Jacob, and Jacob begat the twelve patriarchs.

9 And the patriarchs moved with m envy, sold Joseph into Egypt: But m God was with him,

10 And delivered him n out of all his afflictions, and gave him o favour and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and he made him p governor over Egypt and all his house.

11 Now there came q a dearth over all the land of Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction, and our fathers found no sustenance.

12 But when Jacob r heard that there was corn in Egypt, he sent out our fathers first.

13 And at the s second time Joseph was made known to his brethren, and Joseph's kindred was made known unto Pharaoh.

14 Then sent Joseph, and called his father Jacob to him, and all his kindred, t threescore & fifteen souls.

15 So Jacob went down into Egypt, and u died, he and our fathers, 16 And were carried over into x Sichem, & laid in the sepulchre that Abraham bought for a sum of money of the sons of Emmor the father of Sichem.

17 But when the y time of the promise drew nigh, which God had sworn to Abraham, the people grew z and multiplied in Egypt, 18 Till a another king arose, which knew not Joseph.

19 The same dealt b subtilly with our kindred, and evil intreated our fathers, so c they cast out their young children, to end they might not live.

20 In which c time Moses was born, and was d exceeding fair, & nourished up in his father's house three moneths.

21 And when he was cast out, Pharaohs daughter e took him up, and nourished him for her own son.

22 And Moses was f learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was mighty g in words, and in deeds.

23 And when he was full forty years old, it came into his heart to h visit his brethren the children of Israel.

24 And seeing one of them i suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, k and smote the Egyptian:

25 For he l supposed his brethren would have understood, how that God by his hand would deliver them: but they m understood not.

26 And the n next day he shewed himself unto them as they strove, and would have set them o at one again, saying, Sirs, p ye are brethren, why do ye q wrong one to another?

27 But he that did his neighbour wrong, thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us?

28 Will thou kill me r as thou didst the Egyptian yesterday?

29 Then fled Moses at this saying, and was a stranger in the land of Madian, where he begat two sons.

30 And when t forty years were expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sina, u an angel of y Lord in a flame of fire in a bush.

31 When Moses saw it, he wondred at the sight: and as he drew near to behold it, the voice of the Lord came unto him, 32 Saying, I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Then Moses trembled, and durst not behold.

33 Then said the Lord to him, x Put off thy shoes from thy feet: for the place where thou standest is y holy ground.

34 z I have seen, I have seen the affliction of my people which a is in Egypt, and I have heard their groaning, and am b come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send thee into Egypt.

35 This Moses whom they c refused, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge? the same did God send to be a ruler and a deliverer c by the hands of the angel which appeared to him in the bush.

36 He brought them out, after that he had shewed d wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, and in the Red-sea, and in the wilderness forty years.

37 This is that Moses which said unto the children of Israel, e A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me: f him shall ye hear.

38 This is he that was in the g church in the wilderness, with the angel which spake to him in the mount Sina, & with our fathers: who received b lively oracles to give unto us:

39 To whom our fathers i would not obey, but thrust him from them, and k in their hearts turned back again into Egypt, 40 Saying l unto Aaron, Make us gods to go before us: for as for this Moses, which brought us out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.

41 And they made m a calf in those days, and offered sacrifice unto the idol, and n rejoyced in the works of their own hands.

42 Then God o turned, and gave p them up to worship the q host of heaven, as it is written in the book of r the prophets, O ye house of Israel, have ye offered s to me slain beasts, and sacrifices, by the space of forty years in the wilderness?

43 Yea,

43 Yea, ye took up the tabernacle of z Moloch, and the ſtar of your God Remphan, figures which ye made to worſhip them: and I will carry you away a beyond Babylon.

44 Our fathers had the x tabernacle of witneſs in the wilderneſs, as he had appointed, ſpeaking unto Moſes, that he ſhould make it according to the faſhion that he had ſeen:

45 Which alſo our fathers that came after, brought in with y Joſua into the poſſeſſion of the Gentiles, whom God drave out before the face of our fathers, unto the days of David;

46 Who found x favour before God, and deſired to find a tabernacle for the God of Jacob.

47 But c Solomon built him an houſe.

48 Howbeit, the moſt high d dwelleth not in temples made with hands, as ſaith the prophet,

49 c Heaven is my throne, and earth is my footſtool: what houſe will ye build me, ſaith the LORD? or what is the place of my reſt?

50 Hath not my hand d made all theſe
things?

51 e Ye ſtiff-necked, and f uncircumciſed in heart and ears, ye do always g reſiſt the holy Ghoſt: as your fathers did, ſo do ye.

52 Which of the prophets have not your fathers perſecuted? and they have b ſlain them which ſhewed before of the coming of the i juſt One; of whom ye have been now the betray-ers and murtherers:

53 Who have received the law by the diſpoſition of k angels, and have not kept it.

54 When they heard theſe things, they were l cut to the heart, and they gnaſhed on him with their teeth.

55 But he being m full of the holy Ghoſt, looked up ſtedfaſtly into heaven, and ſaw the glory of God, and Je-ſus ſtanding on n right hand of God,

56 And ſaid, Behold, I ſee the heavens opened, and the Son of o man ſtanding on the right hand of God.

57 Then they cryed out with a loud voice, and p ſtopped their ears, and ran upon him with one accord,

58 And q caſt him out of the city, and choked him: and the r witneſſes laid down their clothes at a young mans feet whoſe name was s Saul.

59 And they t ſtoned Stephen calling on God, and ſaying, LORD
Jeſus receive my ſpirit.

60 And he kneeled down, and cryed with a loud voice, LORD, u lay not this ſin to their charge. And when he had ſaid this, he x fell aſleep.

CHAP. VIII.

The church planted in Samaria by Philip, 14 confirmed by Peter and John.

y NOw Saul was a conſenting unto his death. And at that time there was a great perſecution againſt the church which was at Jeruſalem, and they were all b ſcattered abroad throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apoſtles.

2 And devout men carried Stephen to his burial, and made c great lamentation over him.

3 As for Saul, he made d havock of the church, entring into every houſe, and haling men and women, committed them to priſon.

4 Therefore e they that were ſcattered abroad, went every where f preaching the word.

5 Then Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and g preached Chriſt unto them.

6 And the b people with one accord gave heed unto thoſe things which Philip ſpake, hearing and ſeeing the miracles which he did.

7 For f unclean ſpirits crying with loud voice, came out of many that were poſſeſſed with them: and many taken with palſies, and that were lame, were healed.

8 And there was great k joy in that city.

9 But there was a certain man called Simon, which before time in the ſame city uſed ſorcery, and l bewitched the people of Samaria, giving out that himſelf was ſome m great one:

10 To whom they all gave heed from the leaſt to the greateſt, ſaying, This man is the great power of God.

11 And to him they had regard, becauſe that of a long time he had bewitched them with ſorceries.

12 But when they n believed Philip, preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the Name of Jeſus Chriſt, they were baptized, both men and women.

13 Then Simon himſelf n believed alſo: and when he was n baptized, he continued with Philip, and wondered, beholding the miracles and ſigns which were done.

14 Now when the apoſtles which were at Jeruſalem, heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they ſ ſent unto them Peter and John:

15 Who when they were come down, prayed for them that they might receive the t holy Ghoſt:

16 (For as yet he was fallen upon none of them: only they were baptized n in y name of the Lord Jeſus.)

17 Then x laid they their hands on them, and they received the holy Ghoſt.

18 And when Simon ſaw that through laying on of the apoſtles hands, the holy Ghoſt was given,
he y offered them money,

19 Saying, Give me alſo this power, that on whomſoever I lay hands, he may receive the holy Ghoſt.

20 But Peter ſaid unto him, Thy money z perish with thee, becauſe thou haſt thought that the gift of God may be purchaſed with money.

21 Thou haſt neither part nor lot in this matter, for b thy heart is not right in the ſight of God.

22 c Repent therefore of this thy wickedneſs, and pray God if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee.

23 For I perceive that thou art in the d gall of bitterneſs, and in the bond of iniquity.

24 Then anſwered Simon, and ſaid, e Pray ye to the LORD for me, that none of theſe things which ye have ſpoken come upon me.

25 And they when they had teſtified
f and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jeruſalem, and preached the goſpel in many villages of the g Samaritans.

26 And the angel of the LORD ſpake
b unto Philip, ſaying, Ariſe, and go toward the ſouth, unto the way that goeth down from Jeruſalem unto Gaza, which is deſart.

27 And he aroſe and went: and behold, a man of a Ethiopia, an eunuch of great authority under Candace queen of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treaſure, and had come to Jeruſalem for to worſhip,

28 Was returning, and ſitting in his chariot, k read Eſaias the prophet.

29 l Then the ſpirit ſaid unto Philip, Go near, and joyn thy ſelf to this chariot.

30 And Philip m ran thither to him, and heard him read the prophet Esaias, and said, Understandest thou what thou readest?

31 And he said, n How can I, except some man should guid me? and he o desired Philip that he would come up, and sit with him.

32 The place of the scripture which he read, was this, p He was led as a sheep to the slaughter, and like a lamb dumb before the shearer, so opened he not his mouth:

33 In his q humiliation his judgment was taken away, and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth.

34 And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other man?

35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same scripture, and r preached unto him Jesus.

36 And as they s went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water, What doth hinder me to be baptized?

37 And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.

38 And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch, and he baptized him.

39 And when they were come up out of the water, the t spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way u rejoycing.

40 But Philip was found at b Azotus: and passing through, he preached c in all the cities, till he came to Cesarea.

CHAP. IX.

1 Saul is converted as he went to Damascus: 18 He is baptized by Ananias.

AND a Saul yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the LORD, went unto the high priest,

2 And desired of him b letters to Damascus to the synagogues, that if he found any of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jerusalem.

3 And as he journeyed, he came near Damascus: and suddenly there shined round about him d a light from heaven.

4 And he fell to the earth, and heard a voyce saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou e me?

5 And he said, Who art thou, LORD? And the LORD said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest: it is hard for thee f to kick against the pricks.

6 And he b trembling and astonished, said, Lord, f what wilt thou have me to do? And the LORD said unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do.

7 And the men which journeyed with him stood g speechless, h hearing a voyce, but seeing no man.

8 And Saul arose from the earth, and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and m brought him into Damascus.

9 And he was n three days without sight, and neither did eat nor drink.

10 And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named o Ananias; and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, LORD.

11 And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the street, which is called Straight, and enquire in the house of Judas for one called Saul of Tarsus: for behold, p he prayeth, 12 And hath q seen in a vision a man named Ananias coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight.

13 Then Ananias answered, LORD, I have heard by many of this man, how r much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jerusalem.

14 And here he hath s authority from the chief priests, to bind all that t call on thy name.

15 But the LORD said unto him, Go thy way: for he is u a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the x Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel.

16 For I will shew him how great things he must suffer for my names sake.

17 And Ananias went his way, and entred into the house, & putting his hands on him, said, Brother Saul, the Lord even Jesus y that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest, hath sent me, y that thou mightest receive thy sight, & be filled with the holy Ghost.

18 And immediately there z fell from his eyes as it had been scales, and he received sight forthwith, and arose, and was baptized.

19 And when he had b received meat, he was strengthned. Then was Saul certain days with the disciples which were at Damascus.

20 And straightway he c preached Christ in the synagogues, that he is the Son of God.

21 But all that heard him were amazed, and said, Is not d this he that destroyed them which called on this name in Jerusalem, and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound unto the chief priests?

22 But Saul e increased the more in strength, and f confounded the Jews which dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is very Christ.

23 And after g many days were fulfilled, h Jews took counsell to kill him:

24 But their g laying await was known of Saul: and they watched the gates day and night to kill him.

25 Then the disciples took him by night, and let him down b by the wall in a basket.

26 And when Saul was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to joyn himself to the disciples: but they were all i afraid of him, and believed not that he was a disciple.

27 But Barnabas took him, and brought him k to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, & l he had spoken to him, & how he had preached b boldly at Damascus in y name of Jesus.

28 And he was with them m coming in, and going out at Jerusalem.

29 And he spake boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus, and disputed against the Grecians: but they went about n to slay him.

30 Which when the o brethren knew, they brought him down to Cesarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus.

31 Then had the churches p rest throughout all Judea, & Galilee, and Samaria, and were edified, and walking in the fear of the LORD, and in the comfort of the holy Ghost, were multiplyed.

33 And there he found a certain man named Æneas, s which had kept his bed r eight years, & was sick of the palsie.
34 And Peter said unto him, Æneas, t Jesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise, and make thy bed. And he arose immediately.
35 And all that dwelt at Lydda, and Saron, saw him, and u turned to the LORD.
36 Now there was at x Joppa a certain disciple, named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called Dorcas: this woman was full of y good works, and alms-deeds which she did.
37 And it came to pass in those days, that she was sick, and died: whom when they had z washed, they laid her in an upper chamber.
38 And forasmuch as Lydda was nigh to Joppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they a sent unto him two men, desiring him that he would not delay to come to them.
39 Then Peter arose, and went with them. When he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber: & all the widows stood by him b weeping and shewing y coats & c garments, Dorcas made, while she was with them.
40 But Peter d put them all forth, and kneeled down, and e prayed; and turning him to the body, said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter, she sat up.
41 And he gave her his hand, and lift her up: and when he had called the saints & widows, presented her alive.
42 And it was known throughout all Joppa, and many believed in the Lord.
43 And it came to pass, that he tarried many days in Joppa with one Simon a f tanner.

CHAP. X.

g Cornelius sendeth for Peter. 11 Peters vision. 36 He preacheth.

1 There was a certain man in Cesarea, called Cornelius, a a centurion of the band called the Italian band,
2 A devout man, and one that feared God with b all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God c alway.
3 He saw in a vision evidently, about d the ninth hour of the day, an angel of God coming in to him, and saying unto him, Cornelius.
4 And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for e a memorial before God.
5 And now f send men to Joppa, and call for one Simon, whose surname is Peter:
6 He lodgeth with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side: he shall g tell thee what thou oughtest to do.
7 And when the angel which spake unto Cornelius was departed, he called two of his household-servants, and b a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually;
8 And when he had declared all these things unto them, he sent them to Joppa.
9 On the morrow as they went on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, Peter went up upon i the house top to pray about the k sixth hour.
10 And he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready, he fell into a trance,
11 And saw the heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending unto him, as it had been a great sheet, knit at l the four corners, & let down to the earth:
12 Wherein were all manner of four-footed beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.
13 And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter, kill, and eat.
14 But Peter said, Not so, LORD; for I have never eaten any thing that is m common or unclean.
15 And the voice spake unto him again n the second time, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.
16 This was done thrice: and the vessel was received up again into heaven.
17 Now while Peter doubted in himself what this vision which he had seen, should mean: behold, the men which were sent from Cornelius, had made enquiry for Simons house, and stood before the gate, 18 And called, and asked whether Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodged there.
19 While Peter o thought on the vision, the p Spirit said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee.
20 Arise thee therefore, and get thee down, and go with them, doubting nothing: for q I have sent them.
21 Then Peter went down to the men which were sent unto him from Cornelius; and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: r what is the cause wherefore ye are come?
22 And they said, Cornelius the centurion, a just man, and one that feareth God, and s of good report among all the nation of the Jews, was warned from God by an holy angel, to send for thee into his house, and to hear words t of thee.
23 Then called he them in, & lodged them. And on the morrow Peter went away with them, and certain brethren from Joppa accompanied him.
24 And the morrow after they entered into Cesarea: and Cornelius waited for them, & had called together his kinsmen and near friends.
25 And as Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and u worshipped him.
26 But Peter took him up, saying, Stand up; I myself also am w a man.
27 And as he talked with him, he went in, and found many that were come together.
28 And he said unto them, Ye know how that it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew, to keep company or come unto one of x another nation; but God hath shewed me that I should not call any man common or unclean.
29 Therefore came I unto you without gain-saying, as soon as I was sent for. I ask therefore for what intent ye have sent for me.
30 And Cornelius said, Four days ago I was m fasting until this hour, and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing, 31 And said, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God.
32 Send therefore to Joppa, and call hither Simon whose surname is Peter; he is lodged in the house of one Simon a tanner, by y the sea side: who when he cometh, shall speak unto thee.
33 Immediately therefore I sent to thee; and thou hast well done that thou thou art come. Now therefore are we all here present before God, to hear all things that are commanded thee of God.

34 Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons:

35 But in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him.

36 The word which God sent unto the children of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ, (he is Lord of all)

37 That word (I say) you know, which was published throughout all Judea, and began from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached:

38 How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the holy Ghost, and with power, who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil: for God was with him.

39 And we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the land of the Jews and in Jerusalem, whom they slew and hanged on a tree:

40 Him God raised up the third day, and shewed him openly,

41 Not to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before of God, even to us who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead.

42 And he commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testifie that he is he which was ordained of God to be the judge of quick and dead.

43 To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name, whosoever believeth in him, shall receive remission of sins.

44 While Peter yet spake these words, the holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word.

45 And they of the circumcision which believed, were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the holy Ghost.

46 For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnifie God. Then answered Peter, 47 Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the holy Ghost, as well as we?

48 And he commanded them to be baptized in the Name of the LORD. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days.

CHAP. XI.

Peter accused for going in to the Gentiles. He Maketh his Defence.

AND the apostles and brethren that were in Judea, heard that the Gentils had also received the word of God.

2 And when Peter was come up to Jerusalem, they that were of the circumcision contended with him,

3 Saying, Thou went in to men uncircumcised, and didst eat with them.

4 But Peter rehearsed the matter from the beginning, and expounded it by order unto them, saying,

5 I was in the city of Joppa, praying, and in a trance I saw a vision, A certain vessel descend, as it had been a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners, and it came even to me.

6 Upon the which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw four footed beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

7 And I heard a voice saying unto me, Arise, Peter, slay, and eat.

8 But I said, Not so, LORD: for nothing common or unclean hath at any time entred into my mouth.

9 But the voice answered me again from heaven, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

10 And this was done three times: and all were drawn up again into heaven.

11 And behold, immediately there were three men already come unto the house where I was, sent from Cesarea unto me.

12 And the Spirit bad me go with them, nothing doubting: Moreover, these six brethren accompanied me, and we entred into the mans house:

13 And he shewed us how he had seen an angel in his house, which stood and said unto him, Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon whose surname is Peter:

14 Who shall tell thee words whereby thou and all thy house shall be saved.

15 And as I began to speak, the holy Ghost fell on them, as on us at the beginning.

16 Then remembred I the word of the LORD, how that he said, John indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the holy Ghost.

17 Forasmuch then as God gave them like gift as he did unto us, who believed on the Lord Jesus Christ; what was I that I could withstand God?

18 When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles granted repentance unto life.

19 Now they which were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose about Stephen, travelled as far as Phenice, and Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to none, but unto the Jews only.

20 And some of them were men of Cyprus & Cyrene, which when they were come to Antioch, spake unto the Grecians, preaching the Lord Jesus.

21 And the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number believed, and turned unto the Lord.

22 Then tidings of these things came unto the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem: and they sent forth Barnabas, that he should go as far as Antioch.

23 Who when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, & exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord.

24 For he was a good man, and full of the holy Ghost, and of faith: and much people was added unto the Lord.

25 Then departed Barnabas to Tarsus, for to seek Saul.

26 And when he had found him, he brought him unto Antioch. And it came to pass, that a whole year they assembled themselves with the church, and taught much people. & the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch.

27 And in these days came prophets from Jerusalem unto Antioch.

28 And there stood up one of them named Agabus, and signified by the spirit, that there should be great dearth throughout all the world, which came to pass in the days of Claudius Cesar.

29 Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Judea.

30 Which also they did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

CHAP. XII.

Herod persecuteth the Christians.

NOw about that time Herod the king stretched forth his hands to vex certain of the church.

2 And he killed James the brother of John with the sword.

3 And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further, to take Peter also. (Then were the days of unleavened bread)

4 And when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quarternions of soldiers to keep him, intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people.

5 Peter therefore was kept in prison, but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him.

6 And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains, and the keepers before the door kept the prison.

7 And behold, the angel of the LORD came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands.

8 And the angel said unto him, Gird thy self, and bind on thy sandals: and so he did. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.

9 And he went out, and followed him, and knew not that it was true which was done by the angel; but thought he saw a vision.

10 When they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city, which opened to them of his own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street, and forthwith the angel departed from him.

11 And when Peter was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a surety, that the LORD hath sent his angel, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews.

12 And when he had considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of John, whose surname was Mark, where many were gathered together praying.

13 And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a damsel came to hearken, named Rhoda.

14 And when she knew Peter's voice, she opened not the gate for gladness, but ran in, and told how Peter stood before the gate.

15 And they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then said they, It is his angel.

16 But Peter continued knocking: and when they had opened the door, and saw him, they were astonished.

17 But he beckoning unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the LORD had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go shew these things unto James, and to the brethren. And he departed, and went into another place.

18 Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers, what was become of Peter.

19 And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, and commanded that they should be put to death. And he went down from Judæa to Cæsarea, and there abode.

20 And Herod was highly displeased with them of Tyre and Sidon: but they came with one accord to him, and having made Blastus the king's chamberlain their friend, desired peace; because their country was nourished by the king's country.

21 And upon a set day, Herod arayed in royal apparel, sate upon his throne, and made an oration unto them.

22 And the people gave a shout, saying, It is the voice of a god, and not of a man.

23 And immediately the angel of the LORD smote him, because he gave not God the glory: and he was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost.

24 But the word of God grew and multiplied.

25 And Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their ministry, and took with them John, whose surname was Mark.

CHAP. XIII.

Paul and Barnabas sent to the Gentiles.

NOw there were in the church that was at Antioch certain prophets, and teachers; as Barnabas, and Simeon that was called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen, which had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul.

2 As they ministred to the LORD, and fasted, the holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them.

3 And when they had fasted, and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away.

4 So they being sent forth by the holy Ghost, departed unto Seleucia, and from thence they sailed to Cyprus.

5 And when they were at Salamis, they preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews: and they had also John to their minister.

6 And when they had gone through the isle unto Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Barjesus:

7 Which was with the deputy of the country, Sergius Paulus, a prudent man; who called for Barnabas and Saul, and desired to hear the word of God.

8 But Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith.

9 Then Saul (who also is called Paul) filled with the holy Ghost, set his eyes on him,

10 And said, O full of all subtilty and all mischief, thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the LORD?

11 And now behold, the hand of the LORD is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand.

12 Then the deputy, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the LORD.

13 Now when Paul and his company loosed from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia: and John departing from them, returned to Jerusalem.

14 But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia, and went into the synagogue on the sabbath-day, and sate down.

15 And after the reading of the law and the prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, synagogue sent unto them, saying, Ye men & brethren, if ye have any word of exhortation for the people, say on.

16 Then Paul stood up, and beckening with his hand, said, Men of Israel, and ye that fear God, give audience.

17 The God of w this people of Israel x chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Egypt, and with an high arm brought he them out of it.

18 And about the time of forty years suffered he their y manners in the wilderness.

19 And when he had destroyed seven z nations in the land of Canaan, a he divided their land to them by lot.

20 And after that he gave unto them b judges, about the space of four hundred and fifty years, until Samuel the prophet.

21 And afterward they c desired a king, and God gave unto them Saul the son of Cis, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, by the space of d forty years.

22 And when he had e removed him, he f raised up unto them David to be their king, to whom also he gave testimony and said, I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after mine own heart, g which shall fulfil all my will.

23 Of this man's seed hath God according to his promise, raised unto Israel a Saviour, Jesus:

24 When John had first preached h before his coming i the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel.

25 And as John fulfilled his course, he said, k Whom think ye that I am? I am not he. But behold, there cometh one after me, whose shoes of his feet I am not worthy to loose.

26 Men and brethren, children of the stock of Abraham, and whosoever among you feareth God, to you is the word of this l salvation sent.

27 For they that dwell at Jerusalem, & their rulers, because they m knew him not, nor yet n the voices of the prophets o ate read every sabbath-day, they have p fulfilled them in condemning him.

28 And though they found q no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pilate that he should be slain.

29 And when they had fulfilled all that was written of him, r they took him down from the s tree, and laid him in a sepulchre.

30 But God t raised him from the dead:

31 And he was seen many u days of them which came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are his witnesses unto the people.

32 And we declare unto you glad tidings, how that the v promise which was made unto the fathers, 33 God hath fulfilled the same unto us their w children, in that he hath raised up Jesus again, as it is also x written in the second psalm, Thou art my son, this day have I begotten thee.

34 And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he said on this wise, I will give you the y sure mercies of David.

35 Wherefore he saith also in another z psalm, Thou shalt not suffer thine holy One to see corruption.

36 For David after he had a served his own generation by the will of God, fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption:

37 But he whom God raised again, saw no corruption.

38 Be it known unto you therefore, men and brethren, that through this b man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sin:

39 And by him all that c believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the d law of Moses.

40 Beware therefore, lest that come upon you which is spoken of in the e prophets, 41 Behold ye f despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your days, a work which you shall g in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you.

42 And when the Jews were gone out of the h synagogue, i the Gentiles besought that these words might be preached to them the next sabbath.

43 Now when the congregation was broken up, many of the Jews and religious proselytes k followed Paul and Barnabas, who speaking to them, persuaded them to continue in the l grace of God.

44 And the next sabbath day came almost the m whole city together to hear the word of God.

45 But when the n Jews saw the multitudes, o they were filled with envy, and spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, p contradicting and blaspheming.

46 Then Paul and Barnabas q waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should b first have been spoken to you: but seeing r ye put it from you, and judge your selves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, k we turn to the Gentiles.

47 For so hath the LORD commanded us, saying, s I have l set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth.

48 And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and m glorified the word of the Lord: And as many as were n ordained to eternal life, believed.

49 And the o word of the LORD was published throughout all the region.

50 But the Jews stirred up p the devout and honorable women, and the chief men of the city, and raised persecution against Paul & Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coasts.

51 But they q shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto Iconium.

52 And the disciples were r filled with s joy, and with the holy Ghost.

CHAP. XIV.

Paul and Barnabas are persecuted from Iconium.

AND it came to pass in Iconium a that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, & so spake, that b a great multitude both of the Jews & also of the Greeks, c believed.

2 But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles, and made their minds d evil affected against the brethren.

3 Long time therefore abode they speaking boldly in the Lord, e which gave testimony unto the word of his grace, and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands.

4 But the multitude of the city was f divided: & part held with the Jews, and part with the apostles.

5 And when there was an assault made both of the Gentiles, and also of the Jews, g with their rulers, to use them despitefully, & to stone them,

6 They were g aware of it, and fled unto Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and unto the region that lieth round about:

7 And there they h preached the gospel.

b Acts 8. 4. Ge. 6. 9.

a Acts 13. 43. and 18. 4.
b Amos 7. 10. Jer. 20. 1. Acts 13. 46. c John 7. 43. d Psal. 106. 32. Prov. 16. 28. e Psalm 19. 1. Acts 20. 24. Rom. 15. 19. f Acts 5. 17. g Acts 14. 5. h Acts 8. 4. Ge. 6. 9.

8 And there sate a certain man at Lystra, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mothers womb, who never had walked.
9 The same heard Paul speak: who stedfastly beholding him, and perceiving y he had k faith to be healed:
10 Said with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet. And he l leaped and walked.
11 And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lift up their voices, saying in the speech of Lycaonia,
The m gods are come down to us in the likeness of men.
12 And they called Barnabas, n Jupiter; and Paul, Mercurius, because, he was the chief speaker.
13 Then the o priest of Jupiter which was before their city, brought oxen & garlands unto the gates, and would have done sacrifice with the p people.
14 Which when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of, they q rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out, 15 And saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? we also are r men of like passions with you, and preach unto you, that ye should turn from these s vanities unto the living God, which made heaven and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein.
16 Who in times past t suffered all nations to walk in their own ways.
17 Nevertheless he left not himself u without witness, in y he did x good, and gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness.
18 And with these sayings y scarce restrained they the people, that they had not done sacrifice unto them.
19 And there came thither certain Jews from Antioch and Iconium, who perswaded the people, and, having z stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he had been dead.
20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, a he rose up, and came into the city: and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.
21 And when they had preached the gospel to that city, and had taught many, they returned again to Lystra, and to Iconium, and Antioch, 22 Confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God.
23 And when they had ordained them elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the LORD, on whom they believed.
24 And after they had passed through Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia.
25 And when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down into Attalia.
26 And thence sailed to Antioch, from whence they had been recommended to the grace of God for the work which they fulfilled.
27 And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, they rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how he had b opened the door of faith unto the Gentiles.
28 And there they abode long time with the disciples.

CHAP. XV.

Dissension about circumcision.

1 AND a certain men which came down from Judea, taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved.
2 When therefore Paul and Barnabas had no small c dissension and disputa-tion with them, they d determined that Paul & Barnabas, and certain other of them should go up to Jerusalem unto the apostles & elders about this question.
3 And being brought on their way by the church, they passed through Phenice, and Samaria, e declaring the conversion of the Gentiles: and they caused great joy unto all the brethren.
4 And when they were come to Jerusalem, they were received of the church, and of the apostles and elders, and they declared all things that f God had done with them.
5 But there rose up certain of the sect of the Pharisees, which g believed, saying, That it was needful to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses.
6 ¶ And the apostles and elders h came together for to consider of this matter.
7 And when there had been much disputing, i Peter rose up, and said unto them, Men and brethren, ye know how that k a good while ago God made choice among us, that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe.
8 And God, which l knoweth hearts, bare them witness, giving them the holy Ghost, even as he did unto us:
9 And put no difference between us and them, m purifying their hearts by faith.
10 Now therefore why tempt ye God, to put n a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers, nor we were able to bear?
11 But we believe that through the o grace of the LORD Jesus Christ, we shall be saved even as they.
12 Then all the p multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Barnabas and Paul, declaring what miracles and wonders God had wrought among the Gentiles by them.
13 And after they had held their peace, q James answered, saying,
Men and brethren, hearken unto me.
14 Simeon hath declared how God at the first did r visite the Gentiles, to take out of them a people for his name.
15 And to this agree the words of the prophets; as it is written, 16 After this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of David, which is x fallen down; and I will build again the x ruins thereof, and I will set it up:
17 That the y residue of men might seek after the LORD, and all the Gentiles upon whom my name is called, saith the Lord, who doth all these things.
18 Known unto God are all his works from the z beginning of the world.
19 Wherefore my sentence is, that we a trouble not them, which from among the Gentiles are turned to God:
20 But that we write unto them, that they abstain from b pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and from things c strangled, and from blood.
21 For Moses of old time hath in every city them that preach d him, being read in the synagogues every sabbath day.
22 Then pleased it the apostles and elders, with the e whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch, with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas surnamed Barsabas, and Silas, chief men among the brethren:
23 And wrote letters by them after this manner; The apostles and elders and brethren send greeting unto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antioch, and Syria, and Cilicia:

24 Forasmuch as we have heard, that certain which f went out from us have troubled you with words, g subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law, to whom we gave h no such commandment:

25 It seemed good unto us, being assembled with i one accord, to send chosen men unto you, with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, 26 Men k that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

27 We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who shall also tell you the same things by mouth.

28 For it seemed good to the l holy Ghost, and to us, to lay upon you no m greater burthen than these n necessary things;

29 That ye abstain from o meats offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keep your selves, ye shall p do well. q Fare ye well.

30 So when they were dismissed, they came to Antioch: and when they had gathered the r multitude together, they delivered the epistle.

31 Which when they had read, they rejoyced for the s consolation.

32 And Judas and Silas, being t prophets also themselves, exhorted the brethren with many words, and confirmed them.

33 And after they had u tarried there a space, they were let go x in peace from the brethren unto the apostles.

34 Notwithstanding it pleased y Silas to abide there still.

35 Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antioch, z teaching and preaching the word of the LORD, with many others also.

36 And some days after Paul said unto Barnabas, Let us go again a visit our brethren in every city where we have preached the word of the LORD, and see how they do.

37 And Barnabas determined to take with them John, whose surname was Mark.

38 But Paul thought not good to take him with them, who b departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work.

39 And the c contention was so sharp between them, that they departed asunder one from the other: & so Barnabas took Mark, & sailed unto Cyprus;

40 And Paul chose Silas, and departed, being recommended by the brethren unto the grace of God.

41 And he went through Syria, and Cilicia, d confirming the churches.

CHAP. XVI.

Paul circumciseth Timothy.

THen came he to Derbe and Lystra: and behold, a certain disciple was there, named a Timotheus, the son of a certain b woman, which was a Jewess, and believed; but his father was a Greeke:

2 Which was well reported of by the brethren c that were at Lystra & Iconium.

3 d Him would Paul have to go forth with him, & took and circumcised him, because of the Jews which were in those quarters: for they knew all that his father was a Greek.

4 And as they went through the cities, they delivered them the f decrees for to keep, that were ordained of the apostles, and elders which were at Jerusalem.

5 g And so were the churches established in the g faith, and increased in number daily.

6 Now when they had gone through out Phrygia, and the region of Galatia, and were b forbidden of the i holy Ghost to preach the word in Asia,

7 After they were come to Mysia, they assayed to go into Bithynia: but k the Spirit suffered them not.

8 And they passing by Mysia, came down to l Troas.

9 And a vision appeared to Paul in the night: There stood m a man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come over into Macedonia, and n help us.

10 And after he had seen the vision, o immediately we endeavoured to go into Macedonia, assuredly gathering, that p the LORD had called us for to preach the gospel unto them.

11 Therefore loosing from Troas, we came with a straight course to Samothracia, & the next day to Neapolis;

12 And from thence to q Philippi, which is the chief city of that part of Macedonia, and a colony: and we were in r this abiding certain days.

13 And on the sabbath we went out of the city by a river side, where prayer was wont to be made, and we sate down, and spake unto the s women which resorted thither.

14 And a certain woman named t Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of t Thyatira, u which worshipped God, heard us: whose heart the x Lord opened, that she y attended unto the z things which were spoken of Paul.

15 And when she was baptized, and her houshold, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithfull to the LORD, a come into my house and abide there. And she constrained us.

16 And it came to pass, as we went to prayer, a certain damsel, possessed with a spirit of b divination, met us, which brought her masters much c gain by soothsaying:

17 The same followed Paul, and us, and cryed, saying, These men are the d servants of the most high God, which shew unto us the way of salvation.

18 And this did she many days: but Paul being e grieved, turned, and said to the spirit, I command thee in the d name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And he came out the same hour.

19 And when her masters saw that e the hope of their gains was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and drew them into the market-place unto the rulers,

20 And brought them to the magistrates, saying, These men being Jews, do exceedingly f trouble our city, 21 And teach g customs which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being Romans.

22 And the multitude rose up b together against them: and the magistrates rent off their clothes, and commanded i to beat them.

23 And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jaylor to keep them safely:

24 Who having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, & made their feet fast in the k stocks.

25 And at l midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them.

26 And suddenly there was a great m earth-quake, so that n foundations of the prison were shaken: and immediately all the doors were opened, and every ones bands were loosed.

27 And the keeper of the prison awaking p out of his sleep, and seeing 28 But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thy self no harm, for we are all here.

29 Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas, 30 And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

31 And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

32 And they spake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house.

33 And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes, and was baptized, he and all his straightway.

34 And when he had brought them into his house, he set meat before them, and rejoiced, believing in God with all his house.

35 And when it was day, the magistrates sent the serjeants, saying, Let those men go.

36 And the keeper of the prison told this saying to Paul, The magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore depart, and go in peace.

37 But Paul said unto them, They have beaten us openly uncondemned, being a Roman, and have cast us into prison, and now do they thrust us out privily? nay verily; but let them come themselves, and fetch us out.

38 And the serjeants told these words unto the magistrates: and they feared when they heard that they were Romans.

39 And they came and besought them, and brought them out, and desired them to depart out of the city.

40 And they went out of the prison, and entred into the house of Lydia: and when they had seen the brethren, they comforted them, and departed.

CHAP. XVII.

Paul preaching at Thessalonica, is persecuted.

NOw when they had passed through Amphipolis, and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews.

2 And Paul, as his manner was, went in unto them, and three sabbath days reasoned with them

3 Opening and alledging, that Christ must needs have suffered, and risen again from the dead; and that this Jesus whom I preach unto you, is Christ.

4 And some of them believed, and consorted with Paul and Silas: and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few.

5 But the Jews which believed not, moved with envy, took unto them certain lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assaulted the house of Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 And when they found them not, they drew Jason, and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned the world upside down, are come hither also,

7 Whom Jason hath received: and these all do contrary to the decrees of Cesar, saying, That there is another king, one Jesus.

8 And they troubled the people, and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things.

9 And when they had taken security of Jason, and of the other, they let them go.

10 And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who coming thither, went into the synagogue of the Jews.

11 These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

12 Therefore many of them believed; also of honorable women which were Greeks, and of men not a few.

13 But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also, and stirred up the people.

14 And then immediately the brethren sent away Paul, to go as it were to the sea: but Silas and Timotheus abode there still.

15 And they that conducted Paul, brought him unto Athens, and receiving a commandment unto Silas and Timotheus, for to come to him with all speed, they departed.

16 Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city wholly given to idolatry.

17 Therefore disputed he in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons, and in the market daily with them that met with him.

18 Then certain philosophers of the Epicureans, and of the Stoicks, encountred him: and some said, What will this babler say? other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods: because he preached unto them Jesus, and the resurrection.

19 And they took him, and brought him unto Areopagus, saying, May we know what this new doctrine whereof thou speakest, is?

20 For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these things mean.

21 (For all the Athenians and strangers which were there, spent their time in nothing else but either to tell or to hear some new thing.)

22 Then Paul stood in the midst of Mars-hill, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are too superstitious.

23 For as I passed by, and beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you.

24 God that made the world, and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands, 25 Neither is worshipped with men's hands, as though he needed any things, seeing he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things.

26 And hath made of one blood all nations of men, for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation.

27 That they should seek the Lord, if happily they might feel after him, and find him, though he be not far from every one of us.

28 For in him we live, and move, and have our being: as certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring.

29 Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto a Rom. 11. 36. Jam. 1. 17. Heb. 13. 8. b Isai. 40. 18.

unto gold, or silver, or stone graven by art, and mans device.

30 And the times of this ignorance God q winked at, but now commandeth all r men every where to repent:

31 Because he hath appointed a day in the which he will judge the world in righteousness, by that man whom he hath ordained, whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead.

32 And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some t mocked: and others said, We will hear thee again of this matter.

33 So Paul departed from among them.

34 How beit certain men clave unto him and u believed: among the which was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

CHAP. XVIII.

Paul labouring with his hands, and preaching at Corinth.

AFter these things, Paul departed from Athens, & came to a Corinth.

2 And found a certain Jew named Aquila, born in Pontus, lately come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla, (because that Claudius had b commanded all Jews to depart from Rome,) and came unto them.

3 And because he was of the same craft, he abode with them, and c wrought: for by their occupation they were tent-makers.

4 And he reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath, and d perswaded the Jews and the Greeks.

5 And when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul was e pressed in spirit, and testified to the Jews that Jesus was Christ.

6 And when they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, he f shook his raiment, and said unto them, Your blood be upon your own heads; I am clean: g from henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles.

7 And he departed thence, and h entred into a certain mans house named Justus, one that worshipped God, whose house joyned hard to the synagogue.

8 And i Crispus the chief ruler of the k synagogue believed on the LORD, with all his house: and many of the Corinthians l hearing believed, and were baptized.

9 Then spake the LORD to Paul in the night by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace:

10 For I am m with thee, and no man shall set on thee, to hurt thee: for I have much people in this city.

11 And he continued there a year and six moneths, n teaching the word of God among them.

12 And when Gallio was the deputy of Achaia, the Jews made insurrection with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the judgment-seat, 13 Saying, This fellow perswadeth men to worship God o contrary to the law.

14 And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, Gallio said unto the Jews, If it were a matter of wrong or wicked lewdness, O ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you.

15 But if it be a question of p words and names, and of your law, look ye to it; for I will be no judge of such matters.

16 And he drave them from the judgment-seat.

17 Then all the Greeks took q Sosthenes, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment-seat: and Gallio r cared for none of those things.

18 And Paul after this, s tarried there yet a good while, and then took his leave of the brethren, and sailed thence into Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila; having t shorn his head in u Cenchrea: for he had a vow.

19 And he came to Ephesus, and left them there: but he himself entred into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews.

20 When they desired him to stay longer time with them, he consented not;

21 But bade them farewel, saying, I must by all means keep this feast that cometh in Jerusalem: but I will return again unto you, if God will: and he sailed from Ephesus.

22 And when he had landed at Cesarea, and gone up, and saluted the church, he went down to Antioch.

23 And after he had spent some time there, he departed, and went over all the country of Galatia and Phrygia, in order, strengthening all the disciples.

24 And a certain Jew named Apollos, born at Alexandria, a an eloquent man, and mighty in the scriptures, came to Ephesus.

25 This man was instructed in the way of the LORD; and being fervent in the spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of the LORD, knowing only the b baptism of John.

26 And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue: whom when Aquila and Priscilla had heard, they took him unto them, and expounded unto him the way of God more perfectly.

27 And when he was disposed to pass into Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him: who, when he was come, helped them much which had believed c through grace.

28 For he mightily convinced the Jews, and that openly, shewing d by the scriptures that Jesus was Christ.

CHAP. XIX.

The holy Ghost given by Paul's hands.

AND it came to pass, that while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed through the upper coasts, came to Ephesus, and finding certain disciples,

2 He said unto them, Have ye received the holy Ghost since ye believed? and they said unto him, We have not so much as heard whether there be any holy Ghost.

3 And he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? and they said, Unto John's baptism.

4 Then said Paul, John verily baptized with the a baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, That they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus.

5 When they heard this, they were b baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.

6 And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the holy Ghost came on them; and they spake with tongues, and prophesied.

7 And all the men were about twelve.

8 And he went into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three moneths, disputing and perswading the things concerning the kingdom of God.

29 And the whole city was filled with confusion, and having caught cedonia, Paul's companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theatre.

30 And when Paul q would have entred in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

31 And certain of the r chief of Asia, which were his friends, sent unto him, desiring him that he would not adventure himself into the theatre.

32 Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for s assembly was confused, and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

33 And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward, and t Alexander beckned t with the hand, and would have made his defence unto the people.

34 But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

35 And when the town-clerk had appeased the people, he said, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there that knoweth not how that the city of the Ephesians is a worshipper of the great goddess Diana, and of the 36 Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rashly.

men, which are neither robbers of churches, nor x yet blasphemers of cerning other matters, it shall be determined in z lawful assembly.

led in question for this days uproar, there being no cause whereby we may

1 Paul travels in Macedonia. 10 Raiseth Eutychus to life. 28 Recommitteth Gods flock, to the Elders of Ephesus.

A Nd after the uproar was a ceased,
Paul called unto him the disciples, and embraced them, and departed for to go into Macedonia.

2 And when he had gone over those parts, and had given them b much exhortation, he came into c Greece,

3 And there abode three months:
and when the Jews d laid wait for him, as he was about to sail into Syria, he purposed to return through Macedonia.

4 And there e accompanied him into Asia, Sopater of Berea: and of the Thessalonians, Aristarchus and Secundus; and Gaius of Derbe, and Timotheus; and of Asia, Tychicus and Trophimus.

5 These going before, tarried for us at f Troas.

6 And we sailed away from Philippi, after the days of g unleavened bread, and came unto them to Troas in five days, where we abode seven days.

7 And upon the h first day of the week, when the disciples came together to b break bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow, and continued his speech until i midnight.

9 And

9 And there ſate in a window a certain young man named Eutychus, being fallen into a deep ſleep: and as Paul was long preaching, he ſunk down with ſleep, and fell down from the third loft, & was taken up dead. 10 And Paul x went down, and fell on him, & embracing him, ſaid, Trouble not your ſelves, for his life is in him. 11 When he therefore was come up again, and had broken bread, and eaten, and talked a long while, even till it break of day, ſo he departed. 12 And they brought the young man alive, & were not a little y comforted.

13 And we went before to ſhip, and ſailed unto Aſſos, there intending to take in Paul: for ſo had he appointed, minding himſelf to go z a foot. 14 And when he met with us at Aſſos, we took him in, and came to Mitylene.

15 And we ſailed thence, and came the next day over againſt Chios, and the next day we arrived at Samos, and tarried at Trogyllium: and the next day we came to Miletus.

16 For Paul had determined to ſail by Epheſus, because he would not ſpend the time in Aſia: for he haſted, if it were poſſible for him, to be at Jeruſalem the day of Pentecoſt.

17 And from Miletus he ſent to Epheſus, and called the z elders of the church.

18 And when they were come to him, he ſaid unto them, a Ye know from the firſt day that I came into Aſia, after what manner I have been with you x at all ſeaſons.

19 Serving y the LORD with all humility of mind, and with z many tears, and temptations, which befal me by the lying in wait of the Jews:

20 And how I a kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have ſhewed you, & have taught you publikely, and from b houſe to houſe.

21 Teſtifying both to the Jews and alſo to the Greeks, c repentance toward God, and faith toward our LORD Jeſus Chriſt.

22 And now behold, I go d bound in y ſpirit unto Jeruſalem, not knowing the things that ſhall befall me there:

23 Save that the holy Ghoſt e witneſſeth in every city, ſaying, that bonds and afflictions abide me.

24 But f none of theſe things move me, neither count I my life dear unto my ſelf, ſo that I might g finiſh my courſe with joy, and the miniſtry y I have received of the LORD Jeſus, to teſtifie the goſpel of the y grace of God.

25 And now behold, I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, ſhall ſee my face no more.

26 Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am pure from the z blood of all men.

27 For I have not ſhunned to declare unto you f all the counſel of God.

28 I Take heed therefore unto m your ſelves, and to all the flock, over the which the holy Ghoſt hath made you overſeers, to feed the church of God, which he hath n purchaſed with his own blood.

29 For I know this, that after o my departing ſhall grievous wolves enter in among you, not ſparing the flock.

30 Alſo p of your own ſelves ſhall men ariſe, ſpeaking perverſe things, to draw away diſciples after them.

31 Therefore watch, and remember q that by the ſpace of q three years, I ceaſed not to warn every one night and day with tears.

32 And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and r to the word of his grace, which is able r to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are ſanctified.

33 I have ſ coveted no mans ſilver, or gold, or apparel.

34 Yea, you your ſelves know, that t theſe hands have miniſtred unto my neceſſities, and to them that were with me.

35 I have ſhewed you all things, how that ſo labouring, ye ought to ſupport the weak, and to remember u the words of the Lord Jeſus, how he ſaid, It is x more bleſſed to give than to receive.

36 And when he had thus ſpoken, he y kneeled down, and prayed with them all.

37 And they all x wept ſore, and fell on Pauls neck, and kiſſed him, 38 Sorrowing moſt of all for the words which he ſpake, that they ſhould ſee his face no more. And they accompanied him unto the ſhip.

CHAP. XXI.

17 Paul cometh to Jeruſalem: 27 He is apprehended, 31 and reſcued.

AND it came to paſs, that after we were gotten from them, and had a launched, we came w ſtraight courſe unto Coos, & the day following unto Rhodes, and from thence unto Patara.

2 And finding a ſhip ſailing over unto x Phenicia, we went aboard, and ſet forth.

3 Now when we had diſcovered Cyprus, we left y it on the left hand, and ſailed into Syria, and landed at Tyre: for there the ſhip was to unlade her burthen.

4 And finding diſciples, we tarryed there ſeven days: z who ſaid to Paul a through the Spirit, that he ſhould not go up to Jeruſalem.

5 And when we had accompliſhed thoſe days, we departed, & b went our way, and they z all brought us on our way, with wives & children, till we were out of the city: and we kneeled down b on the ſhore, & prayed.

6 And when we had b taken our leave one of another, we took ſhip, and they returned home again.

7 And when we had finiſhed our courſe from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais, and ſaluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

8 And the next day we that were of Paul's company departed, and came unto Cæſarea: and we entered into the houſe of Philip the c evangeliſt, which was one of the d ſeven, and abode with him.

9 And the ſame man had four daughters, virgins, which did e propheſie.

10 And as we tarryed there many days, there came down from Judea a certain prophet named f Agabus.

11 And when he was come unto us, he took Pauls g girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and ſaid, Thus ſaith the holy Ghoſt, So ſhall the Jews at Jeruſalem b bind the man that owneth this girdle, and ſhall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.

12 And when we heard theſe things, both we and they of that place, z beſought him not to go up to Jeruſalem.

13 Then Paul anſwered, What mean ye to weep, and to break mine heart? for I am ready not to be bound only, but alſo to h die at Jeruſalem for the name of the LORD Jeſus.

14 And when he would not be perſuaded brethren, we thank the Lord: The will of the Lord be done. 15 And after those days we took up our carriages, & went up to Jerusalem.

16 There went with us also certain of the disciples of Cæsarea, and brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus, a old disciple, with whom we should lodge.
17 And when we were come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly.
18 And the day following, Paul went in with us unto b James, and all the elders were present.
19 And when he had saluted them, he declared particularly what things
c God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministry.
20 And when they heard it, they glorified the LORD, & said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are d which believe, and they are all e zealous of the law.
21 And they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Jews which are among the Gentiles f to forsake Moses, saying that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to walk after the customs.
22 What is it therefore? the multitude must needs come together:
for they will hear that thou art come.
23 Do therefore this that we say to thee: We have four men which have a vow on them;
24 Them take, and c purifie thy self with them, & be at charges with them, b that they may shave their heads:
& all may know that those things whereof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing, but that thou thy self also walkest orderly, and g keepest the law.
25 As touching the Gentiles which believe, a we have b written and concluded that they observe no such thing, save only that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, & from blood, & from strangled, and from fornication.
26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them, entered into the temple, to signifie the accomplishment of the days of purification, until a an offering should be offered for every one of them.
27 And when the k seven days were almost ended, the Jews which were of Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and laid hands on him,
28 Crying out, Men of Israel, help:
this is the man that teacheth all men every where against the people, and the a law, and this place: & moreover brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath c polluted this holy place.
29 (For they had seen before with him in the city Trophimus an Ephesian, whom they p supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.)
30 And all q the city was moved, and the people ran together: and they took Paul, and drew him out of the temple:
and forthwith the doors were shut.
31 And as they went about to r kill him, tidings came unto the chief captain of the band, that all Jerusalem was in an uproar.
32 Who immediately took soldiers, and centurions, and ran down unto them: and when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, they left beating of Paul.
33 Then the chief captain came near, and took him, and commanded him to be bound with a two chains, and demanded who he was, and what he had done.
34 And some cried one thing, some another, among the multitude: and when he could not know the certainty for the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into the castle.
35 And when he came upon the stairs, so it was that he was borne of the soldiers for the violence of the people.
36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, Away with him.
37 And as Paul was to be led into the castle, he said unto the chief captain, s May I speak unto thee?
Who said, Canst thou speak Greek?
38 Art not thou that t Egyptian which before these days madest an uproar, and leddest out into the wilderness four thousand men that were murtherers?
39 But Paul said, I am a man which am a Jew of t Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city:
and I beseech thee, suffer me to speak unto the people.
40 And when he had given him license, Paul stood on the stairs, and beckned with the hand unto the people. and when there was made a great silence, he spake unto them in the Hebrew tongue, saying,

CHAP. XXII.

2 (And when they heard that he spake in the Hebrew tongue to them, they kept c more c silence: & he saith) 3 I am verily a man which am a cia, yet brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, & taught according to the perfect manner of the 6 And it came to pass, that as I made my journey, & was come nigh unto Damascus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me.

7 And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul,
Saul, why persecutest thou e me?
8 And I answered, Who art thou,
Lord? And he said unto me, I am Jesus of Nazareth whom thou persecutest.
9 And they that were with me, saw indeed the light, and were afraid;
but they f heard not the voice of him

13 Came unto me, and stood, and o Prov said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And the same hour I looked up upon him.

14 And he said, The God of our fathers hath g chosen thee, that thou shouldest know his will, and g see that just one, and shouldest hear the voice of his mouth.

15 For thou shalt be his r witness unto all men, of what thou hast seen and heard.

16 And now why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptized, and s wash away thy sins, calling on the name of the Lord.

17 And it came to pass, that when I was come again to Jerusalem, even t while I prayed in the temple, I was in a trance;

18 And saw him saying unto me, u Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem: for they will x not receive thy testimony concerning me.

19 And I said, Lord, they know that I imprisoned, and y beat in every synagogue them that believed on thee:

20 And when the blood of thy martyr Stephen was shed, z I also was standing by, and a consenting unto his death, and kept the raiment of them that slew him.

21 And he said unto me, Depart: for I will b send thee far hence unto the b Gentiles.

22 And they gave him audience unto c this word, and then lift up their voices, and said, d Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not fit that he should live.

23 And as they cryed out, and e cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the air, 24 The chief captain commanded him to be brought into the f castle, & bade that he should be examined by b scourging; that he might know wherefore they cryed so against him.

25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, h Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Roman, and uncondemned?

26 When the centurion heard that, he went and k told the chief captain, saying, Take heed what thou doest, for this man is a Roman.

27 Then the chief captain came and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Roman? He said, Yea.

28 And the chief captain answered, l With a great sum obtained I this freedom. And Paul said, But I was free born.

29 Then straightway they departed from him which should have examined him: and the chief captain also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Roman, k because he had bound him.

30 On the morrow, because he would have known the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him from his bands, and commanded the chief priests, and all their council to appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 Paul pleadeth his cause. 2 He is smitten. 11 God encourageth him. 16 The Jews lay wait to kill him.

AND Paul earnestly beholding the council, said, Men and brethren, I have lived a in all good conscience before God until this day.

2 And the high priest Ananias commanded them that stood by him, b to smite him on the mouth.

3 Then said Paul unto him, c God shall smite thee, thou d whited wall: for sittest thou to judge me after the law, and commandest me to be smitten e contrary to the law?

4 And they that stood by, said, Revilest thou God's high priest?

5 Then said Paul, I wist not, brethren, that he was the high priest: For it is written, Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people.

6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cryed out in the council, Men and brethren, g I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee: of the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question.

7 And when he had so said, there arose i a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees: and the multitude was divided.

8 For the Sadducees say that there is k no resurrection, neither angel nor spirit: but the Pharisees confess both.

9 And there arose a great cry: and the Scribes that were of the Pharisees part arose, and strove, saying, We find l no evil in this man: but if a spirit or an angel hath spoken to him, let us not fight against God.

10 And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain fearing m lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the castle.

11 And the night following, the Lord o stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness p also at Rome.

12 And when it was day, certain of the Jews q banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying, that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more than forty which had made this conspiracy.

14 And they came to the r chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound our selves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul.

15 Now therefore s ye with the council, signifie to the r chief captain, that he bring him down unto you to morrow, t as though ye would enquire something more perfectly concerning him: and we, or ever he come near, are ready to kill him.

16 And when Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, he went and entred into the castle, and told Paul.

17 Then Paul called one of the Centurions unto him, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain: for he hath a certain thing to tell him.

18 So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say unto thee.

19 Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me?

20 And he said, The Jews have agreed to desire thee, that thou wouldest bring down Paul to morrow into the council, u as though they would enquire somwhat of him more perfectly.

21 But do not thou yield unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves, x by an oath, y they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: & now are they z ready looking for a promise from thee.

a Prov. 27. 23. Nah. 3. 18.

3 Then

7 Then the high priests and a the chief of the Jews informed him against Paul, and beſought him,

3 And deſired fauor against him, that he would c ſend for him to Jeruſalem, laying wait in the way to d kill him.

4 But Feſtus anſwered, that Paul ſhould be e kept at Cæſarea, and that he himſelf would depart ſhortly thither.

5 Let them therefore, ſaid he, which among you are able, go down with me, f and accuſe this man, if there be any wickedneſs in him.

6 And when he had tarried among them more than ten days, he went down unto Cæſarea, and the g next day ſitting in the iudgment-ſeat, commanded Paul to be brought.

7 And when he was come, the Jews which came down from Jeruſalem, ſtood round about, h and laid many and grieuous complaints againſt Paul, which they i could not proue,

8 While he anſwered for himſelf, Neither againſt the k Law of the Jews, neither againſt the temple, nor yet againſt Cæſar haue I offended any thing at all.

9 But Feſtus willing to do the Jews a pleaſure, anſwered Paul, & ſaid, Wilt thou go vp to Jeruſalem, and there be iudged of theſe things before me?

10 Then ſaid Paul, l I ſtand at Cæſars iudgment ſeat, where I m ought to be iudged: to the Jews haue I done no wrong, as thou very well knoweſt.

11 For if I be an offender, or haue committed any thing worthy of death, I refuſe not to n die: but if there be none of theſe things whereof theſe accuſe me, no man may deliuer me o vnto them. I appeal vnto Cæſar.

12 Then Feſtus when he had conferred with the councel, anſwered, Haſt thou appealed vnto Cæſar? vnto Cæſar ſhalt thou p go.

13 And after certain days, king Agrippa and Bernice came vnto Cæſarea to ſalute Feſtus.

14 And when they had been there many days, Feſtus declared Pauls cauſe vnto the king, ſaying, There is a certain man q left in bonds by Felix:

15 About whom when I was at Jeruſalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, deſiring to haue r iudgment againſt him.

16 To whom I anſwered, It is not the manner of the s Romans to deliuer any man to die, before that he which is accuſed, haue the accuſers t face to face, and haue licence to anſwer for himſelf concerning the crime laid againſt him.

17 Therefore when they were come hither, without any delay, on u morrow I ſate on v iudgment ſeat, and I commanded the man to be brought forth.

18 Againſt whom when the accuſers ſtood vp, they brought none accuſation of ſuch things as I ſuppoſed:

19 But had certain queſtions againſt him of their own w ſuperſtition, and of one Jeſus, which was x dead, whom Paul affirmed to be aliue.

20 And becauſe I y doubted of ſuch manner of queſtions, I aſked him whether he would go to Jeruſalem, and there be iudged of theſe matters.

21 But when Paul had appealed to be reſerued vnto the hearing of Auguſtus, I commanded him to be kept till I might ſend him to Cæſar.

22 Then Agrippa ſaid vnto Feſtus, I would alſo z hear the man my ſelf. Tomorrow, ſaid he, thou ſhalt hear him.

23 And on the morrow when Agrippa was come, and Bernice, with a great a Gr. pomp, and was entred into the b place of hearing, with c chief captains and principal men of d city, at Feſtus commandment Paul was brought forth.

24 And Feſtus ſaid, King Agrippa, and all men which are here preſent with vs, ye ſee this man about whom all e Iewes the multitude of f Iewes haue deale with me, both at Jeruſalem, and alſo here, g crying, that he ought not to liue any longer.

1 Paul in the preſence of Agrippa, declareth his life from his childehood.
22 and how miraculouſly he was conuerted, and called to his apoſtleſhip.

THen Agrippa ſaid vnto Paul, Thou art a permitted to ſpeak for thy ſelf. Then Paul b ſtretched forth the hand, and anſwered for himſelf:

2 I think my ſelf happy, king Agrippa, becauſe I ſhall anſwer for my ſelf this day before thee, touching all the things whereof I am accuſed of c Iewes:

3 Eſpecially, becauſe I know thee to be d expert in all cuſtoms and queſtions e are among the Iewes: wherefore I beſeech thee to heare me patiently.

heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

15 And I said, Who art thou, LORD? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest.

16 But rise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, g to make thee a minister & a witness both of those things which thou hast seen, and of those things in h which I will appear unto thee:

17 i Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee, 18 n To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God: that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me.

19 Whereupon, O king Agrippa, o I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision:

20 But shewed first unto them of p Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent, and q turn to God, and do works meet for repentance.

21 r For these causes the Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me.

22 Having therefore s obtained help of God, t I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things, than those which the prophets and Moses did say should come:

23 That Christ should suffer, and u he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should shew light unto x the people, & to the Gentiles.

24 And as he thus spake for himself, Festus said with a loud voice, Paul, thou art y beside thyself; much learning doth make thee mad.

25 But he said, I am not mad, most noble Festus, but speak forth the words of truth and soberness.

26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him: for this thing was not done in a corner.

27 King Agrippa, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest.

28 Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Almost thou persuadest me to be a Christian.

29 And Paul said, I would to God, not only thou, but also all that hear me this day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

30 And when he had thus spoken, the king rose up, and the governor, and Bernice, & they that sate with them:

31 And when they were gone aside, they talked between themselves, saying, This man doth nothing worthy of death, or of bonds.

32 Then said Agrippa unto Festus, This man might have been set at liberty, m if he had not appealed unto Cesar.

CHAP. XXVII.

2 Paul foretelleth the danger of the voyage.

AND when it was a determined that we should sail into Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners unto one named Julius, a centurion of Augustus band.

2 And entering into a ship of Adramyttium, we launched, meaning to sail by the coasts of Asia, one c Aristarchus a Macedonian, of Thessalonica, being with us.

3 And the next day we touched at Sidon. And Julius d courteously entreated Paul, and gave him liberty to go unto his friends to refresh himself.

4 And when we had launched from thence, we sailed under e Cyprus, because the winds were contrary.

5 And when we had sailed over the sea of f Cilicia and g Pamphylia, we came to Myra a city of Lycia.

6 And there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing into Italy, and he h put us therein.

7 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and scarce were come over against Gnidus, the wind not suffering us, we sailed under i Crete, over against Salmone:

8 And hardly passing it, came unto a place k, is called, The fair havens, nigh whereunto was l city of Lasea.

9 Now when much time was spent, & when sailing was now dangerous, because the k fast was now already past, Paul admonished them,

10 And said unto them, Sirs, l I perceive that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not only of k lading & ship, but also of our lives.

11 Nevertheless, the centurion believed the m master and the owner of the ship, more than those things which were n spoken by Paul.

12 And because the haven was not o commodious to winter in, the more part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain to Phenice, and there to winter, which is an haven of Crete, & lieth toward the south-west, and north-west.

13 And when the south-wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their p purpose, loosing thence, they sailed close by Crete.

14 But not long after there arose against it q a tempestuous wind, called Euroclydon.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we r let her drive.

16 And running under a certain island which is called Clauda, we had much work to come by the boat:

17 Which when they had taken up, they used helps, s undergirding the ship; and fearing lest they should fall into the quick-sands, strake sayl, and so were driven.

18 And being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day they t lightened the ship;

19 And the third day we cast out with our own hands u tackling of the ship.

20 And when neither sun nor stars in many days appeared, and no small tempest lay on us, x all hope that we should be saved was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinence, Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, y ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have loosed from Crete, and to have gained this harm and loss.

22 And now I exhort you to z be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of any man's life among you, but of the ship.

23 For there stood by me this night a the angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serve,

24 Saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must be brought before Cesar: and, lo, God hath b given (Gen. a given thee all them y sayl with thee.

32. 25 Wherefore (sirs) be of good cheer, for b I believe God, that it shall be even as it was told me.
26 Howbeit, c we must be cast upon a certain island.
27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in Adria about midnight, the ship-men deemed that they drew near to some country.
28 And sounded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, and found it fifteen fathoms.
29 d Then fearing lest we should have fain upon rocks, they cast four anchors out of the stern, & wished for the day.
30 And as the ship-men were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would have † cast anchors out of the forecastle:
31 Paul said to the centurion, and to the soldiers, Except these e abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved.
32 Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off.
33 And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take meat, saying, This day is the fourteenth day y ye have tarried, & continued fasting, having † taken nothing.
34 Wherefore I pray you to take some meat, for this is for your health: for there shall f not an hair fall from the head of any of you.
35 And when he had thus spoken, he took bread, and b gave thanks to God in the † presence of them all, and when he had broken it, he began to eat.
36 Then were they all g of good cheer, and they also took some meat.
37 And we were in all in the ship, two hundred threescore & sixteen † souls.
38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and m cast out the wheat into the sea.
39 And when it was day, they knew not the land: but they discovered a certain creek, with a shore, into the which they were minded, if it were possible, to thrust in the ship.
40 And when they had taken up the anchors, they committed themselves unto the sea, and loosed the rudder-bands, and hoised up the main-sail to the wind, and made toward shore.
41 And falling into a place where two seas met, they ran the ship a ground, and the fore-part stuck fast, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the wave.
42 And the soldiers counsel was to o kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape.
43 But the centurion, willing to p save Paul, kept them from their purpose, and commanded, that they which could swim, should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land.
44 And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship:
and so it came to pass that they escaped q all safe to land.

CHAP. XXVIII.

Paul after his shipwrack, is kindly entertained by the Barbarians.

A Nd when they were escaped, then they knew that the island was called Melita.
2 And the barbarous people shewed us r no little kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us every one, because of the present rain, and because of the cold.

3 And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and fastened on his hand.
4 And when the barbarians saw the venomous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves, No doubt this man is a murtherer, whom though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to live.
5 And he s shook off the beast into the fire, and felt no harm.
6 Howbeit, they looked when he should have swollen, or fain down dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was a God.
7 In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the island, whose name was Publius, t who received us and lodged us three days courteously.
8 And it came to pass that the father of Publius lay sick of u a fever, and of a bloody flix, to whom Paul entred in, and † prayed, & put his hands on him, and healed him.
9 So when this was done, others also which had diseases in the island, came, and were healed:
10 Who also x honoured us with many honours, and when we departed, they laded us with such things as were y necessary.
11 And after three moneths we departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the isle, whose sign was † Castor and Pollux.
12 And landing at Syracuse, we tarried there three days.
13 And from thence we fet a compass, and came to Rhegium: and after one day the south-wind blew, and we came the next day to Puteoli:
14 Where we found z brethren, and were desired to tarry with them seven days: and so we went toward a Rome.
15 And from thence, when the brethren heard of us, they came † to meet us as far as Appii-forum, and the Three taverns, whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and † took courage.
16 And when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard: but Paul was † suffered to dwell by himself with a soldier that kept him.
17 And it came to pass that after three days, Paul called the chief of the Jews together. And when they were come together, he said unto them, Men and brethren, though I have committed nothing against the people or customs of our fathers, yet was I delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans.
18 Who when they had examined me, would have let me go, because there was no cause of death in me.
19 But when the Jews spake against it, I was constrained to appeal unto Cesar, not that I had ought to accuse my nation of.
20 For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see you, and to speak with you: because that for the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain.
21 And they said unto him, We neither received letters out of Judea concerning thee, neither any of the brethren that came, shewed or spake any † harm of thee.
22 But we desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, we know that every where it is spoken against.
23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many to him into his lodging, to whom he expounded and testified the kingdom of God, perswading them concerning Jesus, both out of the f law of Moses, and out of the prophets, from morning till evening.

24 And some believed the things which were spoken, and some believed not.

26 Saying, Go unto this people, and say, Hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing, ye shall see, and not perceive.

27 For the heart of this people is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes have they closed, lest they should see with their eyes, & hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

28 Be it known therefore unto you, that the l salvation of God m is sent unto the Gentiles, and that they will hear it.

29 And when he had said these words, the Jews departed, and had n great reasoning among themselves.

The Epistle of PAUL the Apostle to the ROMANS.

CHAP. I.

1 Paul commendeth his calling to the Romans. 16 What his gospel is.

PAUL a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, a separated unto the gospel of God

2 (Which he b had promised afore by his prophets in c holy scriptures)

3 Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, which was c made of the seed of d David according to the flesh;

4 And e declared to be the Son of God w power, according to f the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from g dead,

5 By whom we have received h grace and apostleship for obedience to the faith among all nations for his name:

6 Among whom are ye also i the called of Jesus Christ:

7 To all that be in Rome, k beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace to you, and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

8 l First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that your faith is b spoken of throughout the whole world.

9 For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers,

10 Making request, if by any means now at length I might x have a prosperous journey by the will of God to come unto you.

11 For I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some f spiritual gift, to the end you may be established:

12 That is, that I may be comforted together with you y by the mutual m faith both of you and me.

13 Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, n of ten times I purposed to come unto you, (but was let hitherto) y I might have some o fruit among you also, even as among other Gentiles.

14 I am p debtor both to the Greeks, and to the Barbarians, both to the m wise, and to the unwise.

15 So as much as in me is, I q am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also.

16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the r power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth, to the f Jew first, and also to the Greek.

17 For therein is the s righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, t The just shall live by faith.

18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness, and unrighteousness of men, who u hold the truth in unrighteousness.

19 Because that which may be known of God, is manifest in them, for God hath shewed it unto them.

20 For the x invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and God-head; so that they are y without excuse:

21 Because that when they knew b God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful, but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

22 c Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools:

23 And changed the d glory of the uncorruptible God, into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and four-footed beasts, and creeping things.

24 Wherefore God also z gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves:

25 Who changed the truth of God into a a lie, and worshipped & served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen.

26 For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature:

27 And likewise also the b men leaving f natural use of f woman, burned in their lust one toward another, men w men working f which is unseemly, and z receiving in themselves f recompence of their error a was meet.

28 And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient;

29 Being w filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness, full of envy, murther, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers,

30 Back-biters, haters of God, despitful, proud, boasters, n inventers of evil things, disobedient to parents,

31 Without understanding, covenant-breakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful:

32 Who d knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things, are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them.

CHAP. II.

1 They that sin and condemnist brothers, cannot excuse themselves.

THerefore thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that a judgest: for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thy self; for thou that judgest, doest the same things.

2 But we are sure that the b judgment of God is according to truth, against them which commit such things.

3 And thinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them which do such things, and c doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgment of God?

4 Or despisest thou the riches of his goodness, and forbearance, and long-suffering, not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance?

5 But after thy hardness & impenitent heart, d treasurest up unto thy self wrath against the day of wrath, & revelation of the righteous judgment of God:

6 Who will f render to every man according to his deeds:

7 To them, who g by patient continuance in well-doing, seek for glory, & honour, and immortality; eternal life:

8 But unto them that are h contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness; indignation, and wrath,

9 Tribulation and anguish upon every soul of man that doth evil, of the k Jew first, and also of the Gentile.

10 But glory, honour, and peace, to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile.

11 For there is m no respect of persons with God.

12 For as many as have n sinned without law, shall also perish without law: and as many as have sinned o in the law, shall be judged by the law.

13 (For not the p hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified.

14 (For when the Gentiles which have not the law, do q by nature the things contained in r law, these having not the law, are a law unto themselves:

15 Which shew the s work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts the mean while accusing, or else excusing one another;)

16 In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ, according to my gospel.

17 Behold, thou are called a Jew, and u restest in the law, and makest thy boast of God:

18 And x knowest his will, and approvest the things y are more excellent, being instructed out of z law,

19 And are confident that thou a thy self are a guide of the blind, a light of them which are in darkness, 20 An instructer of b fools, a teacher of babes, which hast the form c of knowledge, and of d truth in the law.

21 Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou e not thy self? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal?

22 Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou commit sacrilege?

23 Thou that makest f thy boast of the Law, through breaking the law dishonorest thou God?

24 For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is g written.

25 For circumcision verily profiteth, if thou a keep the law: but if thou be b a breaker of the law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision.

26 Therefore, if the uncircumcision keep the c righteousness of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be f counted for circumcision?

27 And shall not uncircumcision which is by nature, if it g fulfil the law, judge thee, who by the letter and circumcision doest transgress the law?

28 For he is h not a Jew, which is one outwardly, neither is i circumcision, which is outward in the flesh:

29 But he is a Jew, which is k one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter, whose praise is not of men, but of God.

1 John 1. 47. Psalm

CHAP. III.

1 The Jews prerogative. 9 Yet the Law convinceth them also of sin.

WHat a advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit is there of circumcision?

2 Much every way: b chiefly, because that unto them were committed the oracles of God.

3 For what if some did not believe? shall their unbelief make the c faith of God without effect?

4 God forbid: yea, d let God be true, but every man a liar, as it is written, That thou mightest e be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou are judged.

5 But if our f unrighteousness commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who g taketh vengeance? (I speak as a man)

6 God forbid: for then how shall God h judge the world?

7 For if the truth of God hath more i abounded through my lie unto his glory, why yet am I also judged as a sinner?

8 And not rather, as we be slanderously reported, & as some affirm that we say, Let us k do evil that good may come, whose damnation is just.

9 What then? are we l better than they? No, in no wise: for we have before proved both Jews and Gentiles, that they are all under sin.

10 As it is m written, There is none righteous, no not one:

11 There is none that understandeth, there is none n that seeketh after God.

12 They are o all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable, there is none that doth good, no not one.

13 Their throat is an open sepulchre, with their tongues they have used deceit, the poison of asps is under their lips:

14 Whose mouth is full of p cursing and bitterness:

15 Their feet are q swift to shed blood,

16 Destruction and misery are in their ways:

17 And the r way of peace have they not known.

18 There is no s fear of God before their eyes.

19 Now we know that what things soever t the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be u stopped, & all x world may become guilty before God.

20 Therefore by the y deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law z the knowledge of sin.

21 But now the a righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being

John 2 witnessed by the law & the prophets:
22 Even the righteousnes of God, which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all, and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference:
23 For all have sinned, and come short of the a glory of God;
24 Being justified freely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Jesus Christ:
25 Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation, through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousnes for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God;
26 To declare, I say, at this time his righteousnes: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus.
27 Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay: but by the law of faith.
28 Therefore we conclude, that a man is justified by faith, without the deeds of the law.
29 Is he the b God of the Jews only? is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also:
30 Seeing it is one God which shall justifie the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.
31 Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law.

Cor. 2. 17

CHAP. IV.

1 Abraham's faith imputed for righteousnes. 13 By it he and his seed receive the promise.

What shall we say then, that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found?
2 For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath wherof to glory; but c not before God.
3 For what saith the scripture? Abraham d believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousnes.
4 Now to him e that worketh is f reward not reckoned of grace but of debt.
5 But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, g his faith is counted for righteousnes.
6 Even as David also describeth the blessednes of the man unto whom God imputeth righteousnes without works,
7 Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.
8 Blessed is the man to whom the LORD will not impute sin.
9 Cometh h this blessednes then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousnes.
10 How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.
11 And he received the i sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousnes of the faith, which he had yet being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousnes might be imputed unto them also:
12 And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised.
13 For the k promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the l righteousnes of faith.

14 For if they which are of the law be heirs, o faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect:
15 Because the law p worketh wrath: for where q no law is, there is no transgression.
16 Therefore it is of r faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham; who is the father of us all.
17 (As it is written, I have t made thee a father of many nations) before him whom he believed, even God, who u quickneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not as though they were.
18 Who x against hope believed in hope, y that he might become a father of many nations, according to z which was spoken, So shall thy seed be.
19 And being not weak in faith, he a considered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred years old, neither yet the b deadness of Sarah's womb:
20 He c staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God;
21 And being fully d persuaded, that what he had promised, e he was able also to perform.
22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousnes.
23 Now it was f not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him;
24 But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we g believe on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from h dead;
25 Who was i delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification.

CHAP. V.

1 Being justified by faith, we have peace with God. 12 Death came by Adam.

Therefore being a justified by faith, we have b peace with God through our LORD Jesus Christ:
2 By whom also we have c access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoyce in hope of the glory of God.
3 And not only so, but we d glory in tribulations also, knowing that tribulation worketh patience;
4 And patience e experience; and experience hope:
5 And hope maketh f not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the holy Ghost, which is given unto us.
6 For when we were yet g without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly.
7 For scarcely h for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.
8 But God i commendeth his love towards us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.
9 Much more then, being now justified by his k blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.
10 For if when we were l enemies, we were reconciled to God by m death of his son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life.
11 And not only so, but we also joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement.

No law hath power ouer a man longer then he liueth.

KNow ye not brethren (for I speak to them that know the law) how that the law hath b dominion ouer a man, as long as he liueth?

b Rom. 6. 14. 2 For the woman which hath an husband, is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liueth: c but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband.

d Rom. 6. 6. 4 Wherefore my brethren, ye also are become e dead to the law by the body of Christ: that ye should f be married to another, euen to him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring forth g fruit vnto God.

e Gal. 2. 19. f Rom. 8. 9. g Gal. 5. 24. 5 For when we were in the h flesh, the motions of sins which were by the law, did work in our members to bring forth fruit vnto i death.

n Mat. 5. 32. 9 For I was n alyue without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin reuiued, and I died.

o Luke 1. 17. 10 And the commandement, which was ordained to life, I found to be vnto death.

p Mat. 10. 28. 11 For sin taking occasion by the commandment, deceiued me, and by it slew me.

q Gen. 3. 13. 12 Wherefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and iust, and good.

r Luke 16. 17. 1 Cor. 9. 22. 1 Pet. 4. 11. 13 Was then that which is good made death vnto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, wrought death in me by that which is good, that sin by the commandment might become s exceeding sinful.

s Rom. 5. 20. 14 For we know that the law is t spiritual: but I am carnall, sold vnder sin.

t Mat. 10. 20. 1 Cor. 2. 14. 15 For that which I do, I know not: for what I would, that do I not: but what I hate, that do I.

u Rom. 2. 18. 16 If then I do that which I would not, I consent vnto the law that it is good.

x Rom. 7. 20. 17 Now then it is not I that do it, but x sin that dwelleth in me.

y Rom. 7. 23. 18 For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) dwelleth no good thing: for y to will is present with me, but how to perform that which is good I find not.

z Rom. 7. 15. 19 For the good that I would, I do not: but the euil which I would not, that I do.

a Rom. 7. 17. 20 Now if I do that I would not, it is not I that do it, but a sin that dwelleth in me.

b Rom. 7. 21. 21 I find then a law, that when I would do good, euil is present with me.

c Rom. 7. 22. 22 For I delight in the law of God, after the inward man.

d Rom. 7. 25. 23 But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captiuity vnder the law of sin, which is in my members.

e Rom. 7. 24. 24 O wretched man that I am, who shall deliuer me from the body of this death?

f Rom. 7. 25. 25 I thank God through Iesus Christ our LORD. So then with the mind I my selfe serue the law of God, but with the flesh the law of sin.

11 For ſin taking occaſion by the commandment, x deceived me; and by it ſlew me.

12 Wherefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy, & juſt and good.

13 Was then that which is good, made to death unto me? God forbid. But ſin that it might appear ſin, working death in me by that which is good; that ſin by the commandment might become exceeding ſinful.

14 For we know that the law is ſpiritual: but I am y carnal, ſold under ſin.

15 For that which I do, I † allow not: for what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I.

16 If then I do that z I would not, I conſent unto the law that it is good.

17 Now then, it is no more I that do it, but ſin that dwelleth in me.

18 For I know that in me (that is, in my fleſh) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is preſent with me, but a how to perform that which is good I find not.

19 For the good that I would, I do not: but the evil which I would not, b I do.

20 Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but ſin that dwelleth in me.

21 I find then a law, that when I would do good, evil c is preſent with me.

22 For I delight in the law of God, after the w inward man.

23 But I ſee x another law in my members, warring againſt the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of ſin, which is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am, q who ſhall deliver me from the y body of this death?

25 I thank God, through Jeſus Chriſt our LORD. So then, with the mind I myſelf ſerve the law of God; but with the fleſh the law of ſin.

CHAP. VIII.

Who are free from condemnation.

THere is therefore now no condemnation to them which are a in Chriſt Jeſus, who walk not after the fleſh, but after the Spirit.

2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Chriſt Jeſus hath b made me free from the law of ſin and death.

3 For what the law could not do in that it was weak through the fleſh, God ſending his own Son in the likeneſs of ſinful fleſh, and for ſin condemned ſin in the fleſh:

4 That the righteouſneſs of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the fleſh, but after the Spirit.

5 For they that are after the fleſh, do c mind the things of the fleſh, but they that are after the Spirit, the things of the Spirit.

6 For to be d carnally minded is death; but to be ſpiritually minded, is life and peace.

7 Becauſe the carnal mind is e enmity againſt God: for it is not ſubject to the law of God, neither indeed can be.

8 So then they that are in the fleſh f cannot pleaſe God.

9 But ye are not in the fleſh, but in the Spirit, if ſo be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Chriſt, he is none of his.

10 And if Chriſt be l in you, the body is dead becauſe of ſin; but the Spirit is life, becauſe of m righteouſneſs.

11 But if the Spirit of him that raiſed up Jeſus from the dead, dwell in you, he that raiſed up Chriſt from the dead ſhall alſo quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

12 Therefore, brethren, we are x Joh. 5. 45.

y debtors, not to the fleſh, to live after the fleſh.

13 For if ye live after the fleſh, ye ſhall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortiſie the deeds of the body, ye ſhall live.

14 For as many as are r led by the Spirit of God, they are s ſons of God.

15 For ye have not received the ſpirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.

16 The Spirit itſelf t beareth witneſs with our ſpirit, that we are the children of God.

17 And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, & x joynt-heirs with Chriſt: if ſo be that we y ſuffer with him, that we may be alſo glorified together.

18 For I reckon, that the z ſufferings of this preſent time, are a not worthy to be compared with the glory which ſhall be revealed in us.

19 For the earneſt expectation of the b creature waiteth for the c manifeſtation of the ſons of God.

20 For the creature was made ſubject to vanity, d not willingly, but by reaſon of him who hath ſubjected the ſame e in hope.

21 Becauſe the creature it ſelf alſo ſhall be delivered from the f bondage of corruption, into the g glorious liberty of the children of God.

22 For we know that the whole creation h groaneth, and travaileth in pain together, until now.

23 And not only they, but our ſelves alſo i have the firſt fruits of the Spirit, even we our ſelves k groan within our ſelves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body.

24 For we are ſaved by hope: but hope that is ſeen, is not hope: for what a man ſeeth, why doth he yet hope for?

25 But if we hope for that we ſee not, then do we with m patience wait for it.

26 Likewiſe the Spirit alſo n helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we ſhould pray for as we ought: but o the Spirit it ſelf maketh intерceſſion for us w groanings x cannot be uttered.

27 And he that y ſearcheth the hearts, knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, becauſe he maketh intерceſſion for q the ſaints, according to the will of God.

28 And we know that r all things work together for good, to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpoſe.

29 For whom he did foreknow, he alſo did u predeſtinate to be conformed to the y image of his Son, that he might be y firſt-born among many brethren.

30 Moreover, whom he did predeſtinate, them he alſo called: and whom he called, them he alſo juſtified: and whom he juſtified, them alſo he y glorified.

31 What ſhall we then ſay to theſe things? If God be a for us, who can be againſt us?

32 He that ſpared not his own Son, but delivered him up b for us all: how ſhall he not with him alſo freely c give us all things?

33 Who ſhall lay any thing to the charge of Gods elect? It is God that juſtifieth:

34 Who is he that c condemneth? It is Chriſt that died, yea, rather that is riſen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who alſo maketh f intерceſſion for us.

35 Who ſhall ſeparate us from the d love of Chriſt? ſhall tribulation, or

CHAP. IX.

1 Paule greatly for the Jewes. 7 The seed of the promise.

I Say the truth in Christ, I lie not, my a conscience also bearing me witnesse in the holy Ghost,

2 That I have great b heavinesse, and continual sorrow in my heart.

3 For I could with that my self c were accursed from Christ, for my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh:

4 Who are Israelites, to whom pertaineth the d adoption, & the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, & the service of God, and e promises;

5 Whose are the fathers, and of whom as concerning the flesh Christ came, who is over f all, God blessed for ever. Amen.

6 Not as though the word of God hath taken none effect. For they are not all Israel, which are of Israel:

7 Neither because they are the seed of Abraham, are they g all children: but in Isaac shall thy seed be called.

8 That is, They which are the children of the h flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed.

9 For this is the word of promise, At this time will I come, and Sara shall have a son.

10 And not only this; but when Rebecca also had conceived by one, even by our father Isaac

11 (For the children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the i purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth)

12 It was said unto her, The k elder shall serve the younger.

13 As it is written, Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated.

14 What shall we say then? Is there l unrighteousnesse with God? God forbid.

15 For he saith to Moses, I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.

16 So then it is not of him that i willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of m God that sheweth mercy.

17 For the scripture saith unto Pharaoh, Even for this same purpose have I n raised thee up, that I might shew my power in thee, & that my name might be declared throughout all the earth.

18 Therefore hath he mercy on whom i he will have mercy, and whom he will he o hardneth.

19 Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he yet q find fault? For who hath resisted his will?

20 Nay but, O man, who art thou that b repliest against God? shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?

21 Hath not the potter power over the clay, of the same c lump to make r one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour?

22 What if God willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, s endured with much long-suffering the vessels of wrath t fitted to destruction:

23 And that he might make known f the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had afore u prepared unto glory?

24 Even us, whom he hath called, not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles.

25 As he saith also in Osee, x I will call them my people, which were not my people; and her beloved, which was not beloved.

26 And it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people; there shall they be called, The children of the living God.

27 Esaias also crieth concerning Israel, Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, y a remnant shall be saved.

28 For he will finish the work, and cut it short in righteousnesse: because z a short work will the LORD make upon the earth.

29 And as a Esaias said before, Except the LORD of Sabaoth had left us a seed, we had been as Sodoma, and been made like unto Gomorrha.

30 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles which followed not after righteousnesse, have attained to righteousnesse, even the righteousnesse which is of faith.

31 But Israel, which followed after o the law of righteousnesse, p hath not attained to the law of righteousnesse.

32 Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but q as were by the works of the law: for they stumbled at that stumbling-stone, 33 As it is written, Behold, I lay in Sion a stumbling-stone, and rock of offence: r and whosoever believeth on him, shall not be ashamed.

CHAP. X.

The difference of the righteousnesse of the law, and that of faith.

BRethren, my hearts desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved.

2 For I bear them record, that they have a a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For they being ignorant of God's righteousnesse, and going about to establish their b own righteousnesse, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousnesse of God.

4 For Christ is the c end of the law for righteousnesse to every one that believeth.

5 For Moses describeth the righteousnesse which is of the law, That the man which doth d those things, shall live by them.

6 But the e righteousnesse which is of faith, speaketh on this wise, Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down from above)

7 Or, Who shall descend into the deep? (that is to bring up Christ f again from the dead.)

8 But what saith it? g The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy h heart: that is the i word of faith, which we preach;

9 That if thou shalt confesse with thy k mouth the Lord Jesus, & shalt l believe in thine heart, that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

10 For with the heart man m believeth unto righteousnesse, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

11 For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him, shall n not be ashamed.

between the Jew and the Greek: for the same LORD over all, is rich unto all that call upon him.

13 For whosoever shall r call upon the name of the LORD, shall be saved.

14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? & how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard, and how shall they hear without a preacher?

15 And how shall they s preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias saith, LORD, who hath believed our report?

17 So then, t faith u cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

18 But I say, Have they not heard? Yea verily, x their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world.

19 But I say, Did not Israel know? First Moses saith, y I will provoke you to jealousie by them that are no people, and by a foolish nation I will anger you.

20 But Esaias is very bold, and saith, I was found of them z that sought me not; I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me.

21 But to Israel he saith, a All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gain-saying people.

CHAP. XI.

God hath not cast off all Israel.

1 I Say then, Hath God b cast away his people? God forbid. For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

2 God hath not cast away his people which he c foreknew. Wot ye not what the scripture saith of Elias? how he maketh intercession to God d against Israel, saying,

3 LORD, they have e killed thy prophets, and digged down thine altars, and I am left f alone, and they seek my life.

4 But what saith the answer of God unto him? I have g reserved to my self seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Baal.

5 Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the h election of grace.

6 And if i by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work.

7 What then? Israel hath not obtained that which he k seeketh for, but the l election hath obtained it, and the rest were m blinded:

8 According as it is written, God n hath given them the spirit of slumber, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear unto this day.

9 And o David saith, Let their table be made a snare, & a trap, & a stumbling-block, and a recompence unto them.

10 Let their eyes be darkned, that they may not see, and bow down their back always.

11 I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid: but through their fall salvation p is come unto the Gentiles, for to provoke them to jealousie.

12 Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their q fulness?

13 For I speak to you Gentiles: inasmuch as I am the apostle of the Gentiles, I r magnifie mine office:

14 If by any means I may provoke to emulation them which are my flesh, and might save some of them.

15 For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but s life from the dead?

16 For if the first-fruit be t holy, the lump is also holy: and if the root be holy, so are the branches.

17 And if some of the branches be broken off, and thou being v a wild olive-tree, wert grafted in amongst them, and with them x partakest of the root and fatness of the olive-tree:

18 a Boast not against the branches: but if thou boast, b thou bearest not the root, but the root thee.

19 Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in.

20 Well, because of unbelief they were broken off, & thou c standest by faith. Be not high minded, but fear:

21 For if God spared not the natural branches, d take heed lest he also spare not thee.

22 Behold therefore the goodness and severity of God: e on them which fell, severity; but f toward thee, goodness, if thou continue in his goodness: otherwise thou also shalt be cut off.

23 And they also, if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graft them in again.

24 For if thou were cut out of the olive-tree, g & wert grafted contrary to nature into a good olive-tree; how much more shall these h which be the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive-tree?

25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery (lest ye should be i wise in your own conceits) that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in.

26 And so, k all Israel shall be saved, as it is written, There shall come out of Sion the deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob.

27 For this is my m covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins.

28 As concerning the gospel, they are enemies n for your sake: but as touching the election, they are beloved for the fathers sakes.

29 For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance.

30 For as ye o in times past have not believed God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief:

31 Even so have these also now not believed, that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy.

32 For God hath concluded them all p in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all.

33 O the q depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out!

34 For who r hath known the mind of the Lord, or who hath been his counsellour?

35 Or who hath s first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again?

36 For t of him, and through him, and to him are all things: to whom be glory for ever. Amen.

CHAP. XII.

Gods mercies must move us to please him.

I beseech

1 BEseech you a therefore brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

2 And be not conformed to this world: but be ye b transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect will of God.

3 For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith.

4 For as we have c many members in one body, and all members have not the same office:

5 So we being many are c one body in Christ, and every one members one of another.

6 Having then gifts, differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether d prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith:

7 Or ministry, let us e wait on our ministring: or he that teacheth, on teaching:

8 Or he that exhorteth, on exhortation: he that f giveth, let him do it with simplicity: he that ruleth, with diligence: he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness.

9 Let love be without dissimulation. g Abhor that which is evil, cleave to that which is good.

10 Be kindly affectioned one to another, with brotherly love, in honour preferring one another.

11 Not slothful in business: h fervent in spirit, serving the LORD;

12 Rejoycing in hope, i patient in tribulation, k continuing instant in prayer:

13 l Distributing to the necessity of saints, given to hospitality.

14 m Bless them which persecute you: bless, and curse not.

15 Rejoyce with them that do rejoyce, & n weep with them that weep.

16 Be of the same mind one towards another. Mind not o high things, but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits.

17 Recompense to no man evil for evil. Provide things p honest in the sight of all men.

18 If it be possible, q as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men.

19 Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, r Vengeance is mine, I will repay, saith the LORD.

20 Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him: if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap s coals of fire on his head.

21 Be not overcome of evil: but t overcome evil with good.

CHAP. XIII.

Subjection and other duties we owe magistrates.

LEt every soul be a subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be, are ordained of God.

2 Whosoever therefore b resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist, shall receive to themselves damnation.

3 For rulers are c not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same.

4 For he is the minister of God to thee for d good: for if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doth evil.

5 Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for e conscience sake.

6 For, for this cause f pay you tribute also: for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing.

7 Render therefore to all their dues, tribute to whom tribute is due, custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear, g honour to whom honour.

8 Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for he that loveth another, hath h fulfilled the law.

9 For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet: and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

10 Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: therefore love is the fulfilling of the law.

11 And that knowing the time, that m now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed.

12 The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on n the armour of light.

13 Let us walk n honestly, as in the day, not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and envying.

14 But put ye on o the LORD Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof.

CHAP. XIV.

Not to censure or condemn one the other.

HIm that is weak in the faith, receive you, but not to a doubtful disputations.

2 For one believeth that he may b eat all things: another who is weak, eateth herbs.

3 Let not him that eateth, c despise him that eateth not: and let not him which eateth not, judge him that eateth: for God hath received him.

4 Who art thou that d judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be holden up: for God is able to make him stand.

5 e One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind.

6 He that regardeth the day, regardeth it f unto the LORD: & he that regardeth not the day, to g LORD he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to g Lord, for he g giveth God thanks: & he g eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks.

7 For none of us h liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.

8 For whether we live, i we live unto the LORD: or whether we die, we die unto g LORD: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the LORD's.

9 For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be k Lord both of the dead & living.

10 But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? we shall all stand l before the judgment-seat of Christ.

11 For it is m written, As I live, saith g LORD, every knee shall bow to me, & every tongue shall confess to God.

in so then every one of us shall give account of himself to God.

13 Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumbling-block, or an occasion to fall in his brothers way.

14 Know, & am perswaded by y Lord Jesus, z there is nothing unclean of it self: save to him a esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean.

15 But if thy brother be grieved with thy meat, now walkest thou not charitably. Destroy not him with thy meat, for whom Christ died.

16 Let not then your good be evil spoken of.

17 For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink, but righteousness and peace, and joy in the holy Ghost.

18 For he that in these things c serveth Christ, is acceptable to God, and approved of men.

19 Let us therefore d follow after the things which make for peace, & things wherewith one may edifie another.

20 For meat destroy not the work of God. All things indeed e are pure, but it is evil for that man who eateth with offence.

21 It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother f stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak.

22 Hast thou g faith? have it to thy self before God. Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth.

23 And he h is damned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith, for whatsoever i is not of faith, is sin.

CHAP. XV.

The strong must bear with the weak.

WE then that are strong, ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and a not to please our selves.

2 Let every one of us please his neighbour, for his b good to edification.

3 For even c Christ pleased not himself, but as it is d written, The reproaches of them e reproached thee, fell on me.

4 For whatsoever things were written aforetime, were written for e our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope.

5 Now the God of patience & consolation f grant you to be like minded one towards another, f according to Christ Jesus:

6 That g ye may with one mind & g one mouth glorifie God, even the Father of our LORD Jesus Christ.

7 Wherefore receive ye one another, h as Christ also received us, to the glory of God.

8 Now I say, that Jesus Christ was a minister of the i circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made unto the fathers:

9 And that the Gentiles might glorifie God for his k mercy, as it is l written, For this cause I will confess to thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy name.

10 And again m he saith, Rejoyce ye Gentiles with his people.

11 And n again, Praise o LORD all ye Gentiles, and laud him all ye people.

12 And again, p Esaias saith, There shall be a root of Jesse, and he that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles, in him shall the Gentiles trust.

13 Now the God of hope q fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the holy Ghost.

14 And I my self also am perswaded of you my brethren, ye also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another.

15 Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you, in some sort, as f putting you in mind, because of h grace that is given to me of God:

16 That I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to s Gentiles, ministring t gospel of God, that u offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the holy Ghost.

17 I have therefore wherof I may glory x through Jesus Christ, in those things which pertain to God.

18 For I will y not dare to speak of any of those things, which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient z by word and deed, 19 Through mighty a signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God: so that from Jerusalem and round about unto Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ.

20 Yea, so have I b strived to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should build upon another mans c foundation:

21 But as it is d written, To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see: and they e have not heard, shall understand.

22 For which cause also I have been much f hindred from coming to you.

23 But now having no more place in these parts, & having f a great desire these many years to come unto you:

24 Whensoever I take my journey into g Spain, I will come to you: for I trust to see you in my journey, and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first I be somwhat filled with your company.

25 But now I go to Jerusalem, g to minister unto the saints.

26 For it hath pleased them of h Macedonia and Achaia, to make a certain contribution for the poor saints which are at Jerusalem.

27 It hath pleased them verily, and their debtors they are. For if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, their k duty is also to minister unto them in carnal things.

28 When therefore I have performed this, and have sealed to them this l fruit, I will come by you into Spain.

29 And I am sure, that when I come unto you, I shall come in the m fulness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ.

30 Now I beseech you brethren, for y Lord Jesus Christs Take, and for y love of y Spirit, y ye n strive together with me, in your prayers to God for me,

31 That I may be o delivered from them that do not believe in Judea, & that my service which I have for Jerusalem, may be accepted of the saints:

32 That I may come unto you with joy p by the will of God, and may with you be refreshed.

33 Now the q God of peace be with you all. Amen.

CHAP. XVI.

Paul willeth the brethren to greet many. 17 Adviseth to beware of those which cause dissention.

I a Commend unto you Phebe our sister, which is a servant of the church which is at Cenchrea:

2 That ye receive her in the Lord, as becometh saints, and that ye assist her in whatsoever business she hath need of you: for she hath been b a succourer of many, and of my self also.

3 Greet c Priscilla and Aquila my helpers in Christ Jesus:

The first Epistle of PAUL the apostle, to the CORINTHIANS.

CHAP. I.

After his salusing, and thanksgiving,
10 The apostle exhorteth to unity.

PAul called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ, a through the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother,

2 Unto the church of God which is at Corinth, to them that are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all that c in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ our LORD, both theirs and ours:

3 Grace be unto you, and peace from God our Father, and from the LORD Jesus Christ.

4 I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ,

5 That d in every thing ye are enriched by him, in all utterance, and in all knowledge;

6 Even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you:

7 So that ye come behind in no gift; e waiting for the coming of our LORD Jesus Christ:

8 Who shall also confirm you f unto the end, that ye may be blameless in the day of our LORD Jesus Christ.

9 God is g faithful, by whom ye were called unto the h fellowship of his son Jesus Christ our LORD.

10 Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly m joyned together in the same mind, and in the same judgment.

11 For it hath been n declared unto me of you, my brethren, by them which are of the house of Chloe, that there are o contentions among you.

12 Now this I say, that every one of you p saith, I am of Paul, & I of Apollo, and I of Cephas, and I of Christ.

13 Is Christ q divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye baptized in the name of Paul?

14 I thank God, that r baptized none of you, but Crispus & s Gajus;

15 Lest any should say that I had baptized in mine own name.

16 And I baptized also the houshold of Stephanas: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other.

17 For Christ sent me t not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not with u wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect.

18 x For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish y foolishness; but unto us which are saved, it is z the power of God.

19 For it is a written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.

20 Where is the a wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?

21 For b after that, in the wisdom of God, the world by c wisdom knew not God, it pleased God d by y foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.

22 For the Jews require e a sign, and the Greeks seek after f wisdom.

23 But we preach Christ crucified, un-

1 Pet. 4. 10. even as f the LORD gave to every man?
g 1 Cor. 4. 6. 6 I have planted, Apollo watered; but God gave the increaſe.
7 So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth;
but God that giveth the increaſe.
8 Now he that planteth, and he that watereth, are one: and every man ſhall receive his h own reward, according to his own labour.
9 For we are labourers i together with God: ye are Gods husbandry, ye are Gods k buildings.
10 According to the g grace of God which is given unto me, as a wiſe maſter-builder I have laid the foundation, and l another buildeth thereon.
But let every man take heed how m he buildeth thereupon.
11 For other foundation can no man lay, than n that is laid, o which is Jeſus Chriſt.
12 Now if any man build upon this foundation, a gold, ſilver, precious ſtones, wood, hay, ſtubble;
13 Every mans work ſhall be made p manifeſt: for the day ſhall declare it, becauſe it ſhall be revealed by fire; and the fire ſhall try every mans work, of what ſort it is.
14 If any mans work q abide which he hath built thereupon, he ſhall receive a reward.
15 If any mans work ſhall be burned, he ſhall ſuffer loſs: but he himſelf ſhall be ſaved, yet ſo as by fire.
16 Know ye not that ye are the r temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?
17 If any man defile the temple of God, him ſhall God deſtroy: for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.
18 Let no man deceive himſelf: if any man among you ſeemeth to be wiſe in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wiſe.
19 For the wiſdom of this world is fooliſhneſs with God: for it is written, s He taketh the wiſe in their own craftineſs.
20 And again, The LORD knoweth the thoughts of the wiſe, that they are vain.
21 Therefore let no man glory in men: for t all things are yours;
22 Whether u Paul, or Apollo, or Cephas, or the b world, or life, or death, or things preſent, or things to come;
all are yours;
23 And ye are Chriſts, and Chriſt
x is God.

CHAP. IV.

1 Ministers of them. 15. The apostles are our fathers in Christ.

LEt a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, a and stewards of the mysteries of God.

2 Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found b faithful.

3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man's judgment: yea, I c judge not mine own self.

4 For I know nothing by my self; yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord.

5 Therefore judge nothing d before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of e hearts: & then shall every man have f praise of God.

6 And these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to my self, & to Apollo, for your sakes: that ye might learn in us not to think g of men above that h is written, that no one of you be puffed up for one against another.

7 For who maketh thee to i differ from another? and what hast thou that thou didst not receive? now if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory as if thou hadst not received it?

8 Now ye are k full, now ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us: and I would to God ye did reign, that we also might reign with you.

9 For I think that God hath set forth us the apostles last, as it were l appointed to death: for we are made a m spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men.

10 We are n fools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ: we are weak, but ye are strong: ye are honourable, but we are despised.

11 Even unto this present hour we both o hunger and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwelling place.

12 And labour, p working with our own hands: being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it:

13 Being defamed, we intreat: we are made as the r filth of the world, and are the off-scouring of all things unto this day.

14 I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloved sons I warn you.

15 For though you have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through s gospel.

16 Wherefore I beseech you, be ye t followers of me.

17 For this cause have u I sent unto you Timotheus, who is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who shall bring you into remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, as x I teach every where in every church.

18 Now some are y puffed up, as though I would z not come to you.

19 But I will come to you shortly, if the LORD will, and will know, not the speech of them which are puffed up, but the power.

20 For the kingdom of God is not in word, but in a power.

21 What will ye, shall I come unto you with a b rod, or in love, and in the spirit of meekness?

a 2 Cor. 10. 6.

CHAP. V.

1 They incestuous person, & is cause rather of shame, than of rejoicing.

IT is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, & such fornication, as is not so much as named amongst the b Gentiles, that one should have his father's wife.

2 And ye are c puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you.

3 For I verily as absent in body, but d present in spirit, have judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed,

4 In the name of our LORD Jesus Christ, when ye are e gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ,

5 To f deliver such an one unto Satan for the g destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the LORD Jesus.

6 Your h glorying is not good: know ye not that a i little leaven leaveneth the whole lump?

7 Purge out therefore the k old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even Christ our passover is l sacrificed for us:

8 Therefore let us keep the m feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

9 I wrote unto you in an epistle, n not to company with fornicators.

10 Yet not altogether with the fornicators o of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters: for then must ye needs go p out of the world.

11 But now I have written unto you, not to keep company, if any man q is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner, with such an one, r no not to eat.

12 For what have I to do to judge them also that are without? do not ye judge them that are within?

13 But them that are without, s God judgeth. Therefore t put away from among your selves that wicked person.

CHAP. VI.

1 Of going to law. 9 The unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

DAre any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the a unjust, & not before the saints?

2 Do ye not know that the b saints shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters?

3 Know ye not that we shall c judge angels? how much more things that pertain to this life?

4 If then ye have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are d least esteemed in the church.

5 I speak to your shame. Is it so that there is e not a wise man amongst you? no not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren?

6 But a brother goeth to law with brother, & that before the f unbelievers.

7 Now therefore there is utterly a fault g among you, because ye go to law one with another. Why do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer your selves to be defrauded?

8 Nay, you do wrong and h defraud, and that your brethren.

9 Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit i the kingdom of God? Be not deceived; neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor k effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind,

10 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards,

Lord, If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away.
13 And q the woman which hath an husband that believeth not, and if he be pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him.
14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else were your children r unclean, but now are they s holy.
15 But if the unbelieving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such t cases:
but God hath called us u to peace.
16 For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt x save thy husband? Or how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife?
17 But as God hath y distributed to every man, as the Lord hath called every one, so let him z walk: and so ordain I in all churches.
18 Is any man a called being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised: is any called in uncircumcision?
let him not become circumcised.
19 b Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the c keeping of commandments of God.
20 Let every man d abide in the same calling wherein he was called.
21 Art thou called e being a servant?
care not for it: but if thou mayest be made free, use it rather.
22 For he that is called in the LORD, e being a servant, is f LORD's g freeman: likewise also he that is called e being free, is Christ's servant.
23 Ye are bought with a price; be not ye the h servants of men.
24 Brethren, let every man wherein he is called, therein i abide with God.
25 Now concerning virgins, I have k no commandment of f LORD: yet I give my judgment as one f hath obtained mercy of f Lord to be faithful.
26 I suppose therefore that this is good for the present m distress, I say, that it is good for a man so to be.
27 Art thou x bound unto a wife?
seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife.
28 But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned: and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Nevertheless, such shall y have trouble in the flesh:
but I spare you.
29 But this I say, brethren, the time is short. It remaineth, that both they f have wives, be as though they had none; 30 And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoyced not; and they f buy, as though they f possessed not; 31 And they that use this world, as not abusing it: for the fashion of this world z passeth away.
32 But I would have you without a carefulness. He that is unmarried, careth for the things that belong to f Lord, how he may x please the Lord:
33 But he that is married careth for the things that are of the y world, Prov.
how he may please his wife.
34 There is difference also between a wife and a virgin: the unmarried woman careth for the things of the LORD, f that she may be holy, both in body and in spirit: but he that is married careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.
35 And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a a snare upon you, but for that which b is comely, and that you may c attend upon the Lord without distraction.
36 But if a man

‡ Acts v. 10. 15. 10. b 1 Co. 14. 40. f Luk. 2. 37. and 1. 74.

36 But if any man think that he behaveth himself uncomely toward his virgin, if she pass the flower of her age, and need so require, a let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them marry.

37 Nevertheless, he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart, that he will keep his virgin, doth well.

38 So then, he that giveth her in marriage, doth well: but he b giveth her not in marriage, doth better.

39 The wife is c bound by the law as long as her husband liveth; but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will, only b in the LORD.

40 But she is happier if she so abide, after my judgment: and I think also that I have the spirit of God.

CHAP. VIII.

1 To abstain from meats offered to idols. 8 Not to abuse our liberty, &c.

NOw as touching things a offered unto idols, we know that we all have knowledge. b Knowledge puffeth up, but charity edifieth.

2 And if any man think that he d knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

3 But if any man love God, the same e is known of him.

4 As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, & that there is none other God but one God.

5 For though there be that f are called gods, whether in heaven or in earth (as there be g gods many, and lords many)

6 But to us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, & we in him, and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, & i we by him.

7 Howbeit, there is not in every man that knowledge: for some with conscience of the idol unto this hour, eat it as a thing offered unto an idol; and their conscience being weak, is m defiled.

8 But n meat commendeth us not to God: for neither if we eat, are we the better: neither if we eat not, are we the worse.

9 But take heed lest by any means this o liberty of yours become p a stumbling-block to them that are weak.

10 For if any man see thee which hast q knowledge sit at meat in r idols temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weak, s be emboldned to eat those things which are offered to idols?

11 And t through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom y Christ died?

12 But when ye sin so against the brethren, and t wound their weak conscience, ye sin u against Christ.

13 Wherefore x if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend.

CHAP. IX.

1 He asserteth his liberty. 7 The minister ought to live by the gospel.

AM I not an apostle? am I a not free? have I not b seen Jesus Christ our Lord? are not you my work in y Lord?

2 If I be not an apostle unto others, yet doubtless I am to you: for c the seal of mine apostleship are ye in y Lord.

3 Mine answer to them that do d examine me, is this,

4 Have we not power e to eat and

5 Have we not power to lead about a f sister a wife as well as other apostles, & as the brethren or g Lord, & Cephas?

6 Or I only and Barnabas, have not we power to forbear g working?

7 Who goeth h a warfare any time at his own charges? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock?

8 Say I these things as a man? or saith not the law the same also?

9 For it is written in the law of Moses, Thou shalt i not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. k Doth God take care for oxen?

10 Or saith he it altogether for our sakes? l for our sakes, no doubt, this is written, y he that m ploweth should plow in hope: and he that thresheth in hope, should be partaker of his hope.

11 If n we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your o carnal things?

12 If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? Nevertheless, we have not used this power; but p suffer all things, lest we should q hinder the gospel of Christ.

13 Do ye not know that they which minister about holy things, r live of the things of the temple? s and they which wait at the altar, are partakers with the altar?

14 Even so hath the Lord ordained, that they which t preach the gospel, should live t of the gospel.

15 But I have u used none of these things. Neither have I written these things, that it should be so done unto me: for it were better for me to die, than that any man should make my x glorying void.

16 For though I preach the gospel, I have y nothing to glory of: z for necessity is laid upon me, yea, wo is unto me if I preach not the gospel.

17 For if I do this thing a willingly, I have a reward: but if against my will, a dispensation of the gospel is committed unto me.

18 What is my b reward then? Verily, that when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, that I abuse not my power in the gospel.

19 For though I be free from all men, yet have I made my self c servant unto all, that I might gain the more.

20 And unto the d Jews, I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews: to them that are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law:

21 To them that are e without law, as without law, (being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ) that I might gain them that are without law.

22 To the f weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some.

23 And this I do for the gospels sake, that I might be g partaker thereof with you.

24 Know ye not that they which h run in a race, run all, but i one receiveth y prize? k So run that ye may obtain.

25 And every man that l striveth for the mastery, is temperate in all things: Now, they do it to obtain a corruptible crown, but we an m incorruptible.

26 I therefore so run, not as n uncertainly: so fight I, not as one that beateth the air:

27 But I keep under o my body, and bring

CHAP. X.

1 The Jews sacraments. 6 are our types, 7 their punishments.

MOreover, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were a under the cloud, and all passed through the sea:
2 And were all b baptized unto Moses in the cloud, and in the sea:
3 And did all eat the same c spiritual meat;
4 And did all drink the same c spiritual drink: (for they drank of that spiritual rock that f followed them: and that rock was g Christ.)
5 But with many of them God was not well pleased: for they i were overthrown in the wilderness.
6 Now these things were k our examples, to l intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted.
7 Neither be ye idolaters, m as were some of them, as it is written, The people sate down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.
8 Neither let us commit fornication, n as some of them committed, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand.
9 Neither let us tempt Christ, o as some of them also tempted, and were p destroyed of serpents.
10 Neither murmur ye, q as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer.
11 Now all these things happed unto them for ensamples: and they are written for our r admonition, upon whom the ends of s world are come.
12 Wherefore let him that t thinketh he standeth, t take heed lest he fall.
13 There hath no temptation taken you, but such as is u common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted x above that ye are able; but will y with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.
14 Wherefore my dearly beloved, z flee from idolatry.
15 I speak as to wise men: a judge ye what I say.
16 The b cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the c communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?
17 For we being many are one bread, and d one body: for we are all partakers of that one bread.
18 Behold Israel e after the flesh: are not they which eat of the sacrifices, partakers of the altar?
19 What say I then? that the idol f is any thing, or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is any thing?
20 But I say, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to h devils and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils.
21 i Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lords table, and of the table of devils.
22 Do we k provoke the Lord to jealousie? are we l stronger than he?
23 All things are lawful for me, but all things are not m expedient: all things are lawful for me, but all things edifie not.
24 Let no man n seek his own: but every man another's wealth.
25 o Whatsoever is sold in the shambles, that eat, asking no question for conscience sake.
26 For p the earth is the Lords, and the fulness thereof.
27 If any of them that believe not, bid you q a feast, & ye be disposed to go; whatsoever is set before you, eat, asking no question for conscience sake.
28 But g if any man say unto you, This is offered in sacrifice unto idols, eat not, r for his sake that shewed it, & for conscience sake. The earth is the Lords, and the fulness thereof.
29 Conscience, I say, not thine own, but of the others: for why is s my liberty judged of another mans conscience?
30 For, if I t by grace be a partaker, why am I evil spoken of for that, for which I give thanks?
31 Whether therefore ye u eat or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God.
32 x Give none offence, neither to the Jews, nor to the Gentiles, nor to the church of God.
33 Even as I y please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.

CHAP. XI.

He reproveth them for divers abuses in their holy assemblies.

BE ye followers of me, even a as I also am of Christ.
2 Now b I praise you, brethren, that you remember me in all things, and keep the ordinances, as I delivered them to you.
3 But I would have you know, that the head of every man is c Christ: and the head of the woman is the man, and the head of Christ d is God.
4 Every man e praying or prophesying, having his head covered, f dishonoureth his head.
5 But every g woman that prayeth or prophesieth with her head uncovered, dishonoureth her head: for that is even all one as if she were shaven.
6 For if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorn: but if it be a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered.
7 For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as he is the h image and i glory of God: but the woman is the k glory of the man.
8 For the man is not of the woman: but the woman of the man.
9 Neither was the man created for the woman, but the woman for l the man.
10 For this cause ought the woman to have power on her head, because of the m angels.
11 Nevertheless, neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man n in the Lord.
12 For as the woman is of the man: even so is the man also by the woman: but all things o of God.
13 p Judge in your selves: is it comely q a woman pray unto God uncovered?
14 Doth not even q nature it self teach you, that if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him?
15 But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a covering.
16 But if any man seem to be r contentious, we have no such custom, neither the churches of God.
17 Now in this s I declare unto you, I praise you not, that s you come together not for the better, but for the worse.
18 For first of all, when ye come together gether in the u church, I hear that there be x divisions among you, and I y partly believe it.

19 For there z must be also heresies a among you, b they which are approved may be made manifest among you.

20 When ye come together therefore into one place, this is not to eat the Lords supper.

21 For c in eating every one taketh before other his own supper: & one is d hungry, and another is d drunken.

22 What, have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or e despise ye the church of God, f and shame them that have not? what shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.

23 For I have g received of the LORD, that which also I delivered unto you, that the LORD Jesus, the same night in which he was betrayed, took bread:

24 And when he had h given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, i eat, this is my body, which is k broken for you: this do in remembrance of me.

25 After the same manner also he l took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the l new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lords death m till he come.

27 Wherefore, whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord n unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the LORD.

28 But let a man o examin himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup.

29 For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, p eateth and drinketh p damnation to himself, not discerning the LORDS body.

30 For this cause many are q weak & sickly among you, & many r sleep.

31 For if we would s judge our selves, we should not be judged.

32 But when we are judged, we are t chastened of the Lord, t we should not be u condemned with the world.

33 Wherefore my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another.

34 And if any man hunger, let him eat at home, that ye come not together unto condemnation. And the rest will I x set in order when I come.

CHAP. XII.

1 Spiritual gifts, 7 ought to profit.

NOw concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you a ignorant.

2 Ye know that ye were Gentiles, b carried away unto these dumb idols, even as ye were led.

3 Wherefore I give you to understand, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God, calleth Jesus accursed: and that no man c can say that Jesus is c LORD, but by the holy Ghost.

4 Now there are diversities d of gifts, but the same Spirit.

5 And there are differences e of administrations, but the same LORD.

6 And there are diversities f of operations, but it is the same God, which g worketh all in all.

7 But the manifestation of h Spirit is given to every man to profit withall.

8 For to one is given by the Spirit, the word of i wisdom, to another the word of k knowledge by the same Spirit:

k Mat. 13. 11. Isai. 50. 4.

9 To another l faith by the same Spirit: to another the gifts of healing m by the same Spirit:

10 To another the n working of miracles, to another o prophecy, to another p discerning of spirits, to another divers q kinds of tongues, to another the r interpretation of tongues.

11 But all these worketh that one and the self-same Spirit, dividing to every man severally s as he will.

12 For as the body t is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ.

13 For by one Spirit are we u all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free: and have been all made to drink into one Spirit.

14 For the x body is not one member, but many.

15 If the y foot shall say, because I am not the hand, I am not of the body: is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? if the whole were hearing, where were z smelling?

18 But now hath God z set the members, a every one of them in the body, as it hath a pleased him.

19 And if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are they many members, yet but one body.

21 And the a eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again, the c head to the foot, I have no need of you.

22 Nay, much more those members of the body which seem to be more feeble, are necessary.

23 And those members of the body, which we think to be less honorable, upon these we d bestow more abundant honour, and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness.

24 For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered e body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked:

25 That there should be d no schism in the body: but f the members should have e the same care one for another.

26 And whether one f member suffer, all the members suffer with it: or one member be honoured, all the members rejoyce with it.

27 Now g ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular.

28 And God hath set some in the b church, first i apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after y miracles, then gifts of healings, k helps, l governments, diversities of tongues.

29 Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all workers of miracles?

30 Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret?

31 But m covet earnestly the best gifts: & yet shew I unto you n a more excellent way.

CHAP. XIII.

THough I speak with the tongues of a men & of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass or a tinkling cymbal.

2 And though I have the b gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, & all knowledge: and though I have all faith, so that I could c remove mountains, and have no charity, I am d nothing.

CHAP. XV.

3 By Christs resurrection, 12 he proveth the necessity of ours, against such as deny it.

MOreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which a I preached unto you, which also you have b received, and wherein ye stand;

2 By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have c believed in vain.

3 For I delivered unto you d first of all, that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins, according to the scriptures,

4 And that he was buried, and that he rose again the e third day, according to the scriptures:

5 And that he was seen of Cephas, then of the f twelve.

6 After that, he was seen of above g five hundred brethren at once: of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep.

7 After that he was seen h of James, then of all the apostles.

8 And last of all he was seen of me also, as of i one born out of due time.

9 For I am the k least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.

10 But by the l grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me, was not in vain; but I laboured m more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.

11 Therefore whether it were I, or they, so n we preach, and so ye believed.

12 Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some o among you, that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is p Christ not risen.

14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and q your faith is also vain.

15 Yea, and we are found r false witnesses of God, because we have testified of God, that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up if so be that the dead rise not.

16 For if the dead rise not, then is s not Christ raised.

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain, ye are yet t in your sins.

18 Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ, u are perished.

19 If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all y men most miserable.

20 But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the x first fruits of them that slept.

21 For since by man came a death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall b all be made alive.

23 But every man in his c own order. Christ the first-fruits, afterward they that are Christs, at his coming.

24 Then cometh the d end, when he shall have delivered up y kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule, and all authority, and power.

25 For he must f reign till he hath put all enemies under his feet.

26 The last enemy that shall be destroyed, is f death.

27 For h he hath put all things under i his feet: but when he saith, all things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted which did put all things under him.

28 And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that k God may be all in all.

29 Else what shall they do, which are l baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead?

30 And why stand we in m jeopardy every hour?

31 I protest by your rejoycing which I have in Christ Jesus our LORD, I n die daily.

32 If after the manner of men I have o fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise not? let us p eat and drink; for to morrow we die.

33 q Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners.

34 Awake r to righteousness, & sin not: for some have not the knowledge of God: I speak this to your shame.

35 But some man will say, s How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come?

36 t Thou fool, that which thou sowest is not quickened except it die.

37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain.

38 But u God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, & another of birds.

40 There are also x celestial bodies, & bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory.

42 y So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption, it is raised in incorruption.

43 It is sown in a dishonour, it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness, it is raised in power.

44 It is sown a natural body, it is raised b a spiritual body. There is a natural body, & there is a spiritual body.

45 And so it is written, The first man Adam was made c a living soul, y last Adam was made d a quickning spirit.

46 Howbeit, that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural: and afterward that which is spiritual.

47 The first man is of the earth earthy: the e second man is f the LORD from heaven.

48 As is g earthy, such are they that are earthy: and as is the g heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.

49 And as we have born the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the h image of the heavenly.

50 Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood i cannot inherit the kingdom of God: neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

51 Behold, I shew you a mystery: we shall k not all sleep, but we shall all be l changed, 52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, m at the last trump, (for the crumper shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed:)

53 For this corruptible must n put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is o written, Death is swallowed up in victory.

55 O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy p victory?

56 The q sting of death is sin, and the strength of sin is the law.

57 But thanks be to God, which r giveth us the victory, through our Lord Jesus Christ.

58 Therefore my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always s abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as you know that your labour is t not in vain in the Lord.

CHAP. XVI.

1 The brethrens wants must be relieved.

NOw concerning the collection for the saints, as I have given order to the churches of Galatia, even a so do you.

2 b Upon the first day of the week, let every one of you lay by him b in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come.

3 And when I come, whomsoever you shall approve by your letters, them will I send to bring your c liberality unto Jerusalem.

4 And if it be meet that d I go also, they shall go with me.

5 Now I will come unto you, when I shall pass e through Macedonia: (for I do pass through Macedonia)

6 And it may be that I will abide, yea, and winter with you, that ye may f bring me on my journey, whithersoever I go.

7 For I will not see you now by the way, but I trust to carry a while with you, g if the Lord permit.

8 But I will tarry h at Ephesus until Pentecost.

9 For i a great door and effectual is opened unto me, and there are many adversaries.

10 Now if Timotheus come, see that he may be with you k without fear: for he worketh the work of the Lord, as I also do.

11 Let no man therefore l despise him: but conduct him forth in peace, that he may come unto me: for I look for him with the brethren.

12 As touching our brother Apollos, I greatly desired him to come unto you, with the brethren, but his will was not at all to come m at this time: but he will come when he shall have convenient time.

13 Watch ye, n stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong.

14 Let all your things be done with o charity.

15 I beseech you brethren, (ye know the house of Stephanas, that it is the first-fruits of Achaia, and that they have p addicted themselves to the ministry of the saints)

16 That ye q submit your selves unto such, and to every one that helpeth with us and laboureth.

17 I am glad of the coming of Stephanas, and Fortunatus, and Achaicus: for that which was lacking on your part, they have r supplied.

18 For they have s refreshed my spirit and yours: therefore acknowledge ye them that are such.

19 The t churches of Asia salute you: Aquila and Priscilla salute you much in the Lord, with the u church that is in their house.

20 All the brethren greet you: greet ye one another with x an holy kiss.

21 The salutation of me Paul with y mine own hand.

22 If any man ∞ love not the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be Anathema, Maranatha.

23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

24 My love be with you a all in Christ Jesus, Amen.

CHAP. I.

1 The Apostle encourageth them against troubles, 15 and excuseth his not coming unto them.

PAul an apostle of Jesus Christ, by the will of God, and a Timothy our brother, unto the church of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints which are in all Achaia:

2 Grace be to you and peace, from God our Father, and b from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the c Father of mercies, & the God of all comfort, 4 Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, d by the comfort wherewith we our selves are comforted of God.

5 For as the sufferings of Christ e abound in us, so our consolation also f aboundeth by Christ.

6 And whether we be afflicted, it is for your g consolation and salvation, which is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation.

7 And our hope of you is stedfast, knowing that as you are h partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.

8 For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of our trouble which came to us in Asia, i we were pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life.

9 But we had the k sentence of death in our selves, that we should not trust in our selves, but in God which raiseth the dead:

10 Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust, that he l will yet deliver us:

11 You also m helping together by prayer for us, that for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons, thanks may be given by many on our behalf.

12 For our rejoycing is this, the n testimony of our conscience, p in o simplicity policy and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-wards.

13 For we write none other things unto you, than what you p read or acknowledge, and I trust you shall acknowledge even to the end.

14 As also you have acknowledged us in part, that we are your rejoycing, even as q ye also are ours in the day of the Lord Jesus.

15 And in this confidence I was minded r to come unto you before, that you might have s a second benefit:

16 And t to pass by you into Macedonia, and to come again out of Macedonia unto you, and of you to be brought on my way toward Judea.

17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I use lightness? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to v the flesh, that with me there should be w yea, yea, and nay, nay?

18 But as God is x true, our word toward you, was not yea and nay.

19 For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by me, and Silvanus, and Timotheus, was not yea and nay, but y in him was yea.

20 For all the promises of God in him are Yea, and z in him Amen, unto the glory of God by us.

21 Now he which stablisheth us with you, in Christ, and hath a anointed us, is God.

22 Who hath also b sealed us, & given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

23 Moreover, I call God for a record upon my soul, that c to spare you I came not as yet unto Corinth.

24 Not for that we have d dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for by faith ye stand.

CHAP. II.

1 The reason of his not coming. 6 Of the excommunicate person.

BUt I determined this with my self, that I would not come again to you in a heaviness.

2 For if I b make you sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the same which is made sorry by me?

3 And c I wrote this same unto you, lest when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoyce, having confidence d in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.

4 For out of much e affliction and anguish of heart, I wrote unto you with many tears, not that ye should be grieved, but that ye might know f the love which I have more abundantly unto you.

5 But if any have caused grief, he hath not grieved me, but in part, that I may not overcharge you all.

6 Sufficient to such a man is this g punishment, h w is inflicted on many.

7 So that contrariwise, ye ought rather i to forgive him, & comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be k swallowed up with over much sorrow.

8 Wherefore I beseech you, that you would k confirm your love towards him.

9 For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye be l obedient in all things.

10 To whom ye forgive any thing, I m forgive also: for if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes forgave I it, n in the person of Christ:

11 Lest Satan should get n an advantage of us: for we are o not ignorant of his p devices.

12 Furthermore, when I came to Troas to q preach Christs gospel, r & a door was opened unto me of s the Lord;

13 I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother, but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into Macedonia.

14 Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us t to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest v the savour of his knowledge by us in every place.

15 For we are x unto God a sweet savour of Christ, in them that are saved, and in them that y perish.

16 To the one we are the savour of u death unto death; and to the other, the savour x of life unto life. And who is y sufficient for these things?

17 For we are not as many, which z corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ.

CHAP. III.

The commendation of Pauls ministry.

DO we a begin again to commend our selves? or need we, as some others, epistles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you?

2 b Ye are our epistle c written in our hearts, known and read of all men.

3 Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ, ministred by us, written not with ink, but d with the Spirit of the living God: not in tables of stone, but in fleshly tables of the heart.

4 And such e trust have we through Christ to God-ward.

5 Not that we are f sufficient of our selves to think any thing as of our selves: but our sufficiency is of God;

6 Who also hath made us g able ministers of the new testament, not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life.

7 But if the ministration of death written, and ingraven in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not stedfastly behold the face of Moses, for the glory of his countenance, which glory was to be h done away:

8 How shall not the ministration i of the spirit be rather glorious?

9 For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration m of righteousness exceed in glory.

10 For even that which was made n glorious, had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth.

11 For if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which o remaineth is glorious.

12 Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great p plainness of speech.

13 And not as Moses, which q put a vail over his face, that the children of Israel could not stedfastly look to the r end of that which is abolished.

14 But their minds were s blinded: for until this day remaineth the same vail untaken away, in the reading of the old testament; which vail t is done away in Christ.

15 But even unto this day, when Moses is read, v a vail is upon their heart.

16 Nevertheless, when it u shall turn to the Lord, the vail shall x be taken away.

17 Now the Lord is that Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there y is liberty.

18 But we all with z open face, beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same

1 THerefore ſeeing we have a this miniſtry, as we have received mercy, we faint not:

2 But have renounced the b hidden things of diſhoneſty, not walking in craftineſs, nor handling c word of God deceitfully; but by c manifeſtation of the truth, commending our ſelves to every man's conſcience in the ſight of God.

3 But if our goſpel be d hid, it is hid to them that are e loſt:

4 In whom the God of this world hath f blinded the minds of them d believe not, leſt the light of the glorious goſpel of Chriſt, who is the g image of God, ſhould ſhine unto them.

5 For we preach not h our ſelves, but Chriſt Jeſus the Lord, and our ſelves your ſervants for Jeſus ſake.

6 For God, who commanded the i light to ſhine out of darkneſs, hath ſhined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God, in the face of Jeſus Chriſt.

7 But we have this k treaſure in earthen veſſels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.

8 We are troubled on every ſide, yet l not diſtreſſed; we are perplexed, but not in deſpair;

9 Perſecuted, but m not forſaken; caſt down, but not deſtroyed;

10 Always bearing about in the body the n dying of the LORD Jeſus, that o the life alſo of Jeſus might be made manifeſt in our body.

11 For we which live are alway delivered unto death for p Jeſus ſake, that the life alſo of Jeſus might be made manifeſt in our mortal fleſh.

12 So then q death worketh in us, but r life in you.

13 We having the s ſame ſpirit of faith, according as it is written, I t believed, & therefore have I ſpoken: we alſo believe, and therefore ſpeak;

14 Knowing, that he which u raiſed up the Lord Jeſus, ſhall raiſe up us alſo by Jeſus, and ſhall preſent us with you.

15 For x all things are for your ſakes, y the abundant grace might through the thankſgiving of many, redound to the glory of God.

16 For which cauſe we faint not; but though our outward man periſh, yet y inward man is renewed day by day.

17 For our z light affliction which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory.

18 While we look not at the things which are ſeen, but at the things which are a not ſeen: for the things which are ſeen, are temporal; but the things which are not ſeen, are eternal.

CHAP. V.

We muſt all appear before Chriſt.

a Rom. 8. 38. b Heb. 11. 16. c Rom. 8. 22. d Rev. 19. 8. e Cor. 15. 53. f Rom. 7. 24.

FOr a we know, that if our earthly houſe of this tabernacle were diſſolved, we have b a building of God, an houſe not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

2 For in this c we groan earneſtly, deſiring to be clothed upon with our houſe which is from heaven:

3 If ſo be that being d clothed, we ſhall not be found naked.

4 For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being e burthened: not for that we would be f unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be ſwallowed up of life.

5 Now he that hath wrought us for g ſelf ſame thing, is God, who alſo hath given unto us g earneſt of g Spirit.

6 Therefore we are always confident, knowing h whilſt we are at home in the body, we are h abſent from the Lord.

7 (For we walk i by faith, not by ſight:)

8 We are confident, I ſay, and willing k rather to be abſent from the body, and to be preſent with the LORD.

9 Wherefore, we l labour, that whether preſent or abſent, we may be accepted of him.

10 For we muſt m all appear before n judgment-ſeat of Chriſt, that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

11 Knowing therefore the o terror of the LORD, we perſwade men; but we are made manifeſt unto God, and I truſt alſo, are made manifeſt in your conſciences.

12 For we commend not our ſelves again unto you, but give you occaſion o to glory on our behalf, p you may have ſomwhat to anſwer them which glory p in appearance, & not in heart.

13 For whether we be q beſides our ſelves, it is to God: or whether we be ſober, it is for your cauſe.

14 For the r love of Chriſt conſtraineth us, becauſe we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead:

15 And that he died for all, that they which live, ſhould not henceforth live unto themſelves, But u unto him which died for them, and roſe again.

16 Wherefore henceforth x know we no man after the fleſh: yea, though we have known Chriſt after the fleſh, yet now henceforth know we him y no more.

17 z Therefore if any man be in Chriſt, he is a new creature: old things are paſt away, behold, all things are become new.

18 And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himſelf b by Jeſus Chriſt, and hath given to us the a miniſtry of reconciliation, 19 To wit, that God was in Chriſt reconciling the b world unto himſelf, not imputing their treſpaſſes unto them, and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

20 Now then we are ambaſſadors for Chriſt, as though God did c beſeech you by us; we pray you in Chriſts ſtead, be ye reconciled to God.

21 For he hath made him to be d ſin for us, who knew no ſin, that we might be made y righteouſneſs of God in him.

53. c, 10. Rom. 4. 4, 5.

CHAP. VI.

Pauls faithfulneſs in the miniſtery.

WE then as a workers together with him, beſeech you alſo, that ye receive not the grace of God b in vain.

2 (For he ſaith, I have heard thee in a time c accepted, and in the day of ſalvation have I ſuccoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time: behold, now is the day of ſalvation.)

3 Giving d no offence in any thing, that the miniſtery be not blamed:

4 But in all things e approving our ſelves as the miniſters of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in neceſſities, in diſtreſſes,

5 In f ſtripes, in impriſonments, in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in faſtings, a 2 Co. 3. 10. b Mat. 13. 19. 23. Heb. 6. 8. c Iſal. 49. 8. Pſal. 32. 6. d 1 Co. 10. 32. Phil. 1. 10. e 2 Co. 2. 17. Rom. 2. 29. 11. 24.

6 By c pureness, by knowledge, by long-suffering, by kindness, by the holy Ghost, by love unfeigned,

7 By the word of truth, by d power of God, by the armour of righteousness, on the right hand, and on the left,

8 By e honour and dishonour, by evil report and good report: as deceivers, and yet true:

9 As unknown, and yet well known; as f dying, and behold, we live: as chastened, and not killed:

10 As sorrowful, yet alway g rejoycing: as m poor, yet making many rich: as having nothing, and yet n possessing all things.

11 O ye Corinthians, our mouth is open unto you, our heart is enlarged.

12 Ye are not straitned in us, but ye are straitned in your own bowels.

13 Now for a recompence in the same, (I speak as unto my children) be ye also enlarged.

14 Be ye not p unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath q light with darkness?

15 And what concord hath Christ with r Belial? or what part hath he that believeth, with an infidel?

16 And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for s ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath t said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

17 Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye u separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you,

18 And I will be a father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the LORD Almighty.

CHAP. VII.

1 Paul exhorteth to purity. 3 and shews his comfort in his afflictions.

HAving therefore these promises (dearly beloved) let us cleanse our selves from a all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

2 Receive us: we have wronged no man, we have b corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man.

3 I speak not this to condemn you: for I have said before, that you are in our hearts c to die & live with you.

4 Great is my boldness of speech toward you, great is my d glorying of you, I am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation.

5 For when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest; but we were troubled on every side; without were e fightings, within were f fears.

6 Nevertheless, g God that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by the h coming of Titus.

7 And not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your i mourning, your k fervent mind toward me, so that I rejoyced the more.

8 For though I made you l sorry with a letter, I do not repent, though I did repent: for I perceive that the same epistle made you sorry, though it were but for a season.

9 Now I rejoyce, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye m sorrowed to repentance: for ye were made sorry after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing.

10 For godly sorrow n worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: but the sorrow of the world worketh o death.

11 For behold, this self same thing that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what p carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of your selves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge! in all things ye have approved your selves to be clear in this matter.

12 Wherefore though I wrote unto you, I did it q not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear unto you.

13 Therefore we were comforted in your comfort, yea, and exceedingly r the more joyed we for the joy of Titus, because his spirit was r refreshed by you all.

14 For if I have boasted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed; but as we spake all things s to you, so truth, even so our boasting which I made before Titus is found a truth.

15 And his t inward affection is more abundant toward you, whilst he remembreth the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling you received him.

16 I u rejoyce therefore that I have confidence in you in all things.

CHAP. VIII.

Contribution to the Saints.

MOreover brethren, we do you to wit of the a grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia:

2 How that b in a great c ryal of affliction, the abundance of their joy, and their deep poverty abounded unto the riches of their liberality.

3 For to their c power (I bear record) yea and beyond their power they were willing of themselves:

4 Praying us with much intreaty, that we would receive the gift, and take upon us the d fellowship of the ministring to the saints.

5 And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gave their own selves e to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God.

6 Insomuch that we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also.

7 Therefore as ye f abound in every thing, in faith, in utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us: see that ye abound g in this grace also.

8 I speak h not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love.

9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was i rich, yet k for your sakes he became l poor, that ye m through his poverty might be rich.

10 And herein I give my n advice, for this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be forward a year ago.

11 Now therefore perform the doing of it, that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of p which p you have.

12 For if there be first q a willing mind, it is r accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 For I mean s not that other men be eased, and you burthened:

14 But by an equality, that now s at this t time your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want, that there may be equality:

17 So it is written, He that had gathered much, had nothing over, and he that had gathered little, had no lack.

16 But thanks be to God, which x put the ſame earneſt care into the heart of Titus for you.

17 For indeed, he accepted the exhortation, but being more forward, of his y own accord he went unto you.

18 And we have ſent with him the z brother, whoſe praiſe is in the goſpel, throughout all the churches.

19 And not that only, but who was alſo choſen of the churches to travel with us w this grace, which is adminiſtred by us a to the glory of the ſame Lord, and declaration of your ready mind.

20 Avoiding this, that no man ſhould blame us in this abundance which is adminiſtred by us:

21 Providing for b honeſt things, not only in the c ſight of the Lord, but alſo in the d ſight of men.

22 And we have ſent with them our brother, whom we have oftentimes e proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, upon the great confidence which I have in you.

23 Whether any do enquire of Titus, he is my partner, and fellow-helper concerning you; or our brethren be enquired of, they are the meſſengers of the churches, and the f glory of Chriſt.

24 Wherefore ſhew ye to them, and g before the churches, the proof of your love, and of our boaſting on your behalf.

CHAP. IX.

1 He ſheweth why he ſent Titus, 6 and exhorteth them up to a bountiful alms, 10 which ſhall yield increaſe.

FOr as touching the a miniſtring to the ſaints, it is ſuperfluous for me to write to you.

2 For I know the forwardneſs of your mind, for which I boaſt of you to them of Macedonia, that Achaia was ready a year ago, and your zeal hath b provoked very many.

3 Yet have I ſent the c brethren, leſt our boaſting of you ſhould be in vain on this behalf, that, as I ſaid, ye may be ready:

4 Leſt haply if they of d Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we ſay not you) ſhould be aſhamed in this ſame confident boaſting.

5 Therefore I thought it neceſſary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your f bounty, whereof ye had notice before, that the ſame might be ready, as a matter of bounty, not of e covetouſneſs.

6 But this I ſay, He which ſoweth ſparingly, ſhall reap ſparingly: and he which ſoweth f bountifully, ſhall reap g bountifully.

7 Every man according as he purpoſeth in his heart, ſo let him give, not h grudgingly, or of i neceſſity: for k God loveth a chearful giver.

8 And l God is able to make all grace abound toward you, that ye always having all ſufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work:

9 (As it is m written, He hath diſperſed abroad; he hath given to the poor: his righteouſneſs remaineth n for ever.

all p bountifulneſs, which cauſeth through us thankſgiving to God.

12 For the adminiſtration of this q ſervice, not only ſupplieth y want of the ſaints, but is abundant alſo by many thankſgivings unto God.

13 Whiles by the experiment of this miniſtration, they r glorify God for your profeſſed ſubjection unto s goſpel of Chriſt, and for your liberal diſtribution unto them, and unto all men:

14 And by their ſ prayer for you, which long after you for the exceeding t grace of God in you.

15 u Thanks be unto God for his unſpeakable gift.

CHAP. X.

Paul's authority againſt all adverſaries, 7 as well preſent as abſent.

NOw I Paul my ſelf beſeech you, a by the meekneſs and gentleneſs of Chriſt, who b in preſence am baſe among you, but being abſent b am bold toward you.

2 But I beſeech you, that I may not be bold when I am preſent, with that confidence wherewith I think to be bold againſt ſome which think of us, as if we c walked according to d fleſh.

3 For though we walk in the fleſh, we do not e war after the fleſh:

4 (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of ſtrong holds)

5 Caſting down f imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth it ſelf againſt the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the g obedience of Chriſt:

6 And having in a readineſs to h revenge all diſobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

7 Do ye look on things after the i outward appearance? if any man truſt to himſelf that he k is Chriſt's, let him of himſelf think this again, that as he is Chriſt's, even ſo are we Chriſt's.

8 For though I ſhould boaſt ſomewhat more of our authority, (which l the Lord hath given us for m edification, and not for your deſtruction,) I ſhould not be aſhamed:

9 That I may not ſeem as if I would n terrifie you by letters.

10 For his letters (ſay they,) are weighty and powerful, but his bodily preſence is weak, and his ſpeech o contemptible.

11 Let ſuch an one think this, that ſuch as we are in word by letters when we are abſent, ſo ſuch will we be alſo in deed when we are preſent.

12 For we dare not make our ſelves of the number, or compare our ſelves with ſome that r commend themſelves: but they meaſuring themſelves by themſelves, and comparing themſelves amongſt themſelves, are not wiſe.

13 But we will not boaſt of things without our meaſure, but ſ according to the meaſure of the rule which God hath diſtributed to us, a meaſure t to reach even unto you.

14 For we ſtretch not our ſelves beyond our meaſure, as though we reached not unto you, for we are come as far as to you alſo, in preaching y the goſpel of Chriſt:

15 Not boaſting of things without our meaſure, that is, of other mens labours, but having hope, when your faith is z increaſed, that we ſhall be enlarged by you according to our rule abundantly,

16 To preach the goſpel in the regions beyond you, and not to boaſt in another mans line, of things made ready to our hand.

18 For not he that commendeth himself is approved, but whom e the Lord commendeth.

CHAP. XI.

Paul's commendation of himself, and comparison with the other Apostles.

WOuld to God you could bear with me a little in my a folly, and indeed bear with me.
2 For I am jealous over you with godly jealousie, for I have b espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chast virgin to Christ.
3 But c I fear lest by any means, as the d serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be e corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.
4 For if f he that g cometh, preacheth b another Jesus whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him.
5 For I suppose I was not a whit
i behind the very chiefest apostles.
6 But though I be rude k in speech, yet not in knowledge; but we have been throughly made manifest among you in all things.
7 Have I committed an offence in m abasing my self, that you might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God freely?
8 I robbed other churches, taking n wages of them to do you service.
9 And when I was present with you o and wanted, I was chargeable to no man: for that p which I was lacking to me, the q brethren r came from Macedonia, supplied, and in all things I have kept my self from being burthensom unto you, and so will I keep my self.
10 As the truth of Christ is in me, no man shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia.
11 Wherefore? because I love you not? q God knoweth.
12 But what I do, that I will do, s I may r cut off occasion from them which desire occasion, y wherein they glory, they may be found even as we.
13 For such are false apostles, t deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the Apostles of Christ.
14 And no marvel, for Satan himself u is u transformed into an angel of light.
15 Therefore it is no great thing if x his ministers also be transformed as y ministers of righteousness, whose z end shall be according to their works.
16 I say again, Let no man think me a fool, if other wise, yet as a fool receive me, y I may boast my self a little.
17 That which I speak, I speak it a not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting.
18 Seeing that many glory b after the flesh, I will glory also.
19 For ye suffer fools gladly, seeing ye your selves c are wise.
20 For ye suffer if a man bring you into d bondage, if a man e devour you, if a man take of you, if a man f exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face.
21 I speak as concerning reproach, as though we had been g weak: howbeit, wherein soever any is bold, I speak foolishly, I am bold also.
22 Are they b Hebrews? so am I: are they Israelites? so am I: are they the seed of Abraham? so am I:
23 Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool,) h I am more: in labours more abundant: in stripes above measure: in prisons more frequent: in i deaths oft.
24 Of the Jews five times received
I m forty stripes save one.
25 Thrice was I beaten n with rods, once was I stoned, thrice I suffered p shipwrack: a night and a day I have been in the deep:
26 In q journeying often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils by mine r own countrymen, in perils by s heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in t sea, in perils f among false brethren, 27 In weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, t in hunger & thirst, in fastings often, in cold & nakedness.
28 Besides those things that are without, that which cometh upon me daily, u the care of all the churches.
29 Who is x weak, and I am not weak?
who is y offended, and I burn not?
30 If I must needs glory, I will glory of the things which z concern mine infirmities.
31 The God and a Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not.
32 In Damascus the b governor under Aretas the king, kept the city of the Damascens with a garison, desirous c to apprehend me:
33 And through d a window in a basket was I let down by the wall, and escaped his hands.

CHAP. XII.

Paul boasteth, not of revelations, but of his infirmities.

IT is a not expedient for me doubtless to glory, I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.
2 I knew a man b in Christ above fourteen years ago (whether in y body, I cannot tell, or whether out of y body
I cannot tell, God knoweth) such an one caught up to c the third heaven.
3 And I knew such a man (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell, God knoweth)
4 How d he was caught up into d paradise, & heard e unspeakable words, f which it is not lawful for a man to utter.
5 Of such an one will I glory; yet of my self I will not glory, but in f mine infirmities.
6 For though I would desire to glory,
I shall not be a fool: for I will say the truth. But now I forbear, lest any man should think of me g above that which he seeth me to be, or that he heareth of me:
7 And lest I should be h exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me i a thorn in the flesh, the k messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.
8 For this thing I besought the Lord l thrice, that it might depart from me.
9 And he said unto me, m My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the n power of Christ may rest upon me.
10 Therefore I o take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I p am weak, then am
I strong.
11 I am become a fool in glorying, ye have compelled me, for I ought to have been commended of you: for q in nothing am I behind the very chiefest

chiefest apostles, though I be nothing.

12 Truly the s signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs, & wonders, & mighty deeds.

13 For what is it wherein ye were inferior to other churches, except it be that I my self was t not burthensom to you? forgive me this wrong.

14 Behold, the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burthensom to you; for I seek u not yours, but you: for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.

15 And I will very gladly x spend and be y spent for you, though y more abundantly I love you, y less be loved.

16 But be it so, I did not burthen you: nevertheless being z crafty, I caught you with guile.

17 Did I a make a gain of you by any of them whom I sent unto you?

18 I desired Titus, and with him I sent a brother: did Titus make a gain of you? walked we not in the b same spirit? walked we not in the same c steps?

19 Again, think you that we excuse our selves unto you? we speak before God in Christ: but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your d edifying.

20 For I e fear lest when I come I shall not find you such as I would, & that I shall be found unto you such as ye would not, lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, f backbitings, whisperings, g swellings, tumults:

21 And lest when I come again, my God will h humble me among you, & that I shall i bewail many which have sinned already, and have not repented of the uncleanness, and fornication, and lasciviousness which they have committed.

25.6. Ezek. 9.4. 1 Cor. 5.2.

CHAP. XIII.

He threatneth obstinate sinners.

THis is the a third time I am coming to you: in the b mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.

2 I told you c before, and foretel you, as if I were present the second time, and being absent, now I write to them w heretofore have sinned, and to all other, that if I come again I will d not spare:

3 Since ye e seek a proof of Christ speaking in me, which to you-ward is not weak, but is mighty in you.

4 For though he was crucified through f weakness, yet he liveth by y power of God: for we also are weak in him, but we shall g live with him by the power of God toward you.

5 Examin your selves whether ye be h in the faith: prove your own selves: know ye not your own selves, how that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be i reprobates?

6 But I trust that ye shall know that we are not reprobates.

7 Now k I pray to God that ye do no evil, not that we should appear approved, but that ye should do that which is l honest, though we be as reprobates.

8 For we can do nothing m against the truth, but for the truth.

9 For we are glad when we are weak, and ye are strong: and this also we wish, even your n perfection.

10 Therefore I write these things being absent, lest being present I should use sharpness, according to the power which the LORD hath given me to edification, and not to destruction.

11 Finally, brethren, farewel: be perfect, be of good comfort, be of o one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you.

12 Greet one another p with an holy kiss.

13 All the saints salute you.

14 The q grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the r love of God, and the s communion of the holy Ghost, be with you all. Amen.

¶ The second epistle to the Corinthians, was written from Philippi, a city of Macedonia, by Titus and Lucas.

¶ The Epistle of PAUL the Apostle to the GALATIANS.

CHAP. I.

Paul wondereth that they have so soon left him and the gospel.

PAul an apostle, not of men, neither by man, a but by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead,

2 And all the brethren b which are with me, unto the b churches of Galatia:

3 Grace be to you and peace from God the Father, and from c our Lord Jesus Christ,

4 Who gave d himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this e present evil world, according to the will of God, and our Father:

5 f To whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

6 I marvel that ye are g so soon removed from him h called you into the grace of Christ, unto another gospel:

7 Which is not another; but there be i some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

8 But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach k any other gospel unto you, k than that we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

9 As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you, than that l ye have received, let him be accursed.

10 For do I now persuade men, or God? or do I seek to m please men? for if I m yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ.

11 But I certifie you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me, is not after man.

12 For I neither received it of man, neither was I o taught it, but by p the revelation of Jesus Christ.

13 For ye have heard of my conversation q in time past in y Jews religion, how that y beyond measure I persecuted y church of God, and wasted it:

14 And profited in the Jews religion above many my equals in mine own nation, being more exceedingly zealous of the traditions of my fathers.

15 But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mothers womb, and called me r by his grace,

16 To reveal his Son s in me, that I might preach him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood:

17 Neither went I up to Jerusalem to them which were apostles t before me, but I went into Arabia, and returned again unto Damascus.

21 Afterwards k I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia.

22 And was unknown by face unto l churches of Judea, m which were n in Christ.

CHAP. II.

Paul reproveth Peter at Antioch.

14 Then t fourteen years after, I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and took Titus with me also.

2 And I went up a by revelation, and communicated unto them that gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but privately to them which were of reputation, lest by any means I should b run, or had run in vain.

3 But neither Titus who was with me, being a Greek, was c compelled to be circumcised:

4 And that because of d false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spie out our liberty, which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage:

5 To whom we f gave place by subjection, no not for an hour, g that the truth of the gospel might continue h with you.

6 But of these, who i seemed to be somewhat, (whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me, God accepteth no mans person:) for they who seemed k to be somewhat, in conference added nothing to me.

7 But contrariwise, when they saw that l the gospel of the b uncircumcision was committed unto me, as l the gospel of the circumcision was unto Peter:

8 (For he that i wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was k mighty in me towards the Gentiles.)

9 And when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be l pillars, perceived m the grace f that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship, that we should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision.

10 Only they would that we should remember the poor, the same which I also was n forward to do.

11 But when Peter was come to Antioch, I withstood him o to the face, because he was to be blamed.

12 For before that certain came from James, p he did eat with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew, and separated himself, q fearing them which were of the circumcision.

13 And the r other Jews dissembled likewise with him, insomuch that Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation.

14 But when I saw that they walked not uprightly, according to the truth of the gospel, I said unto Peter before them all, If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of s Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why t compellest thou u Gentiles to live as do x Jews?

15 We who are y Jews by nature, and not z sinners of the Gentiles, 16 Knowing that a man is a not justified by b works of the law, but c by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, d that we might be justified by e faith of Christ, & not by f works of the law: for g by works of law shall no flesh be justified.

17 But if, while h we seek to be justified by Christ, we our selves also are found sinners, is therefore Christ the minister of sin? i God forbid.

18 For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make my self a transgressor.

19 For I k through the law l am dead to m law, that I might live unto God.

20 I am n crucified with Christ, Nevertheless I live, yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life o I now live in the flesh, I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and p gave himself for me.

21 I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the q law, then Christ is dead in r vain.

CHAP. III.

He asketh what moveth them to leave the faith, and hang on the law.

O Foolish Galatians! who hath a bewitched you, that you should not b obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?

2 This only would I learn of you, Received ye the c spirit by the works of the law, or by d a hearing of faith?

3 Are ye so foolish, having e begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?

4 Have ye suffered so many things f in vain? if it be yet in vain.

5 He g therefore that ministreth to you h spirit, and worketh i miracles among you, doth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

6 Even as Abraham k believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness.

7 Know ye therefore, that they which are of l faith, the same are the l children of Abraham.

8 And the scripture foreseeing that God would justifie the heathen m through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, n In thee shall all nations be blessed.

9 So then they which be of faith, are o blessed with faithful Abraham.

10 For p as many as are of the works of the law, are under q curse: for it is q written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.

11 But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, the just shall live by faith.

12 And r law is not of faith: but, The man s doth them, shall live in them.

13 Christ hath t redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for u us: for it is written, x Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree:

14 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive y promise of y Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I speak after the manner of men: though it be but a mans covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto.

16 Now z to Abraham and his seed were the z promises made: He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, a which is Christ.

17 And this I say, that the covenant that was b confirmed before of God in Christ, the law which was c four hundred & thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the promise of none effect.

18 For if the inheritance be of the law, it is no more of promise: but God d gave it to Abraham by promise.

19 Wherefore then serveth the law? It was added because of e transgressions, till the seed should come, to whom f promise was made, and it was ordained f by angels in the hand of a mediator.

20 Now a mediator is not a mediator of one, but God g is one.

21 Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a law given which could have given h life, verily i righteousness should have been by the law.

22 But the scripture hath k concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that l believe.

23 But before faith came, we m were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed.

24 Wherefore f law was n our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith.

25 But after that faith is come, we are o no longer under a school-master.

26 For ye are all the children of God by faith p in Christ Jesus.

27 For as many of you as have been q baptized into Christ, have put on Christ.

28 There is neither r Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus.

29 And if ye be Christs, then are ye Abrahams seed, and f heirs according to the promise.

CHAP. IV.

1 We were under the law till Christ came. 5 Christ freed us.

NOw a I say, that the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all,

2 But is b under tutors & governors, until f time appointed of the father.

3 Even so we, when we were children, were c in bondage under the elements of the world:

4 But when the d fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his son made of a woman, e made f under the law,

5 To g redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the h adoption of sons.

6 And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the i spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, k Abba, Father.

7 Wherefore thou are no more l a servant, but a son; & if a son, then an heir of God m through Christ.

8 Howbeit, then when n ye knew not God, ye did service unto them which by nature are no o gods.

9 But now after that ye have known God, or p rather are known of God, how q turn ye again to the weak and beggerly elements, whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage?

10 Ye r observe days, and moneths, and times, and years.

11 I am s afraid of you, lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain.

12 Brethren, I beseech you, t be as I am: for I am as ye are, ye have not injured me at all.

13 Ye know how through u infirmity of the flesh, I preached the gospel unto you at the first.

14 And my x temptation which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor rejected, but received me as y an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus.

15 Where is then the z blessedness you spake of? for I bear you record, that if it had been possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me.

16 Am I therefore become a your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

17 b They c zealously affect you, but not well: yea, they would exclude you, that you might d affect them.

18 But it is good to be zealously affected always e in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you.

19 My little f children, of whom I travel in birth again, until Christ be formed in you, 20 I desire to be present with you now, and to b change my voice, for I stand in doubt of you.

21 Tell me, ye that desire to be f under the law, do ye not hear f law?

22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, f one by k a bondmaid, the other by l a free-woman.

23 But he who was of the bondwoman was born m after the flesh: but he of f free-woman, was by promise.

24 Which things are an allegory: for these are the o two covenants; the one from the p mount Sinai, which gendreth to bondage, which is Agar.

25 For this q Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answereth to Jerusalem which now is, & is r in bondage with her children.

26 But Jerusalem which is s above, is t free, which is the u mother of us all.

27 For it is x written, Rejoyce thou barren that bearest not: break forth and cry, thou that travellest not: for the desolate hath y many more children than she which hath an husband.

28 Now z we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the a children of promise.

29 But as then he that was born after f flesh, b persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, even so it is c now.

30 Nevertheless, what saith the scripture? d Cast out the bondwoman and her son: for the son of the bondwoman shall not be heir with the son of the free-woman.

31 So then, brethren, e we are not children of f bond-woman, but of f free.

CHAP. V.

Christian liberty to be made use of.

STand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us a free, and be not intangled again with the b yoke of bondage.

2 Behold, c I Paul say unto you, that if ye be d circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing.

3 For I testifie again to every man that is circumcised, that he is e debtor to do the whole law.

4 Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are f justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace.

5 For b we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith.

6 For in Jesus Christ neither i circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but faith which k worketh by love.

7 Ye did l run well, who did m hinder you, f ye should not obey the truth?

8 This perswasion cometh not of him that calleth you.

9 A little o leaven leaveneth the whole lump.

10 I have confidence in you through the Lord, that you will be none otherwise minded; but p he that q trou-troubleth you, shall bear his r judgment whosoever he be.

11 And I, brethren, if I yet s preach circumcision, why do I yet suffer persecution? then is the offence of the cross ceased.

12 I would they were even t cut off which trouble you.

13 For brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only u use not liberty for u an occasion to the flesh, but by love x serve one another.

14 For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thy self.

15 But if ye y bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

16 This I say then, a Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the b lust of the flesh.

17 For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh, & these are c contrary the one to the other: so that ye d cannot do the things that ye would.

18 But if ye be e led by the spirit, ye are not under the law.

19 Now the works of the flesh are f manifest, which are these, Adultery, g fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness,

20 Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulation, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies,

21 Envyings, murthers, drunkenness, h revelings, & such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which i do such things, shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

22 But the k fruit of the Spirit is love, l joy, m peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, 23 Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.

24 And they that are Christs, have n crucified the flesh, with the o affections and lusts.

25 If we live in the Spirit, let us also p walk in the Spirit.

26 Let us not be desirous of q vain glory, provoking one another, r envying one another.

CHAP. VI.

1 He exhorteth to mildness: 14 The cross of Christ is glory.

BRethren, if a man a be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, b restore such an one in the spirit of meekness, considering thy self, lest thou also be c tempted.

2 d Bear ye one another's burthens, and so fulfil the e law of Christ.

3 For if a man f think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.

4 But let every man g prove his own work, & then he shall h have rejoycing in himself alone, and not in another.

5 For every man shall bear his own burthen.

6 Let him that is taught in the word, k communicate unto him that l teacheth, in all good things.

7 Be not deceived, God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man m soweth, that shall he also reap.

8 For he that soweth to his n flesh, shall of the flesh reap corruption: but he that soweth to the o Spirit, shall of the spirit reap life everlasting.

9 And let us not be p weary in well-doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.

10 As we have therefore q opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the r houshold of faith.

11 Ye see how large a letter I have written unto you with s mine own hand.

12 As many as desire to make u a fair shew in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised: only lest they should suffer persecution for the x cross of Christ.

13 For neither they themselves who are circumcised y keep the law, but desire to have you circumcised, that they may z glory in your flesh.

14 But God forbid that I should glory save in the a cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me, b and I unto the world.

15 For c in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but d a new creature.

16 And as many as e walk according to this rule, f peace be on them, & mercy, and upon the g Israel of God.

17 From henceforth let no man trouble me; for I bear in my body the h marks of the Lord Jesus.

18 Brethren, the i grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

¶ Unto the Galatians, written from Rome.

CHAP. I.

1 Election and adoption, 11 which is the sure and proper fountain of salvation.

PAul an apostle of Jesus Christ, by the will of God, to the saints which are at a Ephesus, and to the faithful in Christ Jesus:

2 Grace be to you, and b peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in c heavenly places d in Christ:

4 According as he hath e chosen us in him, before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy, and without blame before f him in love:

5 Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the g good pleasure of his will:

6 To the h praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us accepted i in the beloved.

7 In whom we have k redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins; according to the l riches of his grace,

8 Wherein he m hath abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence:

1 What we were by nature, and what we are by grace.

Eph. 5. 14. 1 Co. 6. 11. Gal. 1. 4. 2 Co. 4. 34. AND you hath he quickned, who were a dead in trespasses and sins,

2 Wherein b in time past ye walked according to c course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, d spirit that now e worketh in the children of disobedience:

Rom. 8. 7, 8. Gal. 5. 17. Eph. 2. 4 But God, who is g rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us,

5 Even when we were dead in sins, hath h quickned us together with Christ, (h by grace ye are saved)

6 And hath raised us up together, and made us i to sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus:

7 That in ages to come he might k shew the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness towards us, through Christ Jesus.

8 For by grace ye are saved, l through faith, and that not of your selves: it is the gift of God:

9 Not of works, lest any man should m boast.

10 For we are his n workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto o good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.

11 Wherefore † remember that ye being in times passed Gentiles in the flesh, who are called uncircumcision by that which is called the circumcision in the flesh q made by hands;

12 That at r time ye were r without Christ, being aliens from the s commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world.

13 But now in Christ Jesus, ye who were sometimes far off are made t nigh by the blood of Christ.

14 For he is t our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us;

15 Having abolished in his u flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments, contained in x ordinances, for to make in himself of twain, one y new man, so making peace:

16 And that he might reconcile both unto God z in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby:

17 And a came, and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to them that were nigh.

18 For b through him we both have an access by one Spirit unto the Father.

19 Now therefore ye are no more strangers & forreigners, but c fellowcitizens with the saints, and of the houshold of God:

20 And are d built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner-stone,

21 In whom all the building fitly † framed together, groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord:

22 In whom you also are builded together for an f habitation of God through the Spirit.

11 According to v eternal purpose w he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord:
12 In whom we have boldness and access w o confidence by x faith of him.
13 Wherefore I desire that ye faint not at my tribulations for you, which is y your glory.
14 For this cause I bow my knees unto the q Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, 15 Of whom the whole family in heaven, and earth is r named,
16 That he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be s strengthened with might, by his Spirit in the inner man;
17 That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith, that ye being t rooted and grounded in love,
18 May be able to u comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height;
19 And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, y ye might be filled with all the fulness of God.
20 Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly y above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us,
21 Unto him be z glory in the church by Christ Jesus, throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

CHAP. IV.

1 He exhorteth to unity. 24 to put on the new man. 25 to cast off lying, &c.

I Therefore the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you, a ye a walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called,
2 With all b lowliness and meekness, with long-suffering, forbearing one another in love;
3 Endeavoring to keep the c unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.
4 There is d one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling.
5 One Lord, one faith, one baptism,
6 One God and Father of all, who is e above all, and through all, and in you all.
7 But unto every one of us f is given grace, according to the measure of the gift of Christ.
8 Wherefore he saith, When he g ascended up on high, he led h captivity captive, and gave i gifts unto men.
9 (Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the k lower parts of the earth?
10 He that descended, is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, that he might l fill all things.)
11 And he gave some, apostles: and some, prophets: and some, m evangelists: and some pastors and teachers;
12 For the m perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ:
13 Till we all come in the unity of the faith, & of the n knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ:
14 That we henceforth be no more o children tossed to and fro, & carried about w every wind of doctrine, by p sleight of men, & q cunning craftiness, whereby they lay in wait to deceive:
15 But speaking the r truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ:
16 From whom the whole body fitly joyned together, and compacted by that which every joynt supplieth, according to the r effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body, unto the edifying of it self in love.
17 This I say therefore, and testifie in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk in the vanity of their mind,
18 Having the understanding darkned, being alienated from the life of God, through s ignorance that is in them, because of t blindness of their heart:
19 Who being u past feeling, have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with x greediness.
20 But ye have not so y learned Christ:
21 If so be that ye have z heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus:
22 That ye put off concerning the former conversation a the old man, which is corrupt according to b deceitful lusts:
23 And be b renewed in the spirit of your mind;
24 And that ye put on that new man, which after God is created c in righteousness, and true holiness.
25 Wherefore putting away lying, speak every man d truth with his neighbour: for we are e members one of another.
26 Be ye f angry and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath:
27 Neither g give place to the devil.
28 Let him that stole, steal no more: but rather let him b labour, working with his hands the thing which h is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth.
29 Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your k mouth, but that which is good, to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers.
30 And l grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of m redemption.
31 Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, & n clamour, and evil speaking be put away from you, with all malice.
32 And be ye kind one to another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, even o as God for Christs sake hath forgiven you.

CHAP. V.

2 After general exhortations, 25 he exhorteth men to love their wives.

BE ye therefore a followers of God, as dear children;
2 And walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath b given himself for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet smelling savour.
3 But fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not c be once named amongst you, d as becometh saints:
4 Neither filthiness, nor e foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not convenient: but rather giving of thanks.
5 For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom f of Christ, and of g God.
6 Let no man deceive you with h vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience.
7 Be not ye therefore i partakers with them.
8 For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the LORD: walk as children of k light.
9 (For the l fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness, and righteousness, & truth,) 10 m Proving what is acceptable unto the LORD.

11 And have no fellowship with the n unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them.

12 For it is o a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret.

13 But all things that are reproved, are made manifest p by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest, is light.

14 Wherefore he saith, q Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give r thee light.

15 See then that ye walk s circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, 16 t Redeeming the time, because the days are evil.

17 Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding what the u will of the LORD is.

18 And be not drunk x with wine wherein is excess: but be x filled with y Spirit:

19 Speaking to yourselves y in psalms, and hymns, and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord.

20 Giving thanks always for z all things unto God, and the Father, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, 21 a Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God.

22 Wives, b submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto y Lord.

23 For y husband is the c head of the wife, even as Christ is d the head of the church: and he is the Saviour of e body.

24 Therefore as y church is e subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands f in every thing.

25 Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and g gave himself for it:

26 That he might h sanctifie and cleanse it with the washing of water g by the word;

27 That he might present it i to himself a glorious church, not having spot or wrinkle, or any such thing: but that it should be holy, and without blemish.

28 So ought men to k love their wives, as their own bodies: he that loveth his wife, loveth himself.

29 For no man ever yet hated his own flesh: but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as y Lord the church.

30 For we are l members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.

31 For this cause shall a man m leave his father and mother, and shall be joyned unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh.

32 This is a great n mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and y church.

33 Nevertheless, let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself; and the wife see that she reverence her husband.

5 Servants, be f obedient to them that are your masters according to y flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ:

6 Not with eye-service, as g men-pleasers, but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart;

7 With h good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men:

8 Knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free.

9 And ye masters, k do the same things unto them, forbearing i threatning: knowing that your master also is in heaven, neither is there respect of persons with him.

10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his m might.

¶ The Epistle of PAUL the Apostle to the PHILIPPIANS.

CHAP. I.

1 Pauls thanksgiving to God for them. daily praying for their increase in grace. 12 The fruit of Pauls imprisonment.

a Acts 16. 12. b Acts 20. 17. 28. and 6. 3. 4.

PAul & Timotheus a servants of Jesus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus, w are at a Philippi, with the b bishops and deacons:

2 Grace

2 Grace be unto you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 I d thank my God upon every e remembrance of you.

4 Always in every prayer of mine for you all, making request f with joy,

5 For your g fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now;

6 Being h confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you, will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ.

7 Even as it is i meet for me to think this of you all, because I have you in my heart, inasmuch as both in my bonds, and in the k defence and confirmation of the gospel, ye all are partakers of my l grace.

8 For God is my record, how greatly m I long after you all, in the bowels of Jesus Christ.

9 And this n I pray, that your love may o abound yet more and more in knowledge, and in all judgment;

10 That ye may approve things p that are excellent, that ye may be q sincere and without offence till the day of Christ:

11 Being filled with the r fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ unto s the glory and praise of God.

12 But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happened unto me have fallen out rather unto the t furtherance of the gospel;

13 So that my bonds u in Christ are x manifest in all the palace, and in all other places, 14 And many of the brethren in the Lord y waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

15 Some indeed preach Christ even of z envy and strife, and some also of a good will.

16 The one preach Christ of contention, b not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds:

17 But the other c of love, knowing that I am set d for the defence of the gospel.

18 What then? notwithstanding every way, whether in b pretence, or i in truth, Christ is preached, and I therein do rejoyce, yea, and will rejoyce.

19 For I know e this shall k turn to my salvation through your prayer, and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, 20 According to my earnest expectation, and my hope, that in nothing I shall be l ashamed, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my m body, whether it be by life or by death.

21 † For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

22 But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour: yet what I shall chuse, I wot not.

23 For I am in a strait betwixt two, having n a desire to depart, and to be with Christ, which is far o better.

24 Nevertheless, to abide in the flesh is p more needful for you.

25 And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all, for your q furtherance and joy of faith;

26 That your rejoycing may be more abundant r in Jesus Christ for me, by my coming to you again.

27 Only let your conversation s be as it becometh the gospel of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with t one mind, striving together for the faith of the gospel;

28 And in nothing terrified by your adversaries, which is to them an evident u token of perdition, but to you of x salvation, and that of God.

29 For unto you it is y given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to z suffer for his sake, 30 Having the same conflict which ye a saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

CHAP. II.

He exhorteth to unity and humility.

IF there be therefore any consolation a in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any b bowels and mercies,

2 Fulfil ye my joy, that ye be like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of c one mind.

3 Let nothing be done through strife, or d vain-glory, but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other e better than themselves.

4 Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of f others.

5 Let this mind be in you, which also was in Christ Jesus:

6 Who being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God:

7 But g made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in h the likeness of men:

8 And being found in fashion as a man, he i humbled himself, and became obedient unto m death, even the death of the cross.

9 Wherefore God also hath highly n exalted him, and o given him a name which is above every name:

10 That † at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things p in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth:

11 And that every tongue should confess, that Jesus Christ is q Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

12 Wherefore my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence; r work out your own salvation with fear and trembling.

13 For it is s God which worketh in you, both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

14 Do all things without t murmurings, and disputings:

15 That ye may be u blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without u rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye x shine as lights in the world;

16 Holding forth the y word of life, that I may rejoyce in the day of Christ, that I have not run a in vain, neither laboured in vain.

17 Yea, & if I be † offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy and rejoyce with you all.

18 For the same cause also do ye joy, and rejoyce with me.

19 But I trust in the Lord Jesus, to send Timotheus shortly unto you, that I also may be of b good comfort, when I know your state.

20 For I have no man like-minded, who will naturally care for your state.

21 For all seek their c own, not the things which are Jesus Christs.

22 But ye know the d proof of him, that as a son with the father, he hath served with me in the gospel.

23 Him therefore I hope to send presently, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me.

24 But e I trust in the Lord, that I also also may feel, shall come shortly.

24 But I trust in the Lord that I also myself shall come shortly.

25 Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother, and companion in labour, and fellow-soldier, but your messenger, and he that ministred to my wants.

26 For he longed after you all, and was full of heaviness, because that ye had heard that he had been sick.

27 For indeed he was sick nigh unto death, but God had mercy on him: and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.

28 I sent him therefore the more carefully, that when ye see him again, ye may rejoyce, and that I may be the less sorrowful.

29 Receive him therefore in the LORD with all gladness, and hold such in reputation:

30 Because for the work of Christ he was nigh unto death, not regarding his life to supply your lack of service toward me.

CHAP. III.

He warneth them of false teachers.

1 Finally, my brethren, rejoyce in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe.

2 Beware of dogs, Beware of evil workers, beware of the concision.

3 For we are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and rejoyce in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh.

4 Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more:

5 Circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, an Hebrew of the Hebrews; as touching the law, a Pharisee:

6 Concerning zeal, persecuting the church: touching the righteousness which is in the law, blameless.

7 But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ.

8 Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss, for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ,

9 And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:

10 That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death;

11 If by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead.

12 Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus.

13 Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, 14 I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

15 Let us therefore, as many as be perfect, be thus minded: and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you.

16 Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same thing.

17 Brethren, be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so, as ye have us for an ensample:

18 (For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ:

19 Whose end is destruction, whose God is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things.)

20 For our conversation is in heaven, from whence also we look for the Saviour the Lord Jesus Christ:

21 Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself.

CHAP. IV.

General exhortations.

1 Therefore, my brethren, dearly beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the LORD, my dearly beloved.

2 I beseech Euodias, and beseech Syntiche, that they be of the same mind in the LORD.

3 And I intreat thee also, true yokefellow, help those women which laboured with me in the gospel, with Clemente also, and with other my fellow-labourers, whose names are in the book of life.

4 Rejoyce in the LORD always: and again I say, Rejoyce.

5 Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand.

6 Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known unto God.

7 And the peace of God which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts & minds through Christ Jesus.

8 Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report: if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

9 Those things which ye have both learned and received, and heard and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you.

10 But I rejoyced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last your care of me hath flourished again, wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity.

11 Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content.

12 I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where, and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need.

13 I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me.

14 Notwithstanding, ye have well done, that ye did communicate with my affliction.

15 Now ye Philippians, know also, that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church communicated with me, as concerning giving & receiving, but ye only.

16 For even in Thessalonica ye sent once and again unto my necessity.

17 Not because I desire a gift: but I desire fruit that may abound to your account.

18 But I have all, and abound, I am full, having received of Epaphroditus the things which were sent from you, an odour of a sweet smell, a sacrifice acceptable, well-pleasing to God.

19 But my God shall supply all your

PAul an apostle of Jesus Christ, by the will a of God, and Timotheus our brother,
2 To the b saints & faithful brethren in Christ, which are at Colosse, grace be unto you, & peace from God our Father, & the Lord Jesus Christ.
3 We give thanks to God, and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, c praying always for you:
4 Since we d heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which ye have to all the saints:
5 For the hope, e is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel:
6 Which is come unto you, as it is in all the world, and bringeth forth f fruit, as it doth also in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew the grace of God in truth.
7 As ye also learned of Epaphras our dear fellow-servant, who g is for you a faithful minister of Christ:
8 Who also declared unto us your love h in the Spirit.
9 For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, & to desire that ye might be filled with the knowledge of his will, in all i wisdom, & spiritual understanding:
10 That ye might walk worthy of the LORD unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God;
11 Strengthned with all might according to his glorious power, unto all patience and long-suffering with joyfulness:
12 Giving thanks unto the Father, k which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints m in light:
13 Who hath delivered us from the n power of darkness, & hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son:
14 In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the o forgiveness of sins:
15 Who is the p image of the invisible God, the first-born of every creature.
16 For q by him were all things created that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities or powers: all things were created by him, and r for him.
17 And he is s before all things, and by him all things consist.
18 And he is the t head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, y u first-born from y dead, that in all things he might have y preeminence.
19 For it pleased the Father, that in him should x all fulness dwell, 20 And (having made peace through the y blood of his cross) by him to reconcile all things unto himself, by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven.
21 And you that were sometimes z alienated, & enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled,
22 In the body of his flesh through death, to present you a holy & unblameable, and unreproveable in his sight:
23 If ye b continue in the faith grounded and settled, and be not moved away from the hope of the gospel, which ye have heard, and c was preached to every creature d which is under heaven, whereof I Paul am made a minister.
24 Who now rejoyce in my sufferings for you, and fill up e which is behind of afflictions of Christ in my flesh, for his bodies sake, f is the church:
25 Whereof I am g made a minister, according to the dispensation of God, which is given to me for you, to fulfil the word of God:
26 Even the mystery which hath been h hid from ages, & from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints.
27 To whom God would make known what is the riches of i glory of this mystery among the Gentiles, which is Christ k in you, the hope of glory:
28 Whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in l all wisdom, that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus:
29 Whereunto I also m labour, striving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily.

CHAP. II.

He exhorteth to be constant in Christ.

FOr I would that ye knew what a great conflict I have for you, and for them at Laodicea, & for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh:
2 That their hearts might be comforted, being b knit together in love, and unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the acknowledgment of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ:
3 In whom are c hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.
4 And this I say, lest any man should d beguil you with enticing words.
5 For though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your e order, and f stedfastness of your faith in Christ.
6 As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him:
7 Rooted and built up in him, and g stablished in the faith, as ye have been taught, & h abounding therein with thanksgiving.
8 Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy & vain deceit, after the b tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ:
9 For i in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily.
10 And ye are k compleat in him, y is y head of all principality & power:

12 l Buried m with him in baptism, wherein also you are risen n with him through the faith of the operation of God, who hath raised him from the dead.

13 And you being o dead in your sins, and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together m with him, having forgiven you all trespasses,

14 Blotting out the hand-writing of ordinances, that was p against us, q was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross:

15 And having q spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it.

16 Let no man therefore r judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an holy-day, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath-days:

17 Which are s a shadow of things to come; but the t body is of Christ.

18 Let no man beguile you of your reward, in a voluntary humility, and worshipping of angels, intruding u into those things w he hath not seen, vainly x puffed up by his fleshly mind, 19 And not holding the head, from which all the body by joynts and bands, having nourishment ministred, and knit together, y increaseth with the increase of God.

20 Wherefore if ye be dead with Christ from the rudiments of the world, why, as though z living in the world, are ye a subject to ordinances?

21 (b Touch not, taste not, handle not;

22 Which are all c to perish with the using;) after the commandments and doctrins of men?

23 Which things have indeed a shew of wisdom in will-worship & humility, and d neglecting of the body, not in e any honor to the satisfying of the flesh.

CHAP. III.

He sheweth where to seek Christ.

IF ye then be risen with Christ, seek a those things f are above, where Christ sitteth on g the right hand of God.

2 Set your affection on things above, not on things b on the earth.

3 For ye are c dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.

4 When Christ who is our life shall appear, then shall ye also d appear with him in glory.

5 e Mortifie therefore your members which are upon the earth; f fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry:

6 For which things sake the wrath f of God cometh on the children of disobedience:

7 In the which g ye also walked sometime, when ye lived in them.

8 But now you also h put off all these, anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth.

9 i Lye not one to another, seeing k ye have put off the old man l with his deeds:

10 And have put on the k new man, which is renewed in knowledge, after the image of him that created him.

11 Where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free: but Christ is all, and l in all.

12 Put on therefore (as the m elect of God, holy and beloved) n bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, long-suffering:

13 Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another; if any man have a quarrel against any; even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye.

14 And above all these things put on charity, o which is the bond of perfectness.

15 And let the peace of God rule in your p hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; & be ye thankful.

16 Let q the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom, reaching, & admonishing one another in psalms, and hymns, and spiritual songs, singing with r grace in your hearts to the Lord.

17 And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the s name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him.

18 Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as it is fit t in the Lord.

19 Husbands, u love your wives, and be not bitter against them.

20 Children, obey your x parents in all things, for this is well-pleasing unto the Lord.

21 Fathers, y provoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged.

22 Servants, obey z in all things your masters according to the flesh: not with eye-service, as men-pleasers, but in singleness of heart, fearing God:

23 And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, & not unto men:

24 Knowing, that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ.

25 But a he that doth wrong, shall receive for the wrong which he hath done: and there is b no respect of persons.

CHAP. IV.

To be fervent in prayer.

MAsters, give unto your servants a that which is a just & equal, knowing that ye also have a Master in heaven.

2 b Continue in prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving:

3 Withall, praying also for us, that God would open unto us a door of utterance, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in bonds:

4 That I may make it manifest, d as I ought to speak.

5 Walk e in wisdom toward them that are without, redeeming the time.

6 Let your speech be alway w with grace, seasoned with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man.

¶ The first Epistle of PAUL the Apostle to the THESSALONIANS.

CHAP. I.

He sheweth his mindfulness of them in his thanksgiving and prayer.

PAul and Sylvanus & Timotheus unto a the church of the a Thessalonians which is in God the Father, and in the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace b unto you, & peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.
2 We give b thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers,
3 Remembring without ceasing your c work of faith, and labour of love, & patience of hope, in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and our Father;
4 d Knowing, brethren beloved, your election of God.
5 For our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in e power, & in the holy Ghost, and in much assurance, as ye know what manner of men we were among you f for your sake.
6 And ye became followers of us, and of the Lord, having received the word g in much affliction, with joy of the holy Ghost:
7 So that you were b ensamples to all that believe in Macedonia & Achaia.
8 For i from you sounded out g word of the Lord, not only in Macedonia & Achaia, but also in every place your faith to God-ward is spread abroad, so that we need not to speak any thing.
9 For they themselves shew of us, what manner of entring in we had unto you, & how ye turned k to God from idols, to serve the living & true God,
10 And to wait for his Son l from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus, which delivered us from the wrath to come.

CHAP. II.

Paul preached at Thessalonica. 18 also the reason of his absence from them.

FOr your selves, brethren, know our a entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain.
2 But even after that we had suffered before, & were b shamefully intreated, as ye know, at Philippi, we were bold in our God to speak unto you the gospel of God with much contention.
3 For our exhortation was not of d deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile:
4 But as we were allowed of God to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak, e not as pleasing men, but God, which trieth our hearts.
5 For neither at any time used we flattering words as ye know, nor f a cloak of covetousness, God is witness;
6 Nor of men sought we glory, neither of you, nor yet of others, when we might have been burthensom, g as the apostles of Christ.
7 But we were b gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children:
8 So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also i our own souls, because ye were dear unto us.
9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travel: for k labouring night and day, because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we Preached unto you the gospel of God.
10 l Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily, and justly, and unblameably we behaved our selves among you that believe.
11 As you know, how we exhorted, and comforted, and charged every one of you, (m as a father doth his children)
12 That ye would n walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory.
13 For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because when we received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not o the word of men, but (as it is in truth) the word of God, which p effectually worketh also in you that believe.
14 For ye, brethren, became followers of q churches of God r which in Judea are in Christ Jesus: for ye also have q suffered like things of your own countreymen, even as they have of the Jews:
15 Who both killed the Lord Jesus, and their own prophets, and s have persecuted us; and they please not God, and are t contrary to all men:
16 Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles, that they might be saved, to v fill up their sins always: for x the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.
17 But we, brethren, being taken from you for a short time, in presence, not in heart, endeavoured y more abundantly to see your face with great desire.
18 Wherefore we would have come unto you (z even I Paul) once and again; but y Satan hindered us.
19 For what is our hope, or joy, or a crown of rejoycing? are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ a at his coming?
20 For ye are our glory and joy.

2 Paul sendeth Timothy to the Thessalonians. 10. His prayer for them.

WHerefore when we could a no longer forbear, we thought it good to be left at Athens alone;
2 And b sent Timotheus our brother and minister of God, and our fellow-labourer in the gospel of Christ, c to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith:
3 That no man should be moved by these afflictions: for your selves know, that we are d appointed thereunto.
4 For verily when we were with you, a 2 Sa. 13. 39.

1 Thes. 2. 17.
b Phil. 2. 19.
c Act. 14. 22. d 2 Tim. 3. 12.

you, we told you before, that we should suffer tribulation, even as it came to pass, and ye know.

5 For this cause, when I could no longer forbear, I sent to know your faith, lest by some means the tempter had tempted you, & our labour be in vain.

6 But now when Timotheus came from you unto us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and charity, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, as we also to see you:

7 Therefore, brethren, we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress, by your faith:

8 For now b we live, if ye stand fast in the Lord.

9 For what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sake before our God:

10 Night and day praying exceedingly that we might see your face, and might k perfect that which is lacking in your faith?

11 Now God himself, and our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ l direct our way unto you.

12 And the Lord make you m to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you:

13 To the end he may stablish your hearts unblameable in holiness before God, even our Father, at n coming of our Lord Jesus Christ o with all his saints.

CHAP. IV.

An exhortation to godliness, 9 to love.

FUrthermore then we beseech you, brethren, and exhort you by a Lord Jesus, b as ye have received of us how ye ought c to walk, & to please God, so ye d would abound more and more.

2 For ye know what commandments we gave you e by the LORD Jesus.

3 For this is the will of God, even your f sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication:

4 That every one of you should know how to possess his g vessel in sanctification and honour:

5 Not in the lust of h concupiscence, even as i Gentiles k which know not God:

6 That no man go beyond and defraud his brother l in any matter, because m the Lord is n avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you, & testified.

7 For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness.

8 He therefore that despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, who hath also given unto us his holy Spirit.

9 But as touching brotherly love, ye need not that I write unto you: for ye your selves are o taught of God to love one another.

10 And indeed ye m do it towards all the brethren, which are in all Macedonia: but we beseech you, brethren, that ye increase more and more:

11 And that ye study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands (as we commanded you.)

12 That ye may p walk honestly toward them that are without, and that ye may have lack of nothing.

13 But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are q asleep, that ye sorrow not even as others which have no hope.

14 For if we believe that Jesus died, and rose again, even so them also r sleep in Jesus, will God s bring with him.

15 For this we say unto you t by the word of the LORD, that we which are alive, and remain unto the coming of the LORD, shall not prevent them which are asleep.

16 For the LORD himself shall u descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the arch-angel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise x first.

17 Then we which are alive, and remain, shall be a caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the LORD in the air: and so shall y we ever be with the LORD.

18 Wherefore z comfort one another with these words.

CHAP. V.

1 Christs coming to judgment. 16 Divers precepts given.

BUt of the a times and the seasons, brethren, *y*e have no need that I write unto you.

2 For your selves know perfectly, that the day of the LORD so cometh as b a thief in the night.

3 For when they shall say, c Peace and safety: then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travel upon a woman with child, & they shall not escape.

4 But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief.

5 Ye are all the children d of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness.

6 Therefore let us not sleep, as do others: but let us watch and be sober.

7 For they that sleep, sleep in the night: and they that be drunken, are drunken in the night.

8 But let us who are of the day be sober, putting on the e breast-plate of faith and love, and for an helmet the hope of salvation.

9 For God hath not b appointed us to wrath: but to obtain salvation by our LORD Jesus Christ, 10 Who died for us, that whether we k wake or sleep, we should live together with him.

11 Wherefore comfort your selves together, and l edifie one another, even as also ye do.

12 And we beseech you, brethren, to know them which m labour among you, and are over you in the LORD, and admonish you;

13 And to esteem them very highly f in love for their n works sake. And be at peace among your selves.

14 Now we exhort you, brethren, warn them that are o unruly, comfort p the feeble-minded, support the weak, be patient toward all men.

15 See that none render q evil for evil unto any man: but ever follow that which is good, both among your selves, and to all men.

16 r Rejoyce evermore.

17 s Pray without ceasing.

18 t In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.

19 u Quench not the spirit.

20 x Despise not prophesyings.

21 y Prove all things: hold fast that which is good.

22 z Abstain from all appearance of evil.

23 And the very God of peace sanctifie you wholly: and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be a preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

24 b Faithful is he that calleth you, who also will do it.

25 Brethren, c pray for us.

26 Greet all the brethren with an d holy kiss.

27 I charge you by the Lord, that this epistle be read unto all the holy e brethren.

28 The f grace of our Lord Jesus Christ g be with you. Amen. f Rom. 16. 20. g Gal. 6. 18.

The punishment of the ungodly.

PAul and Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Thessalonians, a in God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ: a 1 Th. 1. 1.

2 Grace unto you, and peace b from God our Father, and the LORD Jesus Christ. b Rom. 1. 7. 1 Cor. 1. 3. Gal. 1. 3. Eph. 1. 2. 1 Tim. 1. 2. Tit. 1. 4. 1 Pet. 1. 2. 2 Pet. 1. 2. 2 John. 3. Rev. 1. 4.

3 We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith c groweth exceedingly, & the charity of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth: c 2 Cor. 10. 15. Eph. 4. 16. Col. 2. 19.

4 So that we our selves d glory in you in the churches of God, for your e patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations f ye endure: d 2 Cor. 7. 4. e Heb. 10. 36. Jam. 1. 3. f 1 Cor. 4. 12. 1 Thess. 1. 6. 2. 14. 3. 4. Heb. 12. 4. 1 Pet. 2. 20.

5 Which is g a manifest token of the righteous judgment of God, that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which ye also suffer. g Luke 20. 35. Rom. 2. 5. 1 Thess. 2. 12. 2 Thess. 1. 11. Rev. 3. 4.

6 Seeing it is g a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you: g Deut. 32. 35. Psal. 62. 12. Prov. 24. 12. Jer. 25. 14. Mat. 16. 27. Rom. 2. 6. 12. 19. Rev. 18. 6. 20. 12.

7 And to you who are troubled, h rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven, with his mighty angels, h 1 Pet. 4. 13.

8 In flaming fire, taking vengeance on them that i know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ: i Jer. 10. 25. John 15. 21. 16. 3. Rom. 1. 28. 1 Cor. 15. 34. Gal. 4. 8. 1 Thess. 4. 5. 1 Pet. 4. 17.

9 Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from k the glory of his power: k Psal. 76. 7. Isa. 2. 10. 19. 21. 2 Thess. 2. 8.

10 When he shall come to be l glorified in his saints, & to be m admired in all them that believe, (because our testimony among you was believed) in n that day. l Psal. 89. 7. m Isa. 49. 3. n Luke 10. 12. 1 Cor. 1. 8. 5. 5. 2 Cor. 1. 14.

11 Wherefore also we pray always for you, that our God would count you worthy of this calling, and fulfil all o good pleasure of his goodness, and the work of faith with power: o Psal. 103. 21. 145. 19. Phil. 2. 13.

12 That the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the p grace of our God, and the Lord Jesus Christ. p Isa. 11. 10. Mat. 25. 34. 1 Pet. 5. 10.

CHAP. II.

He willeth them to continue stedfast.

NOw we beseech you brethren, by the a coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together unto him, a 1 Thess. 4. 15. 16. 17.

2 That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by b spirit, nor by c word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand. b 1 Cor. 12. 10. 1 John 4. 1. c 2 Thess. 3. 17.

3 Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come d a falling away first, and that e man of sin be revealed, the f son of perdition, d Jer. 5. 31. 9 Even him whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power, and signs, and o lying wonders,

10 And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness p in them q that perish: because they q received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

11 And for this cause r God shall send them s strong delusion, that they should believe a lye:

12 That they t all might be damned, who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

13 But we are bound to give thanks alway to God for you, brethren, beloved of the Lord, because God hath from the beginning u chosen you to salvation, through sanctification of the spirit, and belief of the truth:

14 Whereunto he called you by our x gospel, to the obtaining of the y glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

15 Therefore, brethren, stand fast, and hold the z traditions which ye have been taught, whether by word, or our epistle.

16 Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, & God even our Father, a which hath loved us, & hath given us everlasting consolation, & a good hope through grace,

The apostle craveth their prayers.

FInally, brethren, pray for us, that a the word of the LORD may have a free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you: a Act. 6. 7. and 13. 49.

2 And that we may be b delivered from unreasonable and wicked men: for all men have not faith. b Jer. 18. 20. Rom. 15. 31.

3 But the Lord is faithful, who shall stablish you, & c keep you from evil. c Gen. 20. 6. 1 Cor. 10. 13.

4 And we have confidence in the Lord touching you, d ye both do, & will do the things which we command you.

5 And the Lord direct your hearts into the e love of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ. d Rom. 15. 14. 2 Cor. 7. 16. 2 Pet. 3. 21. e Rev. 12. 11. 1 Cor. 13. 4. 5. 14. Mat. 15. 15. 17.

6 Now we command you, brethren, in the f Name of our LORD Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw your selves from every brother that walketh g disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us. f 1 Cor. 5. 4. g v. 10. 11. 1 Thes. 4. 11. 5. 14.

7 For your selves know how ye ought to follow us: for h we behaved not our selves disorderly among you; h 1 Thes. 1. 5. 2. 10.

8 Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought, but wrought with labour and travel night and day, i we might not be chargeable to any of you. i Act. 18. 3. 1 Cor. 9. 4.

9 Not because we have not power, but to make our selves an ensample unto you to follow us. k 1 Cor. 10. 33. 1 Tim. 4. 12. Tit. 2. 7. 1 Pet. 5. 3.

10 For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would Isai. 6. 10. would not work, neither should he eat.

a 1 Th. 1. 4. 11 For we hear that there are some which walk m among you disorderly, working not at all; but are n busie-bodies.

b 1 Pet. 4. 15. 12 Now them that are such we command, and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they o work, and eat their own bread.

c Gal. 6. 9. 13 But ye, brethren, be p not weary in well doing.

d 2 John. 10. 14 And if q any man obey not our word by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be r ashamed.

15 Yet count him not s as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.

16 Now the t Lord of peace himself give you peace always, u by all means. The Lord be x with you y all.

17 The salutation of Paul with mine own hand, which is the token in z every epistle: so I write.

18 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

¶ The second epistle to the Thessalonians was written from Athens.

¶ The first Epistle of PAUL the Apostle to TIMOTHY.

CHAP. I.

Paul's charge to Timothy.

PAul an apostle of Jesus Christ, by the commandment of God our Saviour, and Lord Jesus Christ, a which is b our hope;

2 Unto Timothy, my own son in the b faith: Grace, mercy & peace from God our Father, & Jesus Christ our Lord.

3 As I befought thee to abide still at Ephesus, when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some that they teach c no other doctrine, 4 Neither give heed to d fables, and endless genealogies, which minister questions, rather than e godly edifying, b is in faith: so do.

5 Now the end of f commandment is charity, out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, & of faith unfeigned:

6 From which some having swerved, have turned aside unto g vain janglings,

7 Desiring to be h teachers of the law; understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm.

8 But we know that the law is i good, if a man use it lawfully,

9 Knowing this, that the law is not made for k a righteous man, but for l lawless & disobedient, for m ungodly & for sinners, for unholy & prophane, for murderers of fathers, & murderers of mothers, for man-slayers,

10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for men-stealers, for liars, for perjured persons, & if there be any other thing that is contrary to n sound doctrine,

11 According to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my m trust.

12 And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath n enabled me, for that he o counted me faithful, putting me into the ministery;

13 Who was before a blasphemer, and p a persecuter, and injurious: But I obtained mercy, because I did it q ignorantly in unbelief.

14 And the grace of our LORD was exceeding r abundant, with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.

15 This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world s to save sinners; of whom I am t chief.

16 Howbeit, for this cause I u obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might shew forth all long-suffering, for a patern to them which should x hereafter believe on him to life everlasting.

17 Now unto y king y eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

18 This charge I commit z unto thee, son Timothy, according to y prophecies b went before on thee, that thou a by them mightest war a good warfare, 19 Holding faith, and a good conscience, which some having a put away, concerning faith have b made c shipwrack.

20 Of whom is Hymeneus and Alexander, whom c I have delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme.

CHAP. II.

Prayer must be made for all men.

I Exhort therefore, y first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, & giving of thanks be made for a all men;

2 For b kings, and for all that are in authority, that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty.

3 For this is c good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour;

4 Who will have d all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth.

5 For there is one God, and one e mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus,

6 Who gave himself a ransom for f all, to be testified in due time.

7 Whereunto I am ordained a g preacher, and an apostle (I speak the truth in Christ, & lie not;) h a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and verity.

8 I will therefore that men pray i every where, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting.

9 In like manner also, that women k adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefastness and sobriety; not with l broidered hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array;

10 But (which becometh women professing godliness) m good works.

11 Let the women n learn in silence with all subjection.

12 But I suffer not a n woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over n G. the man, but to be in silence.

13 For Adam was o first formed, then Eve.

14 And Adam was o not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in p the transgression.

15 Notwithstanding she shall be saved in p child-bearing, if they continue in faith and charity, and holiness with sobriety.

CHAP. III.

Of bishops, and deacons, and their wives.

THis is a true saying, If a man a desire the office of a bishop, he desireth a good a work.

2 A bishop then must be b blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behaviour, given to hospitality, c apt to teach;

3 Not given to wine, no striker, not d greedy of filthy lucre, but patient, not a brawler, not covetous;

4 One that e ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity.

5 (For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he f take care of the church of God?)

6 Not a novice, lest being lifted up with pride, he fall into the condemnation of the ‡ devil.

7 Moreover, he must have g a good report of them which are without, lest he fall into reproach, and the snare of the devil.

8 Likewise must h deacons be grave, not double-tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre;

9 Holding the i mystery of faith in a pure conscience.

10 And let these also first be k proved, then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless.

11 Even so must their wives be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things.

12 Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children, and their own houses well.

13 For they that have used the office of a deacon l well, purchase to themselves a good m degree, & great n boldness in the faith, which is in Christ Jesus.

14 These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly.

15 But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest o to behave thy self in the house of God, which is the church of p living God, the pillar and ground of the truth.

16 And without controversie, great is the mystery of godliness: q God was manifest in the flesh, r justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, s received up into glory.

CHAP. IV.

Paul gives precepts to Timothy.

NOw the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in a latter times some shall a depart from the faith, b giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrins of devils;

2 Speaking lies in hypocrisie, having their conscience c seared with an hot iron:

3 Forbidding to e marry, and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth.

4 For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with f thanksgiving:

5 For it is sanctified by the word of God, and prayer.

6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be g a good minister of Jesus Christ, h nourished up in the words of faith, and of good doctrin, whereunto thou hast attained.

7 But refuse profane and m old wives fables, and exercise thy self rather unto godliness.

8 For n bodily exercise profiteth little, but godliness is profitable unto all things, having o promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.

9 This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation.

10 For therefore we both p labour, and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is q Saviour of all men, r especially of those s that believe.

11 These things t command and teach.

12 Let no man despise thy youth, but be thou u an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.

13 Till I come, give attendance to x reading, to exhortation, to doctrin.

14 y Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery.

15 Meditate upon these things, give thy self wholly to them, that thy profiting may appear to all.

16 Take heed z unto thy self, and unto thy doctrin; continue in them: for in doing this, thou shalt both save thy self, & a them that hear thee.

CHAP. V.

Rules to be observed in reproving.

REbuke not an elder, but a intreat him as a father, and the younger men as brethren;

2 The elder women as mothers, the younger as sisters, with all purity.

3 b Honour widows that are widows indeed.

4 But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first to shew c piety at home, and to requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God.

5 Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and d continueth in supplications and prayers night and day.

6 But she that liveth in pleasure, is e dead while she liveth.

7 And these things give in charge, that they may be blameless.

8 But if any f provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath h denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel.

9 Let not a widow be i taken into the number, under threescore years old, having been the wife of one man,

10 k Well reported of for good works, if she have brought up children, if she have lodged strangers, if she have washed the saints feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work.

11 But the younger widows refuse: for when they have begun to wax wanton against Christ, they will marry;

12 Having damnation, because they have cast off their m first faith.

13 And withal, they learn to be idle, n wandring from house to house; and not only idle, but tattlers also, and busie-bodies, speaking things which they ought not.

14 I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give o none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully.

15 For some are already p turned aside after Satan.

16 If any man or woman that believeth, have widows, let them relieve them, and let not the church be charged; that it may relieve them that are widows indeed.

17 Let the elders that q rule well, be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrin.

18 For the scripture saith, Thou shalt not r muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn; and, The s labourer is worthy of his reward.

19 Against an elder receive not an accusation, but before t two or three witnesses.

20 Them that u sin, rebuke before all, that others also may fear.

CHAP. VI.

Of the duties of servants.

LEt as many servants as are under yoke count their own masters worthy of all honour: that the a name of God, and his doctrine be not blasphemed.

2 And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brethren: but rather do them service, because they are faithful and b beloved, partakers of the benefit. These things teach & exhort.

3 If any man teach d otherwise, & consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, & to the doctrine e which is according to godliness,

4 He is f proud, knowing nothing, but doting about questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings,

5 Perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that g gain is godliness: from such h withdraw thy self.

6 But godliness with i contentment is great k gain.

7 For we k brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out.

8 And having l food and raiment let us be therewith content.

9 But they that m will be rich, fall into temptation & a snare, and into many foolish & hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition.

10 For the love of money is the n root of all evil, which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

11 But thou, o O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness.

12 p Fight a good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, & hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.

13 I give thee charge in the sight of God, who q quickneth all things, & before Christ Jesus, who r before Pontius Pilate witnessed a good confession;

14 That thou keep this commandment s without spot, unrebukeable, until t appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ:

15 Which in u his times he shall shew, who is the blessed and v only Potentate, the King of kings, and LORD of lords;

16 Who only hath immortality, w dwelling in the light which no man can approach unto, whom no man x hath seen, nor can see: to whom be honour and power everlasting. Amen.

17 Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not high-minded, y nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy;

18 That they do good, that they be rich in good works, z ready to distribute, willing to communicate, 19 Laying up a a in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life.

20 O Timothy, keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding profane and b vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsly so called:

21 Which some c professing, have k erred concerning the faith. Grace be with thee. Amen.

¶ The second Epistle of PAUL the Apostle to TIMOTHY.

CHAP. I.

Paul exhortation to Timothy.

PAul an apostle of Jesus Christ, by the will of God, according to the promise of life, which is a in Christ Jesus,

2 To Timothy my dearly beloved son: Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father, & Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 I thank God, whom I serve from my fore-fathers with b pure conscience, that without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day,

4 Greatly desiring to see thee, being mindful of thy tears, c that I may be filled with joy;

5 When I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy d grand-mother Lois, and thy e mother Eunice: and I am perswaded that in thee also.

6 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance, that thou f stir up the gift of God which is in thee, by the putting on of my hands.

7 For God hath not given us the spirit of fear, but of g power, of love, and of a sound mind.

8 Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our LORD, nor of me his prisoner, but be thou h partaker of the afflictions of the gospel, according to the i power of God;

9 Who hath saved us, and called us with k holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own l purpose & grace, which was given us m in Christ Jesus before the world began,

10 But is now made n manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath o abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel:

11 Whereunto I am p appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.

12 For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not q ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and I am perswaded that he is able to keep that which I have r committed unto him against that day.

4 For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrin, but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears.

5 And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables.

6 But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry.

7 For I am now ready to be offered, & the time of my departure is at hand.

8 I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.

¶ The Epistle of PAUL to TITUS.

CHAP. 1.

For what end Titus was left in Crete.

PAul a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of Gods elect, and the acknowledging of the truth, which is after Godliness,

2 In hope of eternal life, which God that cannot lie, promised before the world began;

3 But hath in due times manifested his word through preaching, which is committed unto me, according to the commandment of God our Saviour;

4 To Titus mine own Son after the common faith, grace, mercy, & peace from God the father, and the Lord Jesus Christ our Saviour.

5 For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou should set in order the things that are wanting, & ordain elders in every city, as I had appointed thee.

6 If any be blameless, the husband of one wife, having faithful children, not accused of riot, or unruly.

7 For a bishop must be blameless, as the steward of God, not self-willed, not soon angry, not given to wine, no striker, not given to filthy lucre;

8 But a lover of hospitality, a lover of good men, sober, just, holy, temperate.

9 Holding fast the faithful word, as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort, and to convince the gainsayers.

10 For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, especially they of the circumcision, 11 Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucres sake.

12 One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are always liars, evil beasts, slow bellies.

13 This witness is true: wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith:

14 Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth.

15 Unto the pure all things are pure: but unto them that are defiled & unbelieving is nothing pure: but even their mind and conscience is defiled.

16 They profess that they know God, but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate.

CHAP. 12.

Paul giveth directions unto Titus.

BUt speak thou the things which become sound doctrine:

2 That the aged men be sober, grave, temperate, sound in faith, in charity, in patience.

3 The aged women likewise, that they be in behaviour as becometh holiness, not false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things;

4 That they may teach the young women to be sober, to love their husbands, to love their children,

5 To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed.

6 Young men likewise exhort to be sober-minded.

7 In all things shewing thy self a pattern of good works, in doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity,

8 Sound speech that cannot be condemned, that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you.

9 Exhort servants to be obedient unto their own masters, and to please them well in all things, not answering again;

d Rom. 16. 23. e 1 Cor. 1. 14. f Act. 19. 22. g 2 Tim. 4. 11. h Col. 4. 14. i Act. 27. 2. k 2 Tim. 4. 20.

10 Not to Non purloyning, but shewing all k good fidelity, that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things.

11 For the l grace of God that bringeth salvation, hath appeared to all men,

12 m Teaching us, that denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present world;

13 Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God, and our Saviour Jesus Christ, 14 Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purifie unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works.

15 These things speak, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man n despise thee.

CHAP. III.

Titus ordered to reject obstinate heretickes. 12 and to come to him.

PUt them in mind to be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, to be a ready to every good work,

2 To speak b evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but gentle, shewing all meekness unto all men.

3 For we our selves also were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another.

4 But after that the c kindness and love of God our Saviour toward man appeared,

5 Not by d works of righteousness, which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the holy Ghost,

6 Which he shed on us abundantly e through Jesus Christ our Saviour:

7 That being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs, according to f the hope of eternal life.

8 This is a faithful saying, and these things I will that thou affirm constantly, that they which have believed in God, might be careful to g maintain good works: these things h are good and profitable unto men.

9 But avoid i foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and k strivings about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain.

10 A man that is a heretick, after l a first and second admonition, m reject;

11 Knowing, that he that is such, is subverted, and n sinneth, being condemned of m himself.

12 When I shall send Artemas unto o thee, or n Tychicus, be diligent to come unto me to Nicopolis: for p I have determined there to winter.

13 Bring Zenas the q lawyer, and r Apollos on their s journey diligently, that nothing be wanting unto them.

14 And let ours also learn to t maintain good works for necessary uses, that they be not u unfruitful.

15 All that are with me salute thee. v Greet them that x love us in the faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.

¶ It was written to Titus, ordained y first Bishop of the church of the Cretians, from Nicopolis of Macedonia.

¶ The Epistle of PAUL to PHILEMON.

Paul maketh request for Onesimus.

PAul a prisoner of Jesus Christ, and Timotheus our brother, unto Philemon our dearly beloved, and a fellow-labourer,

2 And to our beloved Apphia, and Archippus our fellow-soldier, and to the church in thy house:

3 Grace to you, and peace from God our Father, & the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 I thank my God, making mention of thee always in b my prayers,

5 Hearing of thy love and faith, which thou hast toward the Lord Jesus, & toward all saints;

6 That the communication of thy faith may become effectual by the acknowledging of every good thing, which is in you in Christ Jesus.

7 For we have great joy and consolation in thy love, because c the bowels of d saints are refreshed by thee, brother.

8 Wherefore, though I might be much e bold in Christ, to enjoin thee that which is convenient, 9 Yet for love sake I rather beseech thee, being such an one as Paul f the aged, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ.

10 I beseech thee for my son Onesimus, whom I have begotten in my g bonds:

11 Which in time past was to thee unprofitable, but now profitable to thee and to me:

12 Whom I have sent again: thou therefore receive him, that is mine own bowels.

13 Whom I would have retained with me, that in thy stead he might have h ministred unto me in the bonds of the gospel.

14 But without thy mind would I do nothing; that thy benefit should not be as it were of necessity, but i willingly.

15 For perhaps he therefore departed for a season, that thou shouldest receive him k for ever;

16 Not now as a servant, but above a servant, a brother beloved, specially to me, but how much more unto thee both in the flesh, and in the LORD?

17 If thou count me therefore a l partner, receive him as my self.

18 If he hath wronged thee, or oweth thee ought, m put that on my account;

19 I Paul have written it with mine own hand, I will repay it: albeit I do not say to thee, how thou owest unto me even thine own self besides.

20 Yea, brother, let me have joy of thee n in the LORD: refresh my bowels in the LORD.

21 Having confidence in thy obedience, I wrote unto thee, knowing thou wilt also o do more than I say.

22 But withall, prepare me also a lodging, for I trust that through your p prayers I shall be given unto you.

23 There salute thee Epaphras q my fellow-prisoner in Christ Jesus;

24 Marcus, Aristarchus, r Demas, Lucas, my fellow-labourers.

25 The s grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

The Epistle of PAUL the apostle to the HEBREWS.

CHAP. I.

Christ preferred before angels in person.

GOd, who a at sundry times, & in diverse manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets,

2 Hath in these last days spoken unto us b by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, c by whom also he made the worlds;

3 Who being the brightness of his glory, and the d express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on e the right hand of the majesty on high;

4 Being made so much f better than the angels, as he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent Name than they.

5 For unto which of the angels said he at any time, g Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son?

6 And again, when he bringeth in h the first-begotten into the world, he saith, And i let all the angels of God worship him.

7 And of the angels he saith, Who k maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire.

8 But unto the Son he saith, l Thy throne, O God, m is for ever and ever: a sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom:

9 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity, therefore God, even thy God, hath anointed thee with the oyl of gladness n above thy fellows.

10 And, Thou LORD in the o beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth, and the heavens are the works of thine hands:

11 They shall perish, but thou remainest; p and they all shall wax old as doth a garment;

12 And as a vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they shall be changed: but thou q art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

13 But to r which of the angels said he at any time, s Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool?

14 Are they not all t ministring spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heir of salvation?

CHAP. II.

We must be obedient to Christ.

THerefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should a let them slip.

2 For if the b word spoken by angels was stedfast, and every transgression and disobedience received c a just recompence of reward;

3 How shall we escape, if we neglect so great d salvation, which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him;

4 God also bearing them witness, both with signs e and wonders, and with divers miracles, and gifts of the Holy Ghost, according to his own will?

5 For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection the f world to come, whereof we speak:

6 But g one in a certain place testified, saying, What is man, that thou art mindful of him? h or the son of man, that thou visitest him?

7 Thou madest him a little lower than the angels; thou crownedst him with glory and honour, and didst set him over the works of thy hands:

8 Thou hast put i all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now we see not yet all things put under him.

9 But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death k for every man.

10 For it became him, for whom are l all things, & by whom are all things, in bringing many sons m unto glory, to make the captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings.

11 For both he that sanctifieth, and they who are sanctified, are all n of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren, 12 Saying, I will declare thy Name unto my brethren, in the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thee.

13 And again, I will put my trust in him: and again, Behold, I, and the children which God hath given me.

14 For o much then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same, that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil:

15 And deliver them, who through fear of death were all their life time subject to bondage.

16 For verily he took not on him the nature of angels; but he took on him the seed of Abraham.

17 Wherefore p in all things it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciful and a faithful high priest q in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people.

18 For in that he himself hath suffered being r tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

CHAP. III.

Christ is more excellent than Moses.

WHerefore, holy brethren, partakers of the a heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High priest of our profession Christ Jesus;

2 Who was faithful to him that appointed him, as also Moses was faithful in all his house.

3 For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as he who hath builded the house hath more honour than the house.

4 For every house is builded by some man; but he that built all things, is God.

5 And Moses verily was faithful in all his house, as a servant for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after;

6 But Christ as a Son over his own house; whose house we are, if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoycing of the hope firm unto the end.

7 Wherefore, as the holy Ghost saith, b To day if ye will hear his voice,

8 Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness:

9 When your fathers tempted k me, b proved me, and saw my works forty years.

10 Wherefore I was l grieved with that c generation, and said, They do always err in their heart; and they have not known my ways.

…ation, and said, They do alway err in their hearts; and they have not known my ways.
11 So I sware in my wrath, they shall not enter into my rest.
12 Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God.
13 But exhort one another daily, while it is called, To day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.
14 For we are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end:
15 While it is said, To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.
16 For some, when they had heard, did provoke: howbeit not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.
17 But with whom was he grieved forty years? was it not with them that had sinned, whose carcases fell in the wilderness?
18 And to whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not?
19 So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

CHAP. IV.

The thirteenth rest is by faith.

LEt us therefore fear, lest a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.
2 For unto us was the gospel preached as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.
3 For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest; although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.
4 For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, And God did rest the seventh day from all his works.
5 And in this place again, If they shall enter into my rest.
6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, and they to whom it was first preached entered not in because of unbelief:
7 Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in David, To day, after so long a time; as it is said, To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.
8 For if Jesus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.
9 There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.
10 For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.
11 Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.
12 For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.
13 Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.
14 Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession.
15 For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin.
16 Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

CHAP. V.

The authority of Christs priesthood.

FOr every high priest taken from among men is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins:
2 Who can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way; for that he himself also is compassed with infirmity.
3 And by reason hereof he ought,
as for the people, so also for himself,
to offer for sins.
4 And no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.
5 So also Christ glorified not himself, to be made an high priest; but he that said unto him, Thou art my Son, to day have I begotten thee.
6 As he saith also in another place, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.
7 Who in the days of his flesh, when he had offered up prayers and supplications with strong crying and tears unto him that was able to save him from death, and was heard in that he feared, 8 Though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered;
9 And being made perfect, he became the Author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him;
10 Called of God an high priest after the order of Melchisedec.
11 Of whom we have many things to say, and hard to be uttered, seeing ye are dull of hearing.
12 For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat.
13 For every one that useth milk is unskilful in the word of righteousness:
for he is a babe.
14 But strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.

CHAP. VI.

He exhorteth not to fall from the faith.

THerefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God, 2 Of the doctrine of baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of the resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment.
3 And this will we do, if God permit.
4 For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost, 5 And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come,
6 If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.
7 For the earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God.

8 But that which beareth thorns and briers is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing, whose end is to be burned.

9 But beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak.

10 For God is not unrighteous, to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have ministred unto the saints, and do minister.

11 And we desire that every one of you do shew the same diligence, to the full assurance of hope unto the end:

12 That ye be not slothful, but followers of them, who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

13 For when God made promise to Abraham, because he could swear by no greater, he sware by himself, 14 Saying, Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee.

15 And so after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.

16 For men verily swear by the greater: and an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife.

17 Wherein God, willing more abundantly to shew unto the heirs of promise the immutability of his counsel, confirmed it by an oath:

18 That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us:

19 Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast, and which entereth into that within the vail;

20 Whither the forerunner is for us entered, even Jesus, made an high priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

CHAP. VII.

Christ's priesthood above that of Aaron.

FOR this Melchisedec king of Salem, priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him;

2 To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all; first being by interpretation king of righteousness, and after that also king of Salem, which is, king of peace:

3 Without father, without mother, without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like unto the Son of God, abideth a priest continually.

4 Now consider how great this man was, unto whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils.

5 And verily they that are of the sons of Levi, who receive the office of the priest-hood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though they come out of the loins of Abraham:

6 But he whose descent is not counted from them received tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had the promises.

7 And without all contradiction, the less is blessed of the better.

8 And here men that die receive tithes: but there he receiveth them, of whom it is witnessed that he liveth.

9 And as I may so say, Levi also, who receiveth tithes, paid tithes in Abraham.

10 For he was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchisedec met him.

11 If therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, (for under it the people received the law) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not be called after the order of Aaron?

12 For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law.

13 For he of whom these things are spoken pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar.

14 For it is evident that our Lord sprang out of Juda, of which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priesthood.

15 And it is yet far more evident: for that after the similitude of Melchisedec there ariseth another priest, 16 Who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life.

17 For he testifieth, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

18 For there is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before, for the weakness and unprofitableness thereof.

19 For the law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope did; by the which we draw nigh unto God.

20 And inasmuch as not without an oath he was made priest,

21 (For those priests were made without an oath; but this with an oath, by him that said unto him, The Lord hath sware and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec:)

22 By so much was Jesus made a surety of a better testament.

23 And they truly were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue, by reason of death.

24 But this man, because he continueth ever, hath an unchangeable priesthood.

25 Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them.

26 For such an high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens;

27 Who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins, and then for the people's: for this he did once, when he offered up himself.

28 For the law maketh men high priests, which have infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was since the law, maketh the Son, who is consecrated for evermore.

CHAP. VIII.

The Levitical priesthood abolished.

NOW of the things which we have spoken, this is the sum: we have such an high priest, who is set on the right hand of the throne of the majesty in the heavens;

2 A minister of the sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man.

3 For every high priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices: wherefore it is of necessity that this man have somewhat also to offer.

4 For if he were on earth, he should not be a priest, seeing that there are priests that offer gifts according to the law:

5 Who serve unto the example and shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was admonished of God, when he was about to make the tabernacle. For, See, saith he, that thou make all things according to the pattern shewed to thee in the mount.

5 But now hath he obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the b mediator of a better covenant, which was established upon better promises.

7 For if that first covenant had been c faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second.

8 For finding fault with them, he saith, Behold, the days come (saith the Lord) when I will make a new covenant with the house of d Israel, and the house of Iudah:

9 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers, in e day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt, because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

10 For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their f mind, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people.

11 And they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the LORD: for g all shall know me, from the least to the greatest.

12 For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.

13 In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first h old. Now that which decayeth and waxeth old, is ready to vanish away.

CHAP. IX.

The state of the Law inferiour to Christ.

1 Then verily the first covenant had also ordinances of divine service, and a worldly sanctuary.

2 For there was a tabernacle made,
the first wherein was the candlestick, and the table, and the shewbread, which is called the sanctuary.

3 And after the second veil, the tabernacle which is called the holiest of all:

4 Which had the golden censer, and the ark of the covenant, overlaid round about with gold, wherein was the golden pot that had manna, and Aaron's rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant:

5 And over it the cherubims of i glory, shadowing the k mercy seat: of which we cannot now speak particularly.

6 Now when these things were thus ordained, the priests went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God.

7 But into the second went the high-priest alone, once every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people.

8 The holy Ghost this signifying, that the way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing:

9 Which was a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience,

10 Which stood only in meats, and drinks, and divers washings, & carnal ordinances imposed on them until the time of reformation.

11 But Christ being come an high priest of good things to come, by a greater & more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say,
not of this building;

12 Neither by the blood of goats & calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us.

13 For if the blood of bulls and of power of Christs sacrifice. 9 Heb. 10. 1 Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body hast thou prepared me.

6 In burnt-offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure.
7 Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me) to do thy will, O God.
8 Above, when he said, Sacrifice and offering, and burnt-offerings, and offering for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst thou pleasure therein, which are offered by the law;
9 Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.
10 By the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.
11 And every priest standeth daily ministring, and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins,
12 But this man after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God;
13 From henceforth expecting till his enemies be made his footstool.
14 For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified.
15 Whereof the Holy Ghost also is a witness to us. For after that he had said before,
16 This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the LORD, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them;
17 And their sins and iniquities will I remember no more.
18 Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.
19 Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus, 20 By a new and living way which he hath consecrated for us, through the vail, that is to say, his flesh;
21 And having an high priest over the house of God;
22 Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water.
23 Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for he is faithful that promised;)
24 And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works:
25 Not forsaking the assembling of our selves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.
26 For if we sin wilfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins, 27 But a certain fearful looking for of judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries.
28 He that despised Moses law died without mercy under two or three witnesses:
29 Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace?
30 For we know him that hath said, Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompence, saith the Lord. And again, The Lord shall judge his people.
31 It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.
32 But call to remembrance the former days, in which after ye were illuminated, ye endured a great fight of afflictions;
33 Partly, whilst ye were made a gazingstock both through reproaches & afflictions; and partly, whilst ye became companions of them that were so used.
34 For ye had compassion of me in my bonds, and took joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing in your selves that ye have in heaven a better and an enduring substance.
35 Cast not away therefore your confidence, which hath great recompence of reward.
36 For ye have need of patience, that after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise.
37 For yet a little while, and he that shall come will come, and will not tarry.
38 Now the just shall live by faith: but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him.
39 But we are not of them who draw back unto perdition; but of them that believe, to the saving of the soul.

CHAP. XI.

The nature and efficacy of faith.

NOw faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.
2 For by it the elders obtained a good report.
3 Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.
4 By faith Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead yet speaketh.
5 By faith Enoch was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God.
6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.
7 By faith Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith.
8 By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went.
9 By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise:
10 For he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God.
11 Through faith also Sara herself received strength to conceive seed, and was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged him faithful who had promised.
12 Therefore sprang there even of one, and him as good as dead, so many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable.
13 These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and

15. 5. o John. 8. 56. Gen. 15.

confess that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.
14 For they that say such things declare plainly y they seek a country.
15 And truly if they had been mindful of z that country from whence they came, they might have had opportunity to have returned.
16 But now they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city.
17 By faith Abraham when he was tried, offered up Isaac: & he that had received the promises a offered up his only begotten son:
18 Of whom it was said, That in Isaac shall thy seed be called:
19 b Accounting that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead:
from whence also he received him in a figure.
20 By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come.
21 By faith Jacob when he was a dying, blessed both the sons of Joseph:
and c worshipped, leaning upon the top of his staff.
22 By faith Joseph when he died, made mention of the d departing of the children of Israel, and gave commandment concerning his bones.
23 By faith Moses when he was born, was hid three moneths of his parents:
because they saw he e was a proper child, and were not afraid of the kings f commandment.
24 By faith Moses when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaohs daughter:
25 Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy g the pleasures of sin for a season:
26 Esteeming the reproach h of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto the i recompence of the reward.
27 By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible.
28 Through faith he k kept the pas-over, and the sprinkling of blood:
lest he that destroyed the first-born should touch them.
29 By faith they l passed through the Red sea as by dry land: which the Egyptians assaying to do, were drowned.
30 By faith the m walls of Jericho fell down, after they were compassed about seven days.
31 By faith the n harlot Rahab perished not with them that believed not, when she had received the spies with peace.
32 And what shall I more say? for the time would fail me to tell of Gideon, and of Barak, and of Sampson, and of Jephtha; of David also,
and Samuel, and of the prophets:
33 Who through faith o subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, p stopped the mouths of lions,
34 Quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliens.
35 Women q received their dead raised to life again: and others were tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection:
36 And others had trial of r cruel mockings and scourgings, yea moreover of bonds and imprisonment:
37 They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented; 38 (Of whom the world was not worthy:) they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth.
39 And these all having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise,
40 God having provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect.

CHAP. XII.

An exhortation to faith and patience.

WHerefore seeing we also are com-passed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us a lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience b the race that is set before us, 2 Looking unto Jesus the c author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him, endured the cross, d despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.
3 For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be e wearied, and faint in your minds.
4 Ye have not yet resisted unto f blood, g striving against sin.
5 And ye have forgotten the h exhortation which speaketh unto you as unto children, My son, despise not thou the chastening of i the LORD, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him:
6 For whom the LORD k loveth he chasteneth, and l scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.
7 If ye endure chastening, m God dealeth with you as with sons: for what son is he whom the father chasteneth
not?
8 But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards and not sons.
9 Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of n spirits, and live?
10 For they verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness.
11 Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby.
12 Wherefore lift up the hands which hang down, and the o feeble knees;
13 And make p straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way, but let it rather be healed.
14 Follow q peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the LORD:
15 Looking diligently r lest any man fail of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, & thereby many be defiled;
16 Lest there be any fornicator, or prophane person, as Esau, who for one morsel of meat sold his s birthright.
17 For ye know how that afterward, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: for he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.
18 For ye are not come unto the mount that might be t touched, and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest,

19 And the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words, which voice they that heard, intreated that the word should not be spoken to them any more.

20 (For they could not endure that which was commanded, And if so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart.

21 And so terrible was the sight, that Moses said, I exceedingly fear and quake.)

22 But ye are come unto a mount Sion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels,

23 To the general assembly and church of the first-born, which are written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect,

24 And to Jesus the Mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel.

25 See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven:

26 Whose voice then shook the earth: but now he hath promised, saying, Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven.

27 And this word, Yet once more, signifieth the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.

28 Wherefore we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear:

29 For our God is a consuming fire.

CHAP. XIII.

Divers admonitions to charity.

LEt brotherly love continue.

2 Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby some have entertained angels unawares.

3 Remember them that are in bonds, as bound with them; and them which suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the body.

4 Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge.

5 Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

6 So that we may boldly say, The LORD is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me.

7 Remember them which have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God, whose faith follow, considering the end of their conversation.

8 Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever.

9 Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines: for it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein.

10 We have an altar, whereof they have no right to eat, which serve the tabernacle.

11 For the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burnt without the camp.

12 Wherefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered without the gate.

13 Let us go forth therefore unto him without the camp, bearing his reproach.

14 For here have we no continuing city, but we seek one to come.

15 By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to his name.

16 But to do good and to communicate forget not: for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

17 Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you.

18 Pray for us: for we trust we have a good conscience in all things, willing to live honestly.

19 But I beseech you the rather to do this, that I may be restored to you the sooner.

20 Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, 21 Make you perfect in every good work, to do his will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

22 And I beseech you, brethren, suffer the word of exhortation, for I have written a letter unto you in few words.

23 Know ye, that our brother Timothy is set at liberty, with whom, if he come shortly, I will see you.

24 Salute all them that have the rule over you, and all the saints. They of Italy salute you.

25 Grace be with you all. Amen.

Written to the Hebrews from Italy, by Timothy.

The general Epistle of JAMES.

CHAP. I.

We must rejoice under the cross.

JAMES a servant of God, and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad, greeting.

2 My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations;

3 Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience.

4 But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.

5 If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

6 But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering: for he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed.

7 For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord.

8 A double minded man is unstable in all his ways.

9 Let the brother of low degree rejoice in that he is exalted:

10 But the rich, in that he is made low: because as the flower of the grass he shall pass away.

11 For the sun is no sooner risen with with a burning heat, but it withereth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth away, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his ways.

12 Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the LORD hath promised to them that love him.

13 Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man.

14 But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed.

15 Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

16 Do not err, my beloved brethren.

17 Every good gift, and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.

18 Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of first-fruits of his creatures.

19 Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath.

20 For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God.

21 Wherefore lay apart all filthiness, and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the ingrafted word, which is able to save your souls.

22 But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.

23 For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass:

24 For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was.

25 But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed.

26 If any man among you seem to be religious, and bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain.

27 Pure religion, and undefiled before God and the Father, is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

CHAP. II.

Of not respecting persons, and not despising the poor.

MY brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ the Lord of glory, with respect of persons.

2 For if there come unto your assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment;

3 And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool:

4 Are ye not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts?

5 Hearken, my beloved brethren, Hath not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom, which he hath promised to them that love him?

6 But ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment-seats?

7 Do not they blaspheme that worthy name, by the which ye are called?

8 If ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well:

9 But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.

11 For he that said, Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

12 So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the law of liberty.

13 For he shall have judgment without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy; and mercy rejoyceth against judgment.

14 What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can faith save him?

15 If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food,

16 And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed, and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit?

17 Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead being alone.

18 Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew me my faith by my works.

19 Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble.

20 But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead?

21 Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar?

22 Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect?

23 And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called the friend of God.

24 Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only.

25 Likewise also was not Rahab the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way?

26 For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

CHAP. III.

The tongue must be bridled.

MY brethren, be not many masters, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation.

2 For in many things we offend all. If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body.

3 Behold, we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us, and we turn about their whole body.

4 Behold also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever the governour listeth.

5 Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold, how great a matter a little fire kindleth!

6 And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among

CHAP. I.

He blesseth God for his Spiritual Grace.

PEter an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the strangers a scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia,
2 Elect according to the foreknowledge b of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience, and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: Grace unto you, and peace be c multiplied.
3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his d abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope, by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,
4 To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that taketh not away, reserved in heaven for you,
5 Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation, ready to be revealed in the e last time.
6 Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season (f if need be) ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations:
7 That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, g though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise, and honour, and glory, at the h appearing of Jesus Christ:
8 Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye i rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory:
9 Receiving the k end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.
10 Of which salvation the l prophets have enquired, and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto m you,
11 Searching what, or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signifie, when it testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow.
12 Unto whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister the things which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the gospel unto you with the holy Ghost sent down from heaven; n which things the angels desire to look into.
13 Wherefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ:
14 As obedient children, o not fashioning yourselves according to the former lusts in your ignorance:
15 But as he which hath called you is holy, so p be ye holy in all manner of conversation;
16 Because it is written, Be ye holy, for I am holy.
17 And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man's work, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear:
18 Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your q vain conversation received by r tradition from your fathers;

19 But with the s precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot:
20 Who verily was foreordained t before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you,
21 Who by him do believe in God, that raised him up from the dead, and gave him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God.
22 Seeing ye have u purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit, unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye x love one another with a pure heart fervently:
23 Being y born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever.
24 For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away:
25 But the word of the Lord endureth for ever: and this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you.

CHAP. II.

He exhorteth obedience to Magistrates.

WHerefore laying a aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil speakings,
2 As new born babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby:
3 If so be ye have tasted that the LORD is gracious.
4 To whom coming b unto a living stone, disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious,
5 Ye also as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.
6 Wherefore it is contained in the scripture, Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner-stone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded.
7 Unto you therefore which believe he is precious, but unto them which be disobedient, the stone which the c builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner,
8 And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: whereunto also they were d appointed.
9 But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the e praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light:
10 Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.
11 Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, f which war against the soul;
12 Having your conversation honest g among the Gentiles, that whereas they speak against you as evil doers, they they may by your good works which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation.

13 Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake, whether it be to the king, as supreme,

14 Or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him, for the punishment of evil doers, and for the praise of them that do well.

15 For so is the will of God, that with well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men:

16 As free, and not using your liberty for a cloak of maliciousness, but as the servants of God.

17 Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the king.

18 Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward.

19 For this is thank worthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully.

20 For what glory is it, if when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is acceptable with God.

21 For even hereunto were ye called: because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps:

22 Who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth:

23 Who when he was reviled, reviled not again: when he suffered, he threatened not, but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously:

24 Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we being dead to sin, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed.

25 For ye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.

CHAP. III.

Wives and husbands duties.

Likewise, ye wives, be in subjection unto your own husbands; that if any obey not the word, they also may without the word be won by the conversation of the wives;

2 While they behold your chaste conversation coupled with fear.

3 Whose adorning, let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel;

4 But let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price.

5 For after this manner in the old time the holy women also who trusted in God adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands:

6 Even as Sara obeyed Abraham, calling him Lord, whose daughters ye are as long as ye do well, and are not afraid with any amazement.

7 Likewise, ye husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; that your prayers be not hindered.

8 Finally, be all of one mind, having compassion one of another, love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous:

9 Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing: but contrariwise blessing; knowing that ye are thereunto called, that ye should inherit a blessing.

10 For he that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile:

11 Let him eschew evil, and do good; let him seek peace, and ensue it.

12 For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayers: but the face of the Lord is against them that do evil.

13 And who is he that will harm you, if ye be followers of that which is good?

14 But and if ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are ye: and be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled.

15 But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you, with meekness and fear:

16 Having a good conscience, that whereas they speak evil of you, as of evil doers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ.

17 For it is better, if the will of God be so, that ye suffer for well doing, than for evil doing.

18 For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit:

19 By which also he went and preached unto the spirits in prison;

20 Which sometime were disobedient, when once the long suffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was a preparing, wherein few, that is, eight souls, were saved by water.

21 The like figure whereunto even baptism, doth also now save us, (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ:

22 Who is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God, angels, and authorities, and powers being made subject unto him.

CHAP. IV.

He exhorteth to arm themselves against the temptations of the flesh, and to live soberly, and charitably, and to use their gifts aright.

Forasmuch then as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for he that hath suffered in the flesh, hath ceased from sin;

2 That he should no longer live the rest of his time in the flesh, to the lusts of men, but to the will of God.

3 For the time past of our life may suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries:

4 Wherein they think it strange, that you run not with them to the same excess of riot, speaking evil of you:

5 Who shall give account to him that is ready to judge the quick and the dead.

6 For, for this cause was the gospel preached also to them that are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.

7 But the end of all things is at hand: be you therefore sober, and watch unto prayer.

8 And above all things have fervent charity among yourselves: for charity shall cover the multitude of sins.

9 Use hospitality one to another without grudging.

10 As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God.

of false teachers.

heard, which we were with him in the holy mount.

19 We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day-star arise in your hearts:

20 Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation.

21 For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the holy Ghost.

CHAP. II.

He foretelleth them of false Teachers.

BUt there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.

2 And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of.

3 And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandize of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not.

4 For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment;

5 And spared not the old world, but saved Noah the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly;

6 And turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrha into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, making them an ensample unto those that after should live ungodly;

7 And delivered just Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked:

8 (For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds:)

9 The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgement to be punished:

10 But chiefly them that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise government. Presumptuous are they, selfwilled, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities.

11 Whereas angels, which are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation against them before the LORD.

12 But these, as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not, and shall utterly perish in their own corruption.

13 And shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure to riot in the day time. Spots they are & blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceivings, while they feast with you:

14 Having eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; beguiling unstable souls: an heart they have exercised with covetous practices; cursed children:

15 Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness;

16 But was rebuked for his iniquity: the dumb ass speaking with mans voice, forbad the madness of the prophet.

17 These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest, to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever.

18 For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that were clean escaped from them who live in error.

19 While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage.

20 For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning.

21 For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them.

22 But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb, The dog is turned to his own vomit again, and the sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire.

CHAP. III.

Christs coming to judgment.

THis second epistle, (beloved) I now write unto you; in both which I stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance:

2 That ye may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and of the commandment of us the apostles of the Lord and Saviour:

3 Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts,

4 And saying, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.

5 For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of the water, and in the water:

6 Whereby the world then was, being overflowed with water, perished.

7 But the heavens and the earth which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.

8 But (beloved) be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the LORD as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.

9 The LORD is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is long-suffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

10 But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night, in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also, and the works that are therein, shall be burnt up.

11 Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness?

12 Looking for, and hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire, shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat?

13 Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for p new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

14 Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent, that ye may be q found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless.

15 And account that the long-suffering of our LORD is salvation, even as our beloved brother Paul also according to the wisdom given unto him, hath r written unto you;

16 As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things, in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction.

17 Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own stedfastness.

18 But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord, and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and for ever. Amen.

The first Epistle general of JOHN.

CHAP. I.

An exhortation to holiness of life.

1 That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, of the word of a life;

2 (For the life was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear witness, and b shew unto you that eternal life which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us;)

3 c That which we have seen and heard, declare we unto you, that ye also may have d fellowship with us: and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ.

4 And these things write we unto you, that your e joy may be full.

5 This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God is b light, and in him is no darkness at all.

6 If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in f darkness, we lie, and do not the truth:

7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.

8 If we say that we have g no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

9 If we m confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make him n a liar, and his word is not in us.

CHAP. II.

Christ our advocate.

1 My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye a sin not. And if any man sin, we have b an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous:

2 And he is the c propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.

3 And hereby we do know that we know him, if we d keep his commandments.

4 He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

5 But whoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God e perfected: hereby know we that we are in him.

6 He that saith he abideth in him, ought himself also so to walk, f even as he walked.

7 Brethren, I write no new commandment unto you, but an old commandment which ye had from the g beginning: the old commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning.

8 Again, a new commandment I write unto you, which thing is true in him and in you: because the darkness is past, and the true light now shineth.

9 He that saith he is in the light, and h hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now.

10 He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and there is none k occasion of stumbling in him.

11 But he that hateth his brother is in darkness, and walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes.

12 I write unto you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you m for his name's sake.

13 I write unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because ye have overcome the wicked one. I write unto you, g little children, because ye have known the Father.

14 I have written unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I have written unto you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God g abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one.

15 i Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world, the f lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

17 And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God, abideth for ever.

18 Little children, it is the last time: and as ye have heard that n Antichrist shall come, even now are there many Antichrists, whereby we know that it is the last time.

19 They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest, that they were not all of us.

20 But ye have an unction from the holy One, and ye know all things.

21 I have not written unto you because g ye know not the truth, but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth.

22 Who is n a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is Antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son.

27 Whosoever dwelleth the son, the same hath not the Father; but he that acknowledgeth the Son, hath the Father also.

28 Let that therefore d abide in you, which ye have heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning, shall remain in you, ye also shall continue e in the Son, and in the Father.

25 And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even f eternal life.

26 These things have I written unto you, g concerning them that seduce you.

27 But the anointing which ye have received of him, abideth in you: and h ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is true, and is no lye, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him.

28 And now, little children, abide in him, that when he shall i appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.

29 If ye know that he is righteous, ye know, that every one that doth righteousness, l is born of him.

CHAP. III.

Gods love in making us his sons.

BEhold a what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the Sons of God: therefore the world b knoweth us not, because it knew him not.

2 Beloved, now are we the Sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we c shall be: but we know, that when he shall appear, we shall be like him: for we shall see him d as he is.

3 And every man that hath this hope in him, e purifieth himself, even as he is pure.

4 Whosoever f committeth sin, transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law.

5 And ye know that he was manifested to take away our sins, and in him is g no sin.

6 Whosoever h abideth in him, sinneth not: whosoever sinneth, hath not seen him, neither known him.

7 Little children, let no man deceive you: he that doth righteousness, is righteous, i even as he is righteous.

8 He that committeth sin, is of the devil: for the devil sinneth from the beginning. k For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil.

9 Whosoever is born of God, doth not commit sin: for his l seed remaineth in him, and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.

10 In this are the children of God are manifest, & the children of them devil: whosoever doth not righteousness, is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother.

11 For this is the message that ye heard from the m beginning, that we should love one another.

12 Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? because his own works were n evil, and his brothers o righteous.

13 Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you.

14 We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren: he that loveth not his brother, abideth in death.

15 Whosoever hateth his brother, is a murtherer: and ye know that no murtherer hath eternal life abiding in him.

16 Hereby perceive we the love of God, because p he laid down his life for us: and we ought q to lay down our lives for the brethren.

17 But whoso hath this worlds good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?

18 My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue, but r in deed and in truth.

19 And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts s before him.

20 For if our heart t condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 Beloved, if our heart u condemn us not, then have we confidence towards God.

22 And whatsoever we b ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.

23 And this is his commandment, that we should believe on x the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, as he gave us commandment.

24 And he that keepeth his commandments a dwelleth in him, and he in him: and hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the spirit which he hath given us.

CHAP. IV.

He warneth them of the Catholick faith.

BEloved, a believe not every spirit, but b try the spirits, whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.

2 Hereby know ye the spirit of God: every spirit that c confesseth y Jesus Christ is come in the flesh, is of God.

3 And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ d is come in the flesh, is not of God: and this is that spirit of Antichrist, whereof you have heard that it should come, and even now already it is in the world.

4 Ye are of God, little children, & have e overcome them: because f greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world.

5 They are of the world, therefore speak they of the world, and the world heareth them.

6 We are of God: he that knoweth God heareth us: he that is not of God, heareth not us: hereby know we the spirit of truth, and g spirit of error.

7 Beloved, let us love one another: for love is i of God: & every one that loveth, is born of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loveth not, k knoweth not God; for God is love.

9 In this was manifested the love of God towards us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into l world, that l we might live through him.

10 Herein is love: m not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be a n propitiation for our sins.

11 Beloved, if God so loved us, n we m ought also to love one another.

12 No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is o perfected in us.

13 Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us p of his Spirit.

14 And we have seen and do testifie, that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the q world.

15 Whosoever shall r confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.

16 And we have known, and believed the the love that God hath to us, God is love, and he that dwelleth in love, dwelleth in God, and God in him.

17 Herein is our love made perfect, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment; because as he is, so are we in this world.

18 There is no a fear in love, but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love.

19 b We love him, because he first loved us.

20 If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar. For he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen?

21 And this commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God, love his brother also.

CHAP. V.

He that loveth God, loveth his children.

1 Pet. 1. 3. Ephes. 2. 10. b John. 13. 35. 1 John. 3. 14. c Mat. 11. 30. Rom. 7. 22. 1 Pet. 5. 9. 1 John 4. 4. 1 Cor. 15. 57. 1 John 3. 10. d John. 10. 34. Mat. 3. 16. e Mat. 3. 16. and 17. Mat. 28. 19.

WHosoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ, is born of God: and every one that loveth him that begat, loveth him also that is a begotten of him.

2 By this b we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and keep his commandments.

3 For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments, and his commandments are c not grievous.

4 For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even d our faith.

5 Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that e believeth that Jesus is the Son of God?

6 This is he that came e by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood: and it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth.

7 For there are three that bear record in heaven; the Father, the Word, and the holy Ghost: & these three are e one.

8 And there are three that bear witness in earth, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.

9 If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for this is the witness of God, which he hath testified of his Son.

10 He that f believeth on the Son of God, hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God, hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son.

11 And this is the record, that God hath g given to us eternal life: and this life is h in his Son.

12 He that hath the h Son, hath life: and he that hath not the Son of God, hath not life.

13 These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the i Son of God that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of i Son of God.

14 And this is the confidence that we have in him, k if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us.

15 And if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that l we have k petitions that we desired of him.

16 If any man see his brother sin a sin which is not unto death, he shall ask, and he shall give him life for them that sin not unto death. There is a sin unto death: I do not say that he shall pray for it.

17 All unrighteousness is sin, and there is a sin not unto death.

18 m We know that whosoever is born of God, sinneth not; but he that is begotten of God, n keepeth himself, & that wicked one toucheth him not.

19 And we know that we are of God, & the whole o world lieth in wickedness.

20 And we know that the Son of God p is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true: and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life.

21 Little children, keep yourselves from idols. Amen.

THe elder unto the elect Lady, and her children, whom I love in the truth: and not I only, but also all they that have known the truth:

2 For the truth's sake which a dwelleth in us, and shall be with us for ever:

3 Grace be with you, mercy, and peace from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ the Son of the Father, a in truth and love.

4 b I rejoyced greatly, that I found of thy children walking in truth, as we have received a commandment from the Father.

5 And now I beseech thee, Lady, not as though I wrote a new commandment unto thee, but that which we had from the beginning, that we c love one another.

6 And this is love, that we c walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, that as ye have heard from the beginning, ye should walk in it.

7 For many deceivers are entred into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver, and an antichrist.

8 Look to your selves, that we d lose not those things e we have wrought, but that we receive a full reward.

9 Whosoever f transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God: he that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son.

10 If there g come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed.

11 For he that biddeth him God speed, is h partaker of his evil deeds.

12 Having many things to write unto you, I would not write with paper and ink: but I trust to come unto you, and speak face to face, that your joy may be full.

¶ The third Epistle of JOHN.

He commendeth Gaius for hospitality.

THE elder unto the well beloved Gaius, whom I love in the truth.

2 Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.

3 For I rejoiced greatly when the brethren came and testified of the truth that is in thee, even as thou walkest in the truth.

4 I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth.

5 Beloved, thou doest faithfully whatsoever thou doest to the brethren, and to strangers;

6 Which have born witness of thy charity before the church: whom if thou bring forward on their journey after a godly sort, thou shalt do well:

7 Because that for his Names sake they went forth, taking nothing of the Gentiles.

8 We therefore ought to receive such, that we might be fellow-helpers to the truth.

9 I wrote unto the church, but Diotrephes, who loveth to have the preeminence among them, receiveth us not.

10 Wherefore if I come, I will remember his deeds which he doth, prating against us with malicious words: and not content therewith, neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and forbiddeth them it would, and casteth them out of the church.

11 Beloved, follow not that which is evil, but that which is good. He that doeth good, is of God: but he that doeth evil, hath not seen God.

12 Demetrius hath good report of all men, and of the truth it self: yea, and we also bear record, and ye know that our record is true.

13 I had many things to write, but I will not write and pen unto thee.

14 But I trust I shall shortly see thee, and we shall speak face to face. Peace be to thee. Our friends salute thee. Greet the friends by name.

¶ The general Epistle of JUDE.

He exhorteth to be constant in faith.

JUde the servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ, and called:

2 Mercy unto you, and peace, and love be multiplied.

3 Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you, that ye should earnestly contend for the faith, which was once delivered unto the saints.

4 For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ.

5 I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that the Lord having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed them that believed not.

6 And the angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day.

7 Even as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.

8 Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and speak evil of dignities.

9 Yet Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, The Lord rebuke thee.

10 But these speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves.

11 Woe unto them, for they have gone in the way of Cain, and ran greedily after the error of Balaam for reward, and perished in the gainsaying of Core.

12 These are spots in your feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: clouds they are without water, carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots;

13 Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever.

14 And Enoch also the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints, 15 To execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him.

16 These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts; and their mouth speaketh great swelling words, having men's persons in admiration because of advantage.

17 But, beloved, remember ye the words which were spoken before of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ:

18 How they told you there should be mockers in the last time, who should walk after their own ungodly lusts.

19 These be they who separate themselves, sensual, having not the Spirit.

20 But ye, beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Ghost, 21 Keep your selves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life.

22 And of some have compassion, making a difference:

23 And others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire, hating even the garment spotted by the flesh.

24 Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy,

25 To the only wise God our Saviour, be glory & majesty, dominion & power, both now & ever. Amen.

a Johns revelation: ¶ Christs coming.

THe revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him, to shew unto his a servants things which must shortly come to pass: and he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant John:

2 Who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, & of all things that he b saw.

3 Blessed is he that c readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things d are written therein: for the e time is at hand.

4 John to the seven Churches in Asia, Grace be unto you and peace, from f him which is, and which was, and which is to come, and from the seven spirits g are before his throne:

5 And from Jesus Christ who is the faithful witness, and the first begotten of h dead, and the i prince of the kings of the earth: unto him that loved us, and k washed us from our sins in his own blood,

6 And hath made us l kings and priests unto God and his Father: to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

7 Behold, m he cometh n clouds, and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him, and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him: even so. Amen.

8 I am o Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.

9 I John, who also am your brother, and p companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was in the isle that is called Patmos, for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ.

10 I was in the q spirit on the Lords day, and I heard behind me a great voyce, as of a trumpet, 11 Saying, I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last: and what thou seest, r write in a book, & send it unto the seven churches which are in Asia, unto Ephesus, and unto Smyrna, and unto Pergamos, and unto Thyatira, and unto Sardis, and unto Philadelphia, and unto Laodicea.

12 And I s turned to see the voice that spake with me. And being turned, I saw seven t golden candlesticks;

13 And in the q midst of the seven candlesticks one like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle.

14 His head & his hairs v were white like wool, as white as snow: and his eyes were as a flame of fire.

15 And his feet like unto x fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace: and his voice as the sound of many waters.

16 And he had in his right hand seven stars: & out of his y mouth went a sharp two-edged sword, and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength.

17 And when I saw him I fell at his feet as dead: and he laid his z right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not, I am the first and the last.

18 I am he that liveth, and was dead: and behold, I am alive for evermore: Amen: and have the a keys of hell and of death.

19 Write the things which thou hast seen, and the things which b are, and the things which c shall be hereafter;

20 The mystery of the seven stars d thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks: The seven stars are e angels of f seven churches: and the seven candlesticks which thou sawest, g are the seven churches.

What is to be written to the Angels of the Churches of Ephesus, &c.

UNto the angel of the church of Ephesus write, These things saith he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, who a walketh in b midst of the seven golden candlesticks:

2 I know thy works, and thy labour, & thy patience, and how thou canst b not bear them which are evil, & thou hast c tried them which say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars:

3 And hast born, and hast patience, and for my names sake hast laboured, and hast not d fainted.

4 Nevertheless, I have somwhat against thee, because thou hast e left thy first love.

5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, & f do thy first works, or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will g remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent.

6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of the h Nicolaitans, which I also hate.

7 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto i churches. To him that overcometh, will I give to k eat of l tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God.

8 And unto the angel of the church of m Smyrna, write, These things saith the first and the last, which was dead, and is alive;

9 I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, but thou art rich, and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan.

10 Fear none of those things n thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast m some of you into prison, o ye may be tried, and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, & p I will give thee a crown of life.

11 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto q churches. He that overcometh, shall not be hurt of the n second death.

12 And to the angel of the church m in Pergamos, Write, These things saith he, who hath the o sharp sword with two edges:

13 I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even where Satans p seat is, & thou q holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein Antipas was, my faithful martyr, who was slain among you where Satan dwelleth.

14 But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast r there them that hold s doctrine of t Balaam, who q taught Balac to cast a stumbling block before the children of Israel, to eat u things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication.

15 So hast thou x also them that hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitans, y which thing I hate.

16 Repent, or else I will come unto thee thee quickly, and I will fight against them with the u sword of my mouth.

17 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches. To him that overcometh, will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone x a new name written, which no man knoweth, saving he that receiveth it.

18 And unto the angel of the church in Thyatira, write, These things saith the Son of God, who hath his eyes like unto a flame of fire, and his feet are like fine brass;

19 I know thy works, and charity, and service, and faith, and thy patience, and thy works; and the x last to be more than the first.

20 Notwithstanding, I have a few things against thee, because thou a suffrest that woman Jezebel, which calleth her self a prophetess, to teach, and to seduce my servants to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols.

21 And I gave her c space to repent of her fornication, and she repented not.

22 Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her, into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds.

23 And I will kill her c children with death, and all the churches shall know that I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts: and I will give unto every one of you according to your works.

24 But unto you I say, and unto the rest in Thyatira, as many as have not this doctrine, and which have not known the depths of Satan, as they speak; I will put upon you none other burthen.

25 But that which ye have already, hold fast till I come.

26 And he that overcometh, and keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give b power over the nations:

27 (And he shall c rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers:) even as I received of my Father.

28 And I will give him the d morning star.

29 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

CHAP. III.

1 The angel of the church of Sardis is reproved. 10. Of Philadelphia approved.

AND unto the angel of the church in Sardis, write, These things saith he that hath the y seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and art dead.

2 Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.

3 Remember therefore how thou hast d received, and heard, and hold fast, and repent. If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.

4 Thou hast a few names, even in Sardis, which have not defiled their garments; and they shall walk with me in white: for they are worthy.

5 He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment, and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.

6 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

7 And unto the angel of the church in Philadelphia, write, These things saith he that is z holy, he that is true, he that hath y the key of David, he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth;

8 I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can b shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name.

9 Behold, I will make them of the e synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and f worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.

10 Because thou hast kept h the word of my patience, I also will i keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth.

11 Behold I come quickly: hold that fast which m thou hast, that no man take thy crown.

12 Him that overcometh, will I make n a pillar in the temple of my God, & he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him o my new name.

13 He that hath an ear, let him hear what y Spirit saith unto the churches.

14 And unto the angel of the p church of the Laodiceans, write, These things saith the q Amen, the faithful and true witness, the q beginning of the creation of God;

15 I know thy works, that thou art neither cold, nor hot: I would thou were cold or hot.

16 So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth.

17 Because thou q sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and x knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked.

18 I counsel thee to y buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eye-salve, that thou mayest see.

19 As many as I z love, I rebuke & chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent.

20 Behold, I stand at the door, and a knock: if any man hear my voice, & open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, & he with me.

21 To him that overcometh will I b grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne.

22 He that hath an ear, let him hear what y Spirit saith unto the churches.

CHAP. IV.

The elders about the throne worship God.

AFter this I looked, and behold, a a door was opened in heaven: & the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me, which said, b Come up hither, & I will shew thee things which must be hereafter.

2 And immediately I was in the Spirit: and behold, c a throne was set in heaven, and one sate on the throne.

3 And he that sate was to look upon like a jasper, and a sardine stone: and there was a rainbow round about the throne, in sight like unto an emerald.

4 And round about the throne were four and twenty seats: and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, cing clothed in white raiment, & they had on their heads crowns of gold.

5 And out of the throne proceeded lightnings, and thunderings, and voices: and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven spirits of God.

6 And before the throne there was a sea of glass like unto crystal: and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, were four beasts full of eyes before and behind.

7 And the first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like a calf, and the third beast had a face as a man, & y fourth beast was like a flying eagle.

8 And the four beasts had each of them b six wings about him, and they were full of eyes within, and they rest not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, LORD God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come.

9 And when those beasts c give glory & honor, and thanks to him that sate on the throne, who liveth for ever & ever,

10 The four and twenty elders fall down before him that sate on the throne, and worship him that liveth for ever and ever, and d cast their crowns before the throne, saying,

11 Thou art worthy, O LORD, to receive glory, and honor and power: for thou hast created all things, & for thy m pleasure they are & were created.

CHAP. V.

The book with seven seals.

AND I saw in the right hand of him that sate on the throne, a book written within, and on the back-side sealed with seven a seals.

2 And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, b who is worthy to open the book, & to loose the seals thereof?

3 And c no man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon.

4 And I d wept much because no man was found worthy to open, and to read the book, neither to look thereon.

5 And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not; behold, the lion of the tribe of Judah, the root of David, hath e prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof.

6 And I beheld, & lo, in the midst of the throne, & of the four beasts, & in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb as it had been slain, having g seven horns, and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth.

7 And he came and h took the book out of the right hand of him that sate upon the throne.

8 And when he had taken the book, the four beasts, and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them harps, and golden vials full of odours, which are the i prayers of saints.

9 And they sung k a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast l redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation,

10 And hast made us unto our God Kings and priests, and we shall reign on the earth.

11 And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many m angels round about the throne, and the beasts, & the elders, & the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, & thousands of thousands,

12 Saying n with a loud voice, worthy is the Lamb y was slain, o to receive power, and riches, & wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.

13 And every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I, saying, Blessing, honor, glory, and power, and be unto him y sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever & ever.

14 And the four beasts q said, Amen. And the four and twenty elders fell down and worshipped him that liveth for ever and ever.

CHAP. VI.

The opening of the seals in order.

AND I saw when the Lamb opened a one of the seals, and I heard as it were the noise of a thunder, one of the four beasts saying, Come, and see.

2 And I saw, & behold, b a white horse, & he that sate on him had a bowe, & a crown was given unto him, & he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

3 And when he had opened the second seal, I heard the second beast say, c Come, and see.

4 And there went out another horse that was red, and power was d given to him that sate thereon, e to take peace from the earth, and that they should d kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.

5 And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come, and see. And I beheld, and lo, a black horse, and he that sate on him had a e pair of balances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, f A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny, and see thou g hurt not the oyl and the wine.

7 And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come, and see.

8 And I looked, and behold, h a pale horse, and his name that sate on him was Death, and hell followed with him: and power was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth, to i kill with sword, and with hunger, & with death, and with the beasts of the earth.

9 And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under k the altar the souls of them were slain for the word of God, & for the testimony which they held.

10 And they cryed with a loud voice, saying, How long, O holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

11 And white robes were given unto every one of them, and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellow servants also, and their brethren that should be m killed as they were, should be n fulfilled.

12 And I beheld, when he had opened the sixth seal, and, lo, there was a great o earth-quake, and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood.

13 And the p stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig-tree casteth her untimely figs when she is shaken of a mighty wind.

14 And the heaven departed as a scrowl when it is rolled together, and every mountain and island were q moved out of their places.

15 And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, & the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free man, hid themselves in the dens, and in the rocks of the mountains,

A Nd after these things I saw four of the earth, holding the four a winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree.

2 And I saw another b angel ascending from the east, having c the seal of the living God: and he cryed with a loud voice to y four angels to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea, 3 Saying, Hurt not the earth, neither y sea, nor y trees, d till we have sealed y servants of our God in their foreheads.
4 And I heard the number e of them which were sealed: and there were sealed f an hundred forty and four thousand, of all the tribes of the children of Israel.
5 Of y tribe of Juda were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of God, were sealed twelve thousand.
6 Of the tribe of Aser were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of 8 Of the tribe of Zabulon were sealed the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelve thousand.

9 After this I beheld, and lo, i a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, & kindreds, & people, & tongues, stood before y throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, & palms in their hands:
10 And cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God, which sitteth upon the throne, & unto the k Lamb.
11 And all y angels stood round about the throne, & about the l elders, & the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God, 12 Saying, Amen: m Blessing, and glory and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honor, and power, and might be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen.
13 And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arayed in white robes? and whence came they?
14 And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which came out of great n tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them o white in the blood of the Lamb.
15 Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his p temple, & he that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them.
16 They shall q hunger no more, neither thirst any more, neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat.
17 For the Lamb, which is in the a scorpion, when he striketh a man.

6 And in those days shall men seek death, & shall not find it, & shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.
7 And the shapes of the locusts were like unto b horses prepared unto battel, and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, and their faces were as the c faces of men.
8 And they had hair as the d hair of women, and their e teeth were as the teeth of lions.
9 And they had m breast-plates as it were breast-plates of iron, and the sound of their wings was as the sound of chariots of many horses running to battel.
10 And they had tails like unto scorpions, and there were n stings in their tails; and their power was to hurt men five moneths.
11 And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is o Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon.
12 p One woe is past, and behold, there come two woes more hereafter.
13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from q the four q horns of the golden altar, which is before God,
14 saying to the sixth angel r which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels s are r bound in t the great river Euphrates.
15 And the four angels were t loosed, which were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a moneth, and a year, for to slay the third part of men.
16 And the number of the army of t horsemen were two hundred thousand thousand: & I heard the number of them.
17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sate on them, having breast-plates of fire, and of jasinct, and brimstone: and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions; & out of their mouths issued fire, and smoke, and brimstone.
18 By these three was the third part of men killed; by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths.
19 For their power is in their mouth, and in their tails: for their tails were like unto serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt.
20 And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues, yet u repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship devils, and idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood; w which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk:
21 Neither repented they of their murthers, nor of their x sorceries, nor of their y fornication, nor of their thefts.

CHAP. X.

An angel with an open book.

AND I saw another a mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud, and a rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as it were the sun, & his b feet as pillars of fire.
2 And he had in his hand a little book open: and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left upon the earth,
3 And cryed with a loud voice, as when a lion roareth: and when he had cryed, seven thunders uttered their voices.
4 And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write, and I heard a voice from heaven, saying unto me, c Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not.
5 And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea, and upon the earth, lifted up his hand to heaven,
6 And sware by him that liveth for ever and ever, who created heaven, and f things that therein are, & the earth, and the things that therein are, & the sea, and the things which are therein, that there should f be time no longer:
7 But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the f prophets.
8 And the voice which I heard from heaven, spake unto me again, and said, Go, and take the little book & is open in the hand of the angel & standeth upon the sea, and upon the earth.
9 And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me a little book. And he said unto me, Take it, and eat it up, & it shall make thy belly b bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey.
10 And I took the little book out of the angels hand, & ate it up, & it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.
11 And he said unto me, Thou must prophesie h again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings.

CHAP. XI.

The Prophesie and power of the two witnesses.

AND there was given me a a reed like unto a rod, and the angel stood, saying, Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.
2 But the court which is without the temple, leave out, and measure it not: for it is given unto the b Gentiles, and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two moneths.
3 And I will give power unto c my two witnesses, and they shall prophesie a thousand two hundred and threescore days clothed in sackcloth.
4 These are the two d olive-trees, and the two candlesticks, standing before the God of the earth.
5 And if any man will hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouth, & devoureth their enemies: and if any man will hurt them, he must in this manner be killed.
6 These have power to e shut heaven, that it rain not in the days of their prophecy: & have power over waters to turn them to blood: and to smite the earth with f all plagues, as often as they will.
7 And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast that ascendeth out of the g bottomless pit, shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them.
8 And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of h the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, i where also our Lord was crucified.
9 And they of the people and kindreds, and tongues, and nations, shall see their dead bodies three days and an half, and shall not suffer their k dead bodies to be put in graves.
10 And they that dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them, & make merry, and shall send gifts one to another: because these two prophets tormented them that dwelt on the earth.
11 And after three days and an half the Spirit of life from God entred into them, and they stood upon their feet, and great fear fell upon them which saw them.
12 And they heard a great voice from heaven, saying unto them, Come up hither. And they o ascended up to and their enemies beheld them.

13 And the ſ ſame hour was there a great earthquake, and the g tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were ſlain of men ſeven thouſand: and the remnant were affrighted, and gave glory to the God of heaven.

14 The ſecond woe is paſt; and behold, the t third woe cometh quickly.

15 And the ſeventh angel ſounded, and there were great voices in heaven, ſaying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Chriſt, and he ſhall reign for ever and ever.

16 And the ſ four and twenty elders ſate before God on their ſeats, fell upon their faces, and worſhipped God, 17 Saying, We give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, which are, and waſt, and art to come, becauſe thou haſt u taken to thee thy great power, and haſt reigned.

18 And the nations were x angry, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead, that they ſhould be judged, and that thou ſhouldeſt give reward unto thy ſervants the prophets, and to thy ſaints, and them that fear thy name, ſmall and great, and ſhouldeſt deſtroy them which y deſtroy the earth.

19 And the temple of God was z opened in heaven, & there was ſeen in his temple the ark of his teſtament, and there were lightnings, and voices, and thunderings, and an earthquake, and great hail.

CHAP. XII.

The dragon perſecuteth the woman.

AND there appeared a great wonder in heaven, a woman cloathed a with the ſun, and the moon b under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve ſtars:

2 And ſhe being c with child, cried, travailing in birth, & pained to be delivered.

3 And there appeared another wonder in heaven, and behold, a great red d dragon, having ſeven heads, and ten horns, & ſeven crowns upon his heads.

4 And his tail drew the third part of the ſtars of heaven, and did caſt them to the e earth. And the dragon f ſtood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as ſoon as it was born.

5 And ſhe brought forth a man-child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne.

6 And the woman g fled into the wilderneſs, where ſhe hath a place prepared of God, that they ſhould feed her there a thouſand two hundred and threeſcore days.

7 And there was h war in heaven, Michael and his angels fought againſt the dragon, and the dragon fought and his angels:

8 And i prevailed not, neither was their place found any more in heaven.

9 And the great dragon was caſt out, that old ſerpent, called the devil and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was caſt out into k the earth, & his angels were caſt out with him.

10 And I heard a loud voice, ſaying in heaven, Now is come ſalvation, and ſtrength, & the l kingdom of our God, & the power of his Chriſt: for the accuſer of our brethren is caſt down, which accuſed them before our God day & night.

11 And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their teſtimony; and they m loved not their lives unto the death.

12 Therefore rejoyce, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabiters of the earth, and of the ſea, for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, becauſe he knoweth n he hath but a ſhort time.

13 And when the dragon ſaw that he was caſt unto the earth, he o perſecuted the woman which brought forth the man-child.

14 And to the woman were p given two wings of a great eagle, that ſhe might fly into the wilderneſs, into her place, where ſhe is r nouriſhed for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the ſerpent.

15 And the ſerpent caſt out of his mouth ſ water as a flood, after the woman: that he might cauſe her to be carried away of the flood.

16 And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and ſwallowed up the flood which the dragon caſt out of his mouth.

17 And the dragon was u wroth with the woman, and went to make war with ſ x remnant of her ſeed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the teſtimony of Jeſus Chriſt.

CHAP. XIII.

The dragon giveth power to the beaſt.

AND I ſtood upon the ſand of the ſea, and ſaw a beaſt a riſe up out of the ſea, having ſeven heads and ten horns, & upon his horns ten crowns, & upon his heads the name of b blaſphemy.

2 And the beaſt which I ſaw was like unto a leopard, & his c feet were as the feet of a bear, & his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and d dragon gave him his e power, & his ſeat, and great authority.

3 And I ſaw one of his heads as it were wounded to death, and his deadly wound was healed: and f all the world wondered after the beaſt.

4 And they g worſhipped the dragon which gave power unto the beaſt, and they worſhipped the beaſt, ſaying, Who is like unto the beaſt? who is able to make war with him?

5 And there was given unto him a mouth ſpeaking great things, and blaſphemies; and h power was given unto him to continue forty & two months.

6 And he opened his mouth in blaſphemy i againſt God, to blaſpheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven.

7 And it was given unto him to make war with the ſaints, & to k overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, & tongues, & nations.

8 And all that dwell upon the earth ſhall worſhip him, whoſe l names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb ſlain from the foundation of the world.

9 If any man have an ear, let him hear.

10 He that leadeth into captivity, ſhall m go into captivity: he that killeth with the ſword, muſt be killed with the ſword. Here is the patience and the faith of the ſaints.

11 And I beheld another beaſt coming up out of the earth, & he had two horns like n a lamb, & he ſpake as a dragon.

12 And he exerciſeth o all the power of the firſt beaſt before him, and cauſeth the earth, and them which dwell therein, to worſhip the firſt beaſt, whoſe deadly wound was healed.

13 And he doth p great wonders, ſo that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the ſight of men,

14 And q deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of thoſe miracles, which he had power to do in the ſight of the beaſt, ſaying to them them that dwell on the earth, that they should make a an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live.

15 And he had power to give life unto b image c of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast, should be killed.

16 And he d caused all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive e a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads:

17 And that no man might buy or sell save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the f number of his name.

18 Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding, count the number of the beast: for it is the f number of a man, and his number is g six hundred threescore and six.

CHAP. XIV.

The safety of Sion.

A Nd I looked, and lo, a Lamb stood a on the x mount Sion, & with him an hundred forty and four thousand, having their Fathers name written in their foreheads.

2 And I heard a voice b from heaven, as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of harpers, harping with their harps:

3 And they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders. and no man could c learn that song, but the hundred & forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth.

4 These are they which were d not defiled with women, for they are virgins: these are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth: these were redeemed from among men, being e first-fruits unto God, and to the Lamb.

5 And in their mouth was found f no guile: for they are without fault before the throne of God.

6 And I saw another angel g flie in the midst of heaven, having g everlasting gospel, to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people,

7 Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the b hour of his judgment is come: & worship him that made heaven, and earth, & the sea, and the fountains of waters.

8 And there followed another angel, saying, i Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the k wine of the wrath of her fornication.

9 And the l third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand,

10 The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out m without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with n fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb:

11 And the o smoak of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: And they have p no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.

12 Here is q patience of the saints: here are they that keep r commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.

13 And I heard a voice from heaven, saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the which die in the LORD henceforth: yea, saith the Spirit, that they may s rest from their labours, and their works do follow them.

14 And I looked, and behold a white t cloud, and upon the cloud one sat like unto the Son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a u sharp sickle.

15 And another angel came out of the temple, x crying with a loud voice to him that sate on the cloud, Thrust in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest of the earth is ripe.

16 And he that sate on the cloud, x thrust in his sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

17 And another angel came out of the y temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle.

18 And another angel came out from z the altar, which had power over fire, and cryed with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, Thrust in thy sharp sickle, & a gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, for her grapes are fully ripe.

19 And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into b the great wine-press of the wrath of God.

20 And the c wine-press was troden without the city, and blood came out of the wine-press, even unto the horse bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

CHAP. XV.

The seven last plagues.

A Nd I saw another sign in heaven, great & marvellous, seven angels, having the seven a last plagues; for in them is filled up the wrath of God.

2 And I saw as it were a sea of glass b mingled with fire, & them that had gotten the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, c stand on the sea of glass, having the harps of God.

3 And they sing the song of d Moses the servant of God, & the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints.

4 Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy: for e all nations shall come & worship before thee; for thy judgments are made manifest.

5 And after that I looked, and behold, the temple of the tabernacle of f testimony in heaven was opened:

6 And the seven angels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, clothed in b pure and white linen, and having their breasts girded with golden girdles.

7 And one of the four beasts gave unto the seven angels seven golden g vials full of the wrath of God, who liveth for ever and ever.

8 And h temple was filled with smoak from the glory of God, and from his power; & no man was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.

CHAP. XVI.

The seven vials, the third of which is turned into blood.

A Nd I heard a great voice out of the temple, saying to the seven angels, a Go your ways, and pour out the vials of the wrath of God upon the earth.

2 And the first went, and poured out

CHAP. XVIII.

1 Babylon fallen: 4 Gods people commanded to leave her.

AND after these things I saw another angel come down from hea-van, having great power; and the earth was a lightened with his glory.

2 And he cryed mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become b the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

3 For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, & the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the c merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies.

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, d Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, & that ye receive not of her plagues.

5 For her sins have e reached unto heaven, and God hath remembred her iniquities.

6 f Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double, according to her works: in the cup she hath filled, fill to her double.

7 How much she hath g glorified her self, & lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famin, and she shall be utterly burnt with fire: for i strong is the LORD God who judgeth her.

9 And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication, and lived deliciously with her, shall k bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the l smoak of her burning:

10 Standing m afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas! that great city Babylon, that mighty city: for in one hour is thy judgment come.

11 And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her, for no man buyeth their n merchandize any more:

12 The merchandize o of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, & purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all thyne wood, and all manner vessels of ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble,

13 And cinamon, and odours, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oyl, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and slaves, and p souls of men.

14 And q fruits that thy q soul lusted after, are departed from thee, and all things which were dainty and goodly, are departed from thee, and thou shalt find them r no more at all.

15 The merchants of these things which were made rich by her, shall stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing,

16 And saying, Alas, alas! that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked s with gold, and precious stones, and pearls:

17 For in one hour so great riches is come to nought. And every ship-master, and all the company in ships, and sailers, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off, 18 And cryed, when they saw the t smoke of her burning, saying, What u city is like unto this great city?

19 And they x cast dust on their heads, and cryed, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas! that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea, by reason of her costliness: for in one hour is she made desolate.

20 y Rejoyce over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets: for God hath avenged you on her.

21 And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall z be found no more at all.

22 And the voice of a harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, & trumpeters, shall be heard no more at all in thee: & no cratts-man, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee: & the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more at all in thee.

23 And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee: and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy b merchants were the great men of the earth: for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived.

24 And in her was d found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and e of all that were slain upon the earth.

CHAP. XIX.

God is praised for judging the whore, and avenging the blood of his saints.

AND after these things I heard a a great voice of much people b in heaven, saying, Alleluia: salvation, and glory, and honor, and power unto the LORD our God:

2 For b true & righteous are his judgments; for he hath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, & hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand.

3 And again they said, Alleluia: c & her smoke rose up for ever & ever.

4 And the d four and twenty elders, and the four beasts fell down and worshipped God that sate on the throne, saying, Amen, Alleluia.

5 And a voice came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, e all ye f his servants, and ye that fear him, both small and great.

6 And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, & as the voice of many waters, & as g voice of mighty thundrings, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent f reigneth.

7 Let us be glad and rejoyce, and give honour to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and g his wife hath made her self ready.

8 And to her was granted, that she should be arayed in h fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the i righteousness of saints.

9 And he saith unto me, Write k Blessed are they which are l called unto the marriage-supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, These are the true sayings of God.

10 And I fell at his feet to m worship him: and he said unto me, See n thou do it not: I am thy fellow-servant, and of thy brethren, that have the testimony of Jesus: worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.

11 And I saw, heaven opened, and o behold a white horse: and he that sate upon him was called faithful and true, and p in righteousness he doth judge and make war.

12 His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were q many crowns; and he had a name written that no man knew but he himself.

13 And he was clothed with a vesture

12 And had p a wall great and high, and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel.

13 On the q east three gates, on the north three gates, on the south three gates, and on the west three gates.

14 And the wall of y city r had twelve foundations, and in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

15 And he that talked with me had s a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

16 And the city lieth t foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, ‡ twelve thousand furlongs: the length, and the breadth, and the height of it are equal.

17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel.

18 And the building of the wall of it was of jasper, and the city u was pure gold, like unto clear glass.

19 And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner x of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper, the second saphir, the third a chalcedony, the fourth an emerald, 20 The fifth sardonix, the sixth sardius, the seventh chrysolite, the eighth beryl, the ninth a topaz, the tenth a chrysoprasus, the eleventh a jacinct, the twelfth an amethyst.

21 And the twelve gates were twelve y pearls, every several gate was of one pearl, and the z street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass.

22 And I saw a no temple therein: for the LORD God Almighty, and the Lamb are the temple of it.

23 And the city had b no need of the sun, neither of the moon to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

24 And the nations of them which are c saved, shall walk in the light of it: and the d kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it.

25 And the gates of it shall e not be shut at all by day: for there shall be no night there.

26 And they shall bring the f glory and honour of the nations into it.

27 And there shall in no wise enter g into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lambs book of life.

CHAP. XXII.

The water and tree of life.

AND he shewed me a pure a river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God, and of the Lamb.

2 In the midst of the street of it, and of either side of the river, was there the b tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every moneth: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

3 And there shall be c no more curse, but the throne of God, and of the Lamb shall be in it, and his servants shall serve him.

4 And they shall d see his face, and his Name shall be in their foreheads.

5 And there shall be no night there, and they need no candle, neither light of the sun, for the LORD God giveth them light, and e they shall reign for ever and ever.

6 And he said unto me, These sayings are faithful and true. And the LORD God of f holy prophets sent his angel to shew unto his servants the things g must shortly be done.

7 Behold, g I come quickly: Blessed is he that keepeth the sayings of the prophecy of this book.

8 And I John f saw these things, and heard them. And when I had heard & seen, g I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel, which shewed me these things.

9 Then saith he unto me, See thou do it not: for I am thy fellow-servant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them which keep the sayings of this book: worship God.

10 And he saith unto me, b Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: for the time is at hand.

11 He that is unjust, f let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he h is holy, let him be holy still.

12 And behold, I come quickly, and k my reward is with me, to give every man according as his works shall be.

13 ‖ I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the l first and the last.

14 Blessed are they that m do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and n may enter in through the gates into the city.

15 For o without are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie.

16 I Jesus have sent mine angel to testifie p unto you these things in the churches. I am the q root, and the offspring of David, and the bright and morning Star.

17 And the Spirit and the Bride say, r Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that h is athirst, Come. And whosoever f will, let him take the water of life freely.

18 For I testifie unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall s add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book.

19 And if any man shall u take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his x part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book.

20 He which testifieth these things, saith, Surely I come quickly. Amen. Even so, y Come, Lord Jesus.

21 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.
